Whitehall, May 23, 1856.

THE following Addresses having been presented to The Queen, Her Majesty has been pleased to receive the same very graciously :

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Cambridge, desire your Majesty's permission to renew the assurance of our devotion to your Majesty's person and government, and to offer to your Majesty our most hearty congratulations on the re-establishment of Peace, on a basis calculated to secure the integrity and prosperity of the Ottoman Empire.

The noble objects for which the War was undertaken have been fully accomplished. We cannot but deeply grieve for the loss of the many brave men who have fallen in the service of their Queen and country, and for the sufferings sustained by the Forces of your Majesty and your Allies. We are, however, consoled by the reflection that the indomitable courage, admirable discipline, and heroic endurance of British soldiers and seamen, were never more conspicuously displayed in any period of our history as a nation.

We earnestly implore Divine Providence, that your Majesty may long continue to reign over a loyal, grateful, free, and united people.

Given under the Common Seal of the said borough, at a Council there holden, on the 15th day of May, in the 19th year of your Majesty's reign.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the city and borough of Canterbury, in Council assembled, embrace this opportunity to present to your Majesty our sincere congratulations on the re-establishment of pacific relations between Great Britain and the Emperor of all the Russias.

In common with our fellow countrymen, we deeply lamented the necessity of entering on the late struggle, undertaken with no objects of personal aggrandisement, but solely to curb the aggressive ambition of a powerful empire, and to secure the independence of surrounding nations. We feel assured that the apparent necessity of the War contributed not a little to the universal accord with which your subjects maintained, and were prepared cheerfully to continue, the struggle, influenced by the noble sentiment that in a just cause, the aid of the oppressed, no sacrifices were too great to be made. Happily that struggle is now at an end, the objects for which it was entered upon have been satisfactorily accomplished, and the blessings of Peace, so dear to the hearts of your Majesty's loyal subjects, are again restored.

Whilst deploring the losses sustained by your Majesty's Military and Naval Forces, we can but reflect with pride on the distinguished and gallant manner in which those Forces have nobly sustained the honour of this country.

We entertain the fervent hope that, by the blessing of Divine Providence, the Peace so happily concluded, and so honourable to this country and our gallant Allies, may be of a durable character.

That Almighty God may long preserve your Majesty's valuable life, endeared to your subjects by your Majesty's constant solicitude for their welfare and happiness, and that He may watch over and preserve your Majesty's gracious Consort, the Prince Albert, the Prince of Wales, and all the members of the Royal Family, is the earnest prayer of us your Majesty's loyal, affectionate, and dutiful subjects.

Given under our Common Seal, the 7th day of May, 1856.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Congleton, in the county of Chester, beg leave to approach your Majesty's throne with this expression of our warmest congratulations on the happy restoration of Peace to your Majesty's dominions and to Europe.

We congratulate your Majesty with the highest satisfaction that the objects for which the late terrible War was of necessity undertaken by your Majesty have been attained, in the protection of the weak against the unjust and ambitious aggressions of the strong, and in the preservation of the balance of power in Europe. We congratulate your Majesty upon the unflinching endurance, heroism, and bravery of your Majesty's gallant soldiers and sailors, displayed by them under circumstances never more trying, and evincing a patience and devotion to their Queen and country unequalled in British History. We congratulate your Majesty upon the display of loyalty and firm attachment to your Majesty's person and Throne, which during the continuance of the War have so characterized all classes of your Majesty's subjects.

We rejoice that, amongst the beneficial results of the War now concluded, the Christian subjects of Turkey have received an accession of civil and religious liberty hitherto denied to them, and that many barriers to the spread of true religion and civilization, and to commercial enterprize have been removed.

We deeply sympathize with your Majesty, in common with all our fellow subjects, upon the loss of so many brave and valuable lives, and upon the afflictions and bereavements which have befallen so many families in our country; but there is great cause for thankfulness that the benevolence and charity of England, on behalf of the widows and orphans, have been equal to the emergency of the time.

We most especially desire to congratulate your Majesty on the friendship of our august Ally, His Majesty the Emperor of the French, which, commencing in a common danger, and continued through a momentous and hard fought struggle, is now most happily cemented in the unanimous restoration of Peace.

That your Majesty, together with your Majesty's illustrious and beloved Consort, may, by the blessing of Almighty God, long be spared to reign in the hearts of a loyal and united people, and that the blessings of Peace may ever continue to abound in our land is the earnest prayer of your Majesty's devoted subjects.

Given under the Common Seal of our borough of Congleton, the 7th day of May, in the year of our Lord 1856.

James Pearson, Mayor.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the city of Edinburgh, humbly approach your Majesty to offer the expression of our fervent gratitude for the restoration of the inestimable blessing of Peace. We hail with extreme satisfaction the termination of the War engaged in by your Majesty and your august Allies for the maintenance of the integrity of the Ottoman Empire.

We are devoutly thankful to the Almighty for having inspired those wise counsels which have led to the conclusion of the conflict, at the earliest period compatible with the important and disinterested object for which it was undertaken.

We embrace this opportunity of tendering our renewed and devoted allegiance to your Majesty's person and government. It is our earnest prayer that your Majesty's reign may be long and prosperous over a loyal and attached people, who, under the sway of a benignant and beloved monarch, shall vie with the other nations of the civilised world in cultivating the arts of Peace.

Signed in our name and by our appointment, and the Seal of the city affixed hereto, at Edinburgh, the 7th day of May, 1856.

John Melville, Lord Provost.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, of the borough of Oldham, in Council assembled, approach your Majesty to offer our sincere congratulations on the happy termination of the late War.

We have felt, in common with our fellow subjects, the utmost interest in the struggle in which the nation has been engaged, and have experienced the greatest pride in the bravery of our Naval and Military Forces.

The objects of the War being now attained, we hope that the efforts which have been made by your Majesty and your august Allies will be found to have led to such a settlement of the questions involved in it, as will be lasting in its nature and advantageous in its results.

Had it been necessary, your Majesty's subjects were willing to incur whatever further sacrifices might have been demanded of them; and we assure your Majesty, on our own parts, that we have fully shared the general disposition to support your Majesty in prosecuting the War with energy, but we are still sensible of the many advantages which attend the resumption of friendly intercourse with all nations, and hope that your Majesty may have a long and henceforth a peaceful reign.

Given under the Common Seal of the borough, the 7th day of May, in the year of our Lord 1856.

Jno. Plott, Mayor.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the city and borough of Ripon, in Council assembled, beg leave to approach your Majesty with the humble expression of our heartfelt congratulations on the re-establishment of Peace, now so happily effected by the ratification of the definitive treaty recently concluded at Paris, between your Majesty and your illustrious and powerful Allies, and His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of all the Russias.

If any thing can increase the gratification which must be felt by all classes of your Majesty's subjects, that the horrors and miseries, inseparably attendant upon even the most just and necessary War, have been terminated by a happy and an honourable Peace, we believe it will be the knowledge that the unparalleled exertions and sacrifices rendered necessary by the late War, have, at its conclusion, not only left our national resources unimpaired, but have produced and placed at your Majesty's command so powerful and efficient a military force and such a stupendous naval armament as even this Empire may feel justly proud of, whilst rejoicing that the dire necessities of War have ceased to call for its employment.

And to this expression of our feelings of joy and gratitude that hostilities have now ceased, we would add our earnest hope that those alliances which have been so powerful in War, may prove still more effective in consolidating and perpetuating the blessings of Peace; and our humble and heartfelt prayer that the Almighty disposer of events, who alone can make wars to cease, may, in his infinite mercy and goodness, vouchsafe to us the inestimable blessing of a long, very long, continuance of your Majesty's beneficent, happy, prosperous, and peaceful reign.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Town Hall, in the said city and borough, this 9th day of May, in the 19th year of your Majesty's reign, and in the year of our Lord, 1856.

John Richard Walham, Mayor.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and devoted subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Sheffield, in Council assembled, desire to approach your Majesty with an assurance of our fidelity and respect, and to offer our congratulations to your Majesty on the restoration of Peace.

Regarding the late War as just and necessary, having for its objects the protection of our ancient Ally the Sultan from the aggression of a powerful and implacable foe, and the repression of the ambitious designs of Russia which were becoming dangerous to the cause of human freedom, to the liberties of Europe, and to the peace and happiness of the whole civilized world,—we should have cheerfully supported your Majesty in its continuance at any cost or sacrifice until those objects had been fully attained by force of Arms. Happily, however, the further prosecution of hostilities has been rendered unnecessary by Russia having been brought to accede to terms of Peace, which, although not stringent or comprehensive enough to command unqualified and universal approbation, will, we hope, afford a sufficient guarantee against future aggression on her part, and give to the nations of the earth a long continuance of tranquillity and repose.

For this happy result we are mainly indebted to the indomitable spirit and bravery of the British and Allied Forces by sea and land, whose valour, throughout a fearful and sanguinary contest, has never been excelled, and whose gallantry and endurance in the midst of so many hardships and difficulties will ever be remembered with the deepest and most intense feelings of gratitude and admiration.

The cessation of War will, we trust, give a new impetus to the industrial energies and commercial enterprize of this country, and tend to develop and increase its manufacturing and productive resources, and at the same time to elevate its moral, social, and intellectual condition, and we fervently pray that your Majesty may have the gratification of seeing the re-establishment of Peace followed by a state of general and permanent prosperity amongst all classes of your Majesty's subjects, and that, through Divine Providence, your life may be preserved and your reign prolonged for many years to come.

Given under the Corporate Common Seal of the said borough, this 14th day of May, 1856.

Wm. Fawcett, Mayor.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Tiverton, in Council assembled, most humbly and earnestly congratulate your Majesty on the re-establishment of Peace, upon terms honourable to the nation and to our brave and illustrious Allies, thus fully realizing the object of a War, in which we embarked, from the purest motives and without an object to territorial aggrandisement, thereby opening a widely extended field among nations for friendly intercourse and the rapid progress of civilization and social improvement, the best and surest safeguards for the continuance of the blessings of Peace.

Under Divine Providence and your Majesty's gentle will, we confidently look forward to the further development of all the arts and of the resources of Peace, and we trust that, without presumption, under these happy influences, we may be enabled ever to hold a foremost place among nations.

The spirit and fortitude with which our soldiers and sailors, who volunteered in your Majesty's service, endured sufferings and hardships, of a nature and continuance hitherto unprecedented, show, that although unprepared for a War of such a magnitude, the English character for indomitable bravery remains untarnished.

We fully sympathise in your Majesty's grief for the loss of the brave men who have so nobly fallen, and feel assured that should a necessity again arise (which God avert) for this nation's having recourse to arms, your faithful subjects will ever be found ready to do their duty, and defend the honour and dignity of your Majesty's Crown.
