In the estate of Robert Atkinson, late of Pontefract, in the county of York, Gentleman, deceased.

WHEREAS Thomas Nicholson, William Nicholson, Elizabeth Nicholson, William Hopps, Ralph Hopps, and Robert Hopps, the nephews and niece of the above-named Robert Atkinson, and who are supposed to be residing in Cook county, in the United States of America, are respectively entitled, under the last will and testament of the said Robert Atkinson, to certain legacies therein named. Notice is hereby given, that the said Thomas Nicholson, William Nicholson, Elizabeth Nicholson, William Hopps, Ralph Hopps, and Robert Hopps, or the legal representative or representatives of such of them as may be dead, are hereby required forthwith to attend and come forth or otherwise legally apply and make claim unto Robert Nicholson, of Womersley, in the said county of York, Veterinary Surgeon, and James Edward Robinson, of Pontefract aforesaid, Gentleman, the executors appointed in and by the said will of the said Robert Atkinson, deceased, for the amount of their respective legacies. And notice is further given, that the said Robert Nicholson and James Edward Robinson, will, on receiving proper and sufficient releases and discharges, pay the said legacies when due unto the several legatees or their respective legal representatives as aforesaid.

By Order,

W. E. CARTER, Solicitor to the said Executors, Pontefract, 5th December, 1855.

In the Estate of Robert Fyfe, deceased.

THE creditors of Robert Fyfe, late of the city of Wellington, and of the Kai Koras, in the Middle Island of New Zealand, Master Whaler, who died at sea in or about the month of May, 1854, are requested immediately to send the particulars of their claims to the acting executor, George Hunter, Esq., care of Messrs. Bethune and Hunter, Merchants, Wellington, or their Agents, Messrs. H. H. Willis and Co., No. 3, Crosby-square, London; and all persons indebted to the estate of the said Robert Fyfe are requested forthwith to pay the amount of such debts to the said George Hunter.—Dated this 4th day of January, 1855.

ROBERT HART, Solicitor of the Executor, Lambton Quay, Wellington.

In the Estate of Robert Fyfe, deceased.

THE heir-at-law and next of kin of Robert Fyfe or Fyffe, deceased, late of Wellington and the Kai Koras, in the colony of New Zealand, Master Whaler, who was drowned at sea, off the coast of New Zealand, in or about the month of May, 1854, are requested to send information of their existence, and the requisite legal proof, to George Hunter, Esq., acting executor of the deceased, care of Messrs. Bethune and Hunter, Merchants, Wellington, New Zealand, or their Agents, Messrs. H. H. Willis and Co., No. 3, Crosby-square, London. The deceased is supposed to have been born in Perthshire, in North Britain, was a son of Elizabeth Stewart, otherwise Fyfe or Fyffe, deceased, and was a grandchild of Alexander Stewart, deceased; he had a sister (married) who left Britain for some part of North America several years ago, another sister who died in Scotland several years ago, leaving children, and a brother James, who appears to have enlisted in the army many years ago. The personal estate of deceased, which is considerable, is bequeathed to his next of kin generally, the real estate descends to his heirs.—Dated this 4th day of January, 1855.

ROBERT HART, Solicitor of the Executors, Lambton Quay, Wellington, New Zealand.

Jamaica Chancery Deposits.—Island Statute, 18th Victoria, chap. 33.

Notice in the suits respectively of Tulloch v. Marshall, Allen v. Ramsay, Dwaris v. Hiscott, Graham, v. Grant.

IN pursuance of the power given to the Executive Committee of the Island of Jamaica in this behalf by the "Chancery Deposits Act, 1855," being an Act of the Legislature of the said island, made and passed in the eighteenth year of Her Majesty's reign, Notice is hereby given, that the sum of £307 19s. 2d. (three hundred and seven pounds nineteen shillings and two pence), of the former currency of the said island, being equal to the sum of £184 15s. 6d. (one hundred and eighty-four pounds fifteen shillings and sixpence) of lawful sterling money, was on the day of June, 1823, paid into the hands of the Receiver-General of the said island, to the credit of the firstly above-mentioned suit of Tulloch v. Marshall, in the High Court of Chancery of the said Island of Jamaica. And that a certain other sum of £1,080 3s. 3d. (one thousand and eighty pounds three shillings and three pence) of the former currency of the said island, and equal to the sum of £652 17s. 11d. (six hundred and fifty-two pounds seventeen shillings and eleven pence) of lawful sterling money, was, on the 28th day of January, 1824, paid into the hands of the Receiver-General of the said island, in the secondly above-mentioned suit of Allen v. Ramsay, in the said High Court of Chancery. And that a certain other sum of £306 1s. (three hundred and six pounds and one shilling) of the former currency of the said island, and equal to the sum of £183 12s. 7d. (one hundred and eighty-three pounds twelve shillings and seven pence) of lawful sterling money, was, on the 28th day of January, 1824, paid into the hands of the Receiver-General of the said island, in the thirdly above-mentioned suit of Dwaris v. Hiscott, in the said High Court of Chancery. And that a certain other sum of £51 6s. (fifty-one pounds and six shillings) of the former currency of this island, and equal to the sum of £30 15s. 7d. (thirty pounds fifteen shillings and seven pence), of lawful sterling money, was, on the 25th day of July, 1828, paid into the hands of the Receiver-General of the said island, in the fourthly above-mentioned suit of Graham v. Grant, in the said High Court of Chancery.

And that such several sums of money have since remained, and still remain, in such several suits respectively, in the hands of the Receiver-General of the said island, and that no proceedings have been had in such suits respectively, nor has any application for the payment of the said several sums of money, or any part thereof, been made in such suits, respectively, for the period of twenty years from the time when such sums of money were respectively first lodged as aforesaid; and that if no claim be made, or right to such several sums of money be substantiated, to the satisfaction of the said Court of Chancery of the said island, within two years from the 9th day of October, 1855, being the date of the first publication of this notice in Great Britain, the said several sums of money, or such of them in respect of which no such claim shall be made, or right shall be substantiated, will, under the provisions of the said Act, become the absolute property of the public of the said Island of Jamaica.

By command.

WM. R. MYERS, Secretary to the Executive Committee, Jamaica.
