Provided that, in the election of Fellows or Officers of the College, if the Rector be absent or incapacitated, the vote of the Sub-Rector shall not be reckoned as two. He is to appoint and remove the servants, but not without the Rector's consent. He is to make the requisite payments, taking care to keep a strict account of all, and also in every year on the morrow of St. Thomas the Apostle, render an account of all that he has collected and received, issued and expended, before the Rector, and in his absence the Sub-Rector and the other Fellows present. And at the end of each term, if it seem good to the Rector and Fellows, he shall show to the Rector and Fellows the receipts and expenditure of that term, that they may act with more caution, if any mishap shall have occurred during the last term. To him it shall belong to make improvements in the property, with the assent of the Rector and the majority of the Fellows. To him also shall belong the custody and dispensation of all the stores of the house, the government of the buttery and kitchen, the provision of firing and other necessaries. Provided, however, that he shall do nothing against the will of the Rector and the majority of the Fellows. We will also, that the Treasurer give sufficient security for the faithful performance of his office and the rendering of a faithful account of receipts and expenses, to the satisfaction of the Rector and Fellows.

We also will that the Common Seal, and also all original muniments whatsoever concerning our College, shall be deposited and preserved in the upper chamber situate above the principal gate; of which chamber there shall be three different keys, whereof the Rector, Sub-Rector, and Treasurer shall each have one.

Moreover, the Sub-Rector or Corrector and the Bursar shall receive as their salary whatever shall seem just to the Rector and the majority of the Fellows.

We also will, that each Fellow shall take the degree of Master, as soon as he is of standing to take that degree, unless an impediment occur approved by the Rector and the majority of the Fellows, under the penalty of expulsion from the College.
