

3. The duplicates of the petitions and schedules, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced by the Clerks or Assistant Clerks of the said County Courts, for inspection and examination, at the Offices of the said County Courts respectively, at the Towns aforesaid, and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided according to sec. 106 of the Act.

In re Charles Mott.

THE creditors of Charles Mott, formerly a Contractor for the Maintenance of the Poor, subsequently Assistant Poor Law Commissioner, and since Auditor for the South Lancashire and Cheshire District Poor Law Union, an insolvent debtor, who was, on or about the 8th day of March, 1847, discharged from the Gaol of Lancaster Castle, in the county of Lancaster, and now deceased, are requested to meet the assignee of the estate and effects of the said Charles Mott, at the office of Messrs. Hill and Mathews, Bury-court, St. Mary Axe, in the city of London, on the 14th day of November, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon precisely, in order to sanction and authorise the said assignee holding and retaining the life interest of one James Abraham Richmond in all that messuage or tenement, situate and being No. 1, in the Commercial-road, in the county of Middlesex, and to let, manage, and keep in repair the said premises, as from time to time shall be requisite, and for enforcing payment of the rent of the said premises from time to time in arrear, by distress or otherwise; also in holding and retaining the Life Interest of the said James Abraham Richmond in the one-fifth part or share of the residuary real and personal estate of the late Cracherode Whiffing, deceased, and which said life interests, by indenture of mortgage, dated the 13th day of March, 1839, were mortgaged to the said Charles Mott, to secure the payment of certain monies therein mentioned, and to confirm and sanction the proceedings of the said assignee in laying a distringas on the funds standing in the books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, for the purpose of paying such one-fifth share on the death of the said James Abraham Richmond, and for prosecuting or defending any proceedings for enforcing or maintaining such distringas, or for securing the payment of the interest or dividends of the said one-fifth part or share of the residuary real and personal estate of the said Cracherode Whiffing, deceased, to which the said James Abraham Richmond is entitled to for his life, and also to institute such proceedings in equity or otherwise, for the purpose of obtaining the appointment of one or more trustee or trustees, in the room or place of the deceased trustees, and to concur or join in any petition for such appointment, and in any conveyance or other assurance to vest the funds in such new trustee or trustees, jointly or otherwise, with the surviving or continuing trustee, or to appear to or defend the proceedings of any cestui que trust, or other party or parties entitled to the corpus of the said funds on the death of the said James Abraham Richmond, in equity or otherwise, in relation to the said trust for maintaining or defending the rights and interests of the said assignee, in any court of equity, of and in such one-fifth share of the life interest of the said James Abraham Richmond as the said assignee may be advised; and also to sanction and authorise the said assignee holding and retaining a certain policy of assurance, dated the 4th day of November, 1837, effected by the said Charles Mott upon the life of the said James Abraham Richmond for the sum of £2000, in the Monarch Life Assurance Company, and the past and future payments of the annual premium of £63 5s. out of the aforesaid life interest, and to keep the same on foot until the said policy shall become a claim; all which property was recovered by the said assignee, in consequence of and through instituting certain proceedings in the Court of Chancery, under certain resolutions passed at a meeting of creditors for that purpose convened, and confirmed by an order of the Court of Insolvent Debtors, dated the 15th day of November, 1847.

All Letters must be Post-paid.

Published by THOMAS LAWRENCE BEHAN, Editor, Manager, and Publisher, of No. 7, Suffolk Place, Haymarket, at No. 45, St. Martin's Lane, both in the Parish of St. Martin-in-the-Fields, in the County of Middlesex.

Printed by THOMAS RICHARD HARRISON and THOMAS HARRISON, Printers, at their Office, No. 45, St. Martin's Lane, in the Parish and County aforesaid.

Friday, October 27, 1854.

Price One Shilling.