

Meek's property, and the boundary of certain property belonging to the said Richard Meek and George Meek, Thomas Snow, George Rickaby, and William Winspear, as far as a field belonging to the late Reverend William Leonard Pickard, deceased; then turning in a northerly direction, and pursuing the boundary between the property of the said late Reverend William Leonard Pickard and the Governors of the York County Lunatic Asylum on the one side, and the property of the various owners of Union-terrace on the other side, as far as the public footpath behind the said asylum, called the Asylum-lane; then pursuing such lane in a westerly direction as far as the public road called Burton-lane; then turning north-easterly along the middle of Burton-lane as far as the gate opening on the public footpath leading across the fields of Benjamin Dodsworth, Esquire, at the west side of his house, called Burton Grange, and pursuing such footpath until it reaches an occupation-road leading into a public road, called Water-lane, in or near a field belonging to the Right Honourable Earl De Grey, and in the occupation of George Houlgate, then pursuing the said occupation-road to the corner of the pinfold where such occupation-road leads into Water-lane aforesaid; and then along the middle of Water-lane in a northerly direction to the public road called Kettlestring-lane; and then turning north-easterly along the middle of Kettlestring-lane to the York and Oswaldkirk Turnpike-road; from this point, turning south and south-easterly, and pursuing the existing boundary between the township of Clifton and the township of Huntington, in the North Riding, and the said township of Clifton and the township of Ilwworth, in the same riding, as far as one of the boundary-stones of the parish of Saint Maurice aforesaid, near Grove-terrace, at the River Foss; then turning westwards and pursuing the existing boundary between the parish of Saint Maurice and the township of Clifton aforesaid, to the west end of a small plantation at the back of Grove-terrace; then turning southerly along the west end of such plantation as far as the public footpath across the field in front of Grove House, formerly belonging to the late Robert Cattle Esquire, deceased; and at such footpath turning south-westerly, and pursuing the middle of the same footpath as far as Penley Grove-street, and along the middle of Penley Grove-street, north-westerly, as far as the northern boundary of the property belonging to the trustees of Mrs. Harrison's Hospital, and turning south-westerly along such northern boundary as far as the north-eastern boundary of the property belonging to the proprietors of the York and Ripon Diocesan Training School and Yeoman School, and pursuing such boundary in a north-westerly direction as far as the boundary separating the township of Clifton from the parish of Saint Maurice; then pursuing such boundary in a south-westerly direction as far as the boundary between the parish of Saint Giles and the township of Clifton, and pursuing such last-mentioned boundary in a north-westerly direction as far as the north-western boundary of the property of the said proprietors of the said school; then turning south-westerly as far as a house belonging to, and in the occupation of, Mr. John Ward, in a new-formed street, called De Grey-street, and turning to the north-west at the eastern boundary of such last-mentioned house, as far as the middle of De Grey-street; then turning south-westerly along the middle of De Grey-street to the middle of another new street now forming, called James-street, leading from De Grey-street aforesaid to Clarence-street, and turning along the middle of

James-street, in a north-westerly direction, as far as Clarence-street aforesaid; and thence in a straight line, in a westerly direction, to the west end of the said house belonging to the said Richard Meek, and in the occupation of the said John Watson, at the point where the boundary of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Thomas York commenced, and as the same is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured pink, blue, and green.

"That the consents of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Thomas, Archbishop of the said diocese of York, and also patron, in right of his see, of the parish church of the said parish of Saint Maurice York, of the Right Honourable Thomas Philip Weddell, Earl De Grey, patron of the parish church of the said united parishes of Saint Olave and Saint Giles York, and of the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of York, patrons of the parish church of the said parish of Saint Michael-le-Belfrey York, have been severally obtained to the formation of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Thomas York, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof the said Thomas, Archbishop of York, and Thomas Philip Weddell, Earl de Grey, have signed and sealed this representation, and the said dean and chapter have hereto affixed their common seal.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it has been mutually agreed between the said Thomas, Archbishop of York, Thomas Philip Weddell, Earl De Grey, and the said dean and chapter, as such respective patrons as aforesaid, testified as aforesaid (with the approbation of your Majesty's said Commissioners, testified as hereinafter mentioned, and of the said Thomas, Archbishop of York, testified as aforesaid, that the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church of Saint Thomas in the Groves aforesaid should be vested in, belong to, and whenever occasion may require, be exercised by, the Archbishop of York for the time being.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the consolidated chapelry therein mentioned for the consecrated church of Saint Thomas, situate in the Groves, in the united parishes of Saint Olave and Saint Giles York, be accordingly formed, and that the agreement mentioned in the said representation in respect of the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Act; and that the right of presentation and nomination to the said church shall be vested in, belong to, and be exercised by, the Archbishop of York for the time being, he being the person mentioned in such representation; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of York.

Wm. L. Bathurst.