War-Department, April 3, 1855.

LORD PANMURE has this day received a Despatch and its Enclosure, of which the following are copies, addressed to His Lordship, by Field-Marshal the Lord Raglan, G.C.B.

*Before Sevastopol,
March 20, 1855.*

MY LORD,

IT is with deep concern that I transmit for your Lordship's information the copy of a letter, which I received on the 18th instant, from General Canrobert, announcing, with every expression of concern, the death of a British officer, who appears to have wandered into the French camp, and not answering the challenge that was repeated three times was shot dead by the French sentry, whose post he had approached.

This officer, Surgeon Le Blanc, of the 9th Foot, occupied a tent near the hospital huts of his regiment, situated at some distance from the encampment of the regiment itself. He was a gentleman of most temperate habits, and was occupied in reading, when suddenly, upon the alarm sounding, he rose from his seat, leaving his candle lighted and his book open, and walked out, he was never seen alive afterwards.

It should be explained that, shortly after the close of day on the 17th, there was a very heavy fire on the left of the French right, which was maintained for several hours. None of the English posts were attacked, but it was considered prudent to get the greater portion of our troops under arms. Mr. Le Blanc was shortsighted, and probably mistook his way from the first, the night being excessively dark, for he was found far distant to the left, and must have wandered from our position without knowing the direction in which he was going.

Being anxious to ascertain the facts of this unfortunate case, as correctly as possible, I have set on foot an enquiry to be conducted by English and French officers, in association with each other; and I propose to do myself the honour to send you their report.

I have addressed a similar letter to the General Commanding-in-Chief.

I have, &c.,
RAGLAN.

The Lord Panmure, &c. &c.

Enclosure.

Au Quartier Général, le 18 Mars, 1855.

MYLORD,

J'AI la douleur d'avoir à vous rendre compte d'un événement bien regrettable, qui préoccupe péniblement l'Armée Française et son Commandant-en-Chef.

Cette nuit, alors que les troupes étaient tenues en état d'alerte perpétuelle, un officier Anglais s'est présenté vers minuit en avant du front de bannière du 18^e régiment, établi près du clocheton en arrière de nos tranchées des attaques de gauche. Interpellé trois fois par le qui vive, cet officier n'a pas répondu, la sentinelle a fait feu et il a été tué sur le coup.

J'ai peine à m'expliquer comment ce malheureux officier se trouvait à pareille heure si loin des camps Anglaise. Je crois que sa mort ne peut être attribuée qu'à son imprudence, mais je n'en déplore pas moins cet événement, qu'il faut attribuer aussi à l'émotion naturelle d'un jeune soldat, lequel, au milieu des circonstances qui ont marqué la nuit dernière a rigoureusement exécuté le règlement militaire.

Je prie votre Seigneurie d'agréer l'assurance de mon respectueux dévouement.

Le Général en Chef de l'Armée Française,
(Signé) GL. CANROBERT.

*A Sa Seigneurie le Feld-Maréchal
Lord Raglan, Commandant-en-
Chef l'Armée Anglaise.*

(Translation.)

*Head Quarters,
March 18, 1855.*

MY LORD,

I AM grieved to have to inform you of an event, much to be regretted, which painfully engrosses the French Army and its Commander-in-Chief.

Last night, whilst the troops were kept perpetually on the alert, an English officer presented himself before the line of the 18th Regiment, established near the watch tower behind our trenches of the left attack. Although summoned three times by the qui vive the officer did not reply; the sentinel fired, and he was killed on the spot.

I can hardly understand how this unhappy officer found himself at such an hour so far from the English camp. I believe that his death can only be attributed to his own imprudence; but I do not the less deplore this event, which must also be attributed to the natural emotion of a young soldier, who, in the midst of the events which marked last night, rigorously executed the military regulation.

I have, &c.

(Signed) GL. CANROBERT,
General-in-Chief of the French Army.

Field-Marshal Lord Raglan, &c., &c.

NOTICE TO MASTERS OF VESSELS TRADING TO
RIO GRANDE DO SUL.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
April 3, 1855.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Rio Grande do Sul, notifying that British Shipmasters visiting that port have been in the habit of calculating the Brazilian "Palmo" as equivalent to nine inches British, and to signal the draught of water of their vessels (which is notified in Palmos) according to this estimate.

This custom, although sanctioned by the Sailing Directions with which Shipmasters are usually furnished for their guidance, is stated to have led to many mischiefs and inconveniences.

Her Majesty's Consul at Rio Grande do Sul has therefore officially ascertained from the Captain of that port that the exact equivalent of the Brazilian Palmo, as used there, is eight and three-quarters inches, British measure.

British Shipmasters trading with the port of Rio Grande do Sul are accordingly warned, that when hoisting the signals of the draught of water of their vessels, in order to enter or leave that port, they should signal the exact draught of water calculating the Brazilian Palmo at no more than eight and three-quarters inches British ; as by doing otherwise they hoist signals of less draught of water than their vessels require, thus increasing the risk of their vessels being injured or lost upon the Bar, and giving to the authorities at the Bar the opportunity of attributing to the fault of the Masters the casualties which occur. Shipmasters also render themselves liable to a heavy fine for signalling incorrectly.

NOTICE TO MASTERS OF VESSELS TRADING TO
RIO GRANDE DO SUL.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
April 3, 1855.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Minister at Rio de Janeiro, inclosing the translation of a Circular Note issued by the Brazilian Minister for Foreign Affairs respecting the practice by Masters of British vessels of attempting to cross the bar at Rio Grande do Sul, without waiting for the proper signal for entrance ; copy of which translation is subjoined.

(Copy.)

(Translation, Circular.)

*Ministry of Foreign Affairs,
Rio de Janeiro, January 18, 1855.*

It having come to the knowledge of the Imperial Government that some captains of foreign vessels commit the error of imprudently attempting to cross the bar of the province of San Pedro do Rio Grande do Sul, without the signal for entrance having been made by the respective Harbour Master, wherefrom disasters have frequently resulted, I consider it my duty, in the interest of national and foreign commerce, to call the attention of Mr. H. F. Howard, &c., to this subject, hoping that he will on his part intervene, in order that the captains of the merchant ships of his nation, who seek the said bar, may comply with the established practice, and avoid committing an error which may be equally prejudicial to the captains themselves and to commerce in general.

I avail myself, &c.,

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury from time to time by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British or inland postage, payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant.

And whereas it is expedient that regulations should be made for the transmission by the post of the letters hereinafter mentioned.

Now we the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the power or authority in us for such purpose vested in and by the said Act, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners, by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided, order and direct that on every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight transmitted by the post between any place in the United Kingdom and the colonies of Sierra Leone and Turk's Island, or either of them (direct or through any other colony, or through any foreign country) there shall be charged and taken in lieu of any rates of British postage now payable by law on such letters, an uniform British rate of sixpence.

And we direct that on every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight, transmitted by the post between Sierra Leone or Turk's Island, and any other of Her Majesty's colonies, or any foreign country through the United Kingdom (whether through any colony or foreign country or not) there shall be charged and taken, in lieu of any rates of British postage now payable by law on such letters, the rates of British postage following; that is to say:

For the conveyance of every such letter between Sierra Leone or Turk's Island, and any part of the United Kingdom, a rate of sixpence, and for the conveyance of every such letter between the port in the United Kingdom of the departure or arrival of the packet or ship conveying the same and the colony or foreign country to or from which the same shall be forwarded, such a further or additional rate of postage as shall from time to time be charged and payable for British postage on letters posted or delivered at the port in the United Kingdom of the departure or arrival of the packet or ship conveying the same, and transmitted direct between such port and any such colony or foreign country.

And we direct that on every letter transmitted as is mentioned in this Warrant exceeding half an ounce in weight, there shall be charged, taken and paid progressive and additional rates of postage as follows; that is to say:

On every such letter exceeding half an ounce in weight and not exceeding one ounce in weight, two rates of postage.

On every such letter exceeding one ounce and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of postage.

On every such letter exceeding two ounces and not exceeding three ounces in weight, six rates of postage.

And on every such letter exceeding three ounces and not exceeding four ounces in weight, eight rates of postage.

And for every ounce in weight above the weight of four ounces there shall be charged and taken two additional rates of postage, and every fraction of an ounce above the weight of four ounces, shall be charged as one additional ounce, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this Warrant if not exceeding half an ounce in weight.

And we direct, that in all cases in which any letter, in respect of which any rate of postage is chargeable by this Warrant, shall pass through a foreign country, any foreign postage payable thereon shall be charged and paid thereon in addition to the British postage.

And we further direct, that nothing in this Warrant contained shall be deemed or construed to extend to any letters posted in or addressed to France, or any foreign country through France, and transmitted between France or foreign countries (through France) and Sierra Leone or Turk's Island; all which last-mentioned letters shall be charged and chargeable with the same rates of postage as if this Warrant had not been signed.

And we further direct, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to annul, prejudice, or affect any of the exemptions and privileges granted by or under the said recited Act, or by or under any other Acts of Parliament relating to the Post Office, and that all such exemptions and privileges shall remain in full force.

And we further direct, that the term "by the post," used in this Warrant, shall, as to the sea conveyance, include the conveyance by any British or colonial, or foreign packet-boat (packet-boats belonging to or employed by or under the Government or Post Office of the United States of America and French Mediterranean packet-boats excepted) and also the sea conveyance by any private ship.

And we further direct, that this Warrant shall come into operation on the 1st day of June, 1855.

Provided lastly, and we hereby declare and direct, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any two of them, by Warrant under their hands, at any time hereafter, to alter or repeal any of the rates hereby altered, or the regulations hereby made, and to make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time to appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.
