

suit of Tulloch v. Marshall, in the High Court of Chancery of the said Island of Jamaica. And that a certain other sum of £1,080 3s. 3d. (one thousand and eighty pounds three shillings and three pence) of the former currency of the said island, and equal to the sum of £652 17s. 11d. (six hundred and fifty-two pounds seventeen shillings and eleven pence) of lawful sterling money, was, on the 28th day of January, 1824, paid into the hands of the Receiver-General of the said island, in the secondly above-mentioned suit of Allen v. Ramsay, in the said High Court of Chancery. And that a certain other sum of £306 1s. (three hundred and six pounds and one shilling) of the former currency of the said island, and equal to the sum of £183 12s. 7d. (one hundred and eighty-three pounds twelve shillings and seven pence) of lawful sterling money, was, on the 28th day of January, 1824, paid into the hands of the Receiver-General of the said island, in the thirdly above-mentioned suit of Dwaris v. Hiscott, in the said High Court of Chancery. And that a certain other sum of £51 6s. (fifty-one pounds and six shillings) of the former currency of this island, and equal to the sum of £30 15s. 7d. (thirty pounds fifteen shillings and seven pence), of lawful sterling money, was, on the 25th day of July, 1828, paid into the hands of the Receiver-General of the said island, in the fourthly above-mentioned suit of Graham v. Grant, in the said High Court of Chancery.

And that such several sums of money have since remained, and still remain, in such several suits respectively, in the hands of the Receiver-General of the said island, and that no proceedings have been had in such suits respectively, nor has any application for the payment of the said several sums of money, or any part thereof, been made in such suits, respectively, for the period of twenty years from the time when such sums of money were respectively first lodged as aforesaid; and that if no claim be made, or right to such several sums of money be substantiated, to the satisfaction of the said Court of Chancery of the said island, within two years from the 9th day of October, 1855, being the date of the first publication of this notice in Great Britain, the said several sums of money, or such of them in respect of which no such claim shall be made, or right shall be substantiated, will, under the provisions of the said Act, become the absolute property of the public of the said Island of Jamaica.

By command.

WM. R. MYERS, Secretary to the Executive Committee, Jamaica.
