FRIDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1856.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 22nd day of
October, 1856,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by Her Majesty in Council that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Thursday the thirteenth day of November next, be further prorogued to Tuesday the sixteenth day of December next.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 22nd day of
October, 1856,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in England," it is among other things enacted, that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the said Act be put in force in such county or counties as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, from time to time, should seem fit, and to divide the whole or part of any such county (including all counties of cities, and counties of towns, cities, boroughs, towns, ports, and places, liberties and franchises therein contained or thereunto adjoining), into districts, and to order that the County Court should be holden for the recovery of debts and demands under the said Act, in each of such districts, and from time to time to alter such districts as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit, and to order, from time to time, that the number of districts, in and for which the Court should be holden, should be increased until the whole of such county should be within the provisions of the said Act, and with the advice aforesaid, to alter the place of holding of any such Court, or to order that the holding of any such Court should be discontinued, or to consolidate any two or more of such districts, and from time to time, with the advice aforesaid, to declare by what name and in what towns and places the County Court should be holden in each district:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by an Order in Council, of the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, to order that the said Act should be put in force in the counties and places therein specified, and the same was put in force accordingly:

And whereas by certain other Acts made and passed in the thirteenth, in the fourteenth, in the sixteenth, and in the twentieth years of the reign of Her Majesty, the provisions of the said recited Act have been amended and extended:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by a further Order in Council, of the fourth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, to order that the County Court of Berkshire, known by the name of "The County Court of Berkshire holden at Reading," should be held at Henley-on-Thames, as well as at Reading, and that the County Court of Somersetshire, known by the name of "The County Court of Somersetshire holden at Weston-super-Mare," should be held at Axbridge, as well as at Weston-super-Mare, and the same was put in force accordingly:

And whereas it hath been represented that it would be an advantage to the public, if certain parishes in the district of "the County Court of Berkshire, holden at Reading," were separated from the district of such Court, and were to form the district of a separate County Court, to be known by the name of "The County Court of Oxfordshire, holden at Henley-on-Thames;" and also if certain parishes in the district of "the County Court of Somersetshire, holden at Weston-super-Mare," were separated from the district of such Court, and were to form the district of a separate County Court, to be known by the name of "The County Court of Somersetshire, holden at Axbridge."

Her Majesty having taken the premises into consideration, is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the twenty-fifth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six—

That the parishes of Henley-on-Thames, Rotherfield Grays, Rotherfield Peppard, Harpsden, Shiplake, Remenham, Fawley, Hambledon, Medmenham, Bix, Pishill, Swincombe, Pirton, Watlington, Nettlebed, Hurley, and Wargrave, now in the district of the County Court of Berkshire, holden at Reading, shall cease to be within the district of the said Court holden at Reading, and shall form the district of a County Court of Oxfordshire, to be holden at Henley-on-Thames, and a County Court for the purposes of the above mentioned Acts shall accordingly, from and after such day, be held at Henley-on-Thames aforesaid, by the name of "The County Court of Oxfordshire, holden at Henley-on-Thames," for the said parishes of Henly-on-Thames, Rotherfield Grays, Rotherfield Peppard, Harpsden, Shiplake, Remenham, Fawley, Hambledon, Medmenham, Bix, Pishill, Swincombe, Pirton, Watlington, Nettlebed, Hurley, and Wargrave.

And that the parishes of Wedmore, Mark, Chapel Allerton, Weare, Badgworth, Biddisham, East Brent, South Brent, Burnham, Berrow, Banwell, Christon, Loxton, Compton - Bishop, Winscombe, Rowberrow, Shipham, Axbridge, Cheddar, Nyland, Butcombe, Blagdon, Burrington, Churchill, Congresbury, and the Ville of Charterhouse-on-Mendip, now in the district of the County Court of Somersetshire, holden at Weston-super-Mare, shall cease to be within the district of the said Court holden at Weston-super-Mare, and shall form the district of a County Court of Somersetshire, to be holden at Axbridge, and a County Court for the purposes of the above-mentioned Acts shall accordingly, from and after such day, be held at Axbridge aforesaid, by the name of "The County Court of Somersetshire, holden at Axbridge," for the said parishes of Wedmore, Mark, Chapel Allerton, Weare, Badgworth, Biddisham, East Brent, South Brent, Burnham, Berrow, Banwell, Christon, Loxton, Compton-Bishop, Winscombe, Rowberrow, Shipham, Axbridge, Cheddar, Nyland, Butcombe, Blagdon, Burrington, Churchill, Congresbury, and the Ville of Charterhouse-on-Mendip.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 22nd day of October, 1856,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the tenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in England," it is, among other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the said Act be put in force in such county or counties as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, shall seem fit, and to divide the whole or part of any such county (including all counties of cities and counties of towns, cities, boroughs, towns, ports, and places, liberties, and franchises therein contained or thereunto adjoining), into districts, and to order that the County Court shall be holden for the recovery of debts and demands under the said Act in each of such districts, and from time to time to alter such districts as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, shall seem fit, and from time to time to declare by what name, and in what towns and places, the County Court shall be holden in each district:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by an Order in Council, of the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, to order that the said Act be put in force in the counties and places therein specified, of which the county of Glamorgan was one, and the same was put in force accordingly:

And whereas by certain other Acts, made and passed in the thirteenth, in the fourteenth, in the sixteenth, and in the twentieth years of the reign of Her Majesty, the provisions of the said recited Act have been amended and extended:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by a further Order in Council, of the fourth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, to order that the County Court of Glamorganshire should be holden at Newbridge, for the district therein specified, and the same was put in force accordingly:

And whereas it hath been represented that it would be of advantage to the public that the County Court of Glamorganshire, now holden by the name of "The County Court of Glamorganshire, holden at Newbridge," should be holden by the name of "The County Court of Glamorganshire, holden at Pontypridd," Her Majesty having taken the premises into consideration, is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, the County Court, now holden by the name of "The County Court of Glamorganshire, holden at Newbridge," shall be holden by the name of "The County Court of Glamorganshire holden at Pontypridd."

AT the Court at Windsor, the 22nd day of October, 1856.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," or under and by virtue of any and every other power or authority in such behalf vested in Her Majesty's said Commissioners, have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the thirteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in the words following ; viz. :

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Saint Anne, Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, and diocese of London, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Mary the Virgin, situate in Crown-street, in the said parish of Saint Anne, Westminster, under and by virtue of the power or authority for this purpose, contained in the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render

' more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' or under and by virtue of any and every other power or authority in this behalf vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners by the Church Building Acts, and that such proposed district should be named or called 'THE DISTRICT CHAPELRY OF SAINT MARY, CROWN-STREET, SOHO, WESTMINSTER,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say :

"The district chapelry of Saint Mary, Crown-street, Soho, Westminster, is bounded on the north, by the parish of Saint Marylebone, on the east, by the parish of Saint Giles-in-the-fields, on the south-east, and partly on the south, by the parish of Saint Martin-in-the-fields, and on other part of the south and west, by the remaining part of the said parish of Saint Anne, Westminster, from which the said district chapelry is separated by a line commencing in the middle of Castle-street, opposite to Little Newport-street, and from thence proceeding north-westerly and northerly along the middle of Little Newport-street to the southern end of Hayes-court, then northerly along the middle of that court, and across King-street into Grafton-street, and along the middle of that street into Soho-square, then along the middle of the carriage way on the eastern side of that square, to the northern side thereof, then westerly along such carriage way as far as Charles-street, then northerly along the middle of Charles-street, into the middle of Oxford-street, to the boundary line separating the said parish of Saint Anne, Westminster from the parish of Saint Marylebone, as the said district chapelry is more particularly delineated on the map hereto annexed, and is thereon coloured blue.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms and churchings should be solemnized or performed in the said church of Saint Mary, and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the minister or incumbent of such church for the time being.

"That the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Charles James, Bishop of the said diocese of London, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a particular district to the consecrated church of Saint Mary the Virgin, situate in Crown-street, in the parish of Saint Anne, Westminster, to be called "THE DISTRICT CHAPELRY OF SAINT MARY, CROWN-STREET, SOHO, WESTMINSTER," be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners in respect of the publication of banns and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms and churchings, in the said church, and in respect of the fees to arise therefrom, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Act; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 22nd day of October, 1856,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," and of the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of Ecclesiastical Districts to Churches or Chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes," have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in the words following, viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Hampstead, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Saviour, situate at Haverstock Hill, in the said parish of Hampstead, under the power for this purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' and in the third section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the assignment of Ecclesiastical Districts to Churches or Chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes,' and that such proposed District should be named 'THE DISTRICT CHAPELRY OF SAINT SAVIOUR, SOUTH HAMPSTEAD,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:

"The district chapelry of Saint Saviour, South Hampstead, is bounded on the east and south-east by the parish of Saint Pancras, on the south by the parish of Saint Marylebone, as far as Queen's-road, Avenue-road, on the west, north-west, and north by the remaining part of the parish of Hampstead, from which such district chapelry is separated by a line commencing in the middle of Queen's-road, and proceeding from the boundary-line of the said parishes of Hampstead and Saint Marylebone, north-easterly, along the middle of that road, and crossing Avenue-road, to a boundstone placed on the limit of the property belonging to Eton College and marked D; and from thence, following the line of such property north-westerly and north-easterly, until it reaches the Hampstead-road at the north-eastern end of Ingram's-lane, and then proceeds north-westerly along the middle of that road to the western extremity of the property belonging to the dean and chapter of Westminster, along the line of which property it then proceeds north-easterly as far as the pathway leading from Southend-green to Kentish Town, and along which pathway the boundary line then proceeds easterly as far as the parish of Saint Pancras, as the said district chapelry is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereto annexed and is thereon coloured red.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings, should be solemnized or performed at Saint Saviour's church Hampstead aforesaid, and that the fees to arise therefrom should be received on account of and paid over to the Reverend Thomas Ainger, incumbent of the said parish of Hampstead, during his incumbency thereof, and that upon his avoidance of such incumbency the said fees should belong to the incumbent of Saint Saviour's church aforesaid, for the time being.

"That the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Charles James, Bishop of the said diocese of London, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taking the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a particular district to the consecrated church of Saint Saviour, situate at Haverstock-hill, in the parish of Hampstead, to be called "THE DISTRICT CHAPELRY OF SAINT SAVIOUR, SOUTH HAMPSTEAD," be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the publication of banns and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, and churchings, in the said church, and in respect of the fees to arise therefrom, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

Enstone, Heyford-Bridge, Bicester, Weston-on-the-Green, and Kirtlington Turnpike-roads.

(Continuation of Term; Repeal or Amendment of Acts).

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for an Act to continue and extend the term, and to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of two several Acts of Parliament, one passed in the thirty-third year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for amending, widening, and repairing the road from Clay-hill, in the turnpike-road between Neat Enstone and Chipping Norton, in the county of Oxford, over Heyford-bridge, to the Water-lane, in the town of Bicester, in the said county; and from Bicester aforesaid to the turnpike-road in Weston-on-the-Green, in the said county;" and another Act passed in the fifty-third year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for enlarging the term and powers of an Act of His present Majesty, for repairing the road from the Neat Enstone and Chipping-Norton Turnpike-road, through Bicester to Weston-on-the-Green, in the county of Oxford, and for making a new branch of road to communicate therewith," or to repeal the said Acts, and to grant other and more effectual powers and provisions in lieu thereof.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is intended to apply for powers to levy and collect tolls, rates, or duties, upon the said roads, and to alter the existing tolls, rates, or duties, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from payment of tolls, rates, or duties, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges. And it is intended by the said Act to alter or vary the application of the money arising from the tolls, rates, or duties collected upon the said roads, and to alter or vary existing provisions relative to the payment of the interest and principal of the debt due and owing on the credit of the tolls, rates, or duties collected upon the said roads, and to provide for altering the present and fixing the future rate of interest payable in respect of such debt, or the proportion of tolls, rates, or duties to be applied in payment of interest and principal, and to make other provisions with respect to the existing or unclaimed debts, and with respect to the liquidation or extinguishment of any arrears of interest thereon, and of other charges and liabilities on the said roads; and with respect to the ordering, arranging, and confirming the securities of the creditors upon the tolls, rates, or duties, authorized to be collected upon the said roads, and to such other matters as Parliament shall deem proper or necessary.

And notice is hereby also given, that printed copies of the proposed Act, will be deposited on or before the 31st day of December next, in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this fifteenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six.
