The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," and of the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of Ecclesiastical Districts to Churches or Chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes," have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the nineteenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in the words following, viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Llanfar, in the county of Merioneth, and in the diocese of Saint Asaph, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Rhos-y-Gwalia, in the said parish of Llanfar, under and by virtue of the power or authority contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' and in the third section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the assignment of Ecclesiastical Districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes,' and that such proposed district should be named 'THE DISTRICT CHAPELRY OF RHOS-Y-GWALIA,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned: that is to say:

"The District Chapelry of Rhos-y-Gwalia is bounded on the north by the River Dee, and the parish of Llandderfel, on the north-east and partly on the east by the parish of Llandrillo, on the east by the parish of Llangynnog, on the south-east and partly on the south by the parish of Penant, on other part of the south by the parish of Llannodyn, and on the west by the parish of Llangower, as the same district chapelry is more particularly delineated on the map hereto annexed, and is thereon coloured green.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of marriage should continue to be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should continue to be solemnized or performed in Holy Trinity Church, at Rhos-y-Gwalia aforesaid, and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the minister or incumbent of such church for the time being.

"That the consent of the Right Reverend Thomas Vowler, Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Asaph, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity at Rhos-y-Gwalia, in the parish of Llanfar, to be called "The District Chapelry of RHOS-Y-GWALIA," be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners in respect of the publication of banns and the solemnization of baptisms, churchings, and burials, in the said church, and in respect of the fees to arise therefrom, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Saint Asaph.
