Jamaica Chancery Deposits,—Island Statute, 18th Victoria, chap. 33.

Notice in the suits respectively of Tulloch v. Marshall, Allen v. Ramsay, Dwarrris v. Hiscott, Graham, v. Grant.

IN pursuance of the power given to the Executive Committee of the Island of Jamaica in this behalf by the "Chancery Deposits Act, 1855," being an Act of the Legislature of the said island, made and passed in the eighteenth year of Her Majesty's reign, Notice is hereby given, that the sum of £307 19s. 2d. (three hundred and seven pounds nineteen shillings and two pence), of the former currency of the said island, being equal to the sum of £184 15s. 6d. (one hundred and eighty-four pounds fifteen shillings and sixpence) of lawful sterling money, was on the day of June, 1823, paid into the hands of the Receiver-General of the said island, to the credit of the firstly above-mentioned suit of Tulloch v. Marshall, in the High Court of Chancery of the said Island of Jamaica. And that a certain other sum of £1,080 3s. 3d. (one thousand and eighty pounds three shillings and three pence) of the former currency of the said island, and equal to the sum of £652 17s. 11d. (six hundred and fifty-two pounds seventeen shillings and eleven pence) of lawful sterling money, was, on the 28th day of January, 1824, paid into the hands of the Receiver-General of the said island, in the secondly above-mentioned suit of Allen v. Ramsay, in the said High Court of Chancery. And that a certain other sum of £306 1s. (three hundred and six pounds and one shilling) of the former currency of the said island, and equal to the sum of £183 12s. 7d. (one hundred and eighty-three pounds twelve shillings and seven pence) of lawful sterling money, was, on the 28th day of January, 1824, paid into the hands of the Receiver-General of the said island, in the thirdly above-mentioned suit of Dwarrris v. Hiscott, in the said High Court of Chancery. And that a certain other sum of £51 6s. (fifty-one pounds and six shillings) of the former currency of this island, and equal to the sum of £30 15s. 7d. (thirty pounds fifteen shillings and seven pence), of lawful sterling money, was, on the 25th day of July, 1828, paid into the hands of the Receiver-General of the said island, in the fourthly above-mentioned suit of Graham v. Grant, in the said High Court of Chancery.

And that such several sums of money have since remained, and still remain, in such several suits respectively,

No. 21891.

in the hands of the Receiver-General of the said island, and that no proceedings have been had in such suits respectively, nor has any application for the payment of the said several sums of money, or any part thereof, been made in such suits, respectively, for the period of twenty years from the time when such sums of money were respectively first lodged as aforesaid; and that if no claim be made, or right to such several sums of money be substantiated, to the satisfaction of the said Court of Chancery of the said island, within two years from the 9th day of October, 1855, being the date of the first publication of this notice in Great Britain, the said several sums of money, or such of them in respect of which no such claim shall be made, or right shall be substantiated, will, under the provisions of the said Act, become the absolute property of the public of the said Island of Jamaica.

By command.

WM. R. MYERS, Secretary to the Executive Committee, Jamaica.

BRITISH GUIANA.

Official Advertisement.—County Berbice, to wit:

IN conformity with the 8th section of the Ordinance, No. 7, of the year 1851, intitled "An Ordinance for amending and consolidating the rules and regulations applicable to the office of Administrator-General in the Colony of British Guiana," I, the undersigned, Administrator-General of Berbice, in the colony aforesaid, do hereby give notice, that I have taken possession of all the property in this county belonging to Manuel Gemes, formerly of Berbice aforesaid, he, the said Manuel Gemes, being absent from the colony without having an attorney or agent to represent him.

Berbice, this 6th day of May, 1856.

L. HOUSTON, Administrator-General of Berbice.

Vice-Chancellor Wood.—Tuesday, the 3rd day of June, in the 19th year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, 1856, between James Robinson, Plaintiff; William Stoughton Vardy, Defendant.

FORASMUCH as this Court was this present day informed by Mr. Woodroffe, of Counsel for the Plaintiff, that the Plaintiff, on the 21st day of May, 1856, filed his printed Bill in this Court against the Defendant, with an indorsement thereon requiring the Defendant to appear thereto; and it appearing by the affidavit of Alfred Rickards, filed the 21st day of May, 1856, that the Defendant, William Stoughton Vardy, has been within the jurisdiction of the Court within two years next before the filing of the said Bill, and all due diligence has been used to serve the said Defendant personally with a copy of the said Bill, but without effect, and that the said Defendant, William Stoughton Vardy, is not to be found so as to be served with process, and from inquiries at the last known place of abode of the said defendant, William Stoughton Vardy, and at other places where it was probable that the said Defendant might be found, deponent believes that the said William Stoughton Vardy has absconded, or is keeping out of the way to avoid being served with process; it is thereupon ordered, that the Defendant, William Stoughton Vardy, do appear to the Plaintiff's Bill on or before the 3rd day of July next; and it is ordered that the Plaintiff do cause a copy of this Order, together with a notice thereof, to the effect set forth at the foot of the General Order of this Court in that behalf, to be inserted in the London Gazette within fourteen days from the date hereof, and in two newspapers published in the county of Middlesex, on or before the 18th day of July next; and it is ordered that this Order be served on Charles Gilchrist, the late Clerk of the said Defendant, William Stoughton Vardy, in the said affidavit named.

Notice.—William Stoughton Vardy, take notice, that if you do not appear, pursuant to the above Order, the Plaintiff may enter an appearance for you, and the Court may afterwards grant to the Plaintiff such relief as he may appear to be entitled to on his own shewing.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Kaye v. Kaye, by Messrs. Frederick and Alfred Mellersh, Auctioneers, with the approbation of his Honour the Vice-Chancellor Sir John Stuart, at the White Hart Hotel, Guildford, in the county of Surrey, on Saturday the 28th day of June, 1856, at three o'clock in the afternoon:
