

shall be each of the annual value of fifty pounds, or as near that amount as the Revenues for the time being applicable for the purpose under Statute IX. shall allow. Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the College to increase the value of such Scholarships, or any one or more of them, from other available sources, as may be deemed expedient; and with consent of the Visitor, to increase or diminish the number or value, or number and value of the said Scholarships, or any of them, according as the amount of the said proportion of Revenues shall render expedient. Provided also, that if the number of Scholarships be at any time diminished, the diminution shall affect equally the Stapledon and Open Scholarships. In case the said proportion of Revenues shall become more than sufficient for the Scholarships for the time being, the surplus shall form a Scholarship fund, to accumulate either for the increase of Scholarships, or for rewarding deserving Members of the College.

The King Charles the First's Scholarships shall be each of the annual value of £60, or as near that amount as three-fourths of the Rental and Interest of the property for the time being belonging to this Foundation shall allow. Provided also, that it shall be lawful for the College at any time to increase the number of the said Scholarships, as the said three-fourths of the Rental and Interest for the time being may render expedient. A set of Rooms shall always be set apart rent-free for one or other of these Scholars, but whether for the Senior or Junior, and for what tenure, the College may determine.

In every case, the Scholar shall be considered such, and the payments to him as such shall be reckoned, from the date of his election.

OF THE EXHIBITIONERS.

There being certain Exhibitions belonging to the College, viz. two founded by the Rev. Thomas How, two founded by William Gifford, Esq. one by Mrs. Symes, and one by Mr. Michell, the persons eligible to these Exhibitions shall be as follows:

To the How Exhibitions, in the first place, persons being of kin to the Founder; in default of any such kin appearing, sons of Clergymen of the Church of England resident in the counties of Somerset or Devon; on failure of candidates from the said counties, sons of Clergymen of the Church of England, without limitation of locality.

To the Gifford Exhibition, in the first place, persons educated at Ashburton School; or in failure of such, persons born or educated in the county of Devon; or on failure of such, all British subjects.

To the Symes Exhibition, in the first place, persons born or educated in the counties of Somerset or Dorset; or on failure of such, all British subjects; provided that in all cases the Symes Exhibitioner be a person intending to take Holy Orders in the Church of England. And the Rector and Fellows shall examine the said Exhibitioner, touching such intention to take Orders, as soon as he has taken his Bachelor of Arts Degree; and if he shall decline to commence the study of Divinity at that standing with a view to take Holy Orders, the Exhibition shall thereupon become vacant ipso facto.

To the Michell Exhibition, all Members of the College, being members of the Church of England, and applying themselves to the study of Divinity.

In all cases, the Candidates shall be examined in such subjects as the Educational Council shall appoint; and no Candidate shall be elected, who shall not in the judgment of the said Council be duly qualified, though it is not required that he should be equal in attainments to the Scholars of the College. The candidates shall present testimonials of moral character, as in the case of candidates for the Foundation Scholarships, and also satisfactory certificates of their need of assistance at the University; and no candidate shall be admitted but such as in the opinion of the Electors require such assistance.

The Exhibitions shall be tenable, subject to the above conditions, severally as follows:

The How Exhibition, until such time as the Exhibitioner shall be of standing sufficient to take the Degree of Master of Arts.

The Gifford Exhibition, for four years.

The Symes Exhibition, for eight years.

The Michell Exhibition, until the end of the eighteenth Term from the time of the Exhibitioner's Matriculation.

The day of election for Exhibitioners shall be fixed from time to time by the Educational Council.

All Exhibitions shall be vacated by non-residence, (unless the College in any special case shall determine otherwise,) or by the election of the Exhibitioner to a Fellowship or Scholarship in this or any other College.

The power of deprivation of the Exhibitioners shall be vested in the College, subject to an appeal to the Visitor.

STATUTE VI.

THE ADMISSION OF COMMONERS.

Commoners shall be admitted by the Rector, (or, in his absence by the Sub-Rector,) with the consent of the College. Each candidate for admission shall present satisfactory testimonials of moral character. And none shall be admitted to Matriculation, but such as shall have been examined and approved, in respect of intellectual sufficiency, by the Educational Council.

All Scholars, Exhibitioners, and Commoners, shall on their admission to the College deposit reasonable Caution Money, and pay such reasonable Fees to the Officers of the College, as the College shall from time to time appoint.

STATUTE VII.

DIVINE SERVICE IN THE COLLEGE CHAPEL.

Divine Service, according to the Liturgy of the Church of England, shall be performed in the College Chapel every morning and evening during full Term, and at other times of the year, on such days and hours as the College shall determine; and all Members of the College shall be required during residence to attend such Service, except in any special case attendance be dispensed with, for causes to be approved by the College.

STATUTE VIII.

STUDIES AND DISCIPLINE OF THE COLLEGE.

1. Studies.

The studies of the Undergraduate Members of the College shall be arranged by the Educational Council, as provided in Statute IV.

2. Discipline.

The discipline of the College is specially committed to the Rector, Sub-Rector, and Tutors. Every Member of the College, whether on the Foundation or otherwise, under the Degree of Master of Arts, shall conform to all the regulations of the College respecting divine worship, instruction, and discipline.
