*Master of the Horse's Office,
July 1, 1856.*

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to appoint the Honourable William-Ulick O'Connor Cuffe (commonly called Viscount Castle-Cuffe), to be Page of Honour to Her Majesty, vice Cameron.

Whitehall, July 2, 1856.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto George-Digby Wingfield, of Sherborne Castle, in the county of Dorset, Esquire, eldest son and heir apparent of William Baker (heretofore William Wingfield), of Orsett Hall, in the county of Essex, and of Eaton-square, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, one of Her Majesty's Counsel, and late one of the Masters in Ordinary in the High Court of Chancery, by the Lady Charlotte-Maria, his first wife, only daughter of whom there is issue remaining of Henry, Earl of Digby, Viscount Coleshill, and Baron Digby, deceased, and sister of Edward, Earl of Digby, Viscount Coleshill, and Baron Digby, also deceased, Her Majesty's royal licence and authority that he may, in compliance with a condition contained in the last will and testament of his late maternal uncle, the said Edward, Earl of Digby, assume and take the surname of Digby, in addition to, and after that of, Wingfield, and also bear the arms of Digby, and that such surname of Digby and the arms of Digby may, in like manner, be taken, used, and borne by his issue; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's office, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command that the said concession and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Board of Trade, Whitehall, July 7, 1856.

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Ambassador at Paris, enclosing copy of a French Imperial Decree, regulating as follows the duties upon sugars imported from the French colonies:

Of the first and inferior samples—

From beyond the Cape of Good Hope, 42 francs.

From America, 45 francs.

Superior to first sample, per 100 kilos., 3 francs additional.

Refined, per 100 kilos., 10 francs additional to duty on first sample.

For the present, however, these duties will be reduced in the following proportion:

1st.—7 francs per 100 kilos., from 27th March, 1856, to 30th June, 1858.

2ndly.—5 francs per 100 kilos., from 1st July, 1858, to 30th June, 1859.

3rdly.—3 francs per 100 kilos., from 1st July, 1859, to 30th June, 1860.

The import duties paid upon sugars of a quality inferior or equal to the first sample will be returned upon the exportation of refined sugar in the following proportions for sugar imported directly, in French ships, from countries out of Europe, upon the production of a receipt, of not more than four months' date, of payment of the import duties:

Qualities of Sugars.		Quantity exported.	Amount of Drawback.
Specified in Receipt.	Exported.
Sugar equal or inferior to No. 1 sample ...	Crystallized sugar, entirely purified and whitened	75 kilos.	The whole duty paid upon 100 kilos. of sugar, equal or inferior to No. 1 sample, according to the place of production.
	Sugar candy, dry and transparent	75 kilos.
	White lump and loaf sugar	78 kilos.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
July 8, 1856.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Malaga, reporting that a quarantine of three days will be imposed on all vessels arriving at that port from Gibraltar, Marseilles, and Genoa.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
July 8, 1856.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Malaga, reporting that all vessels arriving from ports in the United Kingdom will be subjected to a quarantine of three days, unless provided, in addition to the ordinary bill of health, with a certificate from the Spanish Consul at the port of departure, declaring that all due sanitary precautions are enforced at such port.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Norway Spars," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £600 for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACT FOR TOBACCO.

Department of the Comptroller for Vicuallling, Somerset-House,
June 27, 1856.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 10th July next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Vicuallling Stores, at Deptford,

Tobacco, 20 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the tobacco.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any; and also an unlimited power of selection.

The tobacco to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where it is lying.

Each tender must specify the several trade marks and numbers, and the countries or places of its growth or produce, and a fresh drawn dock sample of each cask or package (not less than 1lb.), must be produced by the parties tendering, and any cask or package that is found not to be of the same mark, number, or quality as the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the officers.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contract has been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said Office, or to Commander Bevis, conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

The conditions of the revised contract, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at the said Office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Tobacco," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

Jamaica Chancery Deposits.—Island Statute, 18th Victoria, chap. 33.

Notice in the suits respectively of Tulloch v. Marshall, Allen v. Ramsay, Dwaris v. Hiscott, Graham, v. Grant.

In pursuance of the power given to the Executive Committee of the Island of Jamaica in this behalf by the "Chancery Deposits Act, 1855," being an Act of the Legislature of the said island, made and passed in the eighteenth year of Her Majesty's reign, Notice is hereby given, that the sum of £307 19s. 2d. (three hundred and seven pounds nineteen shillings and two pence), of the former currency of the said island, being equal to the sum of £184 15s. 6d. (one hundred and eighty-four pounds fifteen shillings and sixpence) of lawful sterling money, was on the day of June, 1823, paid into the hands of the Receiver-General of the said island, to the credit of the firstly above-mentioned suit of Tulloch v. Marshall, in the High Court of Chancery of the said Island of Jamaica. And that a certain other sum of £1,080 3s. 3d. (one thousand and eighty pounds three shillings and three pence) of the former currency of the said island, and equal to the sum of £652 17s. 11d. (six hundred and fifty-two pounds seventeen shillings and eleven pence) of lawful sterling money, was, on the 28th day of January, 1824, paid into the hands of the Receiver-General of the said island, in the secondly above-mentioned suit of Allen v. Ramsay, in the said High Court of Chancery. And that a certain other sum of £306 1s. (three hundred and six pounds and one shilling) of the former currency of the said island, and equal to the sum of £183 12s. 7d. (one hundred and eighty-three pounds twelve shillings and seven pence) of lawful sterling money, was, on the 28th day of January, 1824, paid into the hands of the Receiver-General of the said island, in the thirdly above-mentioned suit of Dwaris v. Hiscott, in the said High Court of Chancery. And that a certain other sum of £51 6s. (fifty-one pounds and six shillings) of the former currency of this island, and equal to the sum of £30 15s. 7d. (thirty pounds fifteen shillings and seven pence), of lawful sterling money, was, on the 25th day of July, 1828, paid into the hands of the Receiver-General of the said island, in the fourthly above-mentioned suit of Graham v. Grant, in the said High Court of Chancery.

And that such several sums of money have since remained, and still remain, in such several suits respectively, in the hands of the Receiver-General of the said island, and that no proceedings have been had in such suits respectively, nor has any application for the payment of the said several sums of money, or any part thereof, been made in such suits, respectively, for the period of twenty years from the time when such sums of money were respectively first lodged as aforesaid; and that if no claim be made, or right to such several sums of money be substantiated, to the satisfaction of the said Court of Chancery of the said island, within two years from the 9th day of October, 1855, being the date of the first publication of this notice in Great Britain, the said several sums of money, or such of them in respect of which no such claim shall be made, or right shall be substantiated, will, under the provisions of the said Act, become the absolute property of the public of the said Island of Jamaica.

By command.
WM. R. MYERS, Secretary to the Executive Committee, Jamaica.
