FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1854.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 13th day of September, 1854,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by Her Majesty in Council, that His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury do prepare a Form of Prayer and Thanksgiving to Almighty God for the present abundant Harvest; and that such Form of Prayer and thanksgiving be used in all churches and chapels in England and Wales, and in the town of Berwick-on-Tweed, on Sunday the first day of October next.

And it is hereby further ordered, that Her Majesty's Printer do forthwith print a competent number of copies of the said Form of Prayer and Thanksgiving, in order that the same may be forthwith sent round and read in the several churches and chapels of England and Wales, and of the town of Berwick-on-Tweed.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 13th day of September, 1854,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the ninth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the

"further amendment of the Church Building Acts," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fifteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, in the words following; viz:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parishes of Meifod, Llanfihangel-y-n-Gwynfa, and Llangyniew, in the county of Montgomery, and in the diocese of Saint Asaph, it appears to them to be expedient to unite and consolidate certain contiguous portions of the said parishes, and to form the same into one consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes for the consecrated church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate at Pont Robert, in the said parish of Meifod, under and by virtue of the power or authority contained in the ninth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts,' and that such proposed consolidated chapelry should be called or named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Pont Robert,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:—

"Commencing at the influx of the Henfelin Brook into the River Mechan, at the point marked A on the map hereto annexed, and proceeding in a northwardly direction up the middle of that brook to one of its sources at Ffynnon Dorogan, on the township road leading from Pont Robert by Garthfach to Meifod; and thence along the middle of the said road, north-eastwardly, to its junction with the road from Llanfihangel to Meifod; and thence along the middle of that road, north-westwardly, to the Four Crosses, near Rhospenbwa; thence along the middle of the road, from Pont Robert to Llanfyllin, north-eastwardly, to the Brogan Brook, and along the middle of that brook to the influx of the Creignant Brook into it, near Cwmnantymeichiaid House; and thence north-westwardly, along the middle of the said last-mentioned brook, to the boundary of the parish of Meifod, near Llwybrygath, at the point marked B and C on the said map; then proceeding from such point on Creignant Brook, marked C, along the boundary of the said parish of Meifod and the boundary of the township of Llaethbwlech, north-eastwardly, as far as the parish of Llanfillin; then westwardly and south-westwardly, along the boundary of the township of Llaethbwlech to, and then along the middle of the road from, Penllys to
