

only be attributed to his own imprudence; but I do not the less deplore this event, which must also be attributed to the natural emotion of a young soldier, who, in the midst of the events which marked last night, rigorously executed the military regulation.

I have, &c.

(Signed) GL. CANROBERT,
General-in-Chief of the French Army.

Field-Marshal Lord Raglan, &c., &c.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 31st day of March, 1855.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day the Right Honourable Dudley, Earl of Harrowby, and the Right Honourable Edward Pleydell Bouverie, were, by Her Majesty's command, sworn of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took their respective places at the Board accordingly.

Her Majesty in Council was this day pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Edward John, Lord Stanley of Alderley, and in his absence the Right Honourable Edward Pleydell Bouverie, to be President of the Committee of Council appointed for the consideration of all matters relating to Trade and Foreign Plantations.

Her Majesty in Council was this day pleased to appoint the Right Honourable the Earl of Harrowby, the Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, to be a Member of the Committee of Council on Education.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 31st day of March, 1855.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the tenth and eleventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for limiting the time of service in the Army," it was enacted, that no person shall be enlisted to serve Her Majesty, or in the forces of the East India Company, as a soldier, for a longer term than ten years in the infantry, or twelve years in the cavalry, or artillery, or other ordnance corps, to be reckoned from the day on which the recruit shall have been attested, if he shall have stated himself to be then of the age of eighteen years, or, if not, then from the day on which he will complete the age of eighteen years, to be reckoned according to the age stated in his attestation.

"And whereas by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to amend the Act for limiting the term of service in the Army," it is enacted, that for three years after the passing of this Act, any person may be enlisted to serve Her Majesty, or in the forces of the East India Company, as a soldier, for any such term not exceeding ten years in the infantry, or twelve years in the cavalry, or artillery, or other ordnance corps, to be reckoned as provided in the said first-recited Act, as may be authorized by Her Majesty in Council in this behalf.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that any person may be enlisted as a soldier, under the provisions of the said first recited Act, of the 10th and 11th years of the reign of Her Majesty (cap. thirty-seven), for ten years in the infantry, or for twelve years in the cavalry, or artillery, or other ordnance corps, and also that any person between the ages of twenty-four and thirty-five years may, under the provisions of the above recited Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, for three years after the passing thereof, be enlisted as a soldier in Her Majesty's infantry forces, or in the infantry forces of the East India Company, for the term of two years, and for such further term, not exceeding one year, as Her Majesty may by Order in Council direct, the term of service to be reckoned as directed and provided in and by the Act of the tenth and eleventh years of the reign of Her Majesty, for limiting the time of service in the Army.

And the Right Honourable Lord Panmure, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and the Right Honourable the Commissioners for the Affairs of India, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 31st day of March, 1855.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis;" it is enacted, that in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification; it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require), that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time, as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also,
