"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at Christ Church, Crewe aforesaid, and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the Minister or incumbent of such church for the time being.

"That the consent of the Right Reverend John Bishop of the said diocese of Chester has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church called Christ Church, situate at Crewe, in the parish of Copenhall, be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners in respect of the publication of banns and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials in the said church, and the fees to arise therefrom, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chester.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 8th day of February, 1855,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the ninth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the ninth day of January one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, in the words following; viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parishes of Saul, Arlingham, Fretherne, Eastington, Wheatenhurst otherwise Whitminster, Moreton Valance, and Standish, in the county of Gloucester, and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, it appears to them to be expedient to unite and consolidate certain contiguous portions of the said several parishes, and to form the same into one consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, for the consecrated church of Saint Peter, situate at Framilode, in the said parish of Saul, under and by virtue of the power or authority contained in the ninth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts,' and that such proposed consolidated chapelry should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Framilode,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say: commencing in the said parish of Arlingham, at a point on the plan hereunto annexed, marked with the letter A, at the north-western corner of the said consolidated chapelry adjoining the River Severn, proceeding in a westwardly direction along and including the northern side of an inclosure, numbered 97 on the said plan, into a stone road leading to the village of Arlingham, along the north side of the said road to a point opposite the northern fence of inclosure No. 117; thence in a south-westerly direction along the western fence of an inclosure numbered 117, until it reaches the southern fence of the said last-mentioned inclosure, which it follows easterly until it reaches the western fence of inclosure No. 111, which it follows in a southwardly direction along the said fence, No. 111, and also of inclosure No. 112, to its south-west corner; thence along the southern fence of the said last-mentioned inclosure and the eastern fence thereof, all within the said parish of Arlingham, until it reaches the western point of the inclosure No. 32, part of the said parish of Fretherne; thence the boundary line proceeds by the southern fence of the said last inclosure, No. 32, till it reaches the Frampton-road, thence across the said road to the south-west corner of the inclosure No. 62, in the said parish of Saul, thence along the southern boundary of the said last-mentioned inclosure till it reaches its point of junction with the western fence of the inclosure No. 659, part of the said parish of Eastington; thence in a southerly direction along the western fence of the said last-mentioned inclosure till it reaches its junction with the westerly fence of the inclosure No. 19, in the said parish of Fretherne (the fence of which last-mentioned inclosure it follows in a southerly and easterly direction) to the western fence of No. 18, in the said parish of Fretherne; then southerly down such western fence until it reaches its junction with the northern fence of an inclosure, No. 658, in the said parish of Eastington, which it follows, first in a southwardly direction, and then in a south-easterly direction, and thence in a north-easterly direction until it reaches its junction with the western end of an inclosure, part of No. 103, in the said parish of Saul; thence along the southward and eastward sides of the said last-mentioned inclosure to its junction with an inclosure, No. 657, in the said parish of Eastington; thence proceeding north-eastwardly along the southern boundary of the last-mentioned inclosure, No. 657, and in the same direction along the boundary of the inclosure, No. 656, and still in the same direction along the southern boundary of the inclosures Nos. 16 and 15, in the said parish of Fretherne, and of No.
