A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS by Our Royal Proclamation, dated the twenty-ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, after referring to Our Order in Council, bearing date on the said twenty-ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, whereby We ordered that general reprisals be granted against the ships, goods, and subjects, of the Emperor of all the Russias, his subjects, or others inhabiting within any of his countries, territories, or dominions, (save and except any vessel to which Our license had been or might be granted, or which had been directed to be released from the embargo and had not since arrived at any foreign port) so that Our fleets and ships should and might lawfully seize all ships, vessels, and goods, belonging to the Emperor of all the Russias, or his subjects, or others inhabiting within any of his countries, territories, or dominions, and bring the same to judgment in any of the Courts of Admiralty within Our dominions, duly authorized and required to take cognizance thereof, We did order and direct that the net produce of all such prizes taken by any of Our ships or vessels of war (save and except when they should be acting on any conjunct expedition with Our army, in which case We reserved to ourselves the division and distribution of all prize and booty taken, and also save and except as thereafter mentioned), should be for the entire benefit and encouragement of Our flag officers, captains, commanders, and other commissioned officers in Our pay, and of all subordinate warrant, petty, and non-commissioned officers, and of the seamen, marines, and soldiers, on board Our said ships and vessels at the time of the capture, after the same should have been to us finally adjudged lawful prize. And whereas We think fit that officers and crews of any of Our ships and vessels of war, who shall be placed or sent in charge of any ship or vessel which shall be hereafter captured or detained by any of Our ships or vessels of war, shall share in prizes made during their absence by the ship or vessel on the books of which they may then be borne; We do therefore hereby order and direct, that all officers and crews of any of Our ships and vessels of war who shall be placed or sent in charge of any ship or vessel which shall be hereafter captured or detained by any of Our ships or vessels of war, shall share in the prizes captured during their absence, by the ship or vessel of war on the books of which they may be borne at the time of such prizes being captured, in all respects as if they had been actually on board such ship or vessel at the time of such prizes being captured by her.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 21st day of July, 1855,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board, a Report from the General Board of Health, dated the nineteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, in the words following ; that is to say :

" To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

" Whereas the General Board of Health, appointed for the purposes of 'The Public Health Act, 1848,' did, in pursuance of the provisions of that Act, upon the petition of not less than one-tenth of the inhabitants rated to the relief of the poor of and within the township of Redcar, in the parish of Marske, in the county of York, the same being a place having a known and defined boundary (the number of the said petitioners greatly exceeding thirty in the whole), directed William Ranger, a Superintending Inspector, appointed for the purposes of the said Public Health Act, to visit the said township, and to make inquiry and to examine witnesses as to the sewerage, drainage, and supply of water, the state of the burial-grounds, the number and sanitary condition of the inhabitants, and as to any local Acts of Parliament in force within such township for paving, lighting, cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with water, or improving the said township, or having relation to the purposes of the said Public Health Act ; also as to the natural drainage areas, and the existing municipal, parochial, and other local boundaries, and the boundaries which might be most advantageously adopted for the purposes of that Act ;

" And the said Superintending Inspector, having previously given the notices directed by the said Public Health Act, proceeded upon the said inquiry in the manner directed by that Act, and reported in writing to the said Board upon the said several matters with respect to which he was directed to inquire, and upon certain other matters with respect to which he deemed it expedient to report for the purposes of that Act ;

" And copies of the said report, accompanied by a notice, stating that written statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any matter contained in or omitted from the said report, or any amendment proposed to be made therein, were duly published and deposited as directed by the said Public Health Act, and the time for forwarding such statements has now elapsed, and the statement which has been received by the said Board has been duly deposited as required by that Act ;

" And it appears by the said report, that there is no local Act of Parliament in force within the said township, for paving, lighting (otherwise than for the profit of proprietors or shareholders), cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with water, or improving the said township, or any part thereof, or in anywise relating to the purposes of the said Public Health Act ;

" Now, therefore, the General Board of Health does hereby, in pursuance of the said Public Health Act, 1848, and the Public Health Act, 1854, humbly report to your Majesty, that it appears to be expedient that :

" 1. 'The Public Health Act, 1854,' and 'The Public Health Act, 1848,' and every part thereof, except the section numbered 50 in the copies of the second hereinbefore recited Act, printed by your Majesty's printers, should be applied to and be in force within and throughout the entire area, places, and parts of places comprised within the boundaries of the said township of Redcar, in the parish of Marske, in the county of York, and that such area, places, and parts of places should be and constitute a district for the purposes of the said Public Health Acts accordingly.

" 2. The Local Board of Health to be elected under the said Public Health Act, 1848, should consist of nine persons, and that the entire number should be elected for the whole of the said district.

" 3. The first election of the said Local Board should take place on the second day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

" 4. One-third in number of the said Local Board of Health should go out of office on the thirty-first day of March in each year subsequently to that in which the said first election of that Local Board takes place ; but in case the day so appointed should fall on a Sunday, or on a day appointed for public fast or thanksgiving, then that such one-third should go out of office on the day next following.

" 5. Every person at the time of his election as member of the said Local Board, and so long as he shall continue in office by virtue of such election, should be resident, as in the said 'Public Health Act, 1848,' is required, and be rated to the relief of the poor of some parish, township, or place, of which some part is within the said district, upon an annual value of not less than fifteen pounds.

" 6. At the first election of the said Local Board, Thomas Tudor Trevor, of Gisborough, Attorney-at-Law, should perform the duties which it may be requisite for him to perform in conducting the said first election ; and in case the said Thomas Tudor Trevor, from illness, or other sufficient cause, should be unable to discharge such duties, or should be absent, or should refuse to act, then Joseph Radcliffe Wilson, of Stockton, Attorney-at-Law, should perform such of the said duties as then remain to be performed.

" 7. The fourteen days' notice of qualification, required by 'The Public Health Act, 1848,' to be given by owners of property, in order to entitle them to vote at the said first election, should be given to the said Thomas Tudor Trevor, at the Zetland Room, Redcar ; or in case he should refuse, or be unable to receive the same, then to the said Joseph Radcliffe Wilson, at the Zetland Room, Redcar.

" Given under my hand and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this nineteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

(Signed) B. Hall."

Now, therefore, Her Majesty having taken the said Report into consideration, is pleased to approve thereof, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby, under and in pursuance of the "Public Health Act, 1848," order and direct that :

1. From and after the date of this Order, "The Public Health Act, 1854," and "The Public Health Act, 1848," and every part thereof, except the section numbered 50 in the copies of the second hereinbefore-recited Act, printed by Her Majesty's printers, shall be applied to and be in force within and throughout the entire area, places, and parts of places comprised within the boundaries of the said township of Redcar, in the parish of Marske, in the county of York, and that such area, places, and parts of places, shall be and constitute a district for the purposes of the said Public Health Acts accordingly.

2. The Local Board of Health to be elected under the said "Public Health Act, 1848," shall consist of nine persons, and that the entire number shall be elected for the whole of the said district.

3. The first election of the said Local Board shall take place on the second day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

4. One-third in number of the said Local Board of Health shall go out of office on the thirty-first day of March, in each year, subsequently to that in which the said first election of that Local Board takes place; but in case the day so appointed shall fall on a Sunday, or on a day appointed for public fast or thanksgiving, then that such one-third shall go out of office on the day next following.

5. Every person at the time of his election as member of the said Local Board, and so long as he shall continue in office by virtue of such election, shall be resident, as in the said "Public Health Act, 1848," is required, and be rated to the relief of the poor of some parish, township, or place, of which some part is within the said district, upon an annual value of not less than fifteen pounds.

6. At the first election of the said Local Board, Thomas Tudor Trevor, of Gisborough, Attorney-at-Law, shall perform the duties which it may be requisite for him to perform in conducting the said first election; and, in case the said Thomas Tudor Trevor, from illness, or other sufficient cause, shall be unable to discharge such duties, or shall be absent, or shall refuse to act, then Joseph Radcliffe Wilson, of Stockton, Attorney-at-Law, shall perform such of the said duties as then remain to be performed.

7. The fourteen days' notice of qualification required by "The Public Health Act, 1848," to be given by owners of property, in order to entitle them to vote at the said first election, shall be given to the said Thomas Tudor Trevor, at the Zetland Room, Redcar; or in case he shall refuse, or be unable to receive the same, then to the said Joseph Radcliffe Wilson, at the Zetland Room, Redcar.

Wise, Land Agents, Malton; and of Mr. Boulton, the Auctioneer, at Malton.

The Birchden and Hamsell Estate, near Tunbridge Wells.

TO be sold, by auction, pursuant to a Decree and Decretal Orders of the High Court of Chancery, made in certain causes, Osborne v. Foreman and Osborne v. Foreman, with the approbation of the Judge to whose Court the said causes are attached, by Messrs. Norton, Hoggart, and Trist, the persons appointed to sell the same, at the Auction Mart, in the city of London, on Friday, the 24th day of August, 1855, at one o'clock in the forenoon precisely, in one lot:

The Birchden and Hamsell Estate, together with the manors of Orznash and Birchden, situate in the parishes of Rotherfield and Withyham, in the county of Sussex, about four miles from Tunbridge Wells; it extends over upwards of 1700 acres of land, in arable, meadow, pasture, and hop grounds, interspersed with highly ornamental woods, coppices, and plantations, intersected on the eastern side by a beautiful stream of water, and bounded by capital roads. In the midst of the plantations is an extensive lake, on the banks of which is a fishing box, formerly the residence of the late proprietor, with shaded walks abounding with American plants and evergreens, and leading to the woods.

The estate extends in one continuous line to the forest of Ashdown and Crowborough Common; the scenery is richly varied, beautiful, and highly picturesque, and there are numerous sites exceedingly well adapted for the erection of a residence. The lands, which are subdivided into several occupations, with farm-houses and farm buildings, are generally in an excellent state of cultivation and well farmed. The timber is of first rate quality and rapid in its growth, and the coppices, which have been judiciously filled up with chestnut and ash, not only materially add to the general beauty of the scenery but are likely to be productive of a very considerable annual income, and they are admirably situate for the preservation of game. Nearly the whole estate is freehold, the remainder being copyhold. The land-tax amounts to only £5 10s. per annum, and the income and value may be fairly taken at £1400 per annum, exclusive of the manors and sporting which are unlet.

The estate may be viewed, on application to Messrs. Norton, Hoggart, and Trist; Robert Foreman, Esq., Tunbridge Wells; and J. B. Stapley, Esq., Hamsall, Sussex; and printed particulars and conditions of sale, with a plan annexed, may be had (gratis) in London, of Messrs. Richardson and Talbot, Solicitors, No. 47, Bedford-row; R. A. Parker, Esq., Solicitor, No. 30, Moorgate-street; Messrs. Warry, Robins, and Burges, Solicitors, New Inn; Messrs. Norton, Hoggart, and Trist, No. 62, Old Broad-street, Royal Exchange; and at the Auction Mart; and in the country, of Robert Foreman, Esq., Solicitor, Tunbridge Wells; Messrs. Ryland and Martineau, Solicitors, Birmingham; and at the principal hotels at Tunbridge Wells, Tunbridge, Lewes, Brighton, and the neighbouring towns.

Parry Jones*, by auction, in six lots, by Mr. William Parker Churton, at the White Lion Inn, situate in Whitechurch, in the county of Salop, on Wednesday, the 12th day of September, 1855, at three o'clock in the afternoon:
