MONDAY, JULY 23, 1855.

War-Department, July 23, 1855.

LORD PANMURE has this day received a Despatch and its Enclosures, of which the following are copies, addressed to his Lordship by Lieutenant-General Simpson, Commanding Her Majesty's Forces in the East.

*Before Sevastopol,
July 10, 1855.*

MY LORD,

I HAVE the honour to enclose the returns of casualties to the 8th instant.

Your Lordship will regret to see that the lists of killed and wounded are heavy; but the nearer we approach the defences of the place the greater number of casualties must be expected.

Brevet-Major Harrison, 63rd Regiment, was killed on the evening of the 7th instant, whilst proceeding to the trenches; he was a most excellent officer, and is a serious loss to Her Majesty's service.

It will give your Lordship sincere pleasure to mark the improvement in the general health of the troops.

At five o'clock this morning a heavy fire was opened upon the Redan by the Allied batteries.

I have, &c.,

JAMES SIMPSON,
Lieutenant-General Commanding.

The Lord Panmure, &c. &c. &c.

DESPATCHES, of which the following are copies, have been received at the Admiralty from Rear-Admiral Sir Edmund Lyons, Bart., G.C.B., Commander-in-Chief of Her Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Black Sea.

Royal Albert, off Sevastopol,July 10, 1855.

Sir,
THEIR Lordships will have great pleasure in learning that Commander Osborn, of the Vesuvius, mentions in favourable terms a letter he had received from Lieutenant W. N. W. Hewett, the Commander of the Beagle, reporting the destruction of the floating bridge in the Straits of Genitchi.

2. I have now the honour to enclose a copy of that letter, and to draw their Lordships' attention to the excellent arrangements made by Lieutenant Hewett, as well as to the gallant and able way in which his orders were executed by Mr. Martin Tracey, Midshipman, of the Vesuvius, Mr. John Hayles, Acting Gunner of the Beagle and the boats' crews, one of whom, Joseph Trewavas, Ordinary Seaman, lent from the Agamemnon, was wounded, and is particularly mentioned as having cut the hawsers.

I am, &c.

(Signed) EDMUND LYONS,
Rear-Admiral and Commander-in-Chief.
To the Secretary of the Admiralty.

Beagle, off the town of Ghenitchesk,
4th July, 1855.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to inform you that on my arrival off this place I immediately proceeded to minutely examine the communication between the town and Arabat Spit, and, on so doing, found it to be by means of a ferry of two large flats and hawsers, which I determined to destroy if possible.

Accordingly on the forenoon of yesterday I despatched my gig, under Mr. John Hayles, Acting Gunner of this ship, and paddle-box boat, under Mr. Martin Tracey, Midshipman, of the Vesuvius.

I have much pleasure in reporting that they succeeded entirely in destroying it by cutting the hawsers and casting the boats adrift, which was done under a very heavy fire of musketry at about 80 yards, the troops completely lining the beach, and the adjacent houses being filled with riflemen.

Great credit is due to Mr. Hayles for his activity and zeal in destroying the same, and to Mr. Martin Tracey for the effectual fire he kept up in covering his retreat, the firing from the ship and paddle-box boat at the same time causing great confusion and loss amongst the enemy as they retired from their exposed position.

Mr. Hayles speaks in the highest terms of the boat's crew, especially of Joseph Trewavas, Ordinary Seaman, lent from the Agamemnon, who cut the hawsers.

I enclose a list of casualties, which, I am happy to say, is very small, although the gig and paddle-box boat were riddled with musket balls.

I have &c.,

(Signed) W. N. W. HEWETT,
Lieutenant Commanding.

To Commander S. Osborne,
Senior Officer of Her
Majesty's ship Vesuvius.

DESPATCHES, of which the following are copies, have been received at the Admiralty from Rear-Admiral the Honourable R. S. Dundas, Commander-in-Chief of Her Majesty's ships and vessels in the Baltic.

Duke of Wellington,
at Nargen, July 17, 1855.

SIR,

I TRANSMIT herewith, to be laid before my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a report of proceedings during the past week from Captain Yelverton, who rejoined me yesterday at this anchorage in Her Majesty's ship Arrogant, and who, with the Magicienne and Ruby gunboats in company, visited the south coast of the Gulf of Finland, and attacked some military posts of the enemy at Kounda Bay and in the River Portsoiki.

Returning afterwards to his former station in the Bay of Viborg, he proceeded with boats towards the town, and engaged with a superior force of the enemy defended by batteries.

I request you will express to their Lordships my approbation of the conduct of this enterprising officer upon all occasions; and I would beg to recommend to their favourable notice the conduct of Captain Vansittart, of the Magicienne, and of Lieutenant Haggard, of the Arrogant, and Lieutenant Dowell, of the Royal Marine Artillery, and the excellent behaviour of all the officers and men.

Captain Yelverton has spoken favourably also of the conduct of Mr. Hale, mate, in command of the Ruby.

I regret much to have to report the loss of Mr. Story, midshipman, of the Arrogant, with nine others wounded in the boats of the two ships, of whom one is since dead.

I have, &c.

(Signed) R. S. DUNDAS.

To the Secretary of the Admiralty.

Enclosure in Admiral Dundas's Letter.

Her Majesty's ship, Arrogant,
off Viborg, July 14, 1855.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to acquaint you with my proceedings during the week.

The Magicienne rejoined me on Wednesday, and I proceeded direct to Kounda Bay, on the South Coast, where I had reason to think that troops were concentrated. It turned out to be a large Cossack encampment, on a most commanding position, from whence I dislodged them, with shell and rockets from the Ruby and ship's boats. Some opposition was made to our landing, and shots fired from behind hedges, &c.; but I succeeded in examining the place, which I did not injure, as it only contained private property.

The following morning I anchored at the mouth of the River Portsoiki, and landing on its right bank, destroyed a Cossack barrack and stables, driving the soldiers into the country. I then came on here.

Having anchored the ships as close as I could to the Island of Stralsund, I proceeded in the Ruby, accompanied by Captain Vansittart, of the Magicienne, and Captain Lowder, R.M., of this ship, the latter officer having under his command a strong detachment of marines; we towed with us the boats of this ship, under the command of Lieutenants Haggard and Woolcombe, and those of the Magicienne, under the command of Lieutenants King and Loaty.

Having opened the bay, called Trangsund, we saw a Russian man-of-war steamer with two large gun-boats in tow, not far off; this most novel and unexpected sight of a Russian man-of-war for once clear of a stone wall, and to all appearance inclined to give us a fair and honest fight, created the greatest enthusiasm amongst the men and officers.

I directed Mr. Hale, commanding the Ruby, to open fire on her at once, but she very soon retired out of range, having, I think, received some damage. We had now reached the entrance of the sound; Viborg was in sight, and a fair prospect of attacking three large gun-boats, lying with another steamer under an island about one mile off. We were here brought up by a barrier, impeding the passage of the gun-boat and launches.

At this moment, a masked battery on the left bank, not more than 350 yards off, opened on us a heavy fire of musketry, round, and grape; this was instantly returned and kept in check by a rapid and well directed fire from the Ruby and all the boats. The enemy's steamer and gun-boats then came from under the island and also opened fire on us.

As it was impossible to get the Ruby through the barrier, I returned towards Stralsund, the enemy's riflemen following us along the banks, but driven from their positions as fast as they took them by the fire from the Ruby and boats.

An explosion took place in one of the Arrogant's cutters, which swamped the boat; the men were saved, but I regret to say that Mr. Story, the midshipman in command of her, was killed.

In endeavouring to save the crew, the boat drifted close to the battery, and would have fallen into the hands of the enemy, had not Lieutenant Haggard, of this ship, and Lieutenant Dowell, R.M.A., of the Magicienne, in the Ruby's gig, with a volunteer crew, towed her out under a very heavy fire.

I cannot sufficiently praise the conduct of all the officers and men who were engaged in this affair, where their cool and determined courage enabled them to handle most severely, and keep in check for upwards of one hour, the enemy far superior in number, with the advantage of local knowledge and a good position.

I beg to enclose a list of the casualties, and also a list of the officers in the boat.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) H. R. YELVERTON,
Captain.
