

the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to further amend the church building Acts," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the tenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in the words following; viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the district chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Wavertree (heretofore assigned or taken out of the parish of Childwall), in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Chester, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Mary, situate at Wavertree, in the said district chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Wavertree, under and by virtue of the power or authority, contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' as enlarged by the first section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled, 'An Act to further amend the church building Acts,' and that such proposed district should be named 'the District Chapelry of Saint Mary Wavertree,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:

"The boundary line of the district chapelry of Saint Mary Wavertree, commences at the North Western Railway Bridge, on the road leading from Wavertree to Liverpool, and proceeds south-easterly along the middle of that road, through the village of Wavertree, passing Yew Tree House, as far as the road leading to Broad-green Railway Station, and proceeds north-easterly along the middle of that road, as far as Moss Cottage, and from thence northerly to Oak Vale Nursery, and the boundary line of the township of Wavertree, and thence proceeds westerly and southerly along such boundary line until it reaches the Railway Bridge at the point where the boundary line of the said district chapelry of Saint Mary Wavertree commenced, and as the same is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereto annexed and thereon coloured pink.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized or performed at the church of Saint Mary Wavertree aforesaid, and that one half of the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the Minister or Incumbent of such church for the time being, for his own use and benefit, and that the other half of such fees should be by such Minister or Incumbent received on account of, and paid over to the Incumbent for the time being of the said district chapelry of the Holy Trinity Wavertree, for his own use and benefit.

"That the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of Chester, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your royal wisdom, shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a particular district, to the consecrated church of Saint Mary, situate at Wavertree, in the district chapelry of the Holy Trinity Wavertree, be accordingly made, and that the recommendation of the said Commissioners in respect of the publication of banns and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, and churchings, in the said church, and the fees to arise therefrom, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chester.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 30th day of January, 1856,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-eighth year of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the tenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in the words following; that is to say:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent that, when the last census was taken, the parish of Lyncombe and Widcombe, in the county of Somerset, and diocese of Bath and Wells, contained a population of nine thousand nine hundred and seventy-three persons; that besides the parish church at Widcombe, which is the parish church of the said parish of Lyncombe and Widcombe, and which will accommodate one hundred and fifty persons, there are two consecrated churches or chapels in the said parish; namely: one called Saint Marks, situate in the Lyncombe portion of the said parish, which will accommodate one thousand one hundred and eighty-three persons, including six hundred and thirty on free seats; and another, called Saint Matthew's, situate in the Widcombe portion of the said parish, which will accommodate one thousand two hundred and fifty persons, including six hundred on free seats:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners beg leave further to represent that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the said parish of Lyncombe and Widcombe, it appears to them to be expedient that the same should be divided into two distinct and separate parishes for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, under the powers contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act for building and promoting the
