

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and by virtue of the said Act, doth order, and it is hereby further ordered, that if any sheep, lambs, cattle or pigs imported or brought into this country shall appear at the time of their importation to be infected with or labouring under any contagious or infectious disorder whereby infection or contagion may be conveyed such sheep, lambs, cattle or pigs and all or any sheep, lambs, cattle, or pigs imported or brought into this country in the same ship or vessel with any sheep, lambs, cattle, or pigs which shall appear to be so diseased, and all hay, straw, fodder or other article by which it shall appear that infection or contagion may be conveyed, shall be seized and detained by the officers of Her Majesty's customs at the port of import, and the circumstances be forthwith reported by such officers to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs, and if it be certified to the said Commissioners by any veterinary surgeon appointed by them to inspect such sheep, lambs, cattle or pigs, that they or any of them are infected with or labouring under any such disorder, then the said Commissioners may, if they think proper, cause such sheep, lambs, cattle or pigs as are so certified to be forthwith destroyed, and they the said Commissioners shall thereupon give such directions as they think fit, either for destroying or for further detaining all or any others of the sheep, lambs, cattle or pigs which may have been so imported or brought into this country in the same ship or vessel with the sheep, lambs, cattle, or pigs so certified as aforesaid, together with all such hay, straw, fodder or other article, or for restoring the same to the owner or owners thereof, subject to any conditions which they may think fit to prescribe, and upon payment by such owner or owners of any expenses incurred by the said Commissioners in respect of the detention thereof.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of July, 1856,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament, held in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to facilitate and arrange proceedings in the County Courts," it is enacted, that, if the council of any city or borough, or a majority of the ratepayers of any parish, within the limits of which a court of local jurisdiction other than a county court is established, under the Act of the ninth and tenth Vic., chap. ninety-five, or into the limits of which the jurisdiction of such court of local jurisdiction shall extend, shall petition the Queen in Council, that the jurisdiction of such court of local jurisdiction may be excluded in any causes whereof the county court hath cognizance, and if notice of such petition shall be given two months before it is presented, by public advertisement in such city, borough, or parish, and in some newspaper therein circulated, Her Majesty by Order in Council, may declare such exclusion of the jurisdiction of such court of local jurisdiction throughout the whole or any part of the district assigned or which may hereafter be assigned to such county court, if no petition against declaring such exclusion be presented, and no caveat be entered at the council office.

And whereas the council of the city of Worcester, have presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, praying that the jurisdiction of the court of record holden in the said city, called "The Court of Pleas of the city of Worcester," shall be excluded in all causes whereof the county court holden in the said city, hath cognizance, in which the debt or damages sought to be recovered shall not exceed twenty pounds, and all actions of ejectment between landlord and tenant wherein the annual rent of the premises, of which possession is sought to be recovered shall not exceed fifty pounds.

And whereas notice of such petition has been given as required by the said Act, and no petition against declaring such exclusion has been presented, and no caveat has been entered at the Council Office.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to declare and doth hereby declare that the jurisdiction of the said court of record in the city of Worcester, called "The Court of Pleas of the city of Worcester," be excluded in all causes whereof the county court holden in the said city hath cognizance, in which the debt or damage sought to be recovered shall not exceed twenty pounds, and in all actions of ejectment between landlord and tenant, wherein the annual rent of the premises of which possession is sought to be recovered shall not exceed fifty pounds.

Whereof the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the city of Worcester, for the time being, and all other persons whom it may concern are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of July, 1856,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Summary Procedure on Bills of Exchange Act, 1855," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, from time to time, by an Order in Council, to direct that all or any part of the provisions of the said Act shall apply to all or any Court or Courts of Record in England and Wales, and that within one month after such Order shall have been made and published in the London Gazette such provisions shall extend and apply in manner directed by such Order, and that any such Order may be, in like manner, from time to time altered and annulled; and that in and by such Order Her Majesty may direct by whom any powers or duties incident to the provisions applied under the said Act shall and may be exercised with respect to matters in such Court or Courts, and may make any orders or regulations which may be deemed requisite for carrying into operation in such Court or Courts the provisions so applied;

And whereas it has seemed fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that all the provisions of the said Act should be extended and applied to the Court of Record, holden in the city of Worcester, called "The Court of Pleas of the city of Worcester;"

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that within one month after this Order shall have been made and published in the
