FRIDAY, MAY 16, 1856.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, April 29, 1856.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room at St. James's Palace, on Thursday the 29th May next, at two o'clock, to celebrate Her Majesty's Birth-day.

N.B. The Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars at the Drawing-Room on the 29th of May next.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING-ROOM, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

The Ladies, who purpose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing-Rooms, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance in the Ante-room, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

No presentations will take place at this Drawing-Room.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half-past one o'clock.

THE following Addresses having been presented to The Queen, Her Majesty has been pleased to receive the same very graciously :

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the London Committee of Deputies of the British Jews, for ourselves, and for the several Congregations whom we represent, humbly offer to your Majesty our congratulations on the happy restoration of Peace.

We are truly gratified to avail ourselves of so joyous an occasion to testify to your Majesty how sincerely and how ardently we sympathise in every event conducing to your Majesty's glory, and to the welfare of the State.

None can better appreciate than ourselves how greatly the progress of civilization will be advanced by the results of the late War ; none can be more fully conscious than we are of the brightening prospects now opening upon the inhabitants of the East of every Creed, and most grateful are we to your Majesty's Government for the perseverance and zeal it has evinced in securing this great object.

We entreat your Majesty to receive the assurance of our affectionate loyalty and devoted attachment.

On behalf of the Board,

Moses Montefiore, President.

Grosvenor Gate, Park Lane,
8th May, 1856.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the Borough of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the borough of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, respectfully offer to your Majesty our sincere congratulations on the termination of the War in which England and France, with Turkey and Sardinia, have been engaged against Russia, checking, as it necessarily has done, the progress of civilization, and diverting the energies of man from useful pursuits.

We have witnessed, with feelings of proud satisfaction, the valour and endurance of your Majesty's Forces by sea and land in the late conflict ; and we have the most perfect confidence that those qualities would have been displayed to a still greater extent had that conflict continued. At the same time we are fully sensible how much the blessing of Peace is to be preferred to the excitement of victory.

We cheerfully give expression to our admiration of the wisdom and firmness, coupled with moderation, with which your Majesty and your Allies have conducted the negotiations which have led to a Peace which we fervently hope will long endure, and tend to extend those intimate relations of commerce and intellectual intercourse between nations, so beneficial to all.

Given under the Common Seal of the Corporation of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, this 7th day of May, 1856.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the borough and county of the town of Poole, in Common Council assembled, approach your Majesty's Throne with the warmest expressions of attachment to your Majesty's crown and dignity.

We humbly beg to offer to your Majesty our hearty congratulations on the termination of the War with the Emperor of all the Russias, and the restoration of Peace. And we trust that, under the divine blessing, this happy event will be so overruled that harmony will be cemented amongst all nations.

Given under our Common Seal the 5th day of May, 1856.

John Adey, Mayor.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the borough of Preston, in the county palatine of Lancaster, beg to offer to your Majesty our most sincere congratulations on the restoration of Peace.

We have witnessed with pride the glorious and gallant achievements of your Majesty's Forces both by sea and land, the brilliant courage which they have displayed, and the heroic fortitude with which they have endured the almost unexampled privations to which they have been subjected.

We congratulate your Majesty that by the vigorous exertions of your Majesty and your Majesty's faithful and illustrious Allies, the important objects of this just and necessary War have been fully attained, and that at the close of the struggle the resources of this nation are unimpaired and your Majesty's Naval and Military Forces are in the most flourishing and efficient condition.

We earnestly and confidently hope that the Peace which has just been re-established may prove a lasting one, that the trade and commerce of this nation may long be uninterrupted, and that we may be spared from again witnessing the horrors and sacrifices necessarily attendant upon international hostilities.

Given under our Common Seal this 8th day of May, 1856.

Richd. Threlfull, Mayor.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the town of Romsey Infra, in the county of Southampton, beg permission to present our unfeigned homage, and to offer to your Majesty our sincere congratulations on the successful issue of the recent negotiations which have brought to your Majesty's Government and to the nation the invaluable blessing of an honourable and (we hope) a lasting Peace.

We believe that the readiness and co-operation with which the late War was maintained, and its necessary expences and sacrifices were borne by your Majesty's subjects, did not arise from any want of consideration respecting the sufferings and calamities entailed on our fellow men as a necessary consequence of War, but by a consciousness of the importance of those principles which were its actuating cause, and which we feel have been happily carried out and accomplished through His benign Providence by whom "Kings reign and princes decree justice."

While we thus regard with gratitude the success which has crowned the efforts of your Majesty's arms and those of your Allies, and while we also rejoice that by such means a largely extended influence has been given to those determinations which improve and ameliorate the general condition of humanity, we earnestly implore the divine blessing on your Majesty's person, family, and Government, and we also earnestly desire that a like mild and parental authority may be extended over all nations.

Given under our Common Seal, at a meeting held for the purpose, at the Town-hall, Romsey, the 7th day of May, 1856,

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Wakefield, in the county of York, beg respectfully to offer to your Majesty our sincere congratulations upon the Peace which your Majesty has recently been enabled to re-establish upon conditions honourable to the Crown and people of Great Britain.

That although we should, if the late War had continued, a War which we consider to have been just and necessary on the part of this country, have felt it our duty and pleasure to have supported your Majesty in the prosecution of such War; yet, feeling deeply the manifold blessings of Peace, we rejoice that it has pleased Divine Providence to enable your Majesty to bring that War to such a satisfactory termination as to have accomplished the great objects for which it was commenced.

That the solid and satisfactory advantages of so honourable a Peace, and that the continuance of a reign, which has been so conspicuously marked by the general prosperity of your Majesty's subjects, may be long vouchsafed to us, is our humble and earnest prayer.

The Corporate Seal of the borough of Wakefield, in the county of York, was affixed hereto on the 7th day of May, 1856, in pursuance of a resolution of the Council of the said borough, unanimously passed on that day, in the presence of

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to them in and by the said two before-mentioned Acts, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, did, by a certain Warrant in writing, under the hands of two of them the said Commissioners, by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided, bearing date the 22nd day of February, 1855, order and direct, that all packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, whether British, colonial, or foreign, and all packets consisting of printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament or the colonial legislatures, might be transmitted by the post between any part of the United Kingdom and any part of the several places mentioned and set forth in the Schedule B to the said now reciting Warrant annexed, and that all such respective packets should be so transmitted in conformity with and under and subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions thereafter mentioned and contained, and that the single rate of postage for the transmission thereof, should be that which was mentioned and set forth against the said places respectively in the said Schedule B; and that all such respective packets so transmitted should be subject to the several progressive and additional rates of postage thereafter mentioned.

And whereas it is expedient to extend the provisions of the said recited Warrant of the 22nd day of February, 1855, except as hereinafter mentioned, to packets of a like kind to be transmitted by the post between any part of the United Kingdom and any part of the colony of Natal.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said two hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners, by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided, order and direct that all packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, whether British, colonial, or foreign, and all packets consisting of printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament or any of the colonial legislatures, may be transmitted by the post between any part of the United Kingdom and any part of the colony of Natal; and that on every such packet so transmitted under the provisions of this Warrant as aforesaid, if not exceeding half a pound in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, for the transmission thereof as aforesaid, the uniform single rate of postage of sixpence; and that on every such packet exceeding half a pound in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, such progressive and additional rates of postage as are directed to be charged, taken, and paid on, and in respect of, the several packets mentioned and contained in, and authorised to be transmitted by the post, under the provisions of the said recited Warrant of the 22nd day of February, 1855.

And we do further order and direct, that all such respective packets to be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this present Warrant, shall be so transmitted in conformity with, and under, and subject to, the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions contained in the said recited Warrant of the 22nd day of February, 1855, with respect to the several packets therein mentioned (except such as relate exclusively to packets posted in the United Kingdom addressed to the East Indies or New South Wales, or posted in the East Indies or New South Wales addressed to the United Kingdom), and that all such respective packets so to be transmitted under the provisions of this present Warrant, shall be subject as well to the several progressive and additional rates of postage aforesaid as also to the said several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions (except as aforesaid), respectively mentioned, expressed, and contained in and by the said hereinbefore recited Warrant of the 22nd day of February, 1855, in like manner, in all respects, and as fully and effectually, to all intents and purposes, as if the said several progressive and additional rates of postage, and the said several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions (except such only as relate exclusively to packets, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to the East Indies or New South Wales, or, posted in the East Indies or New South Wales, addressed to the United Kingdom), respectively mentioned and contained in the said hereinbefore recited Warrant of the 22nd day of February, 1855, were contained, inserted, expressed, and repeated in this present Warrant, and as if the said colony of Natal, with a single rate of postage of sixpence set forth against such place, had been and was mentioned, and contained, and included in the said Schedule B, annexed to the said hereinbefore recited Warrant of the 22nd day of February, 1855.

And we do further order and direct, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, for the time being, of Her Majesty's Treasury by Warrant duly made, at any time hereafter, to alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby fixed or any of the regulations hereby made, and to make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time to appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.

And we do further order and direct, that so far as regards any such packets posted in Natal, addressed to the United Kingdom (whether already posted or to be hereafter posted), this Warrant shall come into operation on the day of the date hereof, and that so far as regards any such packets posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Natal, this Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of June next.

JOHN A. MESSENGER,

Inspector-General of Imports and Exports.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

THE Court of Directors of the East India Company have lately received from the Government of Bengal the following Notification, which is published for general information.

HOUSES OF REFUGE,

For shipwrecked mariners thrown on shore on the sea-face of the Sunderbunds, have been put up as follows:—

No. 1.—PAINTED RED.

Erected just to the northward of Jackson's Grove on Seyers' Point, forming the eastern entrance to Channel Creek. It is on an extensive plain, covered with short grass, inside or to the eastward of some high sand-hills that here line the shore.

No. 2.—PAINTED WHITE.

Erected at the eastern entrance to the Subtermookey River, 400 yards to the northward of the point that forms from Bulcherry Island, and 200 yards from high-water mark. It is in the midst of thick low jungle.

No. 3.—PAINTED BLACK.

Erected at the eastern entrance to the Jumera River, 400 yards to the north of the point that forms from the entrance of the Subtermookey River, and 200 yards from high-water mark.

In each house there is a supply of biscuit and water, which will be easily found by reading the instructions put up in each, which also give other directions that will be useful. A catamaran is attached to each house.

Persons cast away reaching land to the east of Saugor, should make search for the Houses of Refuge; and it should be borne in mind, that when a vessel is lost with a pilot on board, the fact would soon become known at the Pilot Station and in Calcutta. Parties, therefore, finding their way to the houses should remain there, and husband the means of subsistence, in the assurance that succour will speedily reach them; or, if compelled to leave, endeavour to get westward to Saugor Island, and travel along the beach until they arrive at the Lighthouse; or make their way to a large fishing village, situated on the south-east side of Saugor Island, using the catamaran as far as practicable.

By order of the Superintendent of Marine.

Jas. Sutherland, Offg. Secretary.

Fort William, Marine Supdt's. Office,
