

of the wards into which the said parish is to be divided, and to apportion among such wards the number of vestrymen to be elected for such parish ;

“ Now I do hereby, by virtue of the provisions and directions of the said Act, divide the said parish of Saint George the Martyr, Southwark, into three wards, none of which contains less than five hundred rated householders, to be called respectively No. 1 Ward, No. 2 Ward, and No. 3 Ward ; and I determine and appoint that the said ward to be called No. 1 Ward shall consist of so much of the said parish as will be comprised within a line drawn from the west boundary of the parish adjoining the parish of Lambeth in the centre of the Westminster-road running eastward along the centre of the said road to the Obelisk in Saint George’s-circus, thence eastward along the centre of the Borough-road to the Stone’s-end, thence north-easterly along the boundary of the said parish of St. George the Martyr next the parish of St. Mary Newington to the centre of the road opposite St. George’s Church, and from the church northward along the centre of the High-street to the boundary of the parish of St. George the Martyr next the parish of St. Saviour, and thence by the boundary of the said parish of St. George the Martyr next the parishes of St. Saviour, Christchurch, and Lambeth to the starting point ; and that the said ward to be called No. 2 Ward shall consist of so much of the said parish of Saint George the Martyr as will be comprised within a line drawn from the said west boundary of the said parish adjoining the parish of Lambeth in the centre of the Westminster-road running eastward along the boundary of No. 1 Ward to the Stone’s-end, and thence by the boundary of the said parish of St. George the Martyr next the parishes of St. Mary Newington and Lambeth to the starting point ; and that the said ward to be called No. 3 Ward shall consist of the remainder of the said parish of St. George the Martyr. And, having regard, as far as in my judgment it is practicable, as well to the number of persons rated to the relief of the poor in each ward as to the aggregate amount of the sums at which all such persons are rated, I do apportion and assign eighteen vestrymen to the said ward to be called No. 1 Ward, and fifteen vestrymen to the said ward to be called No. 2 Ward, and fifteen vestrymen to the said ward to be called No. 3 Ward.

“ In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand, this fourth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

“ (Signed) William Durrant Cooper.”

Now, therefore, Her Majesty having taken the said award into consideration, is pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and of the division and apportionment therein proposed, and the same are hereby approved accordingly : and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th day of October, 1855,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled “ An Act “ for the better Local Management of the Me“ tropolis,” it is enacted, that each of the parishes mentioned in either of the schedules A and B to the said Act, which at the time of the passing of the said Act contained more than two thousand rated householders, shall be divided into wards ; and that it shall be lawful for such person or persons as may be appointed for that purpose, as in the said Act provided, to determine and set out, on or before the tenth day of October in this present year, the number, extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards ; but so, nevertheless, that no ward shall contain less than five hundred rated householders, and that the whole number of wards in any parish shall not exceed eight ; and that the person or persons setting out such wards in any parish, shall apportion among the several wards the number of vestrymen to be elected for such parish, and shall, in assigning the number of vestrymen to each ward, have regard, as far as in his or their judgment it is practicable, as well to the number of persons rated to the relief of the poor in each ward as to the aggregate amount of the sums at which all such parties are rated ; and that the number of vestrymen assigned to each ward shall be a number divisible by three ; and that a copy of the particulars of such division and apportionment shall be forthwith transmitted to one of Her Majesty’s Principal Secretaries of State, and also to the Vestry Clerk of the parish to which such division and apportionment relate ; and that if Her Majesty, by the advice of Her Privy Council, approve of such division and apportionment, the particulars thereof shall be published in the London Gazette ; and that the parish shall after such publication be deemed to be divided into such wards so determined and set out, and such division shall continue to be in force until the same be altered, as in the said Act provided ; and that the number of vestrymen assigned to each ward shall be the number to be elected for such ward until altered as aforesaid :

And whereas, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, the following award has been made by the person appointed for that purpose by the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty’s Principal Secretaries of State ; viz. :

“ PARISH OF BERMONDSEY.

(“ FOUR WARDS.)

“ I, William Durrant Cooper, of Guilford-street, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, having been duly appointed by the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Baronet, one of Her Majesty’s Principal Secretaries of State, by virtue of an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled ‘ An Act for the better Local Management of the Metro- ‘ polis,’ to be one of the persons to set out the wards into which certain parishes are by the said Act directed to be divided, and to apportion the number of vestrymen to be elected for such parishes respectively among such wards, and to apportion the number of vestrymen to be elected for any parish already divided into wards under any local Act, and, further, to act separately in such division and apportionment from the other persons appointed or to be appointed to perform those duties under the said Act, have proceeded in the performance of the duties required by the said Act to be executed by me in reference to the parish of Bermondsey (being a parish mentioned in Schedule (A) to the said Act, containing more than two thousand rated house-
