Whitehall, February 13, 1855.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto the Reverend Charles Wellington Johnson, of Great Torrington, in the county of Devon, and of Halsdon House, in the parish of Dolton, in the said county, her royal licence and authority that he and his issue may, in order to testify his grateful and affectionate respect for the memory of his maternal uncle, John Henry Furse, late of Halsdon House aforesaid, Esquire, deceased, take, and henceforth use, the surname of Furse, instead of that of Johnson.

And also to command that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in Her Majesty's College of Arms; otherwise to be void and of none effect.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, by Warrant, under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British or Inland postage, payable by law, on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof.

And whereas further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by an Act, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the post office."

And whereas it is expedient to alter the rates of postage on the letters hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers vested in us in and by the said before-mentioned Acts, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant (under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided), order and direct, that on every letter not exceeding one quarter of an ounce in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Mersinà, Alexandretta, Latakia, Tripoli (in Syria), or Jaffa, or posted at Mersinà, Alexandretta, Latakia, Tripoli (in Syria), or Jaffa, addressed to the United Kingdom, and transmitted by the post between any place in the United Kingdom and
