PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

At the Court at Windsor, the 8th day of February, 1855,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign intituled "An Act to carry into effect with certain modifications the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical duties and revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, in the words and figures following ;, that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical duties and revenues,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for confirming certain alterations in the statutes of the cathedral church of Saint Paul, in London.

"Whereas it is by the said recited Act enacted, that the chapters of the several cathedral and collegiate churches shall from time to time of their own accord, or upon being required by the visitors of the said churches respectively, propose to such visitors such alterations in the existing statutes and rules as shall provide for the disposal of the benefices in their patronage so as to meet the just claims of the minor canons of such churches, and that all such alterations may be confirmed by the authority of the visitor, and that all such statutes and rules when so altered, shall be submitted to us and may be confirmed by the authority in the same Act provided ; that is to say : by a scheme prepared by us, and a duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same :

"And whereas, the dean and chapter of the said cathedral church of Saint Paul, have, in pursuance of the directions in that behalf, of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Charles James, Bishop of London, as their visitor, prepared a plan for effecting certain alterations in the statutes of their said church, which plan is set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed :

"And whereas the alterations proposed by such plan have been confirmed by such visitor, and it appears to us to be expedient that the same should also be confirmed by your Majesty as contemplated by the said recited provision of the said Act.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that the alterations in the statutes and rules of the said cathedral church which are set forth in the plan contained in the schedule hereunto annexed as aforesaid, shall be confirmed accordingly.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

SCHEDULE.

"To the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Charles James Lord Bishop of London, and Visitor of the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul in London.

"The Representation and Proposal of the very Reverend Henry Hart Milman, D.D., Dean of the said Cathedral Church, and the Chapter of the same church.

"That by an instrument in writing, bearing date the seventeenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, signed by your Lordship, being a sentence, or adjudication, upon an appeal to your Lordship as such Visitor as aforesaid, by the Reverend Robert Collier Packman, Clerk, and the Reverend James Lupton, Clerk, two of the minor canons of the said cathedral church, your Lordship was pleased to require of us the said Dean and Chapter, to prepare a plan for the disposal of benefices in our gift or patronage, according to the forty-seventh section of the Act of Queen Victoria, entitled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth Report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues.'

"That by the forty-fourth section of the said Act it is enacted as follows :

"And be it enacted, that upon the vacancy of any benefice in the patronage of the chapter of any cathedral or collegiate church, the chapter shall present or nominate thereto either a member of such chapter, or one of the archdeacons of the diocese, or a non-residentiary prebendary, or honorary canon, as the case may be, or any spiritual person who shall have served for five years at the least in the office of minor canon or lecturer of the same church, or of master of the grammar or other school, if any, attached to or connected with such church, or as incumbent or curate in the same diocese, or as public tutor in either of the universities of Oxford and Cambridge, or who, so far as relates to the cathedral church of Durham, shall have served for the like term in the office of professor, reader, lecturer, or tutor in the said University of Durham, or shall have been educated thereat, and shall be a licentiate or graduate in theology therein, or who shall have served as incumbent or curate within the same diocese for the period aforesaid ; and that every such office of minor canon, lecturer, schoolmaster, professor, reader, lecturer, or tutor, shall immediately upon the expiration of one year from the time of his institution to such benefice, if not previously resigned, become and be vacant ; and that if neither a member of the chapter, nor an archdeacon of the diocese, nor a minor canon, nor lecturer, nor such schoolmaster, incumbent, or curate, professor, reader, lecturer, tutor, licentiate, or graduate, as the case may be, shall be presented or nominated to such benefice within six calendar months, from the time of the vacancy thereof, the bishop of the diocese in which the same is situate may, within the next six calendar months, collate or license thereto a spiritual person who shall have actually served within such diocese, as incumbent or curate, for five years at the least ; and if no such collation or license shall be granted within such time, the right of presentation or nomination to such benefice for that turn shall lapse to the archbishop of the province.'

"That by the forty-sixth section of the said Act it is enacted as follows :

"And be it enacted, that no minor canon hereafter to be appointed in any cathedral or collegiate church shall be allowed to take and hold, together with his minor canonry, any benefice beyond the limit of six miles from such church.'

"That by the forty-seventh section of the said Act it is enacted as follows :

"And be it enacted, that the chapters of the several cathedral and collegiate churches

'shall from time to time, of their own accord, or upon being required by the visitors of the said churches respectively, propose to such visitors such alterations in the existing statutes and rules as shall provide for the disposal of the benefices in their patronage, so as to meet the just claims of the minor canons of such churches, and as shall make them consistent with the constitution and duties of the chapters respectively, as altered under the authority of this Act; and all such alterations, if approved, may be confirmed by the authority of such visitor, and that in any case, in which such alterations shall not be approved, or in which such requisition shall not be complied with within twelve calendar months after the making thereof, the visitor shall be at liberty of himself to make the necessary alterations; and all such statutes and rules when so altered shall be submitted to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and may be confirmed by the authority hereinafter provided; and that as to any alteration made by a visitor alone, the said Commissioners shall communicate a draft thereof to the chapter to be affected thereby, and shall, together with any scheme to be prepared by them under the authority hereinafter contained, lay before Her Majesty in Council such remarks as may within three months have been made thereon by such chapter; and that out of the proceeds of the suspended canonries in any chapter provision may from time to time be made by the authority hereinafter provided, for relieving the present canons of such chapter from the performance of any additional duty by reason of such suspension, by the employment of substitutes to be approved by the respective bishops: provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect any existing right of chapters with their visitors to make statutes.'

"That by a certain other Act of Parliament, 4 and 5 Victoria, chapter 39, section 15, it is enacted as follows:

"And be it declared and enacted that, notwithstanding anything in the secondly recited Act contained [3 and 4 Vic., c. 113], any minor canon in any cathedral or collegiate church may take and hold, together with his minor canonry, any benefice which is within the distance prescribed by the said Act."

"Now we, the said dean and chapter, in obedience to the said requisition made to us by your Lordship, and according to the directions of the first-mentioned Act of Parliament, do hereby respectfully propose to your Lordship the following plan of alterations in our existing statutes and rules, being such as in our judgment, formed upon a full consideration of the subject, will provide for the disposal of the benefices in our patronage, so as to meet the just claims of the minor canons of the cathedral, and as will make them consistent with the constitution and duties of the chapter, as altered under the authority of the said Act; and we solicit your Lordship's approval and confirmation of the same by your visitatorial authority.

"Proposed Plan.

"1. That the dean and chapter shall, in the first place, if they think fit, from time to time, when and as often as any one of the benefices in their patronage shall become vacant, present or nominate thereto either the dean or one of the canons, if qualified to hold the same.

"2. That subject to the foregoing regulation, the dean and chapter from time to time, when and as often as any one of the seventeen benefices* named in the schedule hereunder written (being all the benefices in the city of London in their patronage, except the vicarage of Saint Giles, Cripplegate) shall become vacant, shall by writing under the hand of the dean, or of the registrar or deputy registrar for the time being of the said dean and chapter, make the offer of presentation or nomination thereto, to any one of the minor canons of the said cathedral church whom they may think proper to select, he being duly qualified according to the provisions of the said Act; and in case of his refusal, then they shall in the same manner make the like offer to any other of the minor canons who shall be so qualified, and so on, in case of refusal, until such offer shall be accepted by one, or shall have been refused by all of them, and on acceptance by a minor canon of such offer, the dean and chapter shall forthwith present or nominate him to the said benefice; but in the event of refusal of such offer by all the said minor canons to whom the same shall have been so made, the dean and chapter shall be at liberty to present or nominate to the said benefice, any one of the other persons described in the forty-fourth section of the before-mentioned Act of Parliament: provided, nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the dean and chapter from nominating or presenting a minor canon to any benefice in their patronage which he may be qualified to hold, although the same may not be one of the benefices named in the said schedule: provided, also, that it shall not be obligatory on the dean and chapter to present or nominate to any benefice named in the schedule, a minor canon who, at the time of the vacancy thereof, shall be already in possession of a benefice with the cure of souls, whether the same be in the patronage of the said dean and chapter or not, but in every such case they shall use their own discretion with respect thereto.

"3. That every minor canon to whom the dean and chapter shall make an offer of presentation or nomination to a benefice, shall signify by writing under his hand, his refusal or acceptance thereof to the dean or to the canon in residence, within ten days after such offer shall be made to him, and in default of so doing he shall be considered to have refused such offer.

"4. That the presentation or nomination of minor canons by the dean and chapter to the benefices named in the schedule as hereby proposed, shall be subject to such alterations as may from time to time be made by the proper authorities in that behalf by reason of any future Act of the Legislature, or under special circumstances requiring such alterations.

"5. That in all cases not provided for by and subject to the preceding regulations, the dean and chapter shall, upon the vacancy of any benefice in their patronage, present or nominate thereto one of the archdeacons of the diocese or a non-residentary prebendary of the said cathedral church, or one of the other spiritual persons described in the forty-fourth section of the before-mentioned Act of Parliament.

* As to these seventeen benefices, five of them are in the sole patronage of the dean and chapter; to one they present twice in three times, and the remaining eleven are in their alternate patronage.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court at Windsor, the 8th day of February, 1855,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the 'Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for regulating the incomes of the dean and canons of the cathedral church of Salisbury.

"Whereas it is by the first-recited Act enacted, that so soon as conveniently may be, and by the authority therein provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and a duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same) such annual sums shall be determined on to be paid, and shall be accordingly paid by us, or such deductions shall be allowed to be made out of the proceeds of any suspended canonry or canonries as, after due inquiry and calculation shall give to the dean of every cathedral and collegiate church in England an average annual income of one thousand pounds, and to the respective canons of every cathedral church in England an average annual income of five hundred pounds.

"And whereas it is by the secondly-recited Act declared and enacted, that notwithstanding such last recited provision it shall be lawful, by the authority aforesaid, to carry the said purposes, or any of them, into effect by any other mode of payment, contribution, augmentation, or endowment, which may be deemed fit, as well as by the mode in the said first-recited Act specified, and that the scale of payments and receipts may from time to time in any case be revised, and, if need be, varied by the like authority, so as to preserve, as nearly as may be, the intended average annual incomes respectively, but not so as to affect any dean or canon in possession at the time of making any such variation.

"And whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the seventh day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, and duly published in the London Gazette, it was inter alia provided, that the annual income of the present and every succeeding dean of the said cathedral church of Salisbury should be one thousand pounds, to be provided in manner therein mentioned.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that the further arrangements hereinafter recommended should be adopted with regard to the income of the said deanery.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the annual incomes of the canons of the said cathedral church of Salisbury are subject to much fluctuation and uncertainty, and do not on the average amount to the sum of five hundred pounds each, and we have satisfied ourselves, after due inquiry and consideration, that the following arrangement should also be adopted for regulating such incomes.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that, together with the account directed by the before-mentioned Order of the seventh day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, to be rendered to us by the treasurer of the said cathedral church in respect of the income of the deanery of the said church, there shall also be delivered to us by such treasurer in this present and every future year, so soon as conveniently may be after the annual audit of the accounts of the chapter of the said cathedral church, a correct account in writing in such form and verified in such manner as we shall from time to time direct, shewing every sum of money, from whatever source arising, which, according to the statutes and usage of the said cathedral church or the chapter thereof, shall have become due and payable to each canon of the said cathedral church, as such canon for the year ending on the day up to which such accounts shall have been so audited as aforesaid, and that if it shall appear by any such accounts that the amount which may have so become due and payable shall exceed in the case of any canon the sum of five hundred pounds, then in every such case the amount of the surplus shall at the same time be paid by the said treasurer to our credit at the Bank of England, and that upon any accounts so delivered being examined and approved by our treasurers for the time being their receipt for the amount of any such surplus shall be given to the treasurer of the said cathedral church, and shall be a good and valid discharge for the same, and that if it shall appear by any such account that the amount which may have become so due and payable in the case of any canon be less than the sum of five hundred pounds, then in every such case there shall be paid by us forthwith to such treasurer on account of such canon such a sum of money as shall make up the deficiency, and the receipt of such treasurer, countersigned by the same canon shall be a good and sufficient discharge for any claim which any such canon may have on us in respect of the average annual income to which he may be entitled for the year to which the same account relates, under the provisions of the before-mentioned Order, or of the said first-recited Act.

"Provided always, and we further recommend and propose that all monies which, according to the statutes and usage of the said cathedral church or the chapter thereof may be receivable by any dean or canon thereof succeeding upon the first vacancy of the deanery, and of each canonry happening after the date of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme as aforesaid, shall be included in the next yearly account to be delivered to us as aforesaid, and that the income of the dean or canon so newly appointed shall be made up or limited, as the case may be, in manner aforesaid, to such part of the sum of one thousand pounds or five hundred pounds respectively, and no more, as shall be proportioned, according to such rate, to the period during which he shall have been appointed to such deanery or canonry.

"And that upon every subsequent vacancy of the deanery or of any canonry, all the monies which, according to the statutes and usage of the said cathedral church or the chapter thereof, would, if such vacancy had not taken place, have become due and payable to the dean or canon making such vacancy, out of the corporate revenues of the said cathedral church for the year ending on the day of the next ensuing annual audit as aforesaid, shall be included in the account so to be delivered to us as aforesaid after such audit, and that the whole of any surplus above the sum of one thousand pounds, in the case of a dean, and five hundred pounds, in the case of a canon, shall be paid to us, and that in case the amount of such monies shall be below the said sum of one thousand pounds or five hundred pounds, as the case may be, we shall not be called upon to pay in respect of such deanery or canonry any greater sum for that year than shall, together with the amount of such monies be necessary to make up the income of such deanery or canonry for that year to one thousand pounds or five hundred pounds, as the case may be, and that the respective incomes of one thousand pounds to the dean, and five hundred pounds to each canon, so to be secured as aforesaid, shall on every such vacancy be strictly apportioned between the dean or canon making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the dean or canon succeeding thereto, any statutes or usage of the said cathedral church to the contrary notwithstanding.

"And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Reverend Robert Bickersteth, one of the canons of the said church, testified by his having hereunto set his hand and seal, that the provisions of this scheme shall apply to and affect him, the said Robert Bickersteth, and the income payable to him as such canon.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the said cathedral church, or the dean and canons thereof, in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Salisbury.
