War Department, April 10, 1856.

LORD PANMURE has this day received a Despatch and its Enclosure, of which the following are copies, addressed to his Lordship by General Sir William Codrington, K.C.B.

Sevastopol, March 25, 1856.

MY LORD,

I HAVE the honour to transmit herewith, for your Lordship's information, the weekly report of the health of the Army.

I have, &c.,

W. J. CODRINGTON,
General Commanding.

The Lord Panmure, &c. &c. &c.

Enclosure.

*Head Quarters, Camp, Crimea,

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to enclose the weekly return of sick to the 22nd instant, and it is gratifying to be able to state that, notwithstanding the recent arrival of several drafts of recruits, and the cold winds which have prevailed from the N. and N.E. during the whole of the past week, the increase of admissions into hospital has only been a small fraction higher than it was last week, and the mortality has fallen nearly one-third.

Even in the Land Transport Corps the health of the men has been more satisfactory; and although there has been no decrease in the number of admissions during the week, the mortality has fallen more than one-half.

Taking the whole force in the Crimea, including Land Transport Corps, Army Works Corps, and Medical Staff Corps, the admissions to strength have only been in the ratio of 2.41 per cent.; deaths to strength, 0.02 per cent.; and sick to well, 4.41 per cent. Last week they were respectively, 2.15, 0.04, 4.29.

Of the 16 deaths which occurred in the whole force serving in the Crimea, seven took place in the Land Transport alone; and out of the 16, three, I am sorry to observe, were from the direct effects of drunkenness; and in how many other cases that vice may have been the exciting cause of disease, it is impossible to say. But with all these defects and drawbacks, the health of the army, according to the ratios given above, may be fairly said to be in a very satisfactory state.

The troops stationed at Kertch are equally healthy, and no casualty had occurred there during the week ending 14th March, which is the latest date up to which I have received returns from the senior medical officer there.

The Cavalry Division in the Bosphorus is also very healthy, and only two deaths had occurred in it during the week ending 14th March.

Taking the sick of the whole British force in Turkey, both in general and regimental hospitals, the ratio of deaths to strength has only been 0.03 per cent., and the ratio of sick to well 6.09 per cent.

I have, &c.,

J. HALL,

Inspector-General of Hospitals.

General Sir William J. Codrington, K.C.B., Commanding-in-Chief.

30TH REGIMENT OF FOOT.

For Lieutenant Saunders, read Lieutenant Sanders.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 9th day of April, 1856,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HER Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Francis, Earl of Ellesmere, to be Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the county palatine of Lancaster, his Lordship this day took the oaths appointed to be taken thereupon instead of the oaths of allegiance and supremacy.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of April, 1856.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales with reference to Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, "revenues, and patronage," and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in 'England and Wales with reference to Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage,' and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for substituting a money payment to the Bishop of Oxford for a certain estate belonging to his See.

"Whereas it was by the secondly and thirdly recited Acts enacted, that by the authority therein provided (that is to say by a scheme prepared by us and an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same), and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions of the same Acts, or of the said first recited Act, any arrangements might, from time to time, be made, with the consent in writing under the corporate seal of any bishop, for the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands, titles, or other hereditaments belonging to the see of such bishop, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or other hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting, in any case, any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of Oxford, is seised, in right of his see, of the hereditaments and premises particularly described in the Schedule hereto annexed, subject, nevertheless, to a subsisting lease thereof, bearing date the twenty-third day of October, in the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety, granted for three lives, of which only two survive and are now aged respectively eighty and sixty-eight years or thereabouts, subject to an annual reserved rent of thirty pounds.

"And whereas the said Samuel, Bishop of Oxford, is now entitled to grant a renewal of the said lease by the insertion therein of one additional life, but it is not expedient that such renewal should be granted.

"And whereas, after full inquiry and calculation, we have estimated the fine which ought to be paid for such renewal at the sum of four thousand and one hundred pounds, and the sums which, after fully stating the existing lease, the bishop and his successors might have expected to have derived from the before-mentioned annual reserved rent and from future fines upon renewals, as equivalent to an annuity of one hundred and fifteen pounds.

"And whereas one of the purposes of the said Acts is to provide a fund for making better provision for the cure of souls; and we are of opinion that it would ultimately conduce to the improvement of the said fund that the said hereditaments and premises should be transferred from the said see of Oxford to us, and that a money payment to the said Samuel, Bishop of Oxford, should forthwith be substituted for his interest in the same.

"And whereas the said Bishop has consented to accept a money payment accordingly, and that the same shall be the sum of four thousand and one hundred pounds, being the amount of such fine as aforesaid, together with an annual sum of one hundred and fifteen pounds to himself and to his successors, in respect of the proceeds which he and they might have expected to have received from future renewals and from the reserved rent hereinbefore mentioned, and thereupon to relinquish all further benefit, by renewal of the said lease or otherwise, in respect of the said hereditaments and premises.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose (with the consent of the said Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of Oxford, testified by his having signed this scheme, and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), that from and after the day of the due publication in the London Gazette of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the hereditaments and premises particularly described and set forth in the Schedule hereto annexed (excepting any right of ecclesiastical patronage), and all the right, title, estate, and interest therein of the said Samuel, Bishop of Oxford, and of his successors, Bishops of Oxford, shall be and become conveyed and transferred from the said bishop and his successors, Bishops of Oxford, and shall be absolutely vested in us for the purposes of the said hereinbefore recited Acts.

"And we further recommend and propose, that as part consideration for the transfer to us of such hereditaments and premises as aforesaid, there shall at the same time be paid by us to the said Samuel, Bishop of Oxford, his executors, administrators, or assigns, the aforesaid sum of four thousand and one hundred pounds, and that there shall, as a further consideration, be paid by us to the said Samuel, Bishop of Oxford, and to his successors in the said see, the said annual sum of one hundred and fifteen pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, the first of such half-yearly payments to be made at the expiration of six months from the date of such Order being gazetted as aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matter aforesaid, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference:—

"All that the rectory or parsonage of Stanton Harcourt, in the county and diocese of Oxford, and the chapelry of Southley, otherwise Southlea, otherwise Southleigh, thereunto annexed, with the rights, members, and appurtenances thereto respectively belonging, now (with certain exceptions) in the tenure of Percival Walsh and Gervase T. Waldo Sibthorpe, their heirs, assigns, or undertenants, by virtue of a certain indenture of lease, bearing date the twenty-third day of October, in the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety, and made between the Right Reverend Edward, then Bishop of Oxford, of the one part, and Andrew Walsh (since deceased) of the other part."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Oxford.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the
4th day of April, 1856,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect with certain modifications the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical duties and revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical duties and revenues,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for augmenting the income of the archdeaconry of York, in the diocese of York.

"Whereas it was by the said recited Act enacted, that so soon as conveniently might be, and by the authority therein provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us and an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same), any archdeaconry might, subject to the consent of the bishop, be endowed, amongst other modes, by augmentation out of the common fund in the same Act mentioned, but not so as in that case to raise the average annual income thereof to an amount exceeding two hundred pounds, with a proviso that no archdeacon should be entitled to hold any endowment or augmentation, or other emolument, as such archdeacon, under the provisions of the same Act, unless resident for the space of eight months in every year within the diocese in which his archdeaconry should be situate, but subject to the same provisions as to licences for non-residence, which are enacted with respect to incumbents of benefices by the Act relating to pluralities and the residence of the clergy in the same Act mentioned.

And whereas it was by the said Act further enacted that, upon the endowment of an archdeaconry under the provisions thereof, all lands, tithes, and other hereditaments (except any right of patronage), belonging to such archdeaconry at the time of such endowment, might, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese and of any archdeacon, in possession at the time of the passing of the same Act, be by the authority therein provided, vested in us for the purposes of the said Act.

"And whereas by a scheme prepared and laid before your Majesty in Council by us, and by an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, bearing date the tenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, and duly published in the London Gazette, it was provided, inter alia, that in consideration of the transfer to us of the lands, tithes, and other hereditaments then belonging to the archdeaconry of York (excepting any right of patronage as aforesaid), there should be paid by us out of the common fund in the said Act mentioned to the archdeacon for the time being of the said archdeaconry, the annual sum of one hundred and fifty pounds.

"And whereas the amount of the said grant of one hundred and fifty pounds was fixed on the assumption that the average annual income of the said archdeaconry arising from fees and other sources amounted to fifty pounds, and it has been made to appear to us that such average annual income does not exceed the sum of twenty pounds.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Thomas, Archbishop of York, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the annual sum of one hundred and fifty pounds, which under the provisions of the hereinbefore-recited Order is payable by us to the holder of the said archdeaconry of York, for the time being, shall be increased to one hundred and eighty pounds, subject, nevertheless, to the same conditions as to residence within the diocese of York as are specified in the said Order.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the said archdeaconry, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of York.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the
4th day of April, 1856,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for augmenting the income of the archdeaconry of Stafford, in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas it was by the said Act enacted, that so soon as conveniently might be, and by the authority therein provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and a duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same), any archdeaconry might, subject to the consent of the bishop, be endowed by the annexation, either of an entire canonry, or of a canonry charged with the payment of such portion of its income as should be determined on, towards providing for another archdeacon in the same diocese, or with such last-mentioned portion of the income of a canonry, or by augmentation out of the common fund, in the same Act mentioned, but not so as in that case to raise the average annual income thereof to an amount exceeding two hundred pounds, and that no canonry should be so charged with a payment of a portion of the income thereof to any archdeacon, unless the average annual income of such canonry, after payment of such portion as aforesaid, should amount to or exceed five hundred pounds, with a proviso that no archdeacon should be entitled to hold any endowment or augmentation or other emolument as such archdeacon under the provisions of the same Act, unless resident for the space of eight months in every year within the diocese in which his archdeaconry should be situate, but subject to the same provisions as to licences for non-residence which are enacted with respect to incumbents of benefices, by the Act relating to pluralities and the residence of the clergy in the same Act mentioned.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the average net annual income of the said archdeaconry of Stafford does not exceed the sum of ninety pounds.

"We, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Lichfield, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, humbly recommend and propose that, until the next vacancy of a canonry in the cathedral church of Lichfield, there shall be paid by us, out of the common fund in the said Act mentioned, to the archdeacon of Stafford for the time being (provided that he shall duly reside in accordance with the provisions of the same Act, or shall have obtained licence of non-residence), the annual sum of one hundred and ten pounds on the first day of January in every year, and that the first such payment shall be made on the first day of January next, and that every payment shall be made only on production to us of a certificate under the hand of the Bishop of Lichfield for the time being, that the archdeacon claiming the same has duly resided within the diocese of Lichfield according to the provisions of the said Act, or has been legally exempt from such residence.

"And we recommend and propose that if a vacancy shall occur in the said archdeaconry on any other day than the first day of January, the grant hereby recommended to be made payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the archdeacon making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the archdeacon succeeding to the said archdeaconry.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of April, 1856,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale of certain property formerly belonging to the Cathedral Church of Chester, and now vested in us.

"Whereas it is by the said Act (amongst other things) enacted, that notwithstanding the charge by that Act created (being a charge created in favour of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne), all the same and the like powers and rights of ownership as are possessed and enjoyed respecting and over any lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or other hereditaments whatsoever, by any absolute owner thereof, shall be enjoyed by us with respect to and over all or any lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or other hereditaments, vested in us under certain Acts therein mentioned (being the Acts under which the property herein-after described is vested in us), and may, subject to the provisions of the same Acts, and of the now reciting Act, be exercised by us, by proper instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, with a certain proviso respecting the application of every sum of money received as the consideration or purchase money for the sale, transfer, or conveyance by us of any of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments, or of any estate or interest therein, and with a further proviso that none of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments be sold, transferred, or conveyed, except by the authority of a scheme, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council ratifying the same:

"And whereas under the provisions of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the third day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and duly published in the London Gazette, on the fourth day of the same month, all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments then belonging to the said dean and chapter (except certain portions thereof in such Order particularly described), became vested in us, subject to any legally subsisting leases or grants thereof:

"And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in certain portions of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments; and, after due consideration, it appears to us to be expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable:

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, or endowments heretofore belonging to the said Dean and Chapter of Chester, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chester.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of April, 1856.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the ninth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in the words following; viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parishes of Wirksworth, Duffield, and Kirk Ireton, in the county of Derby, and within the diocese of Lichfield, it appears to them to be expedient to unite and consolidate certain contiguous parts of the said parishes and to form the same into one consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes for the consecrated church of Saint James, situate at Idridgehay, in the said parish of Wirksworth, under the powers for such purpose contained in the ninth section of an Act passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts,' and that such proposed consolidated chapelry should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Idridgehay,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:

"The boundary line commences on the south-east at the point marked A upon the map hereto annexed, where the Franker Brook joins the River Ecclesburn, and then proceeds north-easterly along the middle of that brook until it reaches Black Lodge-lane or White-lane; then north-easterly along the middle of that lane to its junction with the Shottle-lane; then proceeds northerly along the middle of the Shottle-lane, leaving the junction of Pale-row with the Shottle-lane to the right, it still proceeds along the middle of the Shottle-lane north-westerly, leaving the junction of Peat-lane with the Shottle-lane to the right, it still keeps the middle of the said lane through Upper Ashley, leaving the junction of Alport-lane with the Bowling-alley-lane to the right; it then proceeds along the middle of the Bowling-alley-lane till it joins Back-lane, which it leaves to the right, and proceeds south-westerly along the middle of Over-lane, leaving Taylor's-lane to the right, it still keeps the middle of Over-lane, leaving Dirty-lane to the left; the boundary then turns westerly and proceeds along the middle of Stover-lane till its junction with two lanes; the boundary then turns northerly taking the middle of the Beighton-hill-lane, along the middle of which it proceeds till it crosses the Doveswood Brook immediately adjoining Sightleys-lane; it then proceeds south-westerly along the middle of the Doveswood Brook till it joins the River Ecclesburn, and then proceeds southerly along the middle of that river till it arrives at the point where the boundary between Alton Township and Callow Township abuts; it then proceeds in a westerly and southerly direction along the boundary line of those townships until it reaches the boundary line separating the parish of Wirksworth from the parish of Kirk Ireton, along which said boundary it then proceeds southerly as far as the township of Ireton Wood; then proceeds along the boundary line separating the townships of Kirk Ireton and Ireton Wood as far as Sherburn Brook, and then turns south-easterly and proceeds along the middle of that brook as far as the point where the boundary of the townships of Idridgehay and Biggin meet; then proceeds southerly along such boundary as far as the boundary line of the Hulland Ward District; then turns easterly along the boundary line which separates the said district and also the Turnditch district from Idridgehay as far as the point where the road from Ashbourne to Belper crosses the River Ecclesburn, and then proceeds easterly along the middle of that river as far as the Franker Brook, to the point where the boundary line of the said consolidated chapelry commenced, as the same is more particularly delineated on the map hereto annexed, and is thereon coloured yellow, pink, and green.

"That the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, and also patron in right of his see of the parish churches of the said parishes of Wirksworth, Duffield, and Kirk Ireton, has been obtained to the formation of the said consolidated chapelry of Idridgehay, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that the said John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, and also patron in right of his see of the parish churches of the said parishes of Wirksworth, Duffield, and Kirk Ireton as aforesaid, is willing and has agreed, testified as aforesaid (with the approbation of your Majesty's said Commissioners testified as hereinafter mentioned), that the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church of Saint James, at Idridgehay aforesaid, should belong to, be vested in, and whenever occasion may require, be exercised by, James Milnes, of Alton Manor, in the said parish of Wirksworth, Esq., and Robert Cresswell, of Idridgehay, in the said parish of Wirksworth, Esq., their heirs and assigns alternately, and that the first right of presentation and appointment as aforesaid should belong to and be exercised by the said James Milnes, his heirs and assigns.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."
