FRIDAY, AUGUST 1, 1856.

The Speech of the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Tuesday, July, 29, 1856.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

WE are commanded by Her Majesty to release you from further attendance in Parliament, and, at the same time, to express to you her warm acknowledgments for the zeal and assiduity with which you have applied yourselves to the discharge of your public duties during the session.

When Her Majesty met you in Parliament at the opening of the session Her Majesty was engaged, in co-operation with her Allies, the Emperor of the French, the King of Sardinia, and the Sultan, in an arduous War, having for its object matters of high European Importance; and Her Majesty appealed to your loyalty and patriotism for the necessary means to carry on that War with the energy and vigour essential to success.

You answered nobly the appeal then made to you; and Her Majesty was enabled to prepare for the operations of the expected campaign naval and military forces worthy of the power and reputation of this country.

Happily it became unnecessary to apply those forces to the purposes for which they had been destined. A treaty was concluded by which the objects for which the War had been undertaken were fully attained; and an honourable Peace has saved Europe from the calamities of continual warfare.

Her Majesty trusts that the benefits resulting from that Peace will be extensive and permanent; and that while the friendships and alliances which were cemented by common exertions during the contest will gain strength by mutual interests in Peace, those asperities which inherently belong to conflict will give place to the confidence and goodwill with which a faithful execution of engagements will inspire those who have learnt to respect each other as antagonists.

Her Majesty commands us to thank you for your support in the hour of trial, and to express to you her fervent hope that the prosperity of her faithful people, which was not materially checked by the pressure of War, may continue and be increased by the genial influence of Peace.

Her Majesty is engaged in negotiations on the subject of questions in connection with the affairs of Central America; and Her Majesty hopes that the differences which have arisen on those matters between Her Majesty's Government and that of the United States may be satisfactorily adjusted.

We are commanded by Her Majesty to inform you, that Her Majesty desires to avail herself of this occasion to express the pleasure which it afforded her to receive, during the War in which she has been engaged, numerous and honourable proofs of loyalty and public spirit from Her Majesty's Indian territories, and from those colonial possessions which constitute so valuable and important a part of the dominions of Her Majesty's Crown.

Her Majesty has given her cordial assent to the Act for rendering more effectual the police in counties and boroughs in England and Wales. This Act will materially add to the security of person and property, and will thus afford increased encouragement to the exertions of honest industry.

Her Majesty rejoices to think that the Act for the improvement of the internal arrangements of the University of Cambridge, will give fresh powers of usefulness to that ancient and renowned seat of learning.

The Act for regulating Joint Stock Companies, will afford additional facilities for the advantageous employment of capital, and will thus tend to promote the development of the resources of the country; while the Acts passed relative to the mercantile laws of England and of Scotland, will diminish the inconvenience which the differences of those laws occasion to Her Majesty's subjects engaged in trade.

Her Majesty has seen with satisfaction, that you have given your attention to the arrangements connected with County Courts. It is Her Majesty's anxious wish that justice should be attainable by all classes of her subjects, with as much speed and with as little expense as may be consistent with the due investigation of the merits of causes to be tried.

Her Majesty trusts that the Act for placing the Coast Guard under the direction of the Board of Admiralty, will afford the groundwork for arrangements for providing, in time of peace, means applicable to national defence on the occurrence of any future emergency.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

We are commanded by Her Majesty to thank you for the readiness with which you have granted the supplies for the present year.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Her Majesty commands us to congratulate you on the favourable state of the revenue, and upon the thriving condition of all branches of the national industry; and she acknowledges with gratitude the loyalty of her faithful subjects, and that spirit of order and that respect for the law which prevail in every part of her dominions.

Her Majesty commands us to express her confidence that on your return to your homes you will promote, by your influence and example, in your several districts, that continued and progressive improvement which is the vital principle of the well-being of nations; and Her Majesty fervently prays that the blessing of Almighty God may attend your steps, and prosper your doings for the welfare and happiness of her people.

Then a Commission for proroguing the Parliament was read; after which the Lord Chancellor said,

My Lords and Gentlemen,

By virtue of Her Majesty's Commission, under the Great Seal, to us and other Lords directed, and now read, we do, in Her Majesty's name and in obedience to her commands, prorogue this Parliament to Tuesday the seventh day of October next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tuesday the seventh day of October next.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of July, 1856,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, by the 333rd section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that, subject to the provisions contained in the fifth part of the Act, it shall be lawful for every pilotage authority, by bye-law, made with the consent of Her Majesty in Council, from time to time, amongst other things, to determine the qualifications to be required from persons applying to be licensed as pilots, whether in respect of their age, skill, time of service, character, or otherwise; to make regulations for the approval and licensing of pilot-boats and ships; to make regulations for the government of the pilots licensed by them, and for ensuring their good conduct, and their constant attendance to and effectual performance of their duty, either at sea or on shore; to fix the terms and conditions of granting licenses to pilots and apprentices, and of granting such pilotage certificates as thereafter mentioned, to masters and mates, and to make regulations for punishing any breach of such regulations as aforesaid, committed by such pilots or apprentices by the withdrawal or suspension of their licenses, or by the infliction of certain penalties as in the said Act mentioned; to fix the rates and prices or other remuneration to be demanded and received for the time being, by pilots licensed by such authority; to make such arrangements with any other pilotage authority, for altering the limits of their respective districts, and for extending the powers of such other authority or the privileges of the pilots licensed by such other authority, or any of them, to all or any part of its own district, or for limiting its own powers or the privileges of its own pilots or any of them, or for sharing the said last-mentioned powers and privileges with the said other authority and the pilots licensed by it, and for delegating or surrendering such powers and privileges or any of them to any other pilotage authority, either already constituted or to be constituted by agreement between such authorities and to the pilots licensed by it, as may appear to such pilotage authorities to be desirable for the purpose of facilitating navigation or reducing charges on shipping; to establish either alone or in conjunction with any other pilotage authority, funds for the relief of superannuated or infirm qualified pilots, or of their wives, widows, or children, or to make any new regulations with respect to any funds already applicable to the above purposes or any of them.

And whereas the Commissioners for the Harbour and Docks of Leith are the pilotage authority for the said port and harbour, according to the meaning of the said recited Act, and have certain powers in respect of the pilotage of the said port or harbour under certain Local Acts, and such pilotage authority have submitted for the consent of Her Majesty in Council, certain regulations (hereunto annexed) for the licensing and government of the pilots under their jurisdiction.

And whereas the Corporation of the Trinity House of Leith have, until further notice, approved of and concurred in the said regulations, in so far as they relate to matters within their jurisdiction.

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the said regulations are proper and reasonable.

And whereas among the said regulations are contained certain regulations with respect to compulsory pilotage.

And whereas such last-mentioned regulations depend for their validity on the powers given to the said Commissioners by the said Local Acts.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty by virtue of the power vested in Her by the said recited Act, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council is pleased to approve, and doth hereby approve of the said regulations so submitted as aforesaid; so nevertheless that no regulation by which any master of a ship or other person is required to employ a pilot or to pay for pilotage service, shall be valid, except in so far as the same may be authorized by the said Local Acts, or one of them.

C. C. Greville.

REGULATIONS

Referred to in the foregoing Order.

THE COMMISSIONERS FOR THE HARBOUR AND DOCKS OF LEITH do hereby, in virtue of the Acts 28 Geo. III. cap. 58, and 17 and 18 Vic. cap. 104, enact the following Regulations in regard to the piloting of vessels at the PORT OF LEITH, and appoint the same to be strictly enforced.

I. All pilots licensed and to be licensed for the port and harbour of Leith, and all others concerned, shall in every respect observe and be subject and liable to these and such other Bye-Laws and Regulations as the Commissioners may from time to time appoint, and also the provisions of that portion of the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," which relates to Pilotage, in so far as incumbent on them.

II. It shall be optional to vessels belonging to the port, to regular traders coastwise, and to all vessels under 40 tons, to employ a pilot. Other vessels coastwise, above 40 and under 70 tons, must take a pilot, but not necessarily a pilot boat. All other vessels above 70 tons must take a pilot, and pilot boat, both inwards and outwards.

III. No person shall pilot or take charge of any vessel as a pilot, or keep a boat for that purpose, without a license; and every person found so doing shall be prosecuted with rigour, and will be liable to be fined in five pounds sterling; but masters and mates of vessels will, on being found qualified, obtain licenses to pilot their own vessels, which will be in force for one year, and renewable annually by endorsement thereon.

IV. No person shall in future be licensed, nor after being licensed continue to act as a harbour pilot, unless he hold a Frith Pilot's License (excepting always masters or mates licensed for their own vessels only); and every person applying to be licensed as a harbour pilot must be able to read and write, and must set forth in his application his usual place of abode, his age, height, complexion, and any other circumstance or peculiarity descriptive of his person, and produce a satisfactory certificate of moral character, and a certificate from the Trinity-House of Leith that he holds a Frith Pilot's License (where such is the case), and has been examined and found skilful and qualified to act as pilot for the harbour.

V. Every pilot (except a master or mate, acting as licensed pilot of his own vessel,) shall have a sufficient boat, which shall be painted black, or tarred, outside, and shall have on the stern the name of the pilot or owner thereof, and the words "Port of Leith" painted in white letters one inch broad and three inches long, and on each bow the number of such boat, which shall be fixed by the Superintendent of the Harbour and Docks; and all boats belonging to one pilot shall have the same name and number painted on each; and no boat shall be used for the purpose of pilotage until the same has been approved of and licensed by the said Commissioners.

VI. Every boat shall have a crew of two men, or one man and two boys, besides the licensed pilot, and when afloat shall have a flag at the mast-head, or on a sprit or staff, or in some other equally conspicuous situation; and such flag shall be of large dimensions, and of two colours, the upper half white, and the lower half red.

VII. Harbour pilots must always be in readiness with a boat, approved of and licensed, and manned as aforesaid, and must take charge of any vessel when required, and attend exclusively on the vessel they have charge of, and on no account whatever go to any other while so engaged, unless in cases of great necessity, bad weather, or extreme danger, and then only with the consent of the captain on whose vessel they are attending.

VIII. No harbour pilot, already licensed, shall (unless he hold a Frith Pilot's License) proceed in search of vessels, or go on board thereof with a view to harbour pilotage, at any place beyond the limits of a straight line drawn from Granton Pier to Burntisland on the west, and from Portobello to Pettycur on the east; which limits have been arranged between the Commissioners and the Trinity-House of Leith; and all subsisting licenses granted to harbour pilots shall be and are hereby extended thereto: and no Frith pilot shall be entitled to go on board of a vessel bound for Leith Harbour at any place beyond these limits, unless required to do so for the purpose of pilotage in the Frith at the full fees payable for that service.

IX. The Frith pilot, not licensed, for the harbour, when approaching the harbour pilots' limits, has been directed by the Trinity-House to require the vessel of which he is pilot if bound for Leith Harbour, to display and keep flying the usual signal for a pilot; and if a harbour pilot is within hail, or is approaching and within half a mile, such Frith pilot is, by heaving to in proper time or shortening sail, or by any practicable means consistent with safety, to facilitate the harbour pilot's getting on board. If no harbour pilot appear, the said Frith pilot may continue in charge of the vessel until she reaches Leith Roads, but on no pretence is the Frith pilot not licensed for the harbour to be at liberty to bring the vessel into the harbour, extreme cases of necessity alone excepted.

X. When a vessel is bound to Leith Roads for orders, any Frith pilot is entitled to pilot her into the roads, and to stay by her as pilot, if required by the master, until the orders are obtained; but if the vessel is ordered to the harbour, the Frith pilot, if not licensed for the harbour, is immediately thereafter to cease to act as pilot.

XI. Inward vessels waiting for the tide shall be so placed as to be ready to come in immediately on the proper signal being made, and the duty of the pilot and his assistants shall not be fully discharged until the vessel is moored where the harbour or dock master may direct at the tide or time she enters.

XII. The rates of pilotage payable are those specified in the annexed table, and the inward pilotage shall be paid by the owners, masters, consignees, or agents of the vessels piloted to the collector of the shore dues, and to no other person, for behoof of the pilots. The master of every vessel shall sign and deliver to the pilot a certificate, stating (in words) the number of feet of water which his vessel draws, and (when a boat is employed) her tonnage, and whether she was towed by a steamer; and no pilot shall ask or take payment for inward piloting otherwise than through the Shore-Dues Office.

XIII. When a Frith pilot not licensed for the harbour shall have piloted a vessel intended for the harbour, he is authorised to require the master of her either to pay him the amount of the pilotage, or to sign and deliver to him an order for payment. If the Frith pilot cannot conveniently go to Leith, he is entitled to require the harbour pilot to deliver the order at the Shore-Dues Office, where the master or agent for the vessel may pay the money, and where the Frith pilot may thereafter receive it, subject to deduction of 5 per cent. for collection.

XIV. Masters and mates licensed for their own vessels shall pay a fee of twenty-one shillings for their licence, and ten shillings and sixpence for every renewal thereof; other pilots shall pay a fee of ten shillings and sixpence for their licence; and these fees shall be applied by the Commissioners, as heretofore, to cover expenses incurred in connection therewith.

XV. All fees for harbour pilotage, shall, as heretofore, be paid over by the Shore-Dues Office to the licensed pilots, subject to deduction of five per cent. to cover expense of collection, and two and a half per cent. to be appropriated to the Pilots' Superannuation and Widows' Fund.

XVI. Pilots are required to make themselves thoroughly acquainted with the signals of the Port and the Bye-Laws and Regulations, and also frequently to inspect the entrance of the harbour, and the harbour itself, at low water spring tides, especially after storms or land floods; and when through ignorance, negligence, or otherwise, they permit vessels to run aground, they will be severely punished, and held responsible for damage caused to any of the harbour works, dredging plant, or other property.

XVII. The Superintendent, Harbour Master, or Dock Master, has power to give directions to pilots, and order them to take charge of any vessel when wanted; and also from time to time to inspect the boats and crews, and see that the pilots do their duty and observe the regulations.

XVIII. All pilots must observe strict sobriety and civility in the discharge of their duties; and whenever a pilot shall fail to observe, or shall commit any breach of the regulations or shall discharge his duties insufficiently, or shall use any improper language to any of the Commissioners' officers, while in the discharge of their duties, the Commissioners shall punish such offender by exacting a fine, or by temporary suspension or permanent deprivation of license; and persons having cause of complaint against the pilots are requested to communicate the same in writing to the Superintendent.

By Order of the Commissioners,

LEITH, 6th June, 1856.—The Trinity-House, until further notice, approve of and concur in the foregoing Regulations, in so far as they relate to matters within their jurisdiction.

WALTER PATON, Master.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of July, 1856,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 333rd section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that subject to the provisions contained in the fifth part of the Act, it shall be lawful for every pilotage authority by Bye-Law made with the consent of Her Majesty in Council from time to time, amongst other things, to determine the qualifications to be required from persons applying to be licensed as pilots, whether in respect of their age, skill, time of service, character, or otherwise; to make regulations for the approval and licensing of pilot boats and ships; to make regulations for the government of the pilots licensed by them, and for insuring their good conduct and their constant attendance to and effectual performance of their duty, either at sea or on shore; to fix the terms and conditions of granting licenses to pilots and apprentices, and of granting such pilotage certificates as therein-after mentioned to masters and mates, and to make regulations for punishing any breach of such regulations as aforesaid committed by such pilots or apprentices, or by such masters and mates, by the withdrawal or suspension of their licenses or certificates, or by the infliction of certain penalties in the said Act mentioned; to fix the rates and prices, or other remuneration to be demanded and received for the time being by pilots licensed by such authority; to make such arrangements with any other pilotage authority for altering the limits of their respective districts, and for extending the powers of such other authority, or the privileges of the pilots licensed by such other authority, or any of them, to all or any part of its own district, or for limiting its own powers or the privileges of its own pilots, or any of them, or for sharing the said last-mentioned powers and privileges with the said other authority and the pilots licensed by it, or for delegating or surrendering such powers and privileges, or any of them, to any other pilotage authority, either already constituted or to be constituted by agreement between such authorities, and to the pilots licensed by it, as may appear to such pilotage authorities to be desirable for the purpose of facilitating navigation, or of reducing charges on shipping.

And whereas the Corporation of the Trinity-House of Leith, being a pilotage authority according to the meaning of the said recited Act, within certain districts mentioned or referred to in an Act passed in the first year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the Corporation of the Masters and Assistants of the Trinity-House of Leith," have submitted to Her Majesty in Council for her assent, certain bye-laws (hereunto annexed) for the government of pilots, and for other purposes within their jurisdiction.

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty, that the said bye-laws are proper and reasonable.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said first recited Act, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to approve, and doth hereby approve, of the said bye-laws as the bye-laws of the said Corporation within the districts aforesaid.

C. C. Greville.

BYE-LAWS REFERRED TO IN THE FOREGOING ORDER.

The Corporation of the Master and Assistants of the Trinity House of Leith, being desirous to remodel its Bye-Laws in relation to pilots and pilotage, and considering that by the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854—17 and 18 Victoria, cap. 104—intituled "An Act to amend and consolidate the Acts relating to Merchant Ships," ample power is conferred on every pilotage authority by Bye-Law, made with consent of Her Majesty in Council, to do all or any of the things therein enumerated within its districts; therefore the said Corporation of the Master and Assistants of the Trinity-House of Leith, does in virtue of its own rights and privileges, and also with consent of Her Majesty in Council, enact the following Bye-Laws:—

I.—No person shall hereafter be licensed to act as a pilot before he is twenty-one years of age, and has been for the space of seven years or more actually engaged and actively employed as a seafaring man, and during that space has sailed for three years or longer time in a square-rigged vessel. Every candidate must bear a good moral character, and be able to read and write, and have a competent knowledge of arithmetic; he must be able to give a perfect verbal account of the harbours, docks, and piers, and the course and distance from any place, within the limits for which he wishes to act as pilot; the flowing and setting of the tides, depth of water, the proper places for good anchorage, and where to stop a tide; the sand banks, rocks, shoals, and other dangers, the landmarks, buoys, perches, and lights; he must also be seaman enough to know, not only the method of staying or wearing a vessel, but also the complete management of a vessel in bad weather and narrow channels, to bring her properly to anchor, to keep a clear anchor, to moor and unmoor and get under weigh in all situations; and where necessary, he must be able to set off a ship's situation or actual place on the chart.

II.—Every pilot, immediately on his appointment, shall get his license registered by the principal officers of Customs, at the place at or nearest to which he resides, as required by the 349th section of the Act above referred to; and he shall also get his boat duly approved of and licensed, as required by the 345th section of the said Act, which shall be done from time to time as occasion may require, on application to the Trinity-House of Leith.

III.—A copy of the Merchant Shipping Act, so far as applicable to pilotage, is hereto annexed, and the pilots of this Corporation are required carefully to comply with the provisions thereof, so far as incumbent on them; and in addition thereto, this Corporation enacts the following regulations for the government of its pilots, viz:—

IV.—When you receive an order from the Master, Assistant Master, or Deputy-Master of this Corporation, or when required at sea by the commander of any of Her Majesty's ships or vessels to pilot any such ship or vessel, you are to repair on board of her, to take charge of her, and continue such charge according to the mode expressed in the said order or requisition.

V.—If, on receipt of orders to proceed on Her Majesty's service, you shall fail to proceed thereon immediately, or shall evade the receipt of such orders, or shall quit or decline such service, you shall for the first offence be liable to suspension for six months, and for the second offence shall be dismissed from your office of pilot, unless you shall have been prevented by ill health, or any other reasonable impediment.

VI.—Whenever called upon or required to pilot any ship or vessel, you shall, if under engagement to any other ship or vessel, forthwith make known such engagement, and specify the particulars thereof truly and faithfully to the person calling for or requiring your service; and in case of any concealment, misrepresentation, or falsehood, in respect of such alleged previous engagement you shall be liable to suspension at the discretion of this Corporation.

VII.—When you discover any alteration in any sands, or channels, or any hitherto unknown sand or rock, dangerous to navigation, you are to give immediate information thereof in writing to the Master of this Corporation.

VIII.—When you come to an anchor you are to observe the setting of the tide and its force; and if it shall happen that you come near a sand or rock, you are immediately (if there are any other vessels in company) to cause a signal to be made, so as to enable them to avoid the danger.

IX.—You are on no pretence to aid or assist, either in your own person, or with your boat or servants, or by any other means whatever, the landing, removing, or secreting any seamen from merchant ships and vessels, to avoid serving in Her Majesty's Navy, as by so aiding or assisting seamen to escape the impress for Her Majesty's service you will be liable to have your license recalled and rendered void; nor are you, either in your own person, or with your boat or servants, or by any other means, to be aiding and assisting any seamen or mariner in deserting or absenting himself without leave from any of Her Majesty's ships or vessels, or from any merchant vessel, under the pain of for ever forfeiting your license, besides any other punishment to which you may by law be liable.

X.—The Commissioners for the Harbour and Docks of Leith having made a new bye-law to the effect that no person shall in future be licensed, nor after being licensed, continue to act as harbour pilot, unless he hold a Frith of Forth license, (excepting always masters or mates licensed for their own vessels,) it is specially enacted, as arranged with the said Commissioners, that the limits of the said harbour pilots shall be extended from a line to be drawn from Granton to Burntisland on the west, and from Pettycur to Portobello on the east, beyond which the harbour pilots are not at liberty to proceed in quest of vessels, or to go on board thereof with a view to harbour pilotage.

XI.—The Frith of Forth pilot, not licensed for Leith Harbour shall, when approaching the harbour pilots' limits as above defined, require the master of any vessel of which he is pilot, bound for Leith Harbour, to display and keep flying the usual signal for a pilot, and if any harbour pilot is within hail, or is approaching, and within half a mile, he shall, by heaving to in proper time, or shortening sail, or by any practicable means consistent with the safety of the same, facilitate the harbour pilot getting on board. If no harbour pilot appears, the said Frith pilot shall continue in charge of the ship until she reaches Leith Roads, but on no pretence whatever shall he, unless licensed therefor, bring the vessel into Leith Harbour, extreme cases of necessity alone excepted.

XII.—In regard to any vessel bound to Leith Roads for orders, the Frith of Forth pilot will be entitled to pilot her into the roads, and to stay by the vessel as pilot until orders are obtained, if required by the master, but if the ship is ordered to Leith Harbour, he shall, unless he hold a license therefor, immediately thereupon cease to act as pilot of said vessel, cases of necessity alone excepted.

XIII.—When the Frith of Forth pilot, not licensed for the harbour has piloted any vessel intended for Leith Harbour, he shall require the master of her either to pay him the pilotage, or to sign and deliver to him an order for payment thereof, specifying the vessel, and the pilotage service rendered, and whether the vessel was towed by steam the whole or part of the distance. If the Frith pilot cannot conveniently go to Leith, he can require the harbour pilot to deliver the order for his pilotage to the Shore Dues Office there, where the master or agent of the ship may pay it, and if so paid the money shall be handed to him when called for, less five per cent. commission.

XIV.—The master or mate of any ship may be examined as to his capacity to pilot the ship of which he is master or mate, or any one or more ships belonging to the same owner, of which he is master or mate, and if found competent, a pilotage certificate shall be granted to him in terms of the 340th and 341st sections of the foresaid Act; and it is hereby specially enacted, that all persons holding such certificates shall be entitled to employ steam tugs to tow or conduct their vessels within the limits therein specified without being liable also to take a pilot; but this privilege shall in no case be held to extend to persons holding no such certificate, who, if they take such assistance, shall, at same time—to avoid the penalties consequent on taking the assistance of unlicensed persons—be bound to take a licensed pilot. Upon procuring these certificates, every master or mate shall pay a fee of twenty shillings, and ten shillings upon every renewal thereof; and they shall be bound to exhibit the said certificates to any licensed pilot of the Trinity House on all reasonable or necessary occasions.

XV.—The respective rates, charges, or prices hereinafter enumerated and specified in the subjoined tables, may and shall be lawfully demanded, exacted, and received by every pilot licensed by the Trinity-House, for the piloting or conducting of any ship or vessel from place to place, as expressed in the said tables, and no other rates or prices, or other reward or emolument, shall, under any pretence whatever, be demanded, exacted, or received, by any such pilot; and no Frith of Forth pilot shall go on board of a vessel bound for Leith Harbour at any place beyond the limits of that harbour as above defined, unless required to do so for the purpose of pilotage at the full fees payable for that service, viz.:—

For piloting vessels from St. Abb's Head or Bell Rock to Harbour Pilots' limits or Leith Roads, and from there to Carron Roads, &c., and vice versa.

Where the vessel is in any instance towed by a steamer, the pilot shall deduct one-third from the rates of pilotage, for the whole or any part of the distance that the steamer towed the vessel.

XVI.—Every pilot licensed by or under the authority of this Corporation, shall, in obedience to the orders or summons of the said Corporation, duly posted to or delivered in writing or offered to the hands of such pilot, or left a reasonable time at the usual or last known place of residence of such pilot, attend the said Corporation at their General or Committee Meetings at the Trinity-House of Leith, to answer to any charges brought against such pilot, or for the performance of any public service; and in default of such attendance, every pilot so offending shall forfeit for the first offence forty shillings, and for the second offence, he shall be dismissed from his office of pilot.

XVII.—Every pilot shall produce to the master of any ship, or other person employing him, when required to do so, the foregoing Bye-Laws and relative Rates of Pilotage, and also the annexed excerpt Act of Parliament relating to pilotage. The pilot shall also produce his license to every person by whom he is employed, or to whom he tenders his services, and this he shall especially do when he supersedes an unqualified pilot.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty was pleased by Her Order in Council of the eleventh day of February, one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, on a Petition of the Justices of the Peace for the county of Dorset, presented under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the law relating to the Office of County Coroner," to order and direct that the said county of Dorset should be divided, for the purposes of the said Act, into six districts, as prayed for by the said petition, and described in the map annexed thereto (and which map was also annexed to the said order), and that the district numbered 1 on the said map should be called the Shaftesbury District; that the district numbered 2 on the said map should be called the Blandford and Wimborne District; that the district numbered 3 on the said map should be called the Cerne District; that the District numbered 4 on the said map should be called the Dorchester District; that the district numbered 5 on the said map should be called the Portland District; and that the district numbered 6 on the said map should be called the Bridport and Beaminster District; and it was by the said Order further declared, ordered, directed, and determined, that the court to be holden for the election of coroner in each of the said six districts respectively, when and as often as the same should become necessary under the provisions of the said Act, should be as follows, that is to say:—for the said Shaftesbury District, at Shaftesbury; for the said Blandford and Wimborne District, at Blandford; for the said Cerne District, at Cerne Abbas; for the said Dorchester District, at Dorchester; for the said Portland District, at Chesilton, within the Island of Portland; and for the said Bridport and Beaminster District, at Bridport;

And whereas the Justices of the Peace for the said county of Dorset, in general quarter sessions assembled at Dorchester, on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, resolved that an humble petition should be presented to Her Majesty in Council praying that an alteration may be made in the aforesaid division of the said county, and such petition, certified under the hands of two of the Justices present when the said petition was agreed to, has been presented to Her Majesty in Council accordingly, representing—

That the county of Dorset, the parishes wherein were not subject to local jurisdiction, had, by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, dated the 11th day of February, 1848, been divided into six districts for the purposes of the Act made and passed in the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Law respecting the Office of County Coroner;" that the coroner of one such districts, namely, the "Cerne District," had been dead upwards of a twelvemonth, and no candidate for the office had since presented himself for the suffrages of the freeholders; that the district was a very small one in point of population, in fact the smallest of the six districts (with the exception of the district forming the Island of Portland) into which the county was divided, which fact was considered incommensurable with the dignity and importance of the office, and with the great expense attendant upon the issue of the necessary writ of De Coronatore Eligendo and of the election, which expense, as falling on the candidates, Her Majesty's petitioners had been informed and believed had deterred any eligible person from offering himself to fill the vacancy; that besides these six districts, the numbers of the population in which, according to the census of 1841, amounted to 124,695, there were six other coroners exercising exclusive jurisdiction in liberties embracing, both in acreage and population, more than half the county, the population being, according to the above census, 174,337 in number, being an excess over the population in the six districts of the county coroners of nearly 5,000; and that whereas at the time when the said county was so divided into coroners' districts as aforesaid, the two out-parishes of St. Martin and St. Mary, in Wareham, in the said county, and which did not form part of the borough of Wareham, were omitted to be named or assigned to any particular district under the said Order in Council, and that it was desirable that the same should be rectified; that therefore it seemed expedient to the said justices of the peace of the said county that an alteration should be made of the said division of the county under the powers of the said Act by assigning the parishes in the said district, called the "Cerne District," to the adjoining districts called respectively the "Dorchester District" and the "Bridport and Beaminster District," and that the two out-parishes of St. Martin and St. Mary, in Wareham aforesaid, so omitted to be named or assigned to any district as aforesaid, might be added to the Dorchester District; and that the said petitioners having therefore resolved in general quarter sessions assembled to present the said petition to Her Majesty, praying that such proposed alteration be made, and the further consideration of such petition having been adjourned until notice thereof had been given to the coroners of such county as provided by the said Act, and such notice having been duly given by the clerk of the peace, and the justices having conferred with every such coroner who had attended the meetings of the justices for that purpose, touching the said petition (a copy of which had been sent by and certified under the hand of the clerk of the peace of the said county to every coroner for such county as provided by the said Act), and due regard being had to the size and nature of the said districts, the number of the inhabitants, the nature of their employments, and such other circumstances as appeared to the said justices fit to be considered in carrying into execution the proposed alteration; and humbly praying, for the reasons thereinbefore set forth, that Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council, would be pleased to order that an alteration of the six districts into which the county had been divided under the Order in Council hereinbefore referred to, as shown and delineated in the map or plan annexed to the said petition, describing the several districts and the boundaries thereof, might be made, so far as regarded the districts to be affected by the parishes in the said Cerne District being annexed and added to the two adjoining districts, called the "Dorchester District," and the "Bridport and Beaminster District" respectively, as in the said petition mentioned; and that Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, would be pleased to order that the two out-parishes of St. Martin and St. Mary, in Wareham aforesaid so omitted to be named or assigned to any district under the said Order in Council, as hereinbefore mentioned, might be annexed and added to the said district, called the "Dorchester District."

And whereas Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, has been pleased to comply with the prayer of the said petition;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the following parishes, now comprehended in the Cerne District in the said hereinbefore recited Order in Council, namely, the parishes of Alton Pancras, Buckland Newton, Cattistock, Cerne Abbas, Nether Cerne, Chesilborne, Frome St. Quinton, Godmanstone, Glanvilles Wootton, Hillfield, Evershot, Melbury Sampford, Stockwood, Hermitage, Maiden Newton, Melcome Horsey, Mappowder, Minterne Magna, Puddletrenthide, Pudham, Plush, Sydling St. Nicholas, Chilfrome, Frome Vanchurch, Toller Fratrum, Toller Porcorum, Wraxall, and Wynford Eagle, be taken from the said Cerne district, and be added to the Dorchester District in the said Order in Council mentioned, and that the out-parishes of Sr. Martin and St. Mary in Wareham be added to the said Dorchester District; and it is also ordered that the following parishes, now comprehended in the said Cerne district in the said Order in Council mentioned, namely, the parishes of Askerswell, Chelborough East, Chelborough West, Chilcombe, Corscombe, Halstock, Hook, North Poorton, Powerstock, Rampisham, Ryme Intrinseca, and Witherstone, be taken from the said Cerne district and added to the Bridport and Beaminster district in the said Order in Council mentioned.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the Fourth Report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for substituting a money payment for certain property belonging to the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of Westminster.

"Whereas it was by the said recited Acts enacted, that, by the authority therein provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same), and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions of the same Acts, any arrangements might from time to time be made, with the consent in writing under the corporate seal of any chapter, for the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments belonging to such chapter, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or other hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting, in any case, any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments.

"And whereas the said Dean and Chapter of Westminster are seized in fee of the rectory or parsonage of Otford hereinafter described, subject nevertheless to a subsisting lease thereof, bearing date the second day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty, granted for three lives, of which only one survives, and is now aged forty-seven years or thereabouts, at annual reserved rents, amounting together to forty-six pounds and thirteen shillings, and to an annual payment of twenty pounds to the Vicar of Otford.

"And whereas the said dean and chapter are now entitled to grant a renewal of the said lease, by the insertion therein of two additional lives, and it has been represented to us by the said dean and chapter that the lessee is desirous of taking such renewal, but that it is not expedient to grant the same.

"And whereas, after full inquiry and calculation, we have estimated the fine which ought to be paid for such renewal at the sum of two thousand five hundred and seventy-eight pounds, and the sums which, after full stating the existing lease, the dean and chapter might have expected to have derived from the before mentioned annual reserved rents, and from future fines upon renewals as equivalent to an annuity of one hundred pounds.

"And whereas one of the purposes of the said Acts is to provide a fund for making better provision for the cure of souls, and we are of opinion that it would ultimately conduce to the improvement of the said fund that the said rectory should be transferred from the said dean and chapter to us, and that a money payment to the said dean and chapter should forthwith be substituted for their interest in the same.

"And whereas the said dean and chapter have consented to accept a money payment accordingly, and that the same shall be the sum of two thousand five hundred and seventy-eight pounds, being the amount of such fine as aforesaid, and also a perpetual annual payment of one hundred pounds in respect of the sums which they might have expected to have received from fines on future renewals, and from the reserved rents hereinbefore mentioned, and thereupon to relinquish all further benefit by renewal of the said lease or otherwise in respect of the said rectory.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of Westminster, testified by their having hereunto affixed their corporate seal, that from and after the day of the due publication in the London Gazette of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, all that the said Rectory or Parsonage of Otford, in the county of Kent (except any right of ecclesiastical patronage), shall be and become conveyed and transferred from the said Dean and Chapter of Westminster, and shall be absolutely vested in us for the purposes of the said hereinbefore recited Acts, subject to any legally subsisting lease thereof.

"And we further recommend and propose, that as part consideration for the transfer to us of such lands, tenements, and hereditaments as aforesaid, there shall at the same time be paid by us to the said dean and chapter the aforesaid sum of two thousand five hundred and seventy-eight pounds, and that there shall, as a further consideration, be paid by us to the said dean and chapter the said perpetual annual sum of one hundred pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, the first of such half-yearly payments to be made at the expiration of six months from the date of such Order being gazetted as aforesaid.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matter aforesaid, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the Diocese of London.

of a scheme, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council ratifying the same:

“And whereas under and by virtue of an indenture, dated the thirtieth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and made between the Commissioners of your Majesty's Works and Public Buildings of the one part, and the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the other part (a memorial of which indenture has been duly registered in the registry of the county of Middlesex), six several messuages or tenements, situate in Abingdon-street, in the parish of Saint Margaret, in the city of Westminster, and known as Numbers 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, and 23, in the same street, with their appurtenances, have become vested in us, subject to the provisions of the said Act.

“And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in certain of the said messuages, tenements, and hereditaments; and, after due consideration it appears to us to be expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable:

“We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said messuages, tenements, and hereditaments, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable:

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of July, 1856,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth Report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twelfth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in the words and figures following; that is to say.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes.

"Whereas by the said Act it was enacted, that, except as therein otherwise specified, all the monies and revenues to be paid to us, and all the rents and profits of the lands, tithes, and other hereditaments vested and to be vested in us by and under the authority of the same Act, together with all accumulations of interest produced by and arising therefrom, should be from time to time carried over by us to a common fund, and by payments or investments made out of such fund, or, if in any case it be deemed more expedient, by means of an actual conveyance and assignment of such lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, or of a portion thereof, additional provision should be made by the authority in the same Act provided, (that is to say, by Orders of your Majesty in Council, ratifying schemes prepared by us,) for the cure of souls in parishes where such assistance is most required, in such manner as should by the like authority be deemed most conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church; provided always, that in making any such additional provision out of any tithes, or any lands or other hereditaments allotted or assigned in lieu of tithes so vested or to be vested in us, or out of the rents and profits thereof, due consideration should be had of the wants and circumstances of the places in which such tithes now arise or have arisen :

" Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us out of the said common fund, to the Reverend John Clementson, incumbent of the vicarage of Wolvey in the county of Warwick and diocese of Worcester, and to his successors, incumbents of the said vicarage, the annual sum of eighteen pounds and ten shillings, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year.

" And we further recommend and propose, that the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes, and the lands, messuage and premises, and other hereditaments particularly described in the several schedules hereunto annexed, with their appurtenances, now vested in us for the purposes of the said Act, and all our estate and interest therein, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the gazetting thereof, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the several spiritual persons, hereinafter mentioned ; that is to say : that the tithes or rentcharge in lieu of tithes described in the First Schedule hereunto annexed shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the said John Clementson, incumbent of the vicarage of Wolvey aforesaid, and his successors, incumbents of the said vicarage ; and that the lands, with the messuage and buildings and premises thereon, described in the Second Schedule hereunto annexed, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the Reverend Henry D Thompson, incumbent of the vicarage of Chard in the county of Somerset and diocese of Bath and Wells, and his successors, incumbents of the said last-mentioned vicarage ; and that the lands described in the Third Schedule hereunto annexed and therein numbered 1, together with the tithes or rent charge in lieu of tithes arising out of or upon the same, amounting to the yearly sum of four pounds and eight shillings, and also the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes, described in the extract from the summary of the apportionment of the rentcharge in lieu of tithes in the parish of Ufton in the county of Warwick, likewise set forth and described in the said Third Schedule and therein numbered 2, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the Reverend Charles John Westropp, incumbent of the perpetual curacy of Ufton in the county of Warwick and diocese of Worcester, and his successors, incumbents of the said perpetual curacy ; and that the last-mentioned lands and tithes or tithe rentcharges so to be vested in the said Charles John Westropp and his successors as aforesaid, shall be and be deemed to be in lieu of and in full substitution for and discharge of the two annual sums or stipends now payable by us to the incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy ; that is to say, of the annual sum or stipend of twenty-six pounds thirteen shillings and fourpence now payable by us to the said incumbent in respect of the estates formerly belonging to the prebends of Ufton ex parte Cantoris and Ufton ex parte Decani, in the cathedral church of Lichfield, which have become vested in us under the authority and for the purposes of the Act aforesaid ; and also of the annual sum or stipend of thirty-four pounds now payable by us to the incumbent of the said perpetual curacy, under the provisions of a scheme prepared and laid before your Majesty in Council by us, and an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, bearing date the tenth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-three.

" And whereas, under and by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the thirteenth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and duly published in the London Gazette, certain tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes arising within the parishes of Little Ouseburn in the county of York and diocese of Ripon, and Great Driffield and Little Driffield in the county and diocese of York, which tithes or tithe rent-charges then formed part of the endowments of the office or dignity of precentor in the cathedral church of York, were, for the consideration in such Order mentioned, transferred to and became vested in us, subject to the subsisting leases thereof ; and three sums of two hundred pounds each have been paid over to us by the Honourable and Very Reverend Edward Rice, then and now the holder of the said office or dignity of precentor in the said cathedral church, upon the understanding that the arrangements herein after mentioned for augmenting the endowment of the vicarages of the said parishes of Little Ouseburn and Great Driffield, with the perpetual curacy of Little Driffield annexed, should be recommended by us to your Majesty in Council :

" We, therefore, further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, out of the common fund in the said recited Act mentioned, to the incumbents for the time being of each of the said vicarages of Little Ouseburn and Great Driffield, with the perpetual curacy of Little Driffield annexed, the annual sum of twelve pounds, by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year.

" And we further recommend and propose, that from and after the period at which the annuity now payable by us to the said Edward Rice, as precentor of the said cathedral church of York, under the provisions of the last-recited Order of your Majesty in Council, shall cease to be payable, there shall be paid by us to the incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Great Driffield, with the perpetual curacy of Little Driffield annexed, in addition to the annual grant of twelve pounds before mentioned, the further annual sum of twenty pounds, by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year.

" And whereas a sum of one thousand pounds three pounds per centum consolidated bank annuities has been contributed and transferred to our account and into our names in the books of the governor and company of the Bank of England by the Right Honourable Frances Baroness Bassett, in trust, to be applied towards the permanent endowment of the new parish of All Saints, Tuckingmill, in the county of Cornwall and in the diocese of Exeter, and towards the augmentation of the income of the perpetual curate thereof :

" We, therefore, further recommend and propose, that, in consideration of such transfer as aforesaid, there shall be paid by us, out of the common fund in the before-recited Act mentioned, to the perpetual curate for the time being of the said new parish of All Saints, Tuckingmill, the annual sum of thirty pounds, by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year.

" And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the further augmentation by us of any of the said benefices or churches, if it shall be deemed fit, when there shall be sufficient means for that purpose ; and that if it shall appear to us to be expedient, at any future time, that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the incumbent of any benefice, or instead of any part of such annual sum, a gross sum equivalent thereto should be substituted, or any land, tithes, or other hereditament should be conveyed to such benefice in fee, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution, or from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament."

FIRST SCHEDULE.

All that the yearly rentcharge or sum of five pounds nine shillings and sixpence awarded to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in right of the prebend of Wolvey in the cathedral church of Lichfield, in lieu of Tithes arising out of or upon lands within that portion of the hamlet of Bramcote which is situate in the parish of Wolvey in the county of Warwick.

SECOND SCHEDULE.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of July, 1856,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the tenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of 'populous parishes,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale of certain property formerly belonging to the precentorship of the cathedral church of Hereford, and now vested in us.

"Whereas it is by the said Act (amongst other things) enacted, that notwithstanding the charge by that Act created (being a charge created in favour of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne), all the same and the like powers and rights of ownership as are possessed and enjoyed respecting and over any lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or other hereditaments whatsoever, by any absolute owner thereof, shall be enjoyed by us with respect to and over all or any lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or other hereditaments, vested in us under certain Acts therein mentioned (being the Acts under which the property herein-after described is vested in us), and may, subject to the provisions of the same Acts, and of the now reciting Act, be exercised by us, by proper instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, with a certain proviso respecting the application of every sum of money received as the consideration or purchase money for the sale, transfer, or conveyance by us of any of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments, or of any estate or interest therein, and with a further proviso that none of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments be sold, transferred, or conveyed, except by the authority of a scheme, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council ratifying the same:

"And whereas all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments formerly belonging to the said precentorship (except any right of ecclesiastical patronage) became vested in us on the vacancy of the said office of Precentor, which occurred on or about the thirteenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, by the decease of the Reverend Thomas Huntingford, the then Precentor, subject to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof:

"And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in certain portions of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments; and, after due consideration, it appears to us to be expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable:

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, or endowments heretofore belonging to the said precentorship, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Hereford.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of July, 1856,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," as enlarged by the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of Ecclesiastical Districts to Churches or Chapels

"augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of "Queen Anne, and for other purposes," have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the nineteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in the words following, viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Saint Margaret, Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Andrew, situate at Ashley-place, in the said parish of Saint Margaret, Westminster, under the powers contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' as enlarged by the third section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the assignment of Ecclesiastical Districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes,' and that such proposed district should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Westminster,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:

"The boundary line of the district chapelry of Saint Andrew, Westminster, commences at the point where Brewers-green is intersected by Victoria-street, and proceeds north-westerly along the middle of Brewers-green, Buckingham-row, and James-street, until it meets the boundary line of the parishes of Saint Margaret, Westminster, and Saint George, Hanover-square, near Buckingham Palace, and then proceeds in a southerly direction along such boundary line, passes between the houses Numbers 52 and 53, in Stafford-place, and at the rear of the houses Numbers 56 to 65, in the same place; then crosses Charlotte-street, proceeds at the back of Stafford Cottage and continues along such boundary line, passes through the house Number 3, in Victoria-street, and follows the course of the Kings Scholars' Pond Sewer south-easterly as far as Francis-street; then proceeds north-easterly along the middle of Frances-street and the boundary line of Saint Stephen's District round to the north-eastern corner of Saint Margaret's Hospital; then proceeds easterly in front of Spencer-place into the Horseferry-road; then proceeds in a northerly direction along the middle of the Horseferry-road (between Artillery-row and Artillery-terrace) and crosses Victoria-street to Brewers-green, to the point where the boundary line of the said district chapelry of Saint Andrew, Westminster, commenced, as the same is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereto annexed, and is thereon coloured Red.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it also appears to them to be expedient that baptisms and churchings should be performed in the said Church of Saint Andrew, and that the fees to arise therefrom should belong to the minister or incumbent of such church for the time being.

"That the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Charles James, Bishop of the said diocese of London, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a particular district to the consecrated church of Saint Andrew's, situate at Ashley-place, in the parish of Saint Margaret, Westminster, to be called "THE DISTRICT CHAPELRY OF SAINT ANDREW, WESTMINSTER," be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners in respect of the solemnization of baptisms and churchings in the said church, and in respect of the fees to arise therefrom, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of July, 1856,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," and also of the first section of an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to further amend the Church Building Acts," have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the nineteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in the words following; viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Paddington and of the district chapelry of the Holy Trinity Paddington (heretofore assigned out of the said parish of Paddington), in the county of Middlesex, and within the diocese of London, it appears to them to be expedient that particular districts should be assigned to the consecrated churches of Saint Stephen, Westbourne-park-road, and Saint Saviour, Warwick-road, both in the said parish of Paddington, under and by virtue of the power and authority for such purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' and also in the first section of an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to further amend the Church Building Acts,' and that such proposed districts should be called 'THE DISTRICT CHAPELRY OF SAINT STEPHEN PADDINGTON,' and 'THE DISTRICT CHAPELRY OF SAINT SAVIOUR PADDINGTON,' and that the boundaries thereof respectively should be those hereinafter mentioned, that is to say :

"The boundary line of the district chapelry of Saint Stephen Paddington commences in the Bishop's-road, at the intersection of Pickering-terrace by the Royal Oak at the point marked F on the plan hereto annexed, and then proceeds in a northerly direction along the middle of the road between Pickering-terrace and Albert-terrace, the Queen's-road, Westbourne, and Celbridge-place, as far as the Great Western Railway, to the point marked G upon the said plan, then proceeds in a westerly direction along the southern side of the said railway to the point marked H on the said plan, where the boundary line of the parishes of Paddington and Kensington meet, and then proceeds in a southerly, easterly, and again in a southerly direction along such boundary line, as far as Westbourne-grove, to the point marked I ; then proceeds easterly along the middle of Westbourne-grove and the Bishop's-road to the point marked F, where the boundary line of such district chapelry of Saint Stephen Paddington commenced, as the same is more particularly delineated on the plan hereto annexed, and is thereon coloured green.

"The boundary line of the district chapelry of Saint Saviour Paddington commences in the Edgware-road at the eastern end of the Regent's Canal, at the point marked A on the plan hereto annexed, and then proceeds westerly and southerly along the middle of the Regent's Canal to its intersection with the Grand Junction Canal at the Harrow-road-bridge, at the point marked B on the said plan ; then proceeds westerly along the middle of the Harrow-road to the point marked C on the said plan ; then in a northerly and north-easterly direction along the middle of the Ranelagh Sewer, or Bayswater Rivulet, to Kilburn-bridge, at the point marked D on the said plan, in the Edgware-road ; then proceeds southerly along the middle of the Edgware-road to the eastern end of the Regent's Canal, at the point marked A on the plan, where the boundary line of the said district chapelry of Saint Saviour Paddington commenced, as the same is more particularly delineated on the said plan hereto annexed, and is thereon coloured red.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized or performed in the said churches of Saint Stephen, Westbourne-park-road, and Saint Saviour, Warwick-road aforesaid ; and that the fees to arise therefrom should be equally divided between the incumbents thereof for the time being and the Reverend Archibald Montgomery Campbell, the present incumbent of the parish church of the said parish of Paddington, during his incumbency thereof, and that upon the first or next avoidance of such parish church the whole of the said fees should belong to the respective incumbents for the time being of the said churches of Saint Stephen and Saint Saviour aforesaid.

and sections, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of particular districts to the consecrated churches of Saint Stephen, Westbourne-park-road, and Saint Saviour, Warwick-road, both in the parish of Paddington, to be called respectively "THE DISTRICT CHAPELRY OF SAINT STEPHEN PADDINGTON," and "THE DISTRICT CHAPELRY OF SAINT SAVIOUR PADDINGTON," be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners in respect of the publication of banns and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, and churchings, in the said churches, and in respect of the fees to arise therefrom, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts ; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent that having taken into their consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Aberdare, in the county of Glamorgan, and in the diocese of Llandaff, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Fagan, situate in the said parish of Aberdare, under the power for this purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' and in the third section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the assignment of Ecclesiastical Districts to Churches or Chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes,' and that such proposed District should be named 'THE DISTRICT CHAPELRY OF SAINT FAGAN, ABERDARE,' and that the boundaries thereof be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:

"The boundary of the District Chapelry of Saint Fagan, Aberdare, commences at the eastern side of the said parish of Aberdare, at the point where the southern side of the piece of land, No. 1366, on the tithe commutation map of that parish, is intersected by the boundary between the said parish and the parish of Merthyr Tydfil, the boundary of the said District Chapelry then proceeds in a south-westerly direction along the southern sides of the pieces of land Nos. 1366 and 1335, on the same map, till it reaches the occupation-road numbered on the same map 1336, 1332, and 1304, it then pursues nearly a westerly direction down that road till it reaches a piece of land No. 1298, along the southern boundary of which it passes to the tram-road, whence it follows the east and south boundaries of the piece of land No. 1299, to the River Cynon, then it takes a northerly direction for a short distance along the eastern bank of the river and then crosses the same and proceeds in a westerly direction, it then again takes a northerly direction and recrosses the said river along the east bank whereof it then proceeds in a north-westerly direction to the Aberdare Canal Company's bridge, then it again crosses the said river and proceeds in a north-westerly direction to the eastern end of Mill-street, it then proceeds in a westerly direction along the north side of Mill-street aforesaid to a point at the eastern extremity of that street, from which point it proceeds in a south-westerly direction across Hirwain-common to the road leading from the said common to Cwm Dare, it then proceeds along the north-western side of that road to the River Dare, it then proceeds in a north-westerly direction along the eastern bank of the said River Dare to the north-western corner of a piece of land No. 2144 on the same map, it then proceeds in a north-easterly direction to Hirwain-common and thence across Hirwain-common aforesaid to the north-western extremity of a piece of land No. 1843 on the same map, it then proceeds in an easterly direction, crosses the Aberdare Canal Company's tram-road until it reaches the River Cynon aforesaid, it then proceeds down the western side of that river to the junction of a brook with the said river, at a point a little below the point where the road from Aberdare to Merthyr crosses by a bridge, it then proceeds in an easterly direction along the southern bank of the said brook and along the northern side of the pieces of land Nos. 1417, 1405, 1406, 1398, 1395, 1394, 1393, 1392, and 1366, on the said map, to a point at the easternmost corner of the last-mentioned piece of land where it joins the aforesaid boundary between the said parishes of Aberdare and Merthyr Tydfil, and which parish boundary then forms the eastern boundary of the said District Chapelry to the point from which the last-mentioned boundary commenced, and which said District Chapelry is bounded on the east by the parish of Merthyr Tydfil aforesaid, and on all other sides by other parts of the parish of Aberdare, and is more particularly delineated on the map hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured red.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that it appears to them to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed in Saint Fagan's Church, Aberdare aforesaid, and that the fees to arise therefrom should be received on account of and paid over to the Réverend John Griffiths, now Vicar and Incumbent of the said parish of Aberdare, during his incumbency thereof, and that upon his avoidance of such incumbency the said fees should belong to the incumbent of Saint Fagan's Church, for the time being.

"That the consent of the Right Reverend Alfred Bishop of the said diocese of Llandaff has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taking the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a particular district to the consecrated church of Saint Fagan, situate in the parish of Aberdare, to be named "The District Chapelry of SAINT FAGAN, ABERDARE," be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the publication of banns and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials in the said church, and in respect of the fees to arise therefrom, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Llandaff.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 19.) MEDITERRANEAN SEA.

The Turkish Government has given notice that the following Lights, situate respectively in the Dardanelles, Bosphorus, and Black Sea, were re-lighted on the 1st June, 1856:—

Gallipoli—Dardanelles.

A fixed white light has been temporarily placed on the tower nearest to the town of Gallipoli, on the European shore of the Dardanelles, at a height of 98 feet above the level of the sea, and should be visible from the deck of a ship at 10 miles' distance, in clear weather.

This light will shortly be replaced by a revolving light of the second order.

Fanar Bakcheh—Skutari.

A fixed white light has been established on the point Fanar Bakcheh, on the coast of Asia, three miles and a half to the southward of the town of Skutari, at a height of 84 feet above the level of the sea, and should be visible at a distance of 10 miles.

Anadoli Light—Bosphorus.

A revolving light has been established on the ancient tower of Anatolia, on the Asiatic shore, at the entrance from the Bosphorus into the Black Sea.

The light shows, alternately, a red face followed by two white faces or flashes at intervals of two minutes each; the light gradually increasing and decreasing, but never totally eclipsed. It stands at a height of 250 feet above the level of the sea, and may be seen at a distance of 18 miles in clear weather.

The illuminating apparatus is a catadioptric lens of the third order.

Rumili Light—Bosphorus.

A fixed white light has been established on the ancient tower of Roumelia, on the European shore, at the entrance from the Bosphorus into the Black Sea.

It stands at an elevation of 190 feet above the level of the sea, and should be visible at a distance of 18 miles in clear weather.

The illuminating apparatus is a catadioptric lens of the third order.

Fidonisi Light—Black Sea.

A fixed light has been temporarily placed on Fidonisi, or Serpent Island, in the Black Sea, off the coast of Bulgaria, at 24 miles E.½N. of the Sulina entrance of the Danube.

The lighthouse is of wood painted white, 70 feet high, and stands on the summit of the island, in lat. 45° 15' 36" N., long 30° 14' 51" East of Greenwich.

The light is shown at an elevation of 195 feet above the level of the sea, but at present has a range of only 10 miles; it is visible through an arc of the horizon of 200°, or from West (magnetic) round southerly to E.N.E.

This temporary light will shortly be replaced by a revolving light of the second class.

By command of their Lordships,

John Washington, Hydrographer.

Sale of the Castle Brewery at Lewes, and 17 Freehold, Copyhold, and Leasehold Inns, Public-houses, and Beer-houses belonging thereto, situate at Lewes, Brighton, and elsewhere, in Sussex and Kent, late the property of Mr. Frederick Langford, deceased, in separate lots.

TO be sold by auction, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery made in the cause of Langford v. Selmes, with the approbation of the Judge to whose Court the said cause is attached, by Mr. Richard Moss, the person appointed to sell the same, at the White Hart Hotel, Lewes, on Wednesday, the 10th day of September, 1856, at one for two o'clock precisely, in 27 separate lots, the following premises, situate within the Castle, at Lewes, namely:—

The Castle Brewery, with a residence, storehouses, yards, gardens, stabling, tenements, and a newly-built malthouse adjoining, constructed on the most improved system, and having a cistern to sleep 40 quarters; also 17 freehold, copyhold, and leasehold inns, public-houses, and beer-houses, situate in various parts of the counties of Sussex and Kent, including The King's Arms public house at Lewes, the Grape Vine and the Bird in Hand beer shops, both in Lewes; the King's Head public house, with property adjoining, at Southover, close to Lewes; the Rainbow public house at Cooksbridge, near Lewes; a beer shop at Tilsmer Corner, Waldron, known as the Welcome Stranger, with eleven acres of land attached; a cottage on Hadlow Down; the Bell public house at Burwash; the Eight Bells public house at Hawkhurst, Kent; the Royal Oak inn at Hawkhurst, with land adjoining; the Star inn at Battle, with about nine acres of land, called the New Fee; the Corporation Arms inn at Westham, being the Pevensey Station hotel, on the South Coast Railway. Also the six following public houses, all in Brighton:—the Hare and Hounds, the Hope, the Founder's Arms, the Crown, the Wellington Arms, and the George the Fourth, with property adjoining.

The foregoing are all old licensed houses, well selected, and placed in prominent situations commanding good trades. They are at present let to highly respectable tenants; but arrangements have been made whereby the vendors will be enabled to give possession of the greater portion to such purchasers as may require it, thereby presenting an unusually favourable opportunity to persons purchasing for their own occupation, the greater part of the properties being admirably calculated for this purpose. May be viewed, by permission of the respective tenants, and printed particulars and conditions of sale had at the several houses, at the principal Inns at Brighton, Hastings, Maidstone, and Tunbridge Wells; of Messrs. Hoper, Greene, and Hunt, at Lewes; and in London of Messrs. Reed, Langford, and Marsden, 59, Friday-street, Cheapside; J. B. Lowndes, Esq., 2, New Inn, Strand; and of Mr. Richard Moss, 12, King William-street, City.
