AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 28th day of August, 1855,

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords of the Council, having taken into consideration certain applications for leave to export various articles, of which the exportation is prohibited to any place in Europe north of Dunkirk, or in the Mediterranean Sea east of Malta, are pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the prohibition to export such articles to any place east of Malta shall cease, with the exception of gunpowder, saltpetre, brimstone, nitrate of soda, sulphate of potash, muriate of potash (chloride of potassium), arms, and ammunition of every kind, including lead, with regard to which the prohibition is to remain in force;

Whereof the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Commissioners of Customs, and all other persons whom it may concern, are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 30th day of August, 1855.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords of the Council, having taken into consideration the expediency of prohibiting the exportation of certain additional articles capable of being converted into or made useful in increasing the quantity of military and naval stores (in pursuance of Her Majesty's proclamation of the eighteenth February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four), are pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered that the Officers of Her Majesty's Customs do hereafter prevent the exportation of the following articles: viz., rivet iron, angle iron, rivets, strips of iron, low moor and bowling plates, sheet plate iron exceeding a quarter of an inch, and round bars of from five-eighths to three-quarters of an inch in diameter, to any place in Europe north of Dunkirk; and that the Officers of Her Majesty's Customs do permit the export of the articles herein-mentioned to any other part of the world upon taking from the persons exporting the same a bond that they shall be landed and entered at the port of destination:

Whereof the Lords Commissioners of Her

Majesty's Treasury, and the Commissioners of Customs, and all other persons whom it may concern, are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly.
C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight the 13th day of August, 1855,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," and of the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes," or of any other powers in such behalf contained in the Church Building Acts, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, in the words following; viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Streatham, in the county of Surrey and diocese of Winchester, it appears to them to be expedient that particular districts should be assigned to the consecrated churches of Saint Mary at Balham and the Holy Trinity at Upper Tooting, in the parish of Streatham, under the powers contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' and in the third section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the assignment of
