

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, APRIL 6, 1855.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 31st day of March, 1855.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the ninth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts," and also in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," and of the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the second and third years of Her present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes," and of all other powers contained in the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the sixteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, in the words and figures following; viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parishes of Snaith and Kellington, in the West Riding of the county of York, and in the diocese of York, it appears to them to be expedient to unite and consolidate certain contiguous parts of the said parishes and to form the same into one consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes for the consecrated church of Saint Paul, situate at Hensall, in the said parish of Snaith, under the power or authority for such purpose contained in the ninth section of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts,' and that such proposed consolidated chapelry should be named "The Consolidated Chapelry of Hensall," and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say: commencing at the south bank of the River Aire, at the point where the township of Heck joins the township of Gowdall, thence along the boundary dividing the townships of Heck and Hensall from the townships of Pellington and Gowdall, to the boundary between the township of Balne and the township of Heck, thence westwardly along the last-mentioned boundary to the boundary between the townships of Whitley and Heck, thence along the last-mentioned boundary to the boundary between the township of Egborough and the township of Heck; thence westwardly along the boundary between the township of Whitley and the township of Egborough to a certain fence dividing the several closes of land in the township of Egborough, respectively numbered 294 and 295 in the tithe apportionment plan for the said township of Egborough, from other closes of land in the same township, respectively numbered 291 and 293 in the same plan; thence northwardly along the last-mentioned fence to the fence dividing the said close, numbered 291, from a close of land in the said township of Egborough, numbered 296 on the same plan; thence eastwardly along the last-mentioned fence to the south end of a drain dividing the said close of land, numbered 296, from two other closes in the same township, numbered 239 and 290, in the said plan; thence northwardly along the said last-mentioned drain to the road leading from Heck to Hut-green; thence eastwardly along the last-mentioned road to the road called Warren-lane, leading from High Egborough towards the River Aire; thence northwardly along the last-mentioned road to its junction with the low road from Hensall to Kellington; thence eastwardly along the last-mentioned low road to the occupation road, called the Ing's-lane, in the township of Egborough, leading towards the River Aire; thence northwardly along the last-mentioned road to its termination in a close of land in the said township of Egborough, numbered 50 in the tithe apportionment plan for the said township; thence northwardly and again eastwardly along the west and north fences of the said close, numbered 50, to the River Aire; thence along the south bank of the River Aire to the point where the said township of Heck joins the township of Gowdall, as such consolidated chapelry is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed and thereon coloured pink and blue.

"That the consents of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Thomas, Archbishop of the said diocese of York, of Yarburch Yarburch, of Sewerby-house, in the county of York, Esquire, patron of the parish church of the said parish of