"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes." have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for assigning the right of patronage of the district or new parish of Saint Thomas, Lambeth, in the county of Surrey, and diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that it shall be lawful, by the authority therein provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying such scheme), at any time to assign the right of patronage of any district or new parish constituted under the provisions of the said Act, and the nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof respectively, either in perpetuity, or for one or more nomination or nominations, to any ecclesiastical corporation, aggregate or sole, or to either of the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, or Durham, or to any college therein respectively, or to any person or persons, or the nominee or nominees of such person or persons or body respectively, upon condition of such corporation, university, college, person or persons, contributing to the permanent endowment of such minister or perpetual curate, or towards providing a church or chapel for the use of the inhabitants of such district or new parish, in such proportion and in such manner as shall be proved by the like authority:

"And whereas by an Order made by your Majesty in Council on the sixth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, and duly published in the London Gazette, the said district of Saint Thomas, Lambeth, was constituted out of the district of Saint John the Evangelist, Waterloo-road, Lambeth.

"And whereas no assignment of the right of patronage of the said district has yet been made, under the herein-recited enactment:

"And whereas arrangements are now in progress for the provision of a church within the said district to be offered for approval by us, and for consecration by the bishop of the diocese as the church or chapel of such district, and so soon as the same shall have become a new parish, according to the provisions of the herein-recited Act, then of the said new parish, and for the use and service of the minister or perpetual curate and inhabitants thereof:

"And whereas a site for the said church, and also for a house of residence for the said minister or perpetual curate, has been provided at a cost exceeding four thousand pounds, and the principal contributors towards the cost of the said site are about to undertake the erection of the church thereon, and as a guarantee for the completion thereof, and towards effecting the same, have deposited with us the sum of one thousand four hundred pounds, upon the understanding, however, that the arrangement hereinafter mentioned for the assignment of the patronage of the said district or new parish should be recommended by us to your Majesty in Council:

"And whereas the five several persons hereinafter named and described have been nominated to us as trustees of the patronage of the said district or new parish, and of the right of nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof; and it has been proposed to us that vacancies in the trusteeship of such patronage and right of nomination shall be filled up from time to time in manner hereinafter mentioned:

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the patronage of the said district or new parish of Saint Thomas, Lambeth, and the right of nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof, shall be assigned to and vested in John Winston Spencer Churchill, commonly called the Marquis of Blandford, Sir Edward North Buxton, Baronet, the Reverend Charles Kemble, incumbent of Saint Michael's chapelry district, Stockwell, Lambeth, Robert Hanbury, and Robert Hanbury, junior, of Bricklane, Spitalfields, London, Esquires, as trustees duly nominated to us for that purpose, and that such patronage and right of nomination shall for ever thereafter be exercised by the same persons, or the survivors or survivor of them, as such trustees or trustee, and by such future trustees or trustee, being members or a member of the United Church of England and Ireland, as shall from time to time be nominated in writing under the hands or hand of the trustees or trustee for the time being, or the major part of them, in the place and stead of any one or more of them who shall from time to time die, resign, or become incapable of acting; provided always, that the number of such trustees shall not at any-time exceed five.

“And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Winchester.

DECREE.

Monte Video, June 19, 1856.

EXPERIENCE having proved that the Society of Pilots for the service of the navigation from this port to that of Buenos Ayres have done nothing but injure the consignees or the masters of the ships which want a pilot at a great distance from the port, without any guarantee for the interests which are placed under his charge, a circumstance which weighs on the Authority which has allowed these societies, without any responsibility which may save the consequences arising from the inexperience or carelessness of the pilots who receive under their direction the life and fortune of those who are on board; the Authority being interested in preventing the commerce from being prejudiced by any of the causes which may take place in the above mentioned sense, the President of the Republic directs and decrees:

Art. 1st. The first and other societies of pilots, created by the Decree of March 27, of 1854, derived from the first petition which caused its installation, are without any effect.

Art. 2nd. The Captain of the Port shall leave to the masters of vessels and consignees the liberty of choosing the pilot they may like to conduct their ships to the port of their destination in the river.

Art. 3rd. When vessels from outside coming up the river have no consignees in this place, and the captain does not come on shore, and asks for a pilot from on board, the Captain of the Port will provide one, employing the first who may present himself, if he has his licence, and is a resident in the republic.

Art. 4th. The Captain of the Port will have on a small board a list of the pilots registered for the service of the river, in order that the persons interested may choose whom they wish to conduct their ships.

Art. 5th. The Captain of the Port will exact from every pilot the dollar which is established for the passport which he ought to take on board, and he will embody the produce of every month in the account of his entries which he is to transmit to the Treasury.

Art. 6th. Let this be communicated, &c.
