

SECOND SUPPLEMENT
TO
The London Gazette

Of TUESDAY the 6th of NOVEMBER.

Published by Authority.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1855.

War-Department, November 8, 1855.

LORD PANMURE has this day received a Despatch and its Enclosures, of which the following are copies, addressed to his Lordship by General Sir James Simpson, G.C.B.

Sevastopol,
October 27, 1855.

MY LORD,

I HAVE the honour to transmit a copy of a letter I have received from Brigadier-General the Honourable A. Spencer, informing me of the return of the force under his command to Kinburn, after having made a short reconnaissance.

As it has been decided that the French will garrison the Fort, the English troops will return here, and I expect them about the 3rd November.

I have to report the arrival, on the 25th instant, of a detachment of prisoners to the number of 132, from Odessa, where the greatest part of them arrived on the 24th September.

Amongst them is Lieutenant James, of the Royal Engineers, who was taken on the night of the 2nd of July; he has been kept at Reazan, and reports having been very well treated by the Russians.

The prisoners have been kept at Voranetz on the Don, and, when they left there were only two remaining, who were sick, and fifty-one deserters. I transmit the nominal list of the men.

The force from Eupatoria, under the command of General D'Allonville, made a reconnaissance on the 22nd instant. They fell in with a large force of the enemy and offered them battle. The Russians, however, retreated before them after an exchange of a few rounds with the Horse Artillery.

I beg to enclose a copy of the report of Brigadier-General Lord George Paget, in command of the English cavalry at that place.

I have the honour to report the departure of all the Turkish force that were here, for Asia, with the exception of some Artillery, which has been transferred to the Contingent.

The weather continues magnificent, and the health of the troops all that can be desired.

I have, &c.,

JAMES SIMPSON,
General Commanding.

The Lord Panmure, &c. &c. &c.

Enclosure 1.

Kinburn,
October 24, 1855.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to report, for the information of the Commander-in-Chief, that the troops under my command, as per margin,* returned yesterday evening from the reconnaissance they made in company with the French army.

The force left Kinburn on the 20th instant, bivouacked that night and the following at the village of Patowffka (8 miles), proceeded from thence to the village of Schadoffka, which the Allies burnt. A good many farms, all deserted, and a great quantity of hay were also destroyed.

On our return yesterday about 250 of the enemy's cavalry menaced our rear.

The troops are very healthy.

At a conference held to-day, it has been determined that the Fort of Kinburn is to be occupied for the winter by French troops, and it is expected that the English troops will embark for the Crimea on the 1st of November.

I have, &c.

(Signed) A. SPENCER,
Brigadier-General.

The Military Secretary,
Head Quarters, Crimea.

* Escort of Cavalry; 4 guns; 17th, 20th, 57th, 63rd Regiments; 2 battalions of the Royal Marines.

Enclosure 3.

Eupatoria,October 25, 1855.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to report that the Allied Troops stationed here, under the command of General of Division D'Allonville, marched from Eupatoria on Monday morning the 22nd instant.

The force advanced in two columns, the details of which are in the margin, * the one taking a northerly direction, and skirting towards the east of the lake Susik Guiloie, until it arrived at the village of Karagurt; the other proceeding by the strip of land between that lake and the sea, to the town of Sak.

The Light Cavalry Brigade and troop of Horse Artillery, under my command, formed part of the first-mentioned column, which was commanded by General D'Allonville himself.

We marched at day-break, and arrived at Karagurt (18 miles), about 4 p.m., when we bivouacked for the night, and which, before leaving, we destroyed.

When we had advanced within about 3 miles of this village, we came in presence of a force of about twenty squadrons of Russian cavalry, who retired before us, after some shots from the French Horse Artillery, which told with some effect.

On the evening of the 23rd we proceeded, at daybreak, in a southerly direction, passing close to the village of Temesh, where we came in sight of a body of Russian cavalry, considerably superior in numbers to that we had seen the evening before, a strong force of guns, and, I believe, some battalions of infantry.

* 1ST COLUMN.—6 Ottoman battalions, 8 French battalions (de Failly), $\frac{1}{2}$ the Bashi Bozouks, 4 Ottoman squadrons, 1 Ottoman battery (Montée), 2 French batteries (Montées); "Ambulance Active" for 80 wounded, under the orders of Mushir Achmet Pasha.2ND COLUMN.—4 Ottoman battalions, 2 French battalions, $\frac{1}{2}$ the Bashi Bozouks, 12 Ottoman squadrons, 12 French squadrons, 10 British squadrons, 6 pieces of Horse Artillery of each nation; "Ambulance Active" for 80 wounded, under the orders of the General Commander-in-Chief (Supérieur).

This body also retired before us, at a considerable distance, while we continued our advance to the village of Tuzla, on a rising ground to the left of which village General D'Allonville took up a position and offered battle, Captain Thomas's troop of Horse Artillery firing several rounds with precision, which were answered by the enemy without effect.

After waiting here for two hours, and seeing that the enemy were effecting a further retreat, General D'Allonville formed a junction with the column, under Mushir Achmet Pasha, at the town of Sak, where we bivouacked, destroying the town and considerable Russian cantonments.

On the 24th instant, yesterday, we returned to Eupatoria by the sea coast road.

On the first day's march, the French cavalry were in front, the English cavalry in support; the Turkish cavalry on our left flank. On the second day, the cavalry under my command were in advance, supported by the French cavalry, the Turkish cavalry on our left flank.

I have great satisfaction in stating that General D'Allonville expressed to me his approval of the manner in which the cavalry I have the honour to command manœuvred in the field, as likewise of the good practice of our Horse Artillery; and I may perhaps be permitted to express my acknowledgements of the courtesy evinced towards me, and the troops under my command, by the General during the time we were in the field, and since we landed at Eupatoria.

I beg to enclose a return of casualties*, caused by exhaustion from the want of water, of which there was a very great scarcity everywhere.

Captain Hamilton, Royal Navy, has requested me to inform you that the French brig of war, Allouette, and Her Majesty's ship Diamond, cooperated with the troops on this occasion; but that he, finding a sailing vessel unhandy on this service, placed the guns and men of the Diamond on board the steam transport Oneida, from which he fired on the flanks, and on some advanced picquets of the enemy.

I have, &c.,
(Signed) GEO. PAGET,
Brigadier-General Commanding Light
Cavalry Brigade at Eupatoria.
