War-Department, February 16, 1855.

LORD PANMURE has this day received a Despatch, of which the following is a copy, addressed to His Grace the Duke of Newcastle, by Field-Marshal the Lord Raglan, G.C.B.

MY LORD DUKE,

*Before Sevastopol,
February 3, 1855.*

NOTHING has occurred in front of the British lines since I wrote to your Grace on the 27th January.

Before daylight, on the morning of the 1st, the enemy made a vigorous sortie on the most advanced works of the French right: they were repulsed, after a sharp contest, in the most gallant manner by our Ally, who however sustained some loss.

The weather, which had latterly been fine, broke yesterday; and, after a rainy evening, there was a fall of snow during the night, and there is again a frost, with an exceedingly cold wind.

The materials for the railway continue to arrive, but I fear it will not be possible for me to supply the amount of military labour which Mr. Beatty would seem to require.

Nearly two hundred Croatians, who were hired at Constantinople, have arrived, and been handed over to him, and more are expected, and, as a matter of experiment, I have obtained four hundred Tartars from Eupatoria.

I have, &c.,
(Signed) RAGLAN.

*His Grace the Duke of Newcastle,

THE Earl of Clarendon has received a Despatch from Her Majesty's Ambassador at Paris, dated February 4, 1855, of which the following is an extract:

"I have the honour to enclose a copy of a Note which I received yesterday evening from Monsieur Drouyn de Lhuys, eulogizing the services rendered by Major-General Rose, and Majors Claremont and Foley, not only to the common cause in which they are engaged, but to General Canrobert personally in his communications with his own troops."

(Copy.)

MONSIEUR L'AMBASSADEUR,

DEJA M. le Maréchal de St. Arnaud avait cru devoir, après la bataille de l'Alma, faire connaître au Gouvernement de l'Empereur combien il avait eu à se louer de la conduite de trois Officiers de l'Armée Britannique, attachés à divers titres au Quartier-Général de l'Armée Française,—M. le Brigadier-Général Hugh Rose, M. le Major Stopford Claremont, Commissaires de la Reine, et M. le Major George Foley, Aide-de-Camp du Général Rose. M. le Général Canrobert vient à son tour de signaler en termes trop honorables à M. le Ministre de la Guerre les services que continuent à rendre ces Officiers, pour que nous ne considérions pas comme une obligation de transmettre ce témoignage au Gouvernement de la Reine. M. le Général Canrobert en écrivant, en effet, que ces Officiers se sont constamment fait remarqués par la bravoure qu'ils ont déployée en face de l'ennemi dans les deux batailles de l'Alma et d'Inkermann, aussi bien que dans les opérations du siège de Sébastopol, ajoute qu'il a été conduit par le dévouement avec lequel ils servent, par la parfaite intelligence qu'ils ont de tous les détails de la guerre, à ne plus faire aucune distinction entre eux et les Officiers de son Etat-Major, et à les employer absolument comme ces derniers pour les missions les plus difficiles. Je ne puis trop, dit M. le Général Canrobert, qui a vu M. le Brigadier-Général Rose blessé à ses côtés dans la tranchée, rendre hommage à l'excellente attitude de ces Officiers, qui sont entourés de l'estime générale dans notre armée où ils ont glorieusement conquis droit d'être cités.

C'est, vous n'en douterez pas, M. l'Ambassadeur, avec une vive satisfaction que je viens prier votre Excellence de faire savoir au Gouvernement de la Reine à quel point notre Commandant-en-Chef apprécie les services rendus par MM. Hugh Rose, Stopford Claremont, et George Foley, soit comme militaires, soit comme intermédiaires des cordiales et parfaites relations qui existent entre les deux armées.

Agréez, &c.
(Signé) DROUYN DE LHUYS.
Paris, le 3 Février, 1855.

Convention between Her Majesty and the King of the Belgians, for the Establishment of International Copyright.

Signed at London, August 12, 1854.

[Ratifications exchanged at London, January 24, 1855.]

HER Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Majesty the King of the Belgians, being equally desirous of extending in each country the enjoyment of copyright to works of literature and of the fine arts which may be first published in the other; and Her Britannic Majesty having consented to extend to books, prints, and musical works published in Belgium, that reduction of the duties now levied thereon on importation into the United Kingdom, which she is by law empowered to grant, under certain circumstances, in favour of such works published in foreign countries; Her Britannic Majesty and His Majesty the King of the Belgians have deemed it expedient to conclude a special Convention for that purpose, and have therefore named as their Plenipotentiaries, that is to say:—

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Right Honourable George William Frederick, Earl of Clarendon, Baron Hyde de Hindon, a Peer of the United Kingdom, a Member of Her Britannic Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Her Britannic Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs; and the Right Honourable Edward Cardwell, a Member of Her Britannic Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, a Member of Parliament, and President of the Committee of Privy Council for Affairs of Trade and Foreign Plantations;

And His Majesty the King of the Belgians, the Sieur Sylvain Van de Weyer, His Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to Her Britannic Majesty, decorated with the Iron Cross, Commander of the Order of Leopold, Grand Cross of the Order of Charles III of Spain, of the Order of the Ernestine Branch of Saxony, of the Tower and Sword, of St. Maurice and St. Lazarus, Commander of the Legion of Honour, &c.;

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon the following Articles:

ARTICLE I.

From and after the date on which, according to the provisions of Article XV, the present Convention shall come into operation, the authors of works of literature or of art, to whom the laws of either of the two countries do now or may hereafter give the right of property or copyright, shall be entitled to exercise that right in the territories of the other of such countries for the same term, and to the same extent, as the authors of works of the same nature, if published in such other country, would therein be entitled to exercise such right; so that the republication or piracy in either country, of any work of literature or of art, published in the other, shall be dealt with in the same manner as the republication or piracy of a work of the same nature first published in such other country; and so that such authors in the one country shall have the same remedies before the courts of justice in the other country, and shall enjoy in that other country the same protection against piracy and unauthorized republication, as the law now does or may hereafter grant to authors in that country.

SA Majesté la Reine du Royaume Uni de la Grande Bretagne et d'Irlande, et Sa Majesté le Roi des Belges, également animés du désir d'étendre dans les deux pays la jouissance des droits d'auteur pour les ouvrages de littérature et de beaux arts, qui pourront être publiés pour la première fois dans l'un des deux; et Sa Majesté Britannique ayant consenti à étendre aux livres, gravures, et œuvres musicales publiés en Belgique, la réduction que la loi l'autorise à accorder, sous certaines conditions, dans le taux des droits actuellement perçus à l'importation dans le Royaume Uni de ces mêmes articles publiés en pays étrangers; Sa Majesté Britannique et Sa Majesté le Roi des Belges ont jugé à propos de conclure dans ce but une Convention spéciale, et ont nommé à cet effet pour leurs Plénipotentiaires, savoir:—

Sa Majesté la Reine du Royaume Uni de la Grande Bretagne et d'Irlande, le Très Honorable George Guillaume Frédéric, Comte de Clarendon, Baron Hyde de Hindon, Pair du Royaume Uni, Conseiller de Sa Majesté Britannique en son Conseil Privé, Chevalier du Très Noble Ordre de la Jarretière, Chevalier Grand-Croix du Très Honorable Ordre du Bain, Principal Secrétaire d'Etat de Sa Majesté Britannique pour les Affaires Etrangères; et le Très Honorable Edouard Cardwell, Membre du Très Honorable Conseil Privé de Sa Majesté Britannique, Membre du Parlement, et Président du Comité du Conseil Privé pour les Affaires de Commerce et des Colonies;

Et Sa Majesté le Roi des Belges, le Sieur Sylvain Van de Weyer, Son Envoyé Extraordinaire et Ministre Plénipotentiaire près Sa Majesté Britannique, décoré de la Croix de Fer, Commandeur de l'Ordre de Léopold, Grand-Croix de l'Ordre de Charles III d'Espagne, de l'Ordre de la Branche Ernestine de Saxe, de la Tour et de l'Épée, de St. Maurice et St. Lazare, Commandeur de la Légion d'Honneur, &c.;

Lesquels, après s'être communiqué leurs pleins pouvoirs respectifs, trouvés en bonne et due forme, ont arrêté les Articles suivants:

ARTICLE I.

A partir de l'époque à laquelle, conformément aux stipulations de l'Article XV ci-après, la présente Convention deviendra exécutoire, les auteurs d'œuvres de littérature ou d'art, auxquelles les lois de l'un des deux pays garantissent actuellement, ou garantiront à l'avenir, le droit de propriété ou d'auteur, auront la faculté d'exercer le dit droit sur les territoires de l'autre pays pendant le même espace de temps, et dans les mêmes limites, que s'exercerait dans cet autre pays le droit attribué aux auteurs d'ouvrages de même nature qui y seraient publiés; de telle sorte que la reproduction ou la contrefaçon dans l'un des deux États, de tout œuvre de littérature ou d'art publiée dans l'autre, sera traitée de la même manière que le serait la reproduction ou la contrefaçon d'ouvrages de même nature originellement publiés dans cet autre état; et que les auteurs de l'un des deux pays auront, devant les tribunaux de l'autre, la même action, et jouiront des mêmes garanties contre la contrefaçon ou la reproduction non autorisée, que celle que la loi accorde, ou pourrait accorder à l'avenir, aux auteurs de ce dernier pays.

The terms "works of literature or of art," employed at the beginning of this Article, shall be understood to comprise publications of books, of dramatic works, of musical compositions, of drawing, of painting, of sculpture, of engraving, of lithography, and of any other works whatsoever of literature and of the fine arts.

The lawful representatives or assigns of authors, translators, composers, painters, sculptors, or engravers, shall, in all respects, enjoy the same rights which by the present Convention are granted to the authors, translators, composers, painters, sculptors, or engravers themselves.

ARTICLE II.

The protection granted to original works is extended to translations; it being, however, clearly understood that the intention of the present Article is simply to protect a translator in respect of his own translation, and that it is not intended to confer upon the first translator of any work the exclusive right of translating that work, except in the case and to the extent provided for in the following Article.

ARTICLE III.

The author of any work published in either of the two countries, who may choose to reserve the right of translating it, shall, until the expiration of five years from the date of the first publication of the translation thereof authorized by him, be, in the following cases, entitled to protection from the publication in the other country of any translation of such work not so authorized by him;

§ 1. If the original work shall have been registered and deposited in the one country within three months after its first publication in the other.

§ 2. If the author has notified on the title-page of his work his intention to reserve the right of translating it.

§ 3. Provided always, that at least a part of the authorized translation shall have appeared within a year after the registration and deposit of the original, and that the whole shall have been published within three years after the date of such deposit.

§ 4. And provided that the publication of the translation shall take place within one of the two countries, and that it shall be registered and deposited according to the provisions of Article VIII.

With regard to works which are published in parts, it will be sufficient if the declaration of the author that he reserves the right of translation, shall appear in the first part. But with reference to the period of five years limited by this Article for the exercise of the exclusive right of translation, each part shall be treated as a separate work, and each part shall be registered and deposited in the one country within three months after its first publication in the other.

ARTICLE IV.

The stipulations of the preceding Articles shall also be applicable to the representation of dramatic works, and to the performance of musical compositions, in so far as the laws of each of the two countries are or shall be applicable in this respect to dramatic and musical works first publicly represented or performed therein.

In order, however, to entitle the author to legal protection in regard to the translation of a dramatic work, such translation must appear within

Il est entendu que ces mots, "œuvres de littérature ou d'art," employés au commencement de cet Article, comprennent les publications de livres, d'ouvrages dramatiques, de composition musicale, de dessin, de peinture, de sculpture, de gravure, de lithographie, et de toute autre production quelconque de littérature et de beaux arts.

Les mandataires ou ayant-cause des auteurs, traducteurs, compositeurs, peintres, sculpteurs, ou graveurs, jouiront, à tous égards, des mêmes droits que ceux que la présente Convention accorde aux auteurs, traducteurs, compositeurs, peintres, sculpteurs, ou graveurs eux-mêmes.

ARTICLE II.

La protection accordée aux ouvrages originaux est étendue aux traductions. Il est bien entendu, toutefois, que l'objet du présent Article est simplement de protéger le traducteur par rapport à sa propre traduction, et non pas de conférer le droit exclusif de traduction au premier traducteur d'un ouvrage quelconque, hormis dans le cas et les limites prévus par l'Article suivant.

ARTICLE III.

L'auteur de tout ouvrage publié dans l'un des deux pays, qui aura entendu réserver son droit de traduction, jouira, pendant cinq années à partir du jour de la première publication de la traduction de son ouvrage autorisée par lui, du privilège de protection contre la publication dans l'autre pays de toute traduction du même ouvrage non autorisée par lui, et ce sous les conditions suivantes :

§ 1. L'ouvrage original sera enregistré et déposé dans l'un des deux pays dans un délai de trois mois, à partir du jour de la première publication dans l'autre pays.

§ 2. Il faudra que l'auteur ait indiqué en tête de son ouvrage l'intention de se réserver le droit de traduction.

§ 3. La dite traduction autorisée devra avoir paru, au moins en partie, dans le délai d'un an à compter de la date de l'enregistrement et du dépôt de l'original, et en totalité dans le délai de trois ans à partir du dit dépôt.

§ 4. La traduction devra être publiée dans l'un des deux pays, et être enregistrée et déposée conformément aux dispositions de l'Article VIII.

Pour les ouvrages publiés par livraisons, il suffira que la déclaration de l'auteur, portant qu'il entend se réserver le droit de traduction, soit exprimée dans la première livraison. Toutefois, en ce qui concerne le terme de cinq ans assigné par cet Article pour l'exercice du droit privilégié de traduction, chaque livraison sera considérée comme un ouvrage séparé, et chacune d'elles sera enregistrée et déposée dans l'un des deux pays dans les trois mois à partir de sa première publication dans l'autre.

ARTICLE IV.

Les stipulations des Articles précédents s'appliqueront également à la représentation des ouvrages dramatiques, et à l'exécution des compositions musicales, en tant que les lois de chacun des deux pays sont ou seront applicables, sous ce rapport, aux ouvrages dramatiques et de musique représentés ou exécutés publiquement dans ces pays pour la première fois.

Toutefois, pour avoir droit à la protection légale, en ce qui concerne la traduction d'un ouvrage dramatique, l'auteur devra faire paraître three months after the registration and deposit of the original.

It is understood that the protection stipulated by the present Article is not intended to prohibit fair imitations, or adaptations of dramatic works to the stage in England and Belgium respectively, but is only meant to prevent piratical translations.

The question whether a work is an imitation or a piracy, shall in all cases be decided by the courts of justice of the respective countries, according to the laws in force in each.

ARTICLE V.

Notwithstanding the stipulations of Articles I and II of the present Convention, articles extracted from newspapers or periodicals published in either of the two countries, may be republished or translated in the newspapers or periodicals of the other country, provided the source from whence such articles are taken be acknowledged.

Nevertheless, such permission shall not be construed to authorize the republication in one of the two countries, of articles from newspapers or periodicals published in the other country, the authors of which shall have notified in a conspicuous manner in the journal or periodical in which such articles have appeared, that they forbid the republication thereof.

This last stipulation shall not, however, apply to articles of political discussion.

ARTICLE VI.

The introduction, circulation, sale, and exhibition, in either of the two countries, of unauthorized republications of works or articles defined in the preceding Articles I, II, III, IV, are prohibited, whether such unauthorized republications originate in either of the two countries, or whether they originate in any foreign country.

ARTICLE VII.

In the event of an infraction of the provisions of the foregoing Articles, the pirated works or articles shall be seized and destroyed; and the persons who may have committed such infraction shall be liable in each country to the penalties and actions which are or may be prescribed by the laws of that country for such offences, committed in respect of a work or production of home origin.

ARTICLE VIII.

Neither authors nor translators, nor their lawful representatives or assigns, shall be entitled in either country to the protection stipulated by the preceding Articles, nor shall copyright be claimable in either country, unless the work shall have been registered in the manner following, that is to say:

1. If the work be one that has first appeared in Belgium, it must be registered at the Hall of the Company of Stationers in London.

2. If the work be one that has first appeared in the dominions of Her Britannic Majesty, it must be registered at the office of the Minister of the Interior at Brussels.

No person shall be entitled to such protection as aforesaid, unless he shall have duly complied with the laws and regulations of the respective countries in regard to the work in respect of which such protection may be claimed. With sa traduction trois mois après l'enregistrement et le dépôt de l'ouvrage original.

Il est bien entendu que la protection stipulée par le présent Article n'a point pour objet de prohiber les imitations faites de bonne foi, ou les appropriations des ouvrages dramatiques aux scènes respectives d'Angleterre et de Belgique, mais seulement d'empêcher les traductions en contrefaçon.

La question d'imitation ou de contrefaçon sera déterminée dans tous les cas par les tribunaux des pays respectifs, d'après la législation en vigueur dans chacun des deux états.

ARTICLE V.

Nonobstant les stipulations des Articles I et II de la présente Convention, les articles extraits de journaux ou de recueils périodiques publiés dans l'un des deux pays, pourront être reproduits ou traduits dans les journaux ou recueils périodiques de l'autre pays, pourvu qu'on y indique la source à laquelle on les aura puisés.

Toutefois, cette permission ne saurait être comprise comme s'étendant à la reproduction dans l'un des deux pays, des articles de journaux ou de recueils périodiques publiés dans l'autre, dont les auteurs auraient déclaré d'une manière évidente dans le journal ou le recueil même où ils les auront fait paraître, qu'ils en interdisent la reproduction.

Cette dernière disposition ne sera pas applicable aux articles de discussion politique.

ARTICLE VI.

L'introduction, la circulation, la vente, et l'exposition, dans chacun des deux États, d'ouvrages ou objets de reproduction non autorisée, définis par les Articles I, II, III, IV, ci-dessus, sont prohibées, soit que les dites reproductions non autorisées proviennent de l'un des deux pays, soit qu'elles proviennent d'un pays étranger quelconque.

ARTICLE VII.

En cas de contravention aux dispositions des Articles précédents, les ouvrages ou objets contrefaits seront saisis et détruits, et les individus qui se seront rendus coupables de ces contraventions seront passibles, dans chaque pays, de la peine et des poursuites qui sont ou seraient prescrites par les lois de ce pays contre le même délit commis à l'égard de tout ouvrage ou production d'origine nationale.

ARTICLE VIII.

Les auteurs, traducteurs, de même que leurs représentants ou ayant-cause légalement désignés, n'auront droit, dans l'un et l'autre pays, à la protection stipulée par les Articles précédents, et le droit d'auteur ne pourra être réclamé dans l'un des deux pays, qu'après que l'ouvrage aura été enregistré de la manière suivante, savoir:

1. Si l'ouvrage a paru pour la première fois en Belgique, il faudra qu'il ait été enregistré à l'Hôtel de la Corporation des Libraires (Stationers' Hall) à Londres.

2. Si l'ouvrage a paru pour la première fois dans les États de Sa Majesté Britannique, il faudra qu'il ait été enregistré au Ministère de l'Intérieur à Bruxelles.

La susdite protection ne sera acquise qu'à celui qui aura fidèlement observé les lois et règlements en vigueur dans les pays respectifs par rapport à l'ouvrage pour lequel cette protection serait réclamée. Pour les livres, cartes, et estampes, regard to books, maps, and prints, and also with regard to dramatic works and musical publications, unless such dramatic works and musical publications shall be in manuscript only, no person shall be entitled to such protection unless he shall have delivered gratuitously, at one or other of the places mentioned above, as the case may be, one copy of the best edition, or in the best state, in order to its being deposited at the place appointed for that purpose in each of the two countries; that is to say, in Great Britain, at the British Museum at London; and in Belgium, at the Royal Library at Brussels.

In every case, the formality of deposit and registration must be fulfilled within three months after the first publication of the work in the other country. With regard to works published in parts, each part shall be treated as a separate work.

A certified copy of the entry in the Register Book of the Company of Stationers in London shall confer, within the British dominions, the exclusive right of republication, until a better right shall have been established by any other party before a court of justice.

The certificate given under the laws of Belgium, proving the registration of any work in that country, shall be valid for the same purpose throughout the territories of the Kingdom of Belgium.

A certificate or certified copy of the registration of any work so registered in either country shall, if required, be delivered at the time of registration; and such certificate shall state the exact date at which the registration was made.

The charge for the registration of a single work, under the stipulations of this Article, shall not exceed one shilling in England, nor one franc and twenty-five centimes in Belgium; and the further charge for a certificate of such registration shall not exceed the sum of five shillings in England, nor six francs and twenty-five centimes in Belgium.

The provisions of this Article shall not extend to articles which may appear in newspapers or periodicals; which shall be protected from republication or translation simply by a notice from the author, as prescribed by Article V. But if any article or work, which has originally appeared in a newspaper or periodical, shall afterwards be published in a separate form, it shall then become subject to the stipulations of the present Article.

ARTICLE IX.

With regard to any work of literature or of art, other than books, prints, maps, and musical publications, in respect to which protection may be claimable under Article I of the present Convention, it is agreed, that any other mode of registration than that prescribed in the preceding Article, which is or may be applicable by law in one of the two countries to any work or article first published in such country, for the purpose of affording protection to copyright in such work or article, shall be extended on equal terms to any similar work or article, first published in the other country.

ARTICLE X.

During the continuance of this Convention, the duties now payable upon the lawful importation into the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland of books, prints, drawings, or musical works, published throughout the territories of the comme aussi pour les œuvres dramatiques et les publications musicales, à moins que ces œuvres dramatiques et publications musicales n'existent qu'en manuscrit, la susdite protection ne sera acquise qu'autant que l'on aura remis gratuitement, dans l'un ou l'autre des dépôts mentionnés ci-dessus, suivant les cas respectifs, un exemplaire de la meilleure édition, ou dans le meilleur état, destiné à être déposé au lieu indiqué à cet effet dans chacun des deux pays; c'est-à-dire, dans la Grande Bretagne au Musée Britannique à Londres, et en Belgique à la Bibliothèque Royale de Bruxelles.

Dans tous les cas, les formalités du dépôt et de l'enregistrement devront être remplies sous les trois mois qui suivront la première publication de l'ouvrage dans l'autre pays. A l'égard des ouvrages publiés par livraisons, chaque livraison sera considérée comme un ouvrage séparé.

Une copie authentique de l'inscription sur le registre de la Corporation des Libraires de Londres confèrera dans les États Britanniques le droit exclusif de reproduction, jusqu'à ce que quelqu'autre personne ait fait admettre devant un tribunal un droit mieux établi.

Le certificat délivré conformément aux lois Belges, et constatant l'enregistrement d'un ouvrage dans ce pays, aura la même force et valeur dans toute l'étendue du territoire du Royaume de Belgique.

Au moment de l'enregistrement d'un ouvrage dans l'un des deux pays, il en sera délivré, si on le demande, un certificat ou copie certifiée, et ce certificat relatera la date précise à laquelle l'enregistrement aura eu lieu.

Le coût d'enregistrement d'un seul ouvrage, conformément aux stipulations du présent Article, ne pourra pas dépasser la somme d'un shilling en Angleterre, et d'un franc vingt-cinq centimes en Belgique; et les frais additionnels pour le certificat d'enregistrement ne devront pas excéder la somme de cinq shillings en Angleterre, ou de six francs vingt-cinq centimes en Belgique.

Les présentes stipulations ne s'étendront pas aux articles de journaux ou de recueils périodiques, pour lesquels le simple avertissement de l'auteur, ainsi qu'il est prescrit à l'Article V, suffira pour garantir son droit contre la reproduction ou la traduction. Mais si un article ou un ouvrage qui aura paru pour la première fois dans un journal ou dans un recueil périodique, est ensuite reproduit à part, il sera alors soumis aux stipulations du présent Article.

ARTICLE IX.

Quant à ce qui concerne tout objet de littérature et d'art autre que les livres, estampes, cartes, et publications musicales, pour lesquels on pourrait réclamer la protection en vertu de l'Article I de la présente Convention, il est entendu que tout mode d'enregistrement autre que le mode prescrit par l'Article précédent, qui est ou qui pourrait être appliqué par la loi, dans un des deux pays, à l'effet de garantir le droit de propriété à toute œuvre quelconque ou article mis pour la première fois au jour dans ce pays, le dit mode d'enregistrement sera étendu, sous des conditions égales, à toute œuvre ou objet similaire, mis au jour pour la première fois dans l'autre pays.

ARTICLE X.

Kingdom of Belgium, shall be reduced to and fixed at the rates hereinafter specified ; that is to say :

- | | s. d. |
|--|-------|
| 1. On books and musical works, the cwt. - | 15 0 |
| 2. On prints or drawings, coloured or plain, the lb. - | 0 1½ |

It is agreed that the rates of duty above specified shall not be raised during the continuance of the present Convention ; and that if hereafter, during the continuance of this Convention, any reduction of those rates should be made in favour of books, prints, drawings, or musical works published in any other country, such reduction shall be at the same time extended to similar articles published in Belgium.

During the continuance of the present Convention, the duties now payable on the lawful importation into Belgium, of books, musical works, prints, and maps or charts published throughout the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, shall be reduced to and fixed at the uniform rate of ten francs the hundred kilogrammes.

ARTICLE XI.

It is agreed that no books shall, for the purposes of this Convention, so far as relates to the rate of duty at which such books are to be entered, be deemed to have been published in Belgium, except such as appear by their title-page to have been published at some town or place within the dominions of Belgium.

ARTICLE XII.

In order to facilitate the execution of the present Convention, the two High Contracting Parties engage to communicate to each other the laws and regulations which may hereafter be established in their respective territories, with respect to copyright in works or productions protected by the stipulations of the present Convention.

ARTICLE XIII.

The stipulations of the present Convention shall in no way affect the right which each of the two High Contracting Parties expressly reserves to itself, of controlling and of prohibiting, by measures of legislation or of internal police, the sale, circulation, representation, or exhibition of any work or production, in regard to which either country may deem it expedient to exercise that right.

ARTICLE XIV.

Nothing in this Convention shall be construed to affect the right of either of the two High Contracting Parties to prohibit the importation into its own dominions, of such books as, by its internal law, or under engagements with other States, are or may be declared to be piracies, or infringements of copyright.

ARTICLE XV.

The present Convention shall come into operation as soon as possible after the exchange of the ratifications. Due notice shall be given beforehand in each country, by the Government of that country, of the day which may be fixed upon for that purpose, and the stipulations of the Convention shall be applicable only to works and articles published, and to dramatic works or musical comtoire du Royaume de Belgique, demeurent réduits et fixés au taux ci-après établi, savoir :

|---|-------|
| 1. Sur les livres et œuvres de musique, par quintal Anglais - | 15 0. |
| 2. Sur les gravures ou dessins, coloriés ou non, par livre - | 0 1½ |

Il est convenu que le taux des droits ci-dessus spécifiés ne sera pas augmenté pendant la durée de la présente Convention ; et que si par la suite, pendant la durée de cette Convention, ce taux était réduit en faveur des livres, gravures, dessins, ou ouvrages de musique publiés dans tout autre pays, cette réduction s'étendra en même temps aux objets similaires publiés en Belgique.

Pendant la durée de la présente Convention les droits actuellement établis à l'importation licite en Belgique des livres, ouvrages de musique, estampes, et cartes géographiques ou marines, publiés dans toute l'étendue du Royaume Uni de la Grande Bretagne et d'Irlande, sont réduits et fixés au taux uniforme de 10 francs les 100 kilogrammes.

ARTICLE XI.

Il est convenu qu'aucun livre ne sera, dans l'esprit de la présente Convention, en ce qui concerne le taux du droit dont ce livre doit être frappé, considéré comme ayant été publié en Belgique, si ce n'est celui dont le titre portera qu'il a été publié dans quelque ville ou localité située dans les domaines du Royaume de Belgique.

ARTICLE XII.

Pour faciliter l'exécution de la présente Convention, les deux Hautes Parties Contractantes s'engagent à se communiquer mutuellement les lois et règlements qui pourront être ultérieurement établis dans les Etats respectifs, à l'égard des droits d'auteurs, pour les ouvrages et productions protégés par les stipulations de la présente Convention.

ARTICLE XIII.

Les stipulations de la présente Convention ne pourront, en aucune manière, porter atteinte au droit, que chacune des deux Hautes Parties Contractantes se réserve expressément, de surveiller ou de défendre, au moyen de mesures législatives, ou de police intérieure, la vente, la circulation, la représentation, et l'exposition de tout ouvrage ou de toute production, à l'égard desquels l'un ou l'autre pays jugerait convenable d'exercer ce droit.

ARTICLE XIV.

Rien dans cette Convention ne sera considéré comme portant atteinte au droit de l'une ou de l'autre des deux Hautes Parties Contractantes de prohiber l'importation dans ses propres Etats des livres qui, d'après ses lois intérieures ou des stipulations souscrites avec d'autres Puissances, sont ou seraient déclarés être des contrefaçons ou des violations du droit d'auteur.

ARTICLE XV.

La présente Convention sera mise à exécution le plus tôt possible après l'échange des ratifications. Dans chaque pays, le Gouvernement fera dûment connaître d'avance le jour qui sera convenu à cet effet, et les stipulations de la Convention ne seront applicables qu'aux œuvres et articles publiés, et aux œuvres dramatiques ou compositions musicales représentées ou exécutées pour la première fois positions represented or executed for the first time in either of the two countries, after the Convention shall have come into operation.

The Convention shall continue in force for ten years from the day on which it may come into operation ; and if neither Contracting Party shall, twelve months before the expiration of the said period of ten years, give notice of its intention to terminate its operation, the Convention shall continue in force for a year longer, and so on from year to year, until the expiration of a year's notice from either Contracting Party for its termination.

The High Contracting Parties, however, reserve to themselves the power of making by common consent, in this Convention, any modifications which may not be inconsistent with its spirit and principles, and which experience of its working may show to be desirable.

ARTICLE XVI.

The present Convention shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at London as soon as may be within six months from the date of signature.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have affixed thereto the seals of their arms.

Done at London, the twelfth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.

dans l'un des deux pays, après la mise en vigueur de la Convention.

La Convention restera en vigueur pendant dix années à partir du jour où elle pourra être mise à exécution ; et dans le cas où l'une des deux Parties Contractantes n'aurait pas signifié, douze mois avant l'expiration de la dite période de dix années, son intention d'en faire cesser les effets, la Convention continuera à rester en vigueur encore une année, et ainsi de suite d'année en année, jusqu'à l'expiration d'une année à partir du jour où l'une ou l'autre des Parties Contractantes l'aura dénoncée.

Les Hautes Parties Contractantes se réservent cependant la faculté d'apporter à la présente Convention, d'un commun accord, toute modification qui ne serait pas incompatible avec l'esprit et les principes qui en sont la base, et dont l'expérience aurait démontré l'opportunité.

ARTICLE XVI.

La présente Convention sera ratifiée, et les ratifications en seront échangées à Londres dans le délai de six mois, à partir du jour de la signature, ou plus tôt si faire se peut.

En foi de quoi, les Plénipotentiaires respectifs l'ont signée, et y ont apposé le cachet de leurs armes.

Fait à Londres, le douze Août, l'an de grace mil huit cent cinquante-quatre.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 8th day of February, 1855,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS a Treaty has been concluded between Her Majesty and the King of the Belgians, whereby due protection has been secured within the Kingdom of Belgium, for the benefit of authors of books, dramatic pieces, musical compositions, drawings, paintings, articles of sculpture, engravings, lithographs, and any other works of literature and of the fine arts, in which the laws of Great Britain and of Belgium do now, or may hereafter, give their respective subjects the right of property or copyright, and for the benefit of the lawful representatives or assigns of such authors, with regard to any such works first published within the dominions of Her Majesty :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of Her Privy Council, and by virtue of the authority committed to her by an Act passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the seventh and eighth years of her reign, intitled "An Act to amend the law relating to "international copyright;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of her reign, intitled "An Act to enable Her Majesty to carry "into effect a Convention with France on the "subject of Copyright, to extend and explain the "International Copyright Acts, and to explain the "Acts relating to Copyright in Engravings;" doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the day next after the day of the publication hereof in the London Gazette, the authors, inventors, designers, engravers, and makers of any of the following works ; that is to say : books, dramatic works, musical compositions, drawings, paintings, sculpture, engravings, lithographs, and any other works of literature and the fine arts, in which the laws of Great Britain give to British subjects the privilege of copyright, and the executors, administrators, and assigns of such authors, inventors, designers, engravers, and makers respectively, shall, as respects works first published within the kingdom of Belgium after the said day next after the day of publication hereof have the privilege of copyright therein for a period equal to the term of copyright which authors, inventors, designers, engravers, and makers of the like works respectively, first published in the United Kingdom, are by law entitled to ; provided such books, dramatic works, musical compositions, drawings, paintings, sculpture, engravings, lithographs, or other works of literature or the fine arts, shall have been registered, and copies thereof shall have been delivered according to the requirements of the said recited Acts, within three months after the first publication thereof in any part of the Kingdom of Belgium, or if such work be published in parts, then within three months after the publication of the last part thereof :

And it is hereby further ordered, that the authors of dramatic pieces and musical compositions, which shall after the day aforesaid be first publicly represented or performed within the Kingdom of Belgium, or their executors, administrators, or assigns, shall have the sole liberty of representing or performing in any part of the British dominions such dramatic pieces or musical compositions, during a period equal to the period during which authors of dramatic pieces and musical compositions, first publicly represented or performed in the United Kingdom, are entitled by law to the sole liberty of representing or performing the same; provided such dramatic pieces or musical compositions have been registered, and copies thereof have been delivered according to the requirements of the said first-recited Act, within three months after the time of their being first represented or performed in any part of the Kingdom of Belgium:

And Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, and by virtue of the authority of the said secondly hereinbefore-recited Act, doth hereby order that the authors of any works published, or of any dramatic pieces first publicly represented in the Kingdom of Belgium, at any time after the day next after the day of the publication hereof in the London Gazette, who may choose to reserve the right of translating such works or dramatic pieces, their executors, administrators, and assigns, shall, until the expiration of five years from the date of the first publication of the translations authorized by them respectively of such works, or from the time at which the translations authorized by them of such dramatic pieces are first published or publicly represented, be entitled, subject to the provisions mentioned in the said last-mentioned Act, to prevent the publication in the British dominions of any translation of such works or dramatic pieces, and from the representation therein of any translation of such dramatic pieces not so respectively authorized by them.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 8th day of February, 1855,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order of Her Majesty in Council, dated the twenty-fifth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, after reciting that a Treaty had been concluded between Her Majesty and the senate of the Free Hanseatic City of Hamburg, whereby due protection had been secured by the said senate, within the State of Hamburg, for the benefit of authors of books, prints, dramatic pieces, musical compositions, drawings, paintings, articles of sculpture, engravings, lithographs, and any other works of art in which the laws of Great Britain and Hamburg did then, or might thereafter, give their respective subjects the right of property or copyright with regard to any such works first published within the dominions of Her Majesty, and for the benefit of the lawful representatives or assigns of such authors, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of her Privy Council, and by virtue of the authority committed to her by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of her reign, intituled "An Act to amend the law relating to international copyright," did order, and it was thereby ordered, that, from and after the sixteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, the authors, inventors, designers, engravers, and makers of any of the following works; that is to say: books, prints, articles of sculpture, dramatic works, musical compositions, and any other works of art, in which the laws of Great Britain gave to British subjects the privilege of copyright, and the executors, administrators, and assigns of such authors, inventors, designers, engravers, and makers respectively, should, as respects works first published within the State of Hamburg after the said sixteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, have the privilege of copyright therein for a period equal to the term of copyright which authors, inventors, designers, engravers, and makers of the like works respectively, first published in the United Kingdom, were by law entitled to, provided such books, dramatic pieces, musical compositions, prints, articles of sculpture, or other works of art, should have been registered and copies thereof should have been delivered, according to the requirements of the said recited Act, within three months after the first publication thereof in any part of the State of Hamburg, or if such works were published in parts, then within three months after the publication of the last part thereof.

And it was thereby further ordered, that the authors of dramatic pieces and musical compositions, which should, after the said sixteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, be first publicly represented or performed within the State of Hamburg, or their assigns, should have the sole liberty of representing or performing in any part of the British dominions such dramatic pieces or musical compositions, during a period equal to the period during which authors of dramatic pieces and musical compositions, first publicly represented or performed in the United Kingdom, were entitled by law to the sole liberty of representing or performing the same, provided such dramatic pieces or musical compositions had been registered, and copies thereof had been delivered according to the requirements of the said recited Act within three months after the time of their being first represented or performed in any part of the State of Hamburg.

Now, for giving further effect to the said treaty, Her Majesty by and with the advice of her Privy Council, and by virtue of the authority committed to her by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of her reign, intituled "An Act to enable Her Majesty to carry into effect a convention with France, on the subject of copyright, to explain and extend the international copyright Acts, and to explain the Acts relating to copyright in engravings," doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that the authors of any works published, or of any dramatic pieces first publicly represented, within the State of Hamburg, at any time after the day next after the day of the publication hereof in the London Gazette, who may choose to reserve the right of translating such works or dramatic pieces, their executors, administrators and assigns, shall until the expiration of five years from the date of the first publication of the translations authorized by them respectively, of such works or from the time at which the translations authorized by them of such dramatic pieces are first published or publicly represented, be, subject to the provisions mentioned in the said last-mentioned Act, empowered to prevent the publication in the British dominions of any translation of such works or dramatic pieces, and the representation therein of any translation of such dramatic pieces, not so respectively authorized by them.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 8th day of February, 1855,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale of certain property formerly belonging to the prebend of Liddington, in the cathedral church of Lincoln, and now vested in us.

"Whereas it is by the said Act (amongst other things) enacted, that notwithstanding the charge by that Act created (being a charge created in favour of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne), all the same and the like powers and rights of ownership as are possessed and enjoyed respecting and over any lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or other hereditaments whatsoever, by any absolute owner thereof, shall be enjoyed by us with respect to and over all or any lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or other hereditaments vested in us under certain Acts therein mentioned (being the Acts under which the property herein-after described is vested in us), and may, subject to the provisions of the same Acts, and of the now reciting Act, be exercised by us, by proper instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, with a certain proviso respecting the application of every sum of money received as the consideration or purchase money for the sale, transfer, or conveyance by us of any of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments, or of any estate or interest therein, and with a further proviso that none of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments be sold, transferred, or conveyed, except by the authority of a scheme, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council ratifying the same:

"And whereas all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments formerly belonging to the said prebend of Liddington, (except any right of ecclesiastical patronage), became vested in us by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the fifteenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, and duly published in the London Gazette of the eighteenth day of the same month, subject to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof:

"And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in certain portions of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments; and, after due consideration, it appears to us to be expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable:

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, or endowments heretofore belonging to the said prebend of Liddington, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lincoln.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 8th day of February, 1855,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the ninth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the Fourth Report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for substituting a money payment for certain property belonging to the dean and chapter of the cathedral and metropolitical church of Saint Peter of York.

"Whereas it was by the said recited Acts enacted, that by the authority of a scheme prepared by us, and ratified by an Order of your Majesty in Council, and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions of the said first recited Act, any arrangement might be made, with the consent in writing, under the corporate seal of any chapter, for the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands, tithes, or hereditaments belonging to such chapter, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting in any case any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments.

"And whereas, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the twenty-first year of the reign of His Majesty King James the First, intituled 'An Act for the assuring of a messuage, called York House, and of divers other messuages and tenements, part of the possessions of the Archbishop of York, situate in the parish of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields, in the county of Middlesex, unto the King's Most Excellent Majesty, his heirs, successors, and assigns, and of the manors or lordships of Brighton, Sancton, Acomb, alias Acom with Holgate, and the Grange, called Beckhay Grange, in the county of York, or in the county of the city of York, part of His Majesty's possessions, unto Toby, Lord Archbishop of York, and his successors,' the said dean and chapter are entitled, during any vacancy of the see of York, to the rents, issues, and profits of the estates acquired by the said see of York under the provisions of such Act, the natures and situations whereof are specified in the schedule hereto annexed.

"And whereas one of the purposes of the two firstly hereinbefore recited Acts is to provide a fund for making better provision for the cure of souls, and the said dean and chapter have proposed to us, with the consent of their visitor, that all the interest possessed by them, under the last-recited Act, in such estates as aforesaid, should be dealt with in manner hereinafter mentioned; and we are of opinion that it would be conducive to the improvement of the said fund, and also to the permanent benefit of the said dean and chapter, that the same should be dealt with accordingly.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral and Metropolitical Church of Saint Peter of York, and also of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Thomas, Archbishop of York, as visitor of the said dean and chapter, testified by their having hereunto affixed their respective corporate seals, we humbly recommend and propose, that in consideration of the annual money payment hereinafter mentioned, to be paid by us to the said dean and chapter, all the estate and interest claim and demand of them the said dean and chapter, to which, by virtue of the hereinbefore recited Act of the twenty-first of King James the First, they are now or may at any time hereafter become entitled in the estates which were acquired by the See of York, under the provisions of the said last-mentioned Act, the natures and situations of which are specified in the said schedule hereto annexed, shall from and after the day on which any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette, and without any other conveyance or assurance in the law, become and be transferred to and vested in us and our successors, and that we and they shall become and be absolutely possessed of the same, in the same manner and to and for the same estate and interest as the said dean and chapter now are; and that in consideration of and for such transfer and conveyance, there shall be paid by us to the said dean and chapter and their successors the fixed annual sum of twenty-five pounds, by equal half yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in every year, the first of such payments to become due and be payable on the first day of May next, and that the receipt or receipts of the Treasurer for the time being of the said dean and chapter, shall be good and valid discharges to us for all or any and every such sum or sums of money as shall in such receipt or receipts be expressed to have been paid to him by us, under the authority of such Order as last aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matter aforesaid, in conformity with the said Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

AT the Court at Windsor, the 8th day of February, 1855,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale of certain property formerly belonging to the Prebend of Alrewas, in the cathedral church of Lichfield, and now vested in us.

"Whereas it is by the said Act (amongst other things) enacted, that notwithstanding the charge by that Act created (being a charge created in favour of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne), all the same and the like powers and rights of ownership as are possessed and enjoyed respecting and over any lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or other hereditaments whatsoever, by any absolute owner thereof, shall be enjoyed by us with respect to and over all or any lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or other hereditaments vested in us under certain Acts therein mentioned (being the Acts under which the property herein-after described is vested in us), and may, subject to the provisions of the same Acts, and of the now reciting Act, be exercised by us, by proper instruments in writing duly executed according to law; with a certain proviso respecting the application of every sum of money received as the consideration or purchase-money for the sale, transfer, or conveyance by us of any of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments, or of any estate or interest therein, and with a further proviso that none of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments be sold, transferred, or conveyed, except by the authority of a scheme, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council ratifying the same:

"And whereas all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, formerly belonging to the said Prebend of Alrewas (except any right of ecclesiastical patronage), became vested in us by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the eighth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and duly published in the London Gazette of the ninth day of the same month, subject to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof:

"And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in certain portions of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments; and, after due consideration, it appears to us to be expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable:

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, or endowments heretofore belonging to the said Prebend of Alrewas, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable:

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto the Reverend Charles Wellington Johnson, of Great Torrington, in the county of Devon, and of Halsdon House, in the parish of Dolton, in the said county, her royal licence and authority that he and his issue may, in order to testify his grateful and affectionate respect for the memory of his maternal uncle, John Henry Furse, late of Halsdon House aforesaid, Esquire, deceased, take, and henceforth use, the surname of Furse, instead of that of Johnson.

And also to command that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in Her Majesty's College of Arms; otherwise to be void and of none effect.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, by Warrant, under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British or Inland postage, payable by law, on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof.

And whereas further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by an Act, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the post office."

And whereas it is expedient to alter the rates of postage on the letters hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers vested in us in and by the said before-mentioned Acts, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant (under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided), order and direct, that on every letter not exceeding one quarter of an ounce in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Mersinà, Alexandretta, Latakia, Tripoli (in Syria), or Jaffa, or posted at Mersinà, Alexandretta, Latakia, Tripoli (in Syria), or Jaffa, addressed to the United Kingdom, and transmitted by the post between any place in the United Kingdom and Mersinà, Alexandretta, Latakia, Tripoli (in Syria), or Jaffa, via France (the sea conveyance in the Mediterranean being by French packet-boats), there shall be charged, taken, and paid, in lieu of any rates of postage now payable by law on such respective letters, an uniform British rate of postage of two pence.

And we direct that on every letter, transmitted as is hereinbefore mentioned, exceeding a quarter of an ounce in weight there shall be charged, taken, and paid, in lieu of any rates of postage now payable by law on such respective letters, progressive and additional rates of postage as follows (that is to say):

On every letter exceeding a quarter of an ounce in weight, and not exceeding half an ounce in weight, two rates of postage.

On every letter exceeding half an ounce in weight, and not exceeding three-quarters of an ounce in weight, three rates of postage.

On every letter exceeding three-quarters of an ounce in weight, and not exceeding one ounce in weight, four rates of postage.

And for every quarter of an ounce in weight above the weight of one ounce, there shall be charged and taken one additional rate of postage, and every fraction of a quarter of an ounce above the weight of one ounce, shall be charged as an additional quarter of an ounce, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under the provisions hereinbefore contained, if not exceeding one quarter of an ounce in weight.

And we do further order and direct that nothing herein contained, shall be construed in anywise to annul, prejudice, or affect, any of the exemptions and privileges granted by the said recited Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, nor to annul, prejudice, or affect, any of the privileges which seamen and soldiers employed in Her Majesty's service, and seamen and soldiers employed in the service of the East India Company, now by law enjoy, of sending and receiving by the post, letters not exceeding half an ounce in weight, subject to the regulations and restrictions in respect of the same, nor to annul, prejudice, or affect, any privileges under which printed newspapers, or other printed papers, are now allowed to pass by the post, or to repeal, alter, or affect, the provisions of a certain Warrant, under the hands of two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, bearing date the 17th day of May, 1854, as to certain letters transmitted by the post, between the United Kingdom and any port or place in Turkey, or the Black Sea.

And we do further order and direct, that the several terms and expressions used in this Warrant, shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects, as they would have had if inserted in the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

Provided lastly, and we hereby declare and direct that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any two of them, by Warrant under their hands, at any time hereafter to alter any of the regulations hereby made, and to make and establish any new or other regulations in lieu thereof.

Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, the fourteenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

Alfred Hervey.
Elcho.

Whitehall, February 5, 1855.

The Right Honourable Sir John Jervis, Knt., Lord Chief Justice of Her Majesty's Court of Common Pleas, at Westminster, has appointed Edwin Boxall, of Brighton, in the county of Sussex, Gentleman, to be one of the Perpetual Commissioners for taking the acknowledgments of deeds to be executed by married women, under the Act passed for the abolition of fines and recoveries, and for the substitution of more simple modes of assurance, in and for the county of Sussex.

NOTICE.

County Courts' Registry, No. 2, New Street, Spring Gardens.

REDUCTION OF FEES.

THE Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury have been pleased to order that the following reduced fees should be taken for Searches, &c., namely:

Table of Fees.

	s.	d.
For every search for a judgment or petition for protection made at the Registry	0	6
For forty searches, to be made within two months (to be paid in advance)	10	0
For every certificate of search, obtained either through the Clerk of the Court or by a letter to the Registrar	2	0
For having the record of any judgment removed from the register (to be paid to the Clerk of the Court)	1	6

The registry of county courts' judgments was established to afford to traders a ready means of ascertaining the solvency of parties, and to enable executors and administrators to discover what judgment debts they are bound to satisfy.

In the registry can be found the name, address, and occupation of every party against whom a judgment has been recorded since March, 1847, in any of the county courts throughout England and Wales, for £10 and upwards, and which remains unsatisfied at the time the search is made.

INSOLVENCY.

Also the name, last address, and occupation of every party who has applied for protection from his creditors to any of the county courts since June, 1854.

NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset House, February 12, 1855.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now making for the intended distribution of proceeds arising from the Russian vessel Aland, captured on the 15th April, 1854, by Her Majesty's ship James Watt, and the ship-of-war Austerlitz, belonging to His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of the French.

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said proceeds are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Agents and all other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share belonging to any captor, are requested, with as little delay as possible, to transmit the same, accompanied by the usual documents, to the Prize Branch of the Department of the "Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset House."

Due notice will be given, by future advertisements in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and, at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

CONTRACT FOR IRON TANKS.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, February 3, 1855.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday, the 1st March next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, all such and spare articles and articles for repairs, as shall from time to time be required under a contract for three years certain, and afterwards until the expiration of three months' warning.

Patterns of the tanks and articles, may be seen at the Victualling Yard, at Deptford, and a form of the tender, and the conditions of the contract, may be obtained at the said office, or on application to Commander Bevis; at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Tanks," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place.

CONTRACTS FOR WHEAT, OATS, AND VINEGAR.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-House, February 7, 1855.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 22nd instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned articles, viz.:

Wheat, 3,000 quarters; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier, if preferred by the party tendering.

Oats 500 quarters; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Vinegar, 20,000 gallons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any; and also an unlimited power of selection.

A proportional part of the price per bushel of wheat will be paid for any weight exceeding 60 lbs. per bushel.

Tenders may be made for the whole, or any portion of any of one of the above articles; and every tender must specify in words, as well as in figures, the prices at which the articles may be offered.

Samples of the wheat and oats, not less than 2 quarts of each, must be produced by the parties tendering.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application to the said Office, or to Commander Bevis, conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

The conditions of the revised contracts, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at the said Office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent, on his behalf should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at Somerset-house.
