By Authority of Parliament,

HENRY BICKNELL,

Clerk of the Grocers' Company,

Grocers'-Hall, November 3, 1854.

Stroud Union.—Stroud Parish.

To the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the parish of Stroud, in the county of Gloucester;—

To the Clerk or Clerks to the Justices of the Petty Sessions held for the division or divisions in which the said parish is situate;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS the population of the parish of Stroud, in the county of Gloucester, according to the last census, exceeds two thousand persons:

And whereas, at a meeting of the Vestry of the said parish, held in the Vestry-room, after public notice in that behalf, on Thursday the seventeenth day of August last, it was resolved,—

“That the Poor Law Board be requested to “issue an order, under their seal of office,
“directing that the Act passed on the 5th
“August, 1850 (13th and 14th Vict., cap. 57), “entitled ‘An Act to prevent the holding of “vestry or other meetings in churches, and
“for regulating the appointment of vestry “clerks,’ shall be applied to and put in “force within this parish as regards that “portion of the said Act which relates to the “appointment of a Vestry Clerk.”

And whereas the Churchwardens and Overseers of the said parish have made their application in writing to the Poor Law Board, pursuant to the above resolution.

Now, therefore, we, the said Poor Law Board, under the authority of the several Statutes in that behalf made and provided, do hereby order and direct :—

ART. 1. That so much of the said Act passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, as relates to the appointment of a Vestry Clerk, shall forthwith be applied to, and be put in force within, the said parish of Stroud.

ART. 2. That a copy of this order shall be published in the London Gazette.

ART. 3. That a salary at and after the rate of twenty pounds a year shall be paid to the Vestry Clerk for the time being, appointed under the authority of the statutes in such behalf and this order, by the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the said parish.

And we do order and direct, that the salary of such Vestry Clerk shall be payable up to the day on which he ceases to hold such office, and no longer, and shall be paid by quarterly payments at the several quarters ending at the usual Feast-days in the year, namely, Christmas-day, Lady-day, Midsummer-day, and Michaelmas-day, with a proportionate sum to be paid to his executors or administrators in case he shall die while holding such office.

Given under our hand and seal of office, this twenty-fifth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.

M. T. Baines, President.

Courtenay, Secretary.

Spalding, Bourn, and Stamford Junction Railway, and Spalding Waterworks Company.

(Incorporation of Company for constructing a Railway from Essendine, in the county of Rutland, to Spalding, in the county of Lincoln, and for constructing Waterworks for supplying Spalding with water from the Bourn Eau and the River Glen; Powers to use Stations of the Great Northern Railway at Essendine and Spalding, and lines approaching thereto.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for an Act to incorporate a Company for the purpose of making and maintaining the railway and other works hereinafter mentioned, or some part or parts thereof; that is to say, a railway with all proper works, stations, and conveniences connected therewith, commencing in the parish of Essendine, in the county of Rutland, by a junction with the Great Northern Railway, at or near the south side of the Essendine station on the said last-named railway, and terminating at Spalding, in the county of Lincoln, by a junction with the Great Northern Railway, at or near a public road called Winsover-road, immediately southward of the Spalding station of the said last-named railway; which said intended railway and works will be made in, or pass through or into, the several parishes, townships, or extra parochial or other places of Essendine, in the county of Rutland, and Carlby, Braceborough, Greatford, Wilsthorpe, Manthorpe, Witham on the Hill, Obthorpe, Northorpe, Thurlby, Bourn, and Deeping Fen otherwise Deeping Saint Nicholas, in the parts of Kesteven, in the county of Lincoln; and Deeping Fen otherwise Deeping Saint Nicholas, Pinchbeck, and Spalding, in the parts of Holland, in the said county of Lincoln, or some or one of them.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to empower the Company to be thereby incorporated, or any other company or person lawfully using the said intended railway, to use with their own engines and carriages, or with the engines and carriages of such other company or person using or passing over the said intended railway, the stations, watering-places, water, and conveniences of the Great Northern Railway Company at Essendine and Spalding aforesaid, and also to use and pass over with engines and carriages as aforesaid, so much of the railway of the Great Northern Railway Company, as may be necessary for the use, by the said intended company, or such other company or person as aforesaid, of the said stations, or either of them; and to fix and determine the amount of rate, toll, or charge which shall be paid by the said intended or such other company or person as aforesaid, for the use by them of the before-mentioned stations, railways, works and conveniences, or any of them, and also if needs be, to alter and limit the tolls, rates, and charges now authorised to be levied and demanded by the Great Northern Railway Company in respect thereof.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is proposed by the said intended Act to take power to supply the inhabitants of Spalding aforesaid with water; and for the purpose of affording such supply of water as aforesaid, to make and maintain the works following, or some of them; that is to say:—

First. An aqueduct or main pipe, from and out of the Bourn Eau, at, near, or adjoining to a certain place called "Tongue End," in the parish of Bourn aforesaid, and to pass from, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial and other places of Bourn, Deeping Fen, otherwise Deeping Saint Nicholas, Pinchbeck, and Spalding aforesaid, or some of them, and to terminate in the said parish of Spalding, at or near, and on the south side of the station of the Great Northern Railway Company at Spalding aforesaid; and also a branch aqueduct or pipe, from and out of the River Glen, at, near, or adjoining to a certain field belonging to, or reputed to belong to, — Adeane, Esquire, and in the occupation of Andrew Aitkin and Thomas Aitkin, or one of them, situate near to Tongue End aforesaid, and lying and being in the said extra-parochial place called Deeping Fen, otherwise Deeping Saint Nicholas aforesaid, to communicate with the said aqueduct or main pipe, at or near, or adjoining to, the said last-mentioned field; the whole of which branch aqueduct or pipe will be situate in the extra-parochial place of Deeping Fen, otherwise Deeping Saint Nicholas aforesaid.—

Secondly. A reservoir or reservoirs, filtering beds, tanks, approaches, and conveniences, in, near, or adjoining the aforesaid field in the said extra-parochial place called Deeping Fen, otherwise Deeping Saint Nicholas; and a reservoir or reservoirs, filtering beds, tanks, approaches, and conveniences, at or near the termination of the said intended aqueduct or main pipe at Spalding aforesaid.—

Thirdly. All necessary cuttings, embankments, funnels, watercourses, sluices, communications, mains, pipes, engines, machinery, buildings, roads, ways, and other works that may be required in connection with the proposed works, or any of them, all which proposed works, mains, pipes, and conveniences are intended to be made and maintained from, in, through, or into the said several before-mentioned parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places or some of them or some part or parts thereof.

And it is further proposed by the said intended Act to take powers to divert, take, collect, and use for the purposes aforesaid, water from the Bourn Eau, and also from the River Glen, and also water from all rivers, brooks, streams, and springs flowing into the same or upon the line of the proposed works, and which water, or some part thereof, at present flows, or proceeds to, or into certain cuts or watercourses branching therefrom, into a certain river or navigation called or known as the River Welland; and also to enable the said Company to construct, lay down, keep, and maintain mains, pipes, syphons, ducts, watercourses, and other apparatus and works for effecting the purposes aforesaid, to, under, and along the said intended railway, and any of the streets, lanes, ways, turnpike or other roads, thoroughfares, passages, railways, canals, watercourses, bridges, and other places, or any open or inclosed lands within the said several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial and other places before-mentioned, or any of them.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act, to take powers to sell or lease the said waterworks when completed, with all their appurtenances, to any person or persons, or bodies politic or corporate, willing to purchase or lease the same, and to enter into contracts for watering the streets of the said town, and for supplying public or private baths and wash-houses, manufactories, railways, and buildings with water in bulk or otherwise, and also to render it compulsory on the said intended Company, within a period to be limited by the said intended Act, to sell and dispose of the said waterworks to the Improvement Commissioners of Spalding.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act, to take power to levy tolls, rates, rents, and duties, for the use of the said intended railway and waterworks, and to grant exemptions from such tolls; rates, rents, and duties, and also to raise money on the credit of the said tolls, rates, rents, and duties, or otherwise, for the purposes of the said intended Act; and also to take powers to purchase, compulsorily or otherwise, the land, houses, waters, springs, works, and other property which may be required for the construction of the said railway, waterworks, and other works, or otherwise, for the purposes of the said intended Act; and to vary or extinguish all existing rights or privileges which would interfere with the purposes aforesaid, or any of them.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act, to take power to break up, alter, divert, or stop up, either permanently or temporarily, all such banks, turnpike or other roads, ways, bridges, drains, streams, rivers, and watercourses, within the before-mentioned parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places, or any of them, as it may be necessary to alter, divert, or stop up for the purposes of the said intended railway and waterworks or otherwise, for effecting the objects of the said intended Act.

And notice is hereby further given, that maps, plans, and sections, showing the line, situation, and levels of the said intended railway, waterworks, and other works, and the lands, houses, and other property to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with a book of reference to such plans, and also a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette, will, on or before the 30th day of November next, be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the parts of Holland, in the county of Lincoln, at his office in Spalding aforesaid; with the Clerk of the Peace for the parts of Kesteven, in the said county of Lincoln, at his office at New Sleaford, in the said county; and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Rutland, at his office in Oakham, in the said county of Rutland; and that, on or before the same day a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference respectively, as relate to each parish in or through which the said railway, waterworks, and other works are intended to be made and maintained, and also a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection with the parish clerk of each such parish, at his place of abode, and in the case of each extra-parochial place with the parish clerk of some parish immediately adjoining thereto; and that on or before the 31st day of December, 1854, printed copies of the said intended Bill will be deposited at the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this second day of October, 1854.

Alford and Boston Road.

(Continuation of Term; Repeal or Amendment of Act.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to continue and extend the term, and to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the 8th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the 4th, intituled "An Act for repairing the road from Alford to Boston, and from thence to Cowbridge, in the township of Frithville, in the county of Lincoln," or to repeal the said Act, and to grant other and more effectual powers and provisions in lieu thereof.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is intended to apply for powers to levy and collect tolls or rates upon the said road, and to alter the existing tolls or rates, and to confirm, vary, or extinguish exemptions from payment of tolls or rates, and to confirm, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges.

And it is intended by the said Act to make provisions with respect to the existing or unclaimed debts, and with respect to the liquidation or extinguishment of any arrears of interest thereon, and of other charges and liabilities on the said road, and to such other matters as Parliament shall deem proper or necessary.

And notice is hereby also given, that printed copies of the proposed Act will be deposited on or before the 31st day of December next, in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 14th day of October, 1854.

Madras Railway Company.

(Establishment of Share Register in the East Indies; Regulations relating to Shares and Securities issued and transferred there; and Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is intended to apply to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for the purpose of enabling the Madras Railway Company to establish at Madras, in the East Indies, one or more registers of shares, stock, debentures, and other securities, and to make such other arrangements as may be deemed necessary or convenient for the issue and transfer of shares, stock, debentures, and securities, and to make such orders, regulations, and arrangements for the issue of share certificates and for the issue, registration, transfer, and dealings, with such shares, stock, debentures, and securities at Madras aforesaid as may be thought expedient, and to exempt the shares, stock, debentures, and securities so issued and transferred in the East Indies from the laws applicable to shares, stock, debentures, and securities issued, transferred, and held in England, and to empower and enable the board of directors to delegate to the agent or representative of the said Company in the East Indies, for the time being, or to a committee or other authority, all or any of the powers and authorities conferred by the deed of settlement and Acts of Parliament of the Company in regard to the issue, registration, transfer, and dealings with shares, stock, debentures, and securities. And it is also intended by the said Bill to apply for further and additional powers for facilitating the raising of the capital of the said Company, and for better regulating the affairs and business, and for better effecting the objects of the said Company. And for the purpose of effecting the objects aforesaid it is intended by the said Bill to alter and amend or repeal the powers and provisions, or some of the powers and provisions, of an Act passed in the session held in the 16th and 17th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for incorporating the Madras Railway Company, and for other purposes connected therewith," and also of an Act passed in the session held in the 17th and 18th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, in-tituled "An Act to amend an Act, intituled 'An Act for incorporating the Madras Railway Company, and for other purposes connected therewith,' and also to alter, amend, or repeal, the powers and provisions of the deed of settlement of the said Company." And notice is hereby further given, that printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited on or before the 31st day of December next, at the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 25th day of October, 1854.

Brighton Improvement Commissioners and Municipal Corporation.
(Transfer to Municipal Corporation of powers and property of the Brighton Town Commissioners Improvement Act, 6th George 4th, chapter 179; and Pavilion Act, 13th Victoria, chapter 5).

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to transfer to the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses of the town of Brighton, the powers, rights, authorities, jurisdiction, and privileges, and the Pavilion, town-hall, markets, prisons, and other buildings, lands, hereditaments, goods, chattels, monies, property, and effects of the Commissioners acting under an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the better regulating, paving, improving, and managing the town of Brighthelmston, in the county of Sussex, and the poor thereof;" and the (local and personal) Act, thirteenth Victoria, chapter 5, relating to the Royal Pavilion, at Brighton; and to subject the said mayor, aldermen, and burgesses to the duties, debts, and liabilities, or some of the duties, debts, and liabilities of the said Commissioners.

And it is also intended by the said Bill to empower the said mayor, aldermen, and burgesses to exercise and enjoy the powers, rights, privileges, jurisdiction, and authorities, so vested in them; and to carry into execution the objects and provisions of the Acts before-mentioned, or some of them, to continue or alter the rates, tolls, dues, and duties by those Acts authorized to be levied; to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment thereof; and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges, as by the said Acts or either of them are or is authorized.

No. 21617.

And notice is hereby further given, that Printed Copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 30th day of December next.

Dated this 27th day of October, 1854.

Charles Cobby, Solicitor for the Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, in terms of the Act 7 Wm. IV. and 1 Vic. cap. 73, sec. 32, that a petition has been presented to Her Majesty, praying for the grant of a Charter of Incorporation for a Company to be called "The Salopian Royal Society for improving the condition of the Industrial Classes," by the erection of public baths and washhouses, model cottages and lodging houses, and thereby to assist in promoting the social and moral, as well as the physical and sanitary condition of the poorer classes; and that the said petition has been referred by Her Majesty in Council to the Committee of Privy Council for trade and plantations.—Dated this 31st day of October, 1854.

George Gordon, Solicitor to the Petitioners, Shrewsbury.
