

Turner, Bishop of Chichester, is seised in right of his see of the messuages, hereditaments, and premises, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, subject nevertheless to the subsisting leases thereof.

"And whereas one of the purposes of the said Acts is to provide a fund for making better provision for the cure of souls; and we are of opinion that it would ultimately conduce to the improvement of the said fund, that the said messuages, hereditaments, and premises, should be transferred from the said see of Chester to us, and that an annual money payment to the said Ashhurst Turner, Bishop of Chichester, and to his successors, should forthwith be substituted for the same.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the said Ashhurst Turner, Bishop of Chichester, testified by his having signed this scheme and sealed the same with his corporate seal, that without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and after the day of such gazetting, the messuages, hereditaments, and premises so described and referred to in the said schedule hereunto annexed, and all the estate, right, title, and interest therein of the said Ashhurst Turner, Bishop of Chichester, and of his successors, Bishops of Chichester, shall be and become transferred and conveyed from the said bishop and his successors, Bishops of Chichester, to us, and shall then and thereupon become and be, for the purposes of the said Acts, absolutely vested in us, subject only to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof, as from the twenty-fifth day of December last past:

"And we further recommend and propose, that in consideration of and for such conveyance and transfer, and in substitution for the said messuages, hereditaments, and premises, there shall be paid by us to the said Ashhurst Turner, Bishop of Chichester, and to his successors, Bishops of Chichester, the annual sum of eight hundred and twenty seven pounds, by equal half-yearly payments; and that the first of such payments shall be considered to have accrued due on the twenty-fifth day of June now last past, and that the next of such payments shall be made on the twenty-fifth day of December now next ensuing.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

SCHEDULE.

All those messuages or tenements and buildings with the ground and soil thereof or belonging thereto, situate and being in Chancery-lane, Symond's-inn, Bream's-buildings, White's-alley (otherwise Church-passage), Chichester-rents, and in some other adjacent places in the city of London, and in the county of Middlesex, and in the liberty of the Rolls, or in some or one of them, which several messuages, tenements, buildings, and hereditaments, form part of the estates belonging to the Bishop of Chichester, in right of his see, and are particularly mentioned and referred to in an Act of the tenth year of his late Majesty King George the Fourth, "for enabling the Lord Bishop of Chichester to grant building leases of certain estates belonging to the said see."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chichester.
