Whitehall, June 13, 1855.

THE REPORT OF THE PATRIOTIC FUND COMMISSIONERS.

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's Commissioners for the formation and application of a Patriotic Fund, for the relief of the Widows and Orphans of the Soldiers, Sailors, or Marines who may be killed or may die on active service, during the present war, now humbly beg to present to your Majesty a First Report of our proceedings, and of the arrangements which we have deemed it expedient to make, for giving an early effect to your Majesty's gracious intentions.

Measures taken for collecting fund.

2. Acting under the sanction of one of your Majesty's Secretaries of State, our Honorary Secretaries proceeded at once, on the promulgation of the Royal Commission in the London Gazette of the 16th October, 1854, to communicate with the Commissioners in Aid, both at home and abroad, and to request their assistance for the formation of Local Committees to collect and transmit the gifts and voluntary subscriptions of your Majesty's loyal subjects to the Patriotic Fund. To facilitate those measures our Honorary Secretaries issued the notice (A.) in the Appendix.

Amount collected, and the classes from whom received.

3. The unprecedented amount which, in the short space of six months, has been contributed in answer to that appeal is a most satisfactory proof of the eagerness with which your Majesty's subjects have embraced an occasion of testifying at once their loyal support of the great contest in which our country is engaged, and their recognition of the claims of those gallant men who may unhappily fall in it. A sum exceeding a Million sterling has now been paid into the Bank of England to our account. Every class of the community has contributed liberally to the Fund. On the one hand, the nobility, the gentry, the great corporate mercantile bodies of the kingdom, have proportioned their donations to the greatness of the occasion, and to their large share of the blessings bestowed by Providence upon this favoured land. On the other, we have found that the brilliant deeds of our countrymen in arms have awakened equal sympathy in every class of humble life, even among those whose generous impulses can be gratified only at the cost of privation and self-denial. Contributions of large amount have been received from agricultural districts and rural parishes, swelled by the spontaneous bounty of the peasantry, artizans, domestic servants, workpeople, labourers, individually and in associations, have felt a patriotic pride and a generous satisfaction in answering their Sovereign's appeal. In one striking instance, the inmates of the Reformatory Asylum, Smith-street, Westminster, having literally nothing of their own to give, denied themselves a meal, that its value might be offered as their gift. We deem it a fact deserving your Majesty's notice, that even the children of the poorer classes have very generally contributed their "mite" to enlarge the amount of the nation's bounty.

Sums collected from colonies, English residents abroad, and from foreigners.—Collections from foreign countries.

4. It will be our duty hereafter to submit to your Majesty as detailed a statement as may be practicable of the sources from which the Patriotic Fund has been derived. Your Majesty will be gratified to hear that the contributions have not been confined to Great Britain, or even to your Majesty's subjects. Very large sums have been received from British residents abroad. Your Majesty's representatives in the colonies, acting as Commissioners in Aid, have been warmly seconded by the loyal feelings of your Majesty's colonial subjects, in proof which we can point to magnificent contributions from India, from the North American colonies, from Australia, and in fact from nearly every British possession; amongst other contributions may be mentioned that of the Six Nation Indians, who have subscribed the sum of £100. Your Majesty's Consuls-General, Consuls, and other influential British subjects also, in all parts of the world, have manifested a laudable zeal in contributing themselves, and in encouraging and collecting contributions to the National Fund. We have peculiar pleasure in reporting to your Majesty that the natives of many foreign countries also have spontaneously and largely contributed, and have accompanied their donations with kind expressions of sympathy for the sufferers, and testimony to their sense of the justice of the war in which your Majesty and Allies are engaged.

Amount of Fund.

5. We beg to submit, in Appendix B., a detailed account of the sums received in each month since the opening of the subscription, and a statement of the mode in which they have been invested.

Distribution of relief by Honorary Secretaries.

6. The distribution of relief was commenced by the Honorary Secretaries in the month of November, 1854, under a sanction provisionally given to them for that purpose, by one of your Majesty's Secretaries of State. Under this arrangement, about 73 widows and 114 orphan children were actually receiving assistance at the period when we first entered upon the active discharge of the duties which your Majesty had been pleased to impose upon us. A list of our meetings, of which regular minutes have been kept, will be found in Appendix C.

Appointment of Finance Committee.

7. In conformity with the authority given to us, we proceeded at once to nominate an Excutive and Finance Committee, composed of the following:—

The Right Honourable Lord St. Leonards.
Colonel the Honourable James Lindsay, M.P.
Lieutenant-Colonel Shafto Adair, M.P.
Thomas Baring, Esquire, M.P.
George C. Glyn, Esquire, M.P.
Sir Alexander Spearman, Bart.
Vice-Admiral Henry Hope, C.B.
Major R. J. Little, Royal Marines.
W. G. Anderson, Esquire, Treasury.
R. C. Kirby, Esquire, War Office.
Captain E. G. Fishbourne, R.N.
Captain J. H. Lefroy, R.A.

Having selected the Lord St. Leonards as their Chairman, this Committee has since held regular meetings, and has made us two reports, of which we have approved, and which we humbly submit to your Majesty in Appendix D. 1 and 2.

Powers conferred by the Commission.—Claims of Widows of Superior Officers deferred.—Amateur Artists' Fund, Burlington House.

8. Upon a careful consideration of our powers, we are led to the conclusion that, while they do not exclude the Widows and Orphans of Commissioned Officers of the Army, Navy, and Marines, yet, inasmuch as a provision has been made by your Majesty's pension warrant and compassionate allowances for the relief of claimants of that class, they cannot in general be considered as primary objects of the royal commission. Consequently, we have deferred for the most part the claims of this class till the number and urgency of those of the primary classes, viz.:—those of Widows and Orphans of Non-commissioned and Petty Officers, Private Soldiers, Seamen, and Marines, for whom no such provision exists, should be known and provided for. We are happy, however, to be able to report, that through the instrumentality of the Committee of Amateur Artists, several sums of money have already been placed at our disposal, for immediate distribution amongst the Widows and Orphans of all classes of Officers. We have already offered our warm acknowledgments to the Committee; and we have to report to your Majesty that the money has been applied in the relief of several pressing claims, and has elicited very grateful acknowledgements from the recipients.

Applications of Officers' Widows and Orphans.

9. Omitting, from motives of delicacy, the names of the Applicants, we submit to your Majesty, in Appendix E., the cases of all those ladies who have applied for assistance, as an index to the circumstances in which it is too probable that many gallant Officers may leave their Widows and families, in the event of their falling in the present war.

First Estimate of the Number of Widows and Orphans.

10. Truly gratifying, and indeed magnificent, as is the amount of the subscription received, there is little reason to doubt that the claims upon it will be correspondingly great. In February we were led to suppose, upon the best data we were able to collect, that the naval and military operations in which the country had then been engaged, had already thrown upon the bounty of the country 2,000 widows and 3,400 orphans, and on this supposition the first scale of allowance that we sanctioned was framed; but, finding the estimate of numbers, especially in the case of orphans, was excessive, we have been induced to substitute an amended scale. These are given in Appendices F and G. How many may be added to these, should the war unhappily be prolonged, it is impossible for us to conjecture. It cannot be doubted, however, that the number will be considerable. Each week, under present circumstances, from 70 to 80 widows are added to the number receiving relief, not in many cases from the recent death of their husbands, but from the fact that they had not been previously informed of their bereavement.

Number of Widows and Orphans now receiving Relief.

11. The total number of Widows of the primary class, who have actually applied for and received relief up to the 10th of May, 1855, falls considerably short of the number we estimated for above; it is, 1,487; and in connexion with them are 1,802 children, exclusive of 33 children who have lost both parents. The table in Appendix H. shows the districts in which they are residing, and the numbers belonging to the army and navy respectively.

Resolutions for the guidance of the Finance Committee.

12. We beg humbly to lay before your Majesty, in a concise form, a series of resolutions we have come to, for the present guidance of our Executive Committee, in the distribution of the Fund to the primary classes, and which your Majesty will find in Appendix I.

Measures with reference to Education.

13. In the enumeration of the benevolent objects promoted by your Majesty's Royal Commission, a prominent place is given to the all-important boon of education. To this object we have directed our careful attention. In the great uncertainty which must prevail for some time to come as to the number of orphan children of any class who may look to us for protection, it would be premature to originate any large or general measure. In many cases benevolent individuals have undertaken the charge and education of orphan children. Some of the principal Orphan Asylums have offered to provide for others; and our Executive and Finance Committee has given a general notice that it will defray the small weekly charge incurred by sending any of the children of mothers relieved from the Fund to the ordinary schools of their localities, having due regard to the religious opinions of the children or of their parents. We have further authorized this Committee to place orphans for education in any asylum, industrial school, or other establishment for receiving orphans or destitute children, which offers itself in their neighbourhood; but for the present we have thought it desirable not to authorize the Committee to purchase perpetual rights of presentation, or to endow or enlarge any such establishments.

APPENDIX A.

ROYAL COMMISSION OF THE PATRIOTIC FUND.

Notice.

The Offices of the Royal Commissioners of the "Patriotic Fund" are, for the present, at No. 16A, Great George Street, corner of Parliament Street, Westminster.

The hours of attendance will be from 11 A.M. till 4 P.M. daily.

The "Commissioners in Aid" of the "Patriotic Fund" are earnestly requested, without further notice, to take immediate steps for giving publicity, within their several jurisdictions, to the Royal Commission, in order that Local Committees be formed, wherever practicable, with the least possible delay.

"Local Committees" will, according to their discretion, obtain contributions to the Patriotic Fund, either by public meetings, establishing subscription lists, or otherwise.

The acknowledgment of individual donations, where obtained through the "Commissioners in Aid" or by "Local Committees," must in all cases, to avoid error and expense, be left exclusively to the "Local Committees."

Local Committees are requested to make up their first subscription lists and accounts in or before the first week in December next, and to remit the amounts in or before the following week, by drafts payable to the "Patriotic Fund," crossed "Bank of England," to the Secretaries of the Commission, or direct to the Bank of England.

Total amounts only, as transmitted by Local Committees, will be acknowledged at fixed periods in two London daily newspapers.

Donations, subscriptions, and contributions to the "Patriotic Fund," other than those paid to Local Committees, will be received by the Secretaries at the offices of the Royal Commission as above, at the Bank of England, and by all London Bankers. Acknowledgments of the receipt will appear, from time to time, in the London papers above mentioned; but it is hoped that no separate receipts or acknowledgments will be required from the Honorary Secretaries, whose duties will be otherwise sufficiently laborious.

The house has been recently erected at a great expense, and is substantially built. The exterior is of wrought stone, ornamentally designed and well finished; and the interior is replete with all conveniences, and has been constructed with every regard to elegance and comfort. The dining-room is 27 feet by 18; the drawing-room and principal bed-rooms and kitchen are lofty and spacious; and the other rooms are well proportioned.

The carriage-house, stable, and other outbuildings, are well built of stone, ventilated, and drained, and are admirably adapted to their several purposes, and embrace all modern improvements.

The pleasure-grounds are tastefully laid out and well kept, and the kitchen-gardens are extensive, abundantly stocked with fruit-trees of every description, and in first-rate condition.

The premises have an ample supply of spring-water; and the house and outbuildings are fitted up for gas.

The house stands upon an eligible elevation. Its principal fronts are towards the south and east, and command extensive and unbroken views of the beautiful and romantic scenery of the district; and, taken as a whole, it is a desirable and compact residence for a respectable family.

The buildings and conveniences comprise an area of 496 superficial square yards; and, by the proximity of the property to Hays Mill, constant tenants may be relied on.

The whole of the above property is of freehold tenure.
