"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Cheshunt, in the county of Hertford and in the diocese of Rochester, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Waltham Cross, in the said parish of Cheshunt, under the power for this purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' and in the third section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes,' and that such proposed district should be named 'the District Chapelry of the Holy Trinity Waltham Cross,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say: by a line commencing at the junction of the ride from Theobald's-park Farm with Theobald's-lane, and proceeding in an easterly direction along the middle of that lane to Love-lane, then along the middle of Love-lane, in a northerly direction, as far as Albury Ride, then proceeding easterly along the middle of that ride as far as the Turnpike-road, and crossing over the same to Russell's Ride, then proceeding along the middle of that ride, as far as the Northern and Eastern Railway, which said railway it crosses in a straight line to a hedge, and proceeding along such hedge easterly, for about two hundred and eighty-six yards, then proceeding northerly along another hedge for about one hundred and sixty-five yards to its junction with the small Lea River, then south-easterly along the middle of that river for about one hundred and thirty-six yards to a hedge, and then northerly along such hedge to the navigation, then crossing the said navigation, and proceeding along a watercourse across Cheshunt Marsh to its junction with the Old River Lea, then along the said River Lea, and the boundary line of the parish of Waltham Holy Cross, in the county of Essex, in a southerly direction as far as the parish of Enfield, then proceeding westerly along the boundary line, separating the parish of Cheshunt from the parish of Enfield, as far as a hedge leading in a straight line north-easterly to the ride to Theobald's-park Farm, then proceeding along such hedge, and northerly along the middle of that ride to the point where the boundary line commenced, as such District Chapelry is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereto annexed, and is thereon coloured green.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that it appears to them to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings, should be solemnized or performed at Holy Trinity Church, at Waltham Cross aforesaid, and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the Incumbent of such church for the time being.

"That the consent of the Right Reverend George, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.
