[The following Order in Council is substituted for that which appeared in the Gazette of Friday last, the 28th ultimo.]

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 24th day of September, 1855,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in any of the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with the following modifications;

GAINSBOROUGH.—Forthwith within three yards of all dwelling houses in Holy Trinity Churchyard, in the parish of Gainsborough, and that except in family vaults and graves only one body be buried in each grave; forthwith within three yards of all dwelling houses and of the west boundary wall in the Friends' Burial-ground; and from and after the first September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in the Parish Churchyard.

WRAWBY, LINCOLNSHIRE.—Forthwith in the Parish Church of Wrawby, and in the Independent Chapel, Brigg, in the same parish; and from and after the first September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in the parish churchyard and in the Independent Chapel Burial-ground.

ALFORD, LINCOLNSHIRE.—Forthwith in the Parish Church and in the Old Churchyard, Alford, and in the Independent Chapel, Alford; in the Cemetery, within three yards of dwelling-houses, and in the Independent Chapel Burial-ground within three yards of the chapel.

KNARESBOROUGH.—Forthwith in Knareborough Church and also in the Churchyard, except in now existing vaults and walled graves which can be opened without disturbing soil which has been buried in, and in which each coffin shall be embedded in powdered charcoal and separately entombed, and in family graves which can be opened to the depth of five feet without the disturbance of remains, and in graves which have never been previously opened, in which one body only shall be buried; also forthwith in the Independent Chapel and burial-ground.

WHITTLESEY.—Forthwith in St. Mary's Church, and from and after the first January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in the Old Churchyard, and that the New Burial-ground be drained to the depth of six feet and a half, at the least; forthwith in St. Andrew's Church, and from and after the first January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, in St. Andrew's Churchyard, and in the burial-grounds of the Independent and Baptist Chapels, in the parish of St. Andrew.

TWICKENHAM.—Forthwith in the Parish Church of Twickenham, and also in the churchyard and Old Burial-ground; and that in the New Burial-ground, except in family vaults and graves, only one body be buried in each grave.

BLECHINGLEY.—Forthwith in the Parish Church, and from and after the first September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six in the churchyard.

CHESTERFIELD.—Forthwith in the Parish Church of Chesterfield, in Holy Trinity Church, and in the Independent and Wesleyan Chapels; and from and after the first January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, in the Parish Churchyard, except in now existing walled graves, which can be opened without the disturbance of soil which has been buried in, for the burial of the husbands, wives, parents, or unmarried children of those previously buried therein, every coffin to be embedded in powdered charcoal and separately entombed in an air-tight manner; also forthwith in Holy Trinity Churchyard except so far as is compatible with the observance of the regulations for new burial-grounds.

WALSALL.—From and after the first of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in the Parish Churchyard of St. Matthew, and in the Parish Burial-ground in Bath-street, except in now existing vaults, which can be opened without the disturbance of soil which has been buried in, and in which each coffin shall be embedded in powdered charcoal and separately entombed in an air-tight manner; and forthwith in the Churchyard of St. Peters, and in the Roman Catholic Burial-ground, Walsall, except in now existing vaults, used with the above-mentioned precautions, and in graves subject to the observance of the following regulations, viz.:—1st. That no coffin be placed in any grave or vault in which water accumulates. 2nd. That no new grave be formed within half a yard of any other grave or less than five feet and a half deep. 3rd. That no grave be re-opened except now existing family graves, which can be opened without the exposure of remains.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representa-
