And that such several sums of money have since remained, and still remain, in such several suits respectively, in the hands of the Receiver-General of the said island, and that no proceedings have been had in such suits respectively, nor has any application for the payment of the said several sums of money, or any part thereof, been made in such suits, respectively, for the period of twenty years from the time when such sums of money were respectively first lodged as aforesaid; and that if no claim be made, or right to such several sums of money be substantiated, to the satisfaction of the said Court of Chancery of the said island, within two years from the 9th day of October, 1855, being the date of the first publication of this notice in Great Britain, the said several sums of money, or such of them in respect of which no such claim shall be made, or right shall be substantiated, will, under the provisions of the said Act, become the absolute property of the public of the said Island of Jamaica.
