There being repeated complaints from the Consuls of the Republic in foreign parts against the abuse committed by captains of vessels which clear for this port in not bringing their papers endorsed as required by the respective Consuls, the following Articles of the 2nd chapter of the Consular Instructions of the Republic which are still in force, are published for the information of those whom it may concern. "Article 18. The captains of foreign and national vessels which clear at the ports where Consuls of the Republic reside, bound to ports of the Republic, are obliged to have legalized the manifest of the cargo, or ballast, the bill of health and muster roll. In the same provisions are comprised passengers' passports, powers of attorney, sentences, protests, certificates, and other documents which may be available in courts of law. Article 19. The captains who violate the provisions of the foregoing Article shall be subjected to pay the consulate fees which should have been paid at the port from which they departed, and also all other requisitions or penalties determined by the law." Consequently, notice is given that Doctor Don Carlos Eguia has been named and authorized by the Government, under the title of Fiscal Judge, to prosecute all captains of vessels who having departed from ports where Consuls of the Republic reside, do not present their papers in the prescribed form, sentencing them to the penalty as stated, bringing against them all other actions that the case and the existing provisions may require.
