AT the Court at Windsor, the 22nd day of October, 1856,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," and of the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of Ecclesiastical Districts to Churches or Chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes," have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in the words following, viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Hampstead, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Saviour, situate at Haverstock Hill, in the said parish of Hampstead, under the power for this purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' and in the third section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the assignment of Ecclesiastical Districts to Churches or Chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes,' and that such proposed District should be named 'THE DISTRICT CHAPELRY OF SAINT SAVIOUR, SOUTH HAMPSTEAD,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:

"The district chapelry of Saint Saviour, South Hampstead, is bounded on the east and south-east by the parish of Saint Pancras, on the south by the parish of Saint Marylebone, as far as Queen's-road, Avenue-road, on the west, north-west, and north by the remaining part of the parish of Hampstead, from which such district chapelry is separated by a line commencing in the middle of Queen's-road, and proceeding from the boundary-line of the said parishes of Hampstead and Saint Marylebone, north-easterly, along the middle of that road, and crossing Avenue-road, to a boundary-stone placed on the limit of the property belonging to Eton College and marked D; and from thence, following the line of such property north-westerly and north-easterly, until it reaches the Hampstead-road at the north-eastern end of Ingram's-lane, and then proceeds north-westerly along the middle of that road to the western extremity of the property belonging to the dean and chapter of Westminster, along the line of which property it then proceeds north-easterly as far as the pathway leading from Southend-green to Kentish Town, and along which pathway the boundary line then proceeds easterly as far as the parish of Saint Pancras, as the said district chapelry is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereto annexed and is thereon coloured red.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings, should be solemnized or performed at Saint Saviour's church Hampstead aforesaid, and that the fees to arise therefrom should be received on account of and paid over to the Reverend Thomas Ainger, incumbent of the said parish of Hampstead, during his incumbency thereof, and that upon his avoidance of such incumbency the said fees should belong to the incumbent of Saint Saviour's church aforesaid, for the time being.

"That the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Charles James, Bishop of the said diocese of London, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taking the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a particular district to the consecrated church of Saint Saviour, situate at Haverstock-hill, in the parish of Hampstead, to be called "THE DISTRICT CHAPELRY OF SAINT SAVIOUR, SOUTH HAMPSTEAD," be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the publication of banns and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, and churchings, in the said church, and in respect of the fees to arise therefrom, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.
