

King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division, and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division in quarter sessions, or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the divisions of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place;

And whereas the justices of the peace for the county of Suffolk, in quarter sessions assembled, have presented a petition to Her Majesty in council, representing that the number of polling places for the western division of the said county is insufficient, and praying that the town of Sudbury may be a polling place for the said western division, within which such town is situate;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to declare, order, and direct that the town of Sudbury shall be a polling place for the western division of the county of Suffolk; and that the justices of the peace for the said county, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the said Act passed in the third year of His late Majesty's reign, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such western division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of November, 1854,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or divisions, is insufficient, and praying that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division, of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division, and that the justices of the peace for such county riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions, or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the divisions of counties and the limits of cities and boroughs in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division, into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place;

And whereas the justices of the peace for the parts of Lindsey, in the county of Lincoln, in quarter sessions assembled, have presented two petitions to Her Majesty in Council, representing that the number of polling places for such parts is insufficient, and praying that the towns of Kirton-in-Lindsey and Wainfleet All Saints may be polling places for the said parts of Lindsey, within which such towns are situate;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petitions into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to declare, order, and direct that the said towns of Kirton-in-Lindsey and Wainfleet All Saints shall be polling places for the parts of Lindsey, in the county of Lincoln; and that the justices of the peace for the said parts, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the said Act, passed in the third year of His late Majesty's reign, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such parts into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of November, 1854,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the tenth year of Her Majesty, "for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in England," it is, among other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the said Act be put in force in such county or counties as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, shall seem fit, and to divide the whole or part of any such county (including all counties of cities and counties of towns, cities, boroughs, towns, ports, and places, liberties, and franchises therein contained or thereunto adjoining), into districts, and to order that the County Court shall be holden for the recovery of debts and demands under the said Act, in each of such districts, and from time to time to alter such districts as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, shall seem fit, and from time to time to declare by what name, and in what towns and places, the County Court shall be holden in each district:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased by an Order in Council of the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, to order that the said Act be put in force in the counties and places therein specified, of which the county of Yorkshire was one, and the town of Boston was named as a place for holding one of the courts of
