

the said churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed ;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed as follows, viz.:

In the churchyard of the parish of ARRETON, in the Isle of Wight, from the first of March to the first of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six ;

In the parish churchyard of BRADFORD, in the county of Wilts, and in the burial-grounds of the Baptist Chapel, Zion Chapel, the Wesleyan Chapel, Lady Huntingdon's Chapel, Bearfield, and of the Independent or Congregational Chapel, all in that town, from the first of March to the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six ;

In the churchyard of the parish of BRIDPORT, from the first of March to the third of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six ;

In the burial-grounds of the parish church (Old, New, and Strangers' grounds), of St. Andrew's Church, of St. George's Church, of the Unitarian Baptist Chapel, Lower-street, of the Congregational Chapel, and of Zion Baptist Chapel, all in DEAL, from the first of March to the first of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six ;

In the churchyard of DODDINGTON, Cambridge-shire, from the first of February to the first of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six ;

In the churchyards of All Saints, the Holy Trinity, and St. Peter, DORCHESTER, from the first of March to the second of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six ;

In the parish churchyard and in the burial-ground of the Protestant Dissenters' chapel, GREAT DUNMOW, from the first of March to the first of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six ;

In the parish churchyard and in the burial-grounds of the Independent, Baptist, and Primitive Methodist Chapels, in HADLEIGH, Suffolk, from the first of March to the first of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six ;

In the churchyard of the parish of KIRTON, Suffolk, from the first of February to the first of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six ;

In the Quakers' burial-ground, in Mount-street, MANCHESTER, from the first of March to the first of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six ;

In the churchyards of MELCOMBE REGIS, from the first of March to the first of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six ;

In the churchyard, and in the Wesleyan burial-ground, in NEWARK-UPON-TRENT, from the first of March to the thirty-first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six ;

In the churchyard of St. Mary, PENZANCE, from the first of March to the first of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six ;

In the churchyard of SHERBORNE, in the county of Dorset, from the first of March to the thirty-first of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six ;

In the churchyard of WINCHCOMB, from the first of January to the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six ;

And whereas by an Order in Council of the seventh of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, burials were directed to be discontinued within the precincts of CHICHESTER Cathedral, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied ; now, therefore, Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials be permitted in the family vault of the Duke of Richmond, situate beneath the Library, which forms the east end of the said cathedral, on condition that the entrance into the vault from the presbytery be closed with stone or brick work, and an external entrance made from the cathedral-yard, and provided that each coffin hereafter deposited be imbedded in a layer of powdered charcoal, four inches at the least in thickness, and be separately entombed in an air-tight manner.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the eleventh of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, burials were directed to be discontinued from and after the first of July next, in the Quakers' Burial-ground, LEEDS, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied ; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials be discontinued from and after the said first of July next in the said burial-ground, except in graves that have never been previously opened in that part of the ground which is to the north and west of the Meeting-house, provided that one body only be buried in each grave.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 25th day of February, 1856.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Town Council of the city and borough of RIPON has, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis," presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, stating that an Order in Council has been issued for closing certain burial-grounds in the parish of Ripon, in such city and borough, and praying that powers may be vested in the said town council, for providing requisite places of burial for the inhabitants of the townships of Ripon and Aismunderby with Bondgate, within the said city and borough, under the provisions of the said Act ;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such petition, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the fifth day of April next ;

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in such city and borough, one month at least before the said fifth day of April.
