AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of December, 1854,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," and of the twelfth section of an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the first and second years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual the Church Building Acts," and of the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes," and under and by virtue of any other power vested in them under the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the seventh day of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, in the words following; viz:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the district parish of Saint George, Leicester, in the diocese of Peterborough, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint John, situate in the district parish of Saint George Leicester, under the powers contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' and in the twelfth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the first and second years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual the Church Building Acts,' and in the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of

'Queen Anne, and for other purposes,' and under and by virtue of any other power vested in them under the Church Building Acts, and that such proposed district should be named or called 'The District Chapelry of Saint John Leicester,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say: on the north partly by the parish of Saint Martin Leicester, and partly by the parish of Saint Mary Leicester, on the west and south-west by the said parish of Saint Mary Leicester, and on the east by a line drawn from the boundary of the said parish of Saint Martin Leicester at the junction of Gallow Tree Gate, the Horse Fair Street, and Granby Street, and proceeding in a southerly direction along the middle of Granby Street and the London Road to the point where such line meets the boundary line of the said parish of Saint Mary Leicester, opposite to the footway to Evington, as the said district chapelry of Saint John Leicester is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured pink.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed in the said church of Saint John Leicester, and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid over to the Reverend Robert Burnaby, Master of Arts, the present incumbent of the said district parish of Saint George Leicester, during his incumbency thereof, and that upon his resigning or avoiding the same incumbency that the said fees should thereupon belong to the incumbent for the time being of Saint John's church aforesaid, for his own use and benefit.

"That the consent of the Right Reverend George, Bishop of the said diocese of Peterborough, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned, and also the further consent of the said Robert Burnaby, as such incumbent of the said district parish of Saint George Leicester as aforesaid, as required by the Act and section secondly hereinbefore mentioned, in order that the subdivision of such district parish, by forming thereout a district chapelry as aforesaid, should take effect from the assignment of such district chapelry, in testimony whereof the said George, Bishop of Peterborough, and Robert Burnaby, have signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the church of Saint John, in the parish of Saint George, Leicester, be accordingly made and the recommendations of the said Commissioners in respect of the publication of banns and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees to arise therefrom, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Peterborough.
