Office of the Inspector-General of Imports and Exports, Custom-house, London, 12th November, 1856.

JOHN A. MESSENGER,
Inspector-General of Imports and Exports.

Par Canal and Harbour and Railway—Treffry's Estate.

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is intended to apply to Parliament, in the next session, for an Act for all or some of the following purposes:

1. To confirm the title and possession of the trustees of the will and codicil of Joseph Thomas Treffry, and of "Treffry's Estate Act, 1853," or of the representatives of Joseph Thomas Treffry to the Par Canal, commencing at Par Harbour, in an extra-parochial place adjoining or near to the parish of Saint Blazey, in the county of Cornwall, and passing from, in, through, or into the parishes, townships, or extra-parochial places of Saint Austell, Saint Blazey, Tywardreath, Luxulian, and Lanlivery, all in that county, and terminating at a point in the parishes of Lanlivery and Luxulian, seven chains north-east of Pons Mill Bridge, in the parish of Luxulian, in that county, and the works and conveniences thereof, and to the lands acquired, or agreed to be acquired, for the purposes of the canal and the works and conveniences thereof.
2. To enable the trustees or representatives to purchase, compulsorily, lands and houses, and otherwise to acquire lands and other property for the purposes of the canal and the works and conveniences thereof.
3. To enable the trustees or representatives to levy tolls, rates, and duties for the user of the canal and the works and conveniences thereof.
4. To confer on the trustees or representatives powers for the repair, improvement, maintenance, user, and regulation of the canal and the works and conveniences thereof.
5. To make various other provisions with respect to the canal and the works and conveniences thereof.
6. To confirm the title and possession of the trustees or representatives to the Par Harbour, situate in the extra-parochial place of Par, formerly part of the sea shore, and immediately adjoining the parishes of Saint Austell, Saint Blazey, and Tywardreath, or one of them, in the county of Cornwall, and the works and conveniences thereof.
7. To enable the trustees or representatives to levy tolls, rates, and duties for the user of the harbour and the works and conveniences thereof.
8. To confer on the trustees or representatives powers for the repair, improvement, maintenance, user, and regulation of the harbour and the works and conveniences thereof.
9. To make various other provisions with respect to the harbour and the works and conveniences thereof.
10. To confirm the title and possession of the trustees or representatives to the Par Railway, commencing at the quay of Par Harbour aforesaid in an extra-parochial place adjoining the parishes of Saint Austell, Saint Blazey, and Tywardreath, or one of them, in the county of Cornwall, and passing from, in, through, or into the parishes, townships, or extra-parochial places of Par Quay, Saint Austell, Saint Blazey, Tywardreath, Luxulian, Lanlivery, and Roche, in that county, and terminating at a certain field, called Great Moor, and situate in the parish of Roche, and marked with the number 1749 in the tithe map of that parish, all in that county, and the works and conveniences thereof, and to the lands acquired or agreed to be acquired for the purposes of the railway and the works and conveniences thereof. Also to the branch railway, commencing at or near the Treffry Viaduct on the said Par Railway, in the parish of Lanlivery, in that county, and terminating at the Colcurrow Granite Works, in the same parish, or in the parish of Luxulian, or one of them, and the works and conveniences thereof, and to the lands acquired or agreed to be acquired for the purposes of the said branch railway and the works and conveniences thereof.

11. To enable the trustees or representatives to purchase, compulsorily, lands and houses, and otherwise to acquire lands and other property for the purposes of the railway and the works and conveniences thereof.
12. To enable the trustees or representatives to levy tolls, rates, and duties for the user of the railway and the works and conveniences thereof.
13. To confer on the trustees or representatives powers for the repair, improvement, maintenance, user and regulation of the railway and the works and conveniences thereof.
14. To make various other provisions with respect to the railway, and the works and conveniences thereof.
15. To incorporate with the intended Act all or some of the provisions of all or some of the following Acts, to wit "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," "The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," and "The Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847."
16. To amend "Treffry's Estate Act, 1853," and to confer on the High Court of Chancery, and on the trustees of that Act and others, various powers for the purposes of the intended Act.
17. To alter existing tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer, vary, and extinguish exemptions from payment of tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer, vary, and extinguish other rights and privileges, and to make various provisions incidental to the several purposes of the intended Act.

And notice is hereby given, that on or before the 29th day of November, 1856, plans of the Par Canal and Harbour, and Railway, respectively, describing the lines or situations of the whole of the several works and the lands in or through which the same respectively, are or are to be made, maintained, varied, extended, or enlarged, or through which every communication to or from the several works, respectively, is or shall be made, and defining the limits of every lateral deviation from the line of the several works respectively, and duplicates of those plans respectively, and a book of reference to every such plan, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of all lands and houses in the line of the several works, respectively, or within the limits of deviation as defined upon the several plans, respectively, and describing such lands and houses, respectively, with sections of the several works, respectively, and duplicates thereof, respectively, will be deposited for public inspection at the office, in the town of St. Austell, of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Cornwall, and a copy of so much of each of those plans and sections, respectively, as relates to each parish in or through which the work is or is intended to be made, maintained, varied, extended, or enlarged, or in which any lands or houses are, or are intended to be taken, or the title and possession whereof are intended to be confirmed, are situate, together with a copy of so much of the books of reference as relates to such parish, will be deposited with the Parish Clerk of such parish, at his place of residence there, or in the case of any extra-parochial place, with the parish clerk of some parish immediately adjoining thereto, at his place of residence there, and a copy of this notice published in the London Gazette, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace, and every parish clerk, respectively.

And notice is hereby given, that on or before the 31st day of December, 1856, a copy of the Bill for the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the Honourable the House of Commons.

Scott and Syms, 7, Furnival's-inn, London, Agents for the Bill.

Newquay Pier and Harbour, and Railway or Tramroad—Treffry's Estate.

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is intended to apply to Parliament in the next session for an Act for all or some of the following purposes:—

1. To amend, or to repeal and re-enact with amendments, the Act of the session of 7 and 8 Victoria, intituled "An Act to amend an Act for maintaining the pier and harbour of Newquay, in the county of Cornwall, and to make certain tramroads in connection therewith."
2. To make other provisions in lieu of the provisions of that Act.
3. To authorize the abandonment of the following portions of tramroad by that Act authorised; that is to say: the portion commencing at a field, No. 76 in the deposited plan of the said tramway, in the parish of Saint Columb Minor, otherwise Lower Saint Columb in the county of Cornwall, and passing from, in, through, or into the parishes, townships, or extra-parochial places of Saint Columb Minor, otherwise Lower Saint Columb, and Little Colon, otherwise Colan, in that county, and terminating at the field No. 2 in the said deposited plan, in the parish of Little Colon, otherwise Colan, aforesaid.

Also the portion commencing in a certain field, numbered 45 in the said deposited plan, in the parish of Saint Columb Major, otherwise Higher Saint Columb, and passing from, in, through, or into the parishes of Saint Columb Major, otherwise Higher Saint Columb, and Saint Dennis, and terminating in a certain field, numbered 20 in the said plan, in the parish of Saint Dennis aforesaid, all in that county.

Also the portion commencing in a certain field, numbered 36 in the said deposited plan, in the parish of Saint Dennis aforesaid, and passing from, in, through, or into the parishes of Saint Dennis and Saint Stephens, and terminating in a field, numbered 86 on the said plan, at or near Gonnamaroes, in the parish of Saint Stephens, in that county.

Also the branch tramroad to Newlyn Downes, commencing at or near Groze, in the parish of Saint Columb Major, otherwise Higher Saint Columb, in that county, and passing from, in, through, or into the parishes, townships, or extra-parochial places of Saint Columb Major, otherwise Higher Saint Columb, Saint Enoder, and the borough of Mitchell, and terminating on the Newlyn Downes, at or near East Wheal Rose Mine, in the parish of Newlyn, all in that county.

Also the branch tramroad commencing at or near the village of Summercourt, in the parish of Saint Enoder aforesaid, and terminating at or near the village of Ladock, in the parish of Ladock, all in that county.

4. To confirm the title and possession of the trustees of the will and codicil of Joseph Thomas Treffry, and of "Treffry's Estate Act, 1853," or of the representatives of Joseph Thomas Treffry, to the Newquay Pier and Harbour, situate in the parish of Saint Columb Minor, otherwise Lower Saint Columb, in the county of Cornwall, and the works and conveniences thereof, and to the lands acquired, or agreed to be acquired, for the purpose of the pier and harbour, and the works and conveniences thereof.

North Derbyshire Railway.

(Construction of Railways from Whaley Bridge to Dove Holes, in the Parish of Chapel-en-le-Frith, from Dove Holes to Buxton, and from Rowsley to Dove Holes; Incorporation of Company; Powers to use the Stockport, Disley, and Whaley Bridge, and the Manchester, Buxton, Matlock and Midlands Junction Railways, and to levy and limit Tolls; Facilities for Traffic; Working arrangements with the London and North Western, the Stockport, Disley and Whaley Bridge, the Manchester, Buxton, Matlock and Midlands Junction, the Great Northern, the Manchester, Sheffield and Lincolnshire, the Cromford and High Peak, and the Midland Railway Companies, and the Appointment of a joint Committee; Powers to those Companies to subscribe, &c.; Amendment of Acts).

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for an Act to make and maintain the railways following, or some or one of them, or some part or parts thereof respectively, with all proper and necessary approaches, stations, and other works and conveniences connected therewith, that is to say:

Railway No. 1, commencing by a junction with the authorized line of "The Stockport, Disley, and Whaley Bridge Railway," in or near a certain field numbered 14 on the plans of that railway referred to in "The Stockport, Disley, and Whaley Bridge Railway Act, 1855," in the parish of Hope, in the county of Derby, and terminating at or near Dove Holes, in the parish of Chapel-en-le-Frith in the said county of Derby, in or near a certain field called or known by the name of "Meadow Dale," belonging to Jane Kirk and in the occupation of William Hill, and which said intended railway will pass or be made from, into, and through, or be situate within the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial, or other places following, or some of them, that is to say; Hope, Fernilee, Chapel-en-le-Frith, Bradshaw Edge, Combs Edge, Bowden Edge, and Peak Forest, all in the said county of Derby.

Railway No. 2, commencing by a junction with the above firstly-described intended railway in the said parish of Chapel-en-le-Frith, in the said county of Derby, at or near the point where such railway is intended to terminate as herein-before mentioned, and terminating at or near Buxton, in the said county of Derby, in or near a certain field called or known by the name of "Cockert" or "Cockyard," belonging to the Duke of Devonshire, and in the occupation of William Lees, which said field is situate in the said parish of Hope, in the said county of Derby. And which said secondly-mentioned intended railway will pass or be made from, by, into, and through, or be situate within the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial, or other places following, or some of them, that is to say—Chapel-en-le-Frith, Bradshaw Edge, Combs Edge, Bowden Edge, Peak Forest, Tideswell, Wormhill, Hope, Fairfield, Bakewell, and Buxton, all in the said county of Derby.

Railway No. 3, commencing by a junction with "The Manchester, Buxton, Matlock, and Midlands Junction Railway," in the parish of Darley, in the said county of Derby, at or near a point on that railway, 103 yards, or thereabouts, south of an occupation level crossing on or across that railway leading to a certain meadow called or known by the name of "Derwent Meadow," belonging to the Duke of Rutland, and in the occupation of Thomas Wilde, and terminating at or near Dove Holes, in the said parish of Chapel-en-le-Frith and said county of Derby, and in or near the said field, called or known by the name of "Meadow Dale," belonging to Jane Kirk, and in the occupation of William Hill, where the said first-mentioned intended railway is described as being intended to terminate; and which said third-mentioned intended railway will pass or be made from, into, and through, or be situate within the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial, or other places following, or some of them, that is to say; Darley, Little Rowsley, Bakewell, Great Rowsley, Haddon, Nether Haddon, Bakewell, Holme in Great Longstone, Hassop, Rowland, Ashford, Great Longstone, Little Longstone, Brushfield, Taddington, and Priestcliffe, Blackwell, Tideswell, Litton, Tideswell, Wormhill, Hope, Fairfield, and Peak Forest, all in the said county of Derby. And it is intended by such Act to take powers to make lateral deviations from the line or lines of the said proposed railways and works, or any or either of them to the extent or within the limits defined upon the plans hereinafter-mentioned, and to cross, stop up, alter, or divert, either temporarily or permanently, all such turnpike and other roads and highways, streets, bridges, railways, tramways, mines, aqueducts, canals, towing-paths, streams, drains, pipes, rivers, navigations, and other works within the aforesaid parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places, or any or either of them, as it may be necessary to cross, stop up, alter or divert, by reason of the construction of the said railways and other works, or any or either of them.

And it is also intended by the said Act to incorporate a Company for the purpose of constructing, maintaining, making, and carrying into effect the proposed railways, or some or one of them, or some part or parts thereof respectively, to take powers to purchase by compulsion or otherwise the lands, houses, and hereditaments required for the purposes of the said intended railways and other works connected therewith, or any or either of them, or any part or parts thereof, and to vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges connected with such lands, houses, and hereditaments, or which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction, maintenance, and use of the said intended railways and other works, or any or either of them, or any part or parts thereof; and also to authorize all persons to sell or convey lands, tenements, and premises in consideration of annual rent charges for the purposes of the said railways and works, or any or either of them, and also to take powers to levy tolls, rates, and duties on or for the use of the said intended railways and works, or any or either of them, or any part or parts thereof respectively, and to alter, vary, or extinguish existing tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges.

And it is also intended by the said Act to enable the Company to be incorporated thereby, and all persons and corporations lawfully using the said proposed railways, or any or either of them, or any part or parts thereof respectively, to run, pass over, work, and use with their engines, carriages, and waggons of every description and for the purposes of their traffic, all or any part of the lines made or authorized to be made of "The Manchester, Buxton, Matlock, and Midlands Junction," and of "The Stockport, Disley, and Whaley Bridge Railways" respectively, and the stations, watering-places, sidings, junctions, cranes, offices, and other works, accommodations, and conveniences, now or hereafter belonging to or connected with such railways, or with either of them, upon payment of such tolls, rates, and charges, or such sum or sums of money, either annually or in gross, and in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as shall be agreed upon between the said Company (to be incorporated by the said intended Act) and all persons and corporations lawfully using the proposed railways, or any or either of them as aforesaid, and the said "Manchester, Buxton, Matlock, and Midlands Junction Railway Company," and the said "Stockport, Disley, and Whaley Bridge Railway Company" respectively, or as shall be prescribed or provided for by the intended Act. And also to take powers to authorize the said Company so to be incorporated, and all persons and corporations lawfully using the said proposed railways, or any or either of them, or any part or parts thereof, to levy tolls, rates, and duties on the lines made or authorized to be made of the said "Manchester, Buxton, Matlock, and Midlands Junction Railway," and the said "Stockport, Disley, and Whaley Bridge Railway," and to alter, limit, and regulate the tolls, rates, and duties leviable thereon respectively or some of them, so far as the same would be leviable in respect of such engines, carriages, and waggons running or passing over, working, or using such railways, or either of them.

And it is also intended by the said Act to take powers to require "The London and North-Western," "The Stockport, Disley, and Whaley Bridge," "The Manchester, Buxton, Matlock, and Midlands Junction," "The Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire," "The Great Northern," "The Midland," and "The Cromford and High Peak" Railway Companies, and all persons and corporations using or working the railway or railways of those Companies, to grant all proper and reasonable facilities for the transmission of, and to transmit upon and along their respective railways or any part thereof, all traffic which having passed over the said intended railways or any or either of them, or any part or parts thereof, may be tendered to them for transmission along their own railways respectively, or any part or parts thereof, or which may be tendered to them for transmission along their own railways respectively, or any part or parts thereof for the purpose of being afterwards conveyed on and along the said intended railways, or any or either of them, or any part or parts thereof, upon and subject to such rules and regulations and upon payment of such tolls, rates and charges as shall, in case of disagreement, be settled by arbitration or otherwise, or as may be fixed and determined in and by the said intended Act.

And it is also intended by the said Act to enable the said intended Company and "The London and North-Western," "The Stockport, Disley, and Whaley Bridge," "The Manchester, Buxton, Matlock, and Midlands Junction," "The Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire," "The Great Northern," "The Midland," and "The Cromford and High Peak" Railway Companies, or any or either of them, to enter into and carry into effect any agreements and arrangements which they may have made or shall make with respect to the working, use, management, construction, and maintenance of the undertaking authorized by the said intended Act, or any part or parts thereof; and with respect to the payment or contribution by and between the said Companies, any or either of them, towards the costs, charges, and expenses of such working, use, management, construction, and maintenance, and to authorize the said hereinbefore-mentioned Companies, any or either of them, to work and use the said intended railways, or any or either of them, or any part or parts thereof, and to regulate and manage the traffic thereon, and to agree with the Company to be incorporated for the payment of certain tolls or sums of money for the use of the said intended railways, or any or either of them, or any part or parts thereof, or for the apportionment of the tolls and fares received on the said intended railways, or any or either of them, or any part or parts thereof, or the payment of fixed sums in lieu thereof, and to enable such Companies, or any or either of them, and the said intended Company to appoint a joint committee for carrying into effect any such contracts or arrangements, and to exercise by means of such joint committee or otherwise such of the rights, powers, and privileges, whether with reference to the levying of tolls, rates, and duties, or otherwise, now or hereafter vested in or belonging to such Companies, or any or either of them, or to the said intended Company, or such of them as may be parties to any such contract or arrangement, and all such other rights, powers, and privileges as may be necessary or expedient for more effectually carrying into effect any such contracts or arrangements.

And it is also intended by the said Act to authorize the Railway Companies lastly above mentioned, or any or either of them, to subscribe and contribute funds towards the construction and maintenance of the said intended railways and works, or any or either of them, or any part or parts thereof, and to guarantee to the intended Company such interest, dividend, annual, or other payments, as may be agreed upon between such Companies respectively, and to take and hold shares in, and subscribe for or towards the said intended railways, or some or one of them, or some part or parts thereof respectively, and to apply any capital or funds now or hereafter respectively belonging to them, or under the control of their respective directors, or to raise additional capital by the creation of new shares in their several undertakings, either with or without preference or priority in payment of interest or dividend, or by borrowing on mortgage or bond for the purposes aforesaid, or any or either of them, and to enable the same Companies, or any or either of them, to vote at meetings of the said Company to be incorporated as aforesaid, and to appoint directors of that Company, and to enable the same Companies, or any or either of them, and the Company to be incorporated as aforesaid, to enter into mutual arrangements with respect to the several matters aforesaid, or any or either of them.

And it is also intended by the said Act to alter, amend, extend, vary, and enlarge, or repeal some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts of Parliament incorporating and relating to the following Companies or undertakings, so far as those Acts will be affected by the grant or application to the same Companies or undertakings respectively, of the powers and provisions whereof notice is hereby given, that is to say, the Act or Acts relating to "The Manchester, Buxton, Matlock, and Midlands Junction," "The Stockport, Disley, and Whaley Bridge," "The Cromford and High Peak," "The Great Northern," "The London and North Western," "The Midland, and the Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire" Railway Companies.

And notice is hereby further given, that on or before the 29th day of November instant, maps, plans, and sections describing the direction, line, and levels of the said intended railways and works, or some or one of them, and the lands which may be taken for the purposes thereof, together with a book of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and the occupiers of such lands, and also a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Derby, at his office at Derby, in the said county, and that on or before the said 29th day of November, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections, and book of reference, as relates to each parish or extra-parochial place in or through which the said intended railways and works, or some or one of them are proposed to be made, together with a copy of this notice published as aforesaid, will be deposited as follows, that is to say, in the case of parishes, with the parish clerk of each such parish at his residence, and in case of any extra-parochial place, with the parish clerk of some parish immediately adjoining thereto at his residence.

And notice is hereby also given that on or before the 31st day of December next, printed copies of the Bill relating to the objects aforesaid will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this seventh day of November, 1856.

North Level Drainage.

(Powers to enlarge The North Level Main Drain, and make a new cut, sluices, &c.; for levying taxes and contributions, and repealing exemptions from taxation; transfer to the North Level Commissioners of Powers and Estates of Bedford Level Corporation, within the North Level and Great Portsand; Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next Session, for an Act to authorize the North Level Commissioners to enlarge by widening and deepening their existing main drain, known as "The North Level Main Drain," from the sluices at Clows Cross fixed across their existing drains known as "The New South Eau" and "The New Wryde," to a point distant three hundred yards or thereabouts to the westward of the existing outfall sluice, commonly called "The North Level Sea Sluice," situate at the termination of the said main sluice, next the Nene Outfall Cut, and to make and maintain a new cut or drain, commencing at the point aforesaid, distant three hundred yards, or thereabouts to the westward of the said North Level Sea Sluice, into and terminating at the said Nene Outfall Cut, at a point distant two hundred yards or thereabouts, north of the said North Level Sea Sluice, and to make and maintain a new outfall sluice in connection with such intended new cut or drain, and to re-construct the said sluices at Clows Cross, or to widen and enlarge the sluice at Clows Cross, fixed across the said "New Wryde," and to enlarge by widening and deepening the said drain, known as "The New Wryde," from the said sluice across the same drain, to a point distant ninety yards or thereabouts, to the southward of the same sluice, and to sell or let their present sluice-house and premises, near their existing outfall sluice, and to erect a new sluice-house, with all necessary conveniences, between their said existing outfall sluice and their intended outfall sluice, all which said enlargements and new works will be situate in the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial and other places following, or some of them, (that is to say) Leverington-Parson-Drove, Tid Saint Mary's, Sutton Saint Edmunds, Sutton Saint Mary's, Leverington, Tid Saint Giles, and Newton, in the Isle of Ely, in the county of Cambridge, and in the parts of Holland, in the county of Lincoln; and it is proposed by the said intended Act, to authorize the said Commissioners to alter, raise, lower, or remove the existing embankments and works of the said main drain and new Wryde, and to make bridges, sluices, lock-gates, flood-gates, and other works and conveniences in connection with the said intended enlargements and new works, in the several parishes, townships, and places aforesaid, or some or one of them, and to make all necessary alterations in, additions to, or improvements of all existing bridges over the said main drain, and all tunnels and sluices communicating therewith or otherwise affecting the same, and to execute all such other works as may be necessary or expedient for rendering the said main drain and works of the said Commissioners more effectual and proper for drainage purposes. And it is proposed by the said intended Act to authorize the said Commissioners to admit a navigation on the said new cut or drain, and on all their existing cuts and drains; and to levy tolls in respect of such navigation, and to grant exemptions from the payment of such tolls, and if necessary or expedient to alter, vary, and increase all or any navigation tolls now leviable by the said Commissioners, and also to supply any lands or drains adjoining to or communicating with the said main drain, or with any other drains or watercourses of the said Commissioners with water for the use of the said lands, or of any stock or cattle thereon, and also to take or purchase by compulsion or agreement, lands and buildings for the purposes of the said intended Act or any of them, and to stop up, alter, or divert temporarily or permanently all roads, highways drains, brooks, streams, watercourses, and works in or near the said several parishes, townships, and places, or any of them, which it may be necessary to stop up or divert for the purposes of the said intended works or any of them, and to vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges in any manner connected with any of the lands and buildings to be taken or purchased as aforesaid, or with any of the roads, highways, drains, brooks, streams, watercourses, or works to be stopped up, altered, or diverted as aforesaid, or which would or might prevent or impede the construction or alteration of the said intended works or any of them, and to confer other rights and privileges; and it is also proposed by the said intended Act, to enable the North Level Commissioners to stop up, abandon, and discontinue the use of so much of a common public road as runs along the south bank of that portion of the said main drain which is situate between the turnpike road leading from Wisbeach to Tid Gote and the said Nene Outfall Cut, which road the said Commissioners are now liable to maintain under the provisions of the Act of the first year of William the Fourth hereinafter mentioned, and also to discontinue the public user of the lading and landing place on the north side of the said existing North Level sea-sluice, which lading and landing place the said Commissioners are also liable to maintain under the provisions of the same Act; and it is also proposed by the said intended Act to authorize the said Commissioners to levy rates, taxes, and impositions upon or in respect of all lands locally situate within any of the five several districts, into which the North Level and Great Portsand were divided by the Act of the twenty-seventh year of George the Second hereinafter mentioned, whether such lands have been heretofore subject to drainage rates, taxes, or impositions or not, or have been specially exempted from any such drainage rates, taxes, or impositions by Act of Parliament or otherwise, save only and except such lands (if any) as may be specially exempted by the said intended Act, or by powers conferred upon the said Commissioners, and to review, alter, and increase all or any existing rates, taxes, and impositions for purposes of drainage within any of the said five districts, and to repeal all existing exemptions and exceptions from payment of any of such rates, taxes, or impositions, in respect of any lands locally situate within any of the said five districts, and to empower the said Commissioners to grant exemptions from the payment of any rates, taxes, and impositions, and to authorize the said Commissioners to borrow a further sum of money; and it is also proposed by the said intended Act to authorize or require contributions to be paid to the said North Level Commissioners from the following Commissioners and others (that is to say): the Commissioners for the drainage of the lands in Newborough, the Commissioners for the drainage of the lands in the late Great Common in Sutton Saint Edmunds, the Commissioners for the drainage of the Wisbech north side district, the Commissioners for the drainage of the Leverington and Parson Drove district, the Commissioners for the drainage of the Tid and Newton district, the Proprietors of lands in Sutton Saint Edmunds aforesaid, on the north side of South Eau bank, the proprietors of lands in Sutton Saint James, in the said county of Lincoln, on the north side of the said South Eau Bank, and on the north and west sides of Shire drain, and the proprietors of lands in Tid St. Mary's aforesaid, in Rippingale Field, Chapel Field, Tilney Field, and Dunton Field, and to enable or compel such Commissioners respectively, and the Commissioners of Sewers for the county of Lincoln, acting within the Hundred of Elloe, in the said county, within whose jurisdiction the said lands in Sutton Saint Edmunds, Sutton Saint James, and Tid Saint Mary's are situate, to raise rates and taxes upon the respective districts or lands under their control or within their jurisdiction respectively, for payment of such respective contributions, and to raise or borrow money upon such rates and taxes, and to enable such Commissioners respectively to raise contributions, or to enable the North Level Commissioners in case of default, or in the first instance to levy rates, taxes, and contributions upon and from such districts and lands respectively.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act, to authorize the said North Level Commissioners to levy rates, taxes, and impositions upon, or in respect of certain lands, containing forty-six acres or thereabouts, lying in Peakirk, in the county of Northampton, on the west side of and adjoining a certain river, known as "The Folly River," and certain other lands, containing sixty acres or thereabouts, lying in Glynton in the same county, on the west side of, and adjoining, the same river, which respective lands now drain through the said North Level, and also upon, or in respect of, all other lands, if any, not hereinbefore mentioned, now draining by the said North Level main drain, to sea.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to transfer to and vest in the North Level Commissioners all the works, powers, duties, rights, privileges, and jurisdiction of the governor, bailiffs, and commonalty of the Company of Conservators of the Great Level of the Fens, called Bedford Level (hereinafter called the Corporation), including all powers of levying tolls, dues, rates, taxes, and impositions, so far as such works, powers, duties, rights, privileges, and jurisdiction respectively relate to, or are or may be lawfully exercised within the said North Level and Great Portsand, or either of them, and all houses, buildings, lands, banks, drains, sluices, bridges, rights of soil, and herbage, tolls, revenues, and hereditaments, of, belonging to, or held by the said Corporation, for the use or purposes of the said North Level and Great Portsand, or either of them, or any part thereof respectively, and to enact that no person shall sit as a member of the select body of the said Corporation, or vote at any election of the said select body, or of any member thereof, or otherwise at any meeting of the said Corporation in respect of land within the said North Level, and to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges (if any) of the owners of adventure land within the said North Level, as regards the said Corporation.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act to alter, repeal, or amend all or certain of the provisions of the several Acts of Parliament following, or some of them, relating locally to the said Bedford Level, and the North Level and Great Port-sand, or some or one of them, or certain parts thereof respectively, that is to say: the 15th Charles 2nd, cap. 17; the 20th Charles 2nd, cap. 8; the 24th George 2nd, cap. 23; the 27th George 2nd, cap. 19; the 29th George 2nd, cap. 9; the 11th George 3rd, cap. 78; the 13th George 3rd, cap. 40; the 35th George 3rd, cap. 166; the 36th George 3rd, cap. 73; the 49th George 3rd, cap. 119; the 52nd George 3rd, cap. 143; the 11th George 4th, cap. 53; the 1st William 4th, cap. 27; and the 3rd William 4th, cap. 72; and of all other Acts (if any), not above specified, relating locally to the said Bedford Level, and the North Level and Great Port-sand, or either of them, or any part thereof respectively. Also all or certain of the provisions of the several local and personal Acts of Parliament following, or some of them, relating to the Nene Outfall, the Nene Improvement, and the Nene Valley Drainage and Navigation Improvement (that is to say): the Nene Outfall Acts of the 7th and 8th George 4th, cap. 85; the 10th George 4th, cap. 104; and the 6th and 7th William 4th, cap. 92; the Nene Improvement Act of the 11th and 12th Victoria, cap. 143; and the Nene Valley Drainage and Navigation Improvement Acts of the 15th and 16th Victoria, cap. 128; and the 17th and 18th Victoria, cap. 82; and of all other local and personal Acts (if any), not above specified, relating to the Nene Outfall and the Nene Improvement, and the Nene Valley Drainage and Navigation Improvement; also all or certain of the provisions of the several Acts of Parliament following, or some of them, relating locally to the districts known by the names of the Wisbech North Side District, the Leverington and Parson Drove District, and the Tid and Newton District, or some or one of them, and the lands in Sutton Saint Edmund's, in the county of Lincoln, on the north side of South Eau Bank, (that is to say): the 13th George 3rd, cap. 60; the 15th George 3rd, cap. 66; the 41st George 3rd, cap. 73; the 48th George 3rd, cap. 23; the 49th George 3rd, cap. 43; and the said Act of 11th and 12th Victoria, cap. 143, so far as it relates to the lands in Sutton Saint Edmund's on the north side of South Eau Bank; and of all other Acts (if any) not above specified, relating locally to the said last mentioned districts or any of them, and the said lands in Sutton Saint Edmund's aforesaid, on the north side of South Eau Bank.

And notice is hereby also given, that duplicate plans of the said intended new cut or drain, and of the said intended enlargements and other works, and of the lands proposed to be taken or purchased for the purposes thereof respectively, and also of all other lands not belonging to the said North Level Commissioners required to be taken or purchased for the purposes of any of the said intended works, together with a book of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands, and also duplicate sections of the said intended new cut or drain, enlargements and works, and a copy of this notice (as published in the London Gazette) will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the Isle of Ely, at his office, in Wisbech; and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Cambridge, at his office, in Cambridge; and with the Clerk of the Peace for the Parts of Holland, in the county of Lincoln, at his office, in Spalding, on or before the 29th day of November, 1856, and that a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference as relates to the several parishes, or extra-parochial places in or through which the said intended new cut or drain enlargements and works are intended to be made, or any lands or buildings proposed to be taken or purchased are situate, together with a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited on or before the same 29th day of November, as follows (that is to say): in the case of a parish, with the parish clerk of such parish, at his residence; and in the case of an extra-parochial place, with the parish clerk of some parish immediately adjoining thereto, at his residence; and that prints of the Bill, for effecting the objects aforesaid or some of them, will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, on or before the 31st day of December, 1856.

Dated this 8th day of November, 1856.

Richmond and Kew Extension Railway.

(Powers for making a Railway from the North and South-Western Junction Railway to Richmond; Incorporation of Company for that purpose; Power to make working arrangements with other Companies; Provisions as to the use of Stations, &c. of the London and South-Western Railway, and also as to transmission, &c. of Traffic; Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next session, for an Act or Acts to make and maintain a railway, together with all proper stations, works, conveniences, and approaches connected therewith, commencing by a junction with the main line of the North and South-Western Junction Railway, in the parish of Ealing, in the county of Middlesex, at or near a point thereon, 650 yards or thereabouts, north-eastward of the bridge, which carries Gunnersbury Lane over the said last-mentioned railway, and terminating in the parish of Richmond, in the county of Surrey, at or near a point on the east side of the Kew Road, and near to or adjoining the Windsor Line of the London and South-Western Railway, and also on or in certain premises belonging to the said last-mentioned Railway Company, and in the occupations of James Albion Andrews, and John Mac Rae, and which intended railway and works will pass or be made from, into, and through, or be situate within the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places following, or some of them (that is to say): Ealing, Acton, Chiswick, and Christchurch Chiswick, in the said county of Middlesex, and Kew, Mortlake, and Richmond, in the said county of Surrey:

And it is intended by the said Act or Acts, to take powers to make lateral deviations from the line or lines of the proposed railway and works, to the extent, or within the limits defined upon the plans hereafter mentioned, and to cross, divert, alter, or stop up, whether temporarily or permanently, all such roads, highways, streets, bridges, works, mines, streams, rivers, sewers, main pipes, drains, canals, navigations, railways, and tramways within the said parishes, townships, and extra-parochial and other places aforesaid, or some of them, as it may be necessary to cross, divert, alter, or stop up, for the purposes of the intended railway and works:

And it is also intended by the said Act or Acts, to incorporate a Company for the purposes of constructing, maintaining, working, and carrying into effect the proposed railway and works, or some part or parts thereof; to take powers to purchase lands and houses by compulsion or agreement, and to vary or extinguish rights and privileges in any manner connected with the lands or houses proposed to be taken for the purposes of the said railway and works; and also to levy tolls, rates, and duties, upon or in respect of the said railway and works; and to alter, vary, or extinguish existing tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer, vary, and extinguish other rights and privileges:

And it is also proposed by the said Act or Acts to enable the Company to be incorporated as aforesaid, and the North and South-Western Junction, the London and North-Western, the London and South-Western, the North London and the Hampstead Junction Railway Companies, or any or either of them, to enter into and carry into effect any agreements and arrangements which they may have made, or shall make with respect to the working, use, management, construction, and maintenance of the undertaking authorized by the said intended Act or Acts, or any part thereof; and with respect to the payment or contribution by and between the said Companies or any or either of them, towards the costs, charges, and expenses of such working, use, management, construction, and maintenance; and to authorize such last mentioned Companies, any or either of them, to work and use the said intended railway, or any part thereof, and to regulate and manage the traffic thereon, and to agree with the Company to be incorporated for the payment of certain tolls or sums of money for the use of the railway, or for the apportionment of the tolls and fares received on the intended railway, or the payment of fixed sums in lieu thereof:

And it is also intended by the said Act or Acts to enable the Company so to be incorporated to use the stations, works, and conveniences of the said London and South-Western Railway Company upon such terms and under such payments and conditions as shall be mutually agreed upon, or, as in case of dispute shall be determined by the Board of Trade; and provision will also be made in the said intended Act or Acts for requiring the North and South-Western Junction, and the London and South-Western Railway Companies respectively, to grant all proper and reasonable facilities for the transmission of, and to transmit upon and along their respective railways, or any part thereof, all traffic which having passed over the said intended railway, or any part thereof, may be tendered to them respectively for transmission along their own railways, or any part thereof, or which may be tendered to them for transmission along their own railways, or any part thereof, for the purpose of being afterwards conveyed on and along the said intended railway; or any part thereof, upon and subject to such rules and regulations and upon payment of such tolls, rates, and charges as shall in case of disagreement be settled by arbitration, or otherwise, or as may be fixed and determined in and by the said intended Act or Acts:

And notice is hereby further given, that on or before the 29th day of November instant, maps, plans, and sections, describing the direction, line, and levels of the said intended railway and works, and the lands which may be taken for the purposes thereof, together with a book of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and the occupiers of such lands, and also a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace of the county of Middlesex, at his office at Clerkenwell, in the county of Middlesex, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Surrey, at his office in Lambeth, in the said county; and that on or before the said 29th day of November, a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference as relates to each parish or extra-parochial place, in or through which the said intended railway and works are proposed to be made, together with a copy of this notice, published as aforesaid, will be deposited as follows, that is to say: in the case of parishes, with the parish clerk of each such parish at his residence, and in case of any extra-parochial place, with the parish clerk of some parish immediately adjoining thereto, at his residence:

And notice is hereby further given, that for carrying into effect all or any of the above objects, it is intended to alter, amend, extend, vary, and enlarge, or repeal, so far as may be necessary or desirable for the purpose or purposes aforesaid, or any of them, all or some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts of Parliament relating to the North and South-Western Junction, the London and South-Western, the London and North-Western, the Hampstead Junction, and the North London Railway Companies:

And notice is hereby also given, that printed copies of the Bill relating to the objects aforesaid will be deposited on or before the 31st day of December, 1856, in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated the 10th day of November, 1856.

(Meriton's and Hagen's Sufferance Wharves.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing Session, for an Act for the regulation of certain Public Sufferance Wharves, at Dockhead, Bermondsey, in the Borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, adjoining the river Thames, and situate in the Port of London, called or known respectively as "Meriton's Sufferance Wharf" and "Hagen's Sufferance Wharf," now in the occupation of Messrs. John George and Alfred Barry, and for preserving the lien or security of shipowners and others on goods landed at such wharves, and for the recovery of the wharfage rent and other charges in respect of such goods, and for otherwise facilitating the despatch of business at such wharves, and generally for applying to such wharves similar powers, rights, privileges, and restrictions as are granted and imposed by the several Acts of Parliament following, to or in respect of the legal quays and public sufferance wharves therein mentioned respectively (that is to say), an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the 9th and 10th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the legal quays within the Port of London;" an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the 10th and 11th years of the reign of Her said Majesty, intituled "An Act for making perpetual the provisions of an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled 'An Act for the regulation of the legal quays within the Port of London;'" and an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the 11th and 12th years of the reign of Her said Majesty, intituled, "An Act for the regulation of certain public sufferance wharves in the Port of London."

And notice is hereby further given, that on or before the 31st day of December next, printed copies of the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 8th day of November, 1856.

Sittingbourne and Sheerness Railway.

(Deviations of Line and Levels; Construction of Branch Railways at Sheerness, Queenborough, and Sittingbourne, and of a Pier or Landing-place at Queenborough; Powers to Company and to East Kent Railway Company to make a joint Station at Sittingbourne; Powers to enter into Station Arrangements with the East Kent Railway Company, and Working Arrangements with the East Kent and South-Eastern Railway Companies; Powers to form Junctions with the East Kent Railway; Abandonment of portions of authorized line rendered unnecessary by Deviations, and other purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to repeal, alter, amend, extend, and enlarge, some of the powers and provisions of "The Sittingbourne and Sheerness Railway Act, 1856," or otherwise wholly to repeal the said Act, and to consolidate all or some of the provisions thereof, and of the said intended Bill into one Act, and to enable "The Sittingbourne and Sheerness Railway Company," incorporated by the said Act, to make the deviations in their authorized line and levels, and to make and maintain the railways, pier, landing-place, and works, and carry into execution the several objects and purposes hereinafter mentioned, or some of them, that is to say:—

First. To make a deviated or new line of railway, commencing in the parish of Queenborough from and out of the said authorized line of railway at or near the point where the said authorized line on the deposited plans of that line (herein called the said deposited plans) crosses the public road from Minster to Queenborough, numbered 4 in the said parish of Queenborough, on the said deposited plans, and terminating at or near the public house called "The Shipwright's Arms," in High-street, in Mile Town, Sheerness, in the parish of Minster; the whole of which said deviated line of railway will pass or be situate or made in the said several parishes of Queenborough and Minster, in the Isle of Sheppy and county of Kent.

Second. To make a branch railway, commencing from and out of the said deviated line, near the south end of the Ordnance-road, in the said parish of Minster, at or near the point marked A on the plans to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, and terminating in Her Majesty's dockyard at Sheerness, near the shore end of the public pier or landing-place at Sheerness, in the parish of Minster, at the point marked B on the said plans so to be deposited, the whole of which said intended branch railway will pass from, in, through, or into, or be situate within the said parish of Minster, in the said Isle of Sheppy and county of Kent.

Third. To make a branch railway, commencing from and out of the said deviated line, in the said parish of Queenborough, in the Isle of Sheppy, at the point marked C in the field numbered 7 in the said parish, on the said plans, so to be deposited, and terminating at the point marked D on the same plans on the pier or landing-place hereinafter described, to be made on the shore of the West Swale or River Medway at Queenborough-point in the said parish of Queenborough, which said intended branch railway will pass from, in, through, or into, or be situate within, the said several parishes of Queenborough and Minster, or one of them, and the bed or shore of the West Swale or River Medway adjoining the same, all in the said Isle of Sheppy, in the county of Kent.

Fourth. To make and maintain at, or from, or near to, and as a terminus for the last-mentioned branch railway a pier, or jetty, and landing-place, with all proper works, conveniences, and approaches connected therewith, and communicating between the pier and the said branch railway, such pier or jetty and landing-place commencing on and from the pieces of land at Queenborough-point, in the said parish of Queenborough, numbered 12 and 13 in the said parish, on the said plans, so to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, and extending thence on and over the shore and bed of the West Swale or River Medway, for the distance of 200 yards or thereabouts from high-water mark of ordinary spring-tides; the line and extent of which said pier or jetty and landing-place will be delineated on the said plans to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, and which said pier or jetty and landing-place and works are intended to be wholly situate in or abutting upon the said parish of Queenborough, in the said Isle of Sheppy.

Fifth.—To make a curve or junction line of railway commencing from and out of the said deviated line of railway, in the parish of Minster, in a field numbered 36, in the said parish, on the said plans, so to be deposited, and at the point marked E on the said plans, and proceeding thence in a curved line to, and terminating at and forming a junction with the thirdly-described line of railway, in the said parish of Queenborough, in the field numbered 12, in the said parish, on the said plans, so to be deposited, and at a point marked F on the said plans; the whole of which said intended branch railway will pass from, in, through, or into, or be situate within the said several parishes of Minster and Queenborough, or one of them, in the said Isle of Sheppy and county of Kent.

Sixth.—To alter the levels of the said authorized line of railway between the point marked two miles five furlongs, on the section of the said authorized railway, deposited with the said deposited plans, and the point marked three miles two furlongs on the same section, and also between the point marked three miles four furlongs and the point marked six miles four furlongs, on the said section of the said authorized railway, deposited with the said deposited plans, and between such several points, as aforesaid, to make and construct the said portions of railway in the lines, and according to the levels shown on the plans and sections of such deviations, to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned; the whole of which said proposed deviations of levels will be situate or made in the several parishes, townships, or places of Minster, in the Isle of Sheppy and Iwade, and Milton, in the county of Kent, or some or one of them.

Seventh.—To make a deviated or new line of railway, commencing in the parish of Milton, from and out of the said authorized line of railway, at or near the point marked G on the plans to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, in the field numbered 25 on the said plans to be deposited, and also on the said deposited plans, in the said parish of Milton, and terminating at or near the authorized terminus of the said authorized line, in the parish of Sittingbourne, at the point marked H on the said plans to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned; the whole of which said deviated line of railway will pass or be made in the said several parishes of Milton and Sittingbourne, in the county of Kent.

Eighth.—To make a curve or junction line of railway, commencing from and out of the said authorized line, near Sittingbourne, at the said point marked G, in the said field, numbered 25, in the said parish of Milton, on the said plans so to be deposited, and proceeding thence in a curved line to, and terminating at, and to form a junction with the line of the East Kent Railway, in the said parish of Milton, at a point about 250 yards westward from the road numbered 26, in the parish of Milton, and marked K on the said plans so to be deposited; the whole of which said curve or junction railway will be situate or made in the parish of Milton, in the county of Kent.

To form junctions with the rails of the East Kent Railway, at or near the points shown on the said plans to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, and otherwise to interfere with the said East Kent Railway, and the rails and works thereof.

To take additional lands adjoining the said authorized line of the Sittingbourne and Sheerness Railway, at or near Sittingbourne, in the parishes of Sittingbourne and Milton, in the county of Kent, for the purpose of forming and to form thereon a station, with sheds, depôts, warehouses, and other works, either for the separate use of the said Company, or for the joint use of the said Company and of the East Kent Railway Company, and for the accommodation of the traffic of the said Company or Companies.

To authorize the Company to contribute towards the formation of a joint station, with the sheds, depôts, warehouses, and other works to be constructed on lands belonging to or authorized to be taken by the East Kent Railway Company for the joint use of the traffic of the last-mentioned Company, and of the Sittingbourne and Sheerness Railway Company.

To enable the said Companies respectively, for the purposes of any joint station on either line of railway to purchase and hold lands jointly, and to contribute funds either alone or jointly towards the expense of making, constructing, and maintaining any joint station at or near Sittingbourne, and the works connected therewith, or to enable either Company to use the station and works of the other Company upon payment of such tolls, rates, and charges, and upon such other terms and conditions as may be agreed upon, or as shall be prescribed by the said Bill.

To enable the said Company to abandon and relinquish the construction of so much of the said authorized line of railway as lies between the said road, numbered 4, on the said deposited plans, in the parish of Queenborough, and the authorized commencement of the said railway, at or near the end of Rose Street, in Mile Town, Sheerness, in the said Parish of Minster, and which line of railway so to be abandoned, will be rendered unnecessary by the formation of the said first described deviated line of railway; also to abandon and relinquish the construction of so much of the said authorized line of railway as lies between the said point marked G, in the said parish of Milton, on the said plans to be deposited, and the authorized termination of the said authorized line at or near Sittingbourne, which last mentioned portion of railway so to be abandoned will be rendered unnecessary by the formation of the said deviated line of railway herein severally described.

To deviate from the line of the said intended deviations, branch railways, pier, station, and works respectively to such extent as shall be laid down on the plans thereof, deposited as hereinafter mentioned, and also to cross on the level, and alter the level and inclination of several public streets, turnpike roads, bridge approaches, and public highways, and to cross, divert, alter, or stop up, whether temporarily or permanently, all such public streets, turnpike roads, parish roads, and other highways, and all rivers, streams, canals, navigations, sewers, drains, railways, tramways, and other works within the said parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places aforesaid, or some of them, as it may be necessary or expedient to raise, lower, cross, divert, alter, or stop up for the purposes of such proposed deviations, branches, pier, landing place, station, and other works respectively.

To purchase, by compulsion or otherwise, the lands and houses, bed and shore of the West Swale and River Medway, and other rights required for the purposes of the said deviations, branch railways, pier, landing place, station, and works, and to alter, vary, or extinguish all existing rights and privileges connected with such lands and houses, or bed and shore of the West Swale or River Medway, which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction, maintenance, and use of the said deviations, branch railways, pier, landing place, station, and works, or any of them.

And it is intended to insert in the said Bill powers and provisions to enable the Sittingbourne and Sheerness Railway Company, the East Kent Railway Company, and the South Eastern Railway Company, or either of them, to enter into arrangements for the working by the two last-mentioned Companies, or either of them, of the said authorized and deviated line and intended branch railways, pier, landing place, and station, and works, and to enter into arrangements with the same Companies, or either of them, or any person or Company touching all or any of the matters aforesaid, and also powers to vary or extinguish all such rights or privileges as could or might interfere with the objects to be authorized by the said Bill.

And it is intended to insert in the said Bill powers to levy tolls, rates, or duties for, or in respect of, the use of the said deviations and intended branch railways, pier, landing place, station, and works, and of any cranes, buildings, or conveniences, to be connected therewith, and for all carriages, passengers, animals, minerals, goods, or other traffic conveyed over or otherwise using the same, and to vary, alter, and increase, or diminish the tolls, rates, and duties authorized by "The Sittingbourne and Sheerness Railway Act, 1856," and to confer exemptions from the payment of such authorized and intended tolls, rates, or duties, and to confer, vary, alter, or extinguish, other rights, privileges and exemptions.

To authorize the application to the purposes of the said deviations, branch railways, pier, landing-place, stations, works, and conveniences, and to the other purposes to be authorized by the said Bill of any part of the monies by "The Sittingbourne and Sheerness Railway Act, 1856," authorized to be contributed, or subscribed, or raised, or borrowed for the purposes of the railway and works thereby authorized, and also of any other monies under the control of the said Company or the Directors thereof, and to make further provisions for the regulation and application of the capital of the said Company.

And it is intended to vest in the said Company, and make applicable to the objects and purposes of the said Bill, all or some of the powers and provisions of the said existing Act, and also of "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," "The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," "The Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847," and all other necessary powers and provisions, and also to make bye laws for any of the purposes mentioned in the said Acts, or any of them, and to exempt the said Company, and the said authorized, and deviated, and branch railways, pier, landing-place, stations, and other works, from the operation of such of the provisions of the same Acts respectively, as may be deemed expedient.

And notice is hereby further given, that on or before the 29th day of November instant, a map, showing the general direction of the said deviations and branch railways, and duplicate plans and sections of the said intended deviations, branch railways, pier, landing place, and stations and works, and of the lands and houses to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with a book of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees and occupiers of such lands and houses, and a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace of the county of Kent, at his office at Maidstone, in the said county, and that on or before the said 29th day of November, a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference, as relates to each parish or extra-parochial place, in or through which the said intended deviations, branch railways, pier, landing place, stations and works are proposed to be made, or lands and houses to be taken are situate; and also a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette, will in the case of a parish be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish at his place of abode, and in the case of an extra-parochial place, with the parish clerk of some parish immediately adjoining thereto, at his usual place of abode.

And it is intended by the said Bill to alter, amend, extend, enlarge, and repeal all or some of the powers and provisions of the several local and personal Acts of Parliament hereinafter mentioned or referred to, that is to say, the 3rd and 4th Will. 4th, cap. 46; 6th Will. 4th, cap. 75; 7th Will. 4th, and 1st Vict., caps. 50 and 120; 1st Vict., cap. 93; 1st and 2nd Vict., cap. 4; 2nd Vict. cap. 42; 2nd and 3rd Vict., caps. 19 and 79; 3rd Vict., cap. 46; 3rd and 4th Vict., caps. 127 and 128; 5 Vict. sess. 2, cap. 3; 5th and 6th Vict., cap. 102; 6th and 7th Vict., caps. 51, 52, and 62; 7th Vict., cap. 25; 7th and 8th Vict., caps. 69 and 91; 8th and 9th Vict., caps. 80, 167, 186, 197, and 200; 9th Vict., caps. 55, 56, and 64; 9th and 10th Vict., caps. 171, 305, and 339; 10th and 11th Vict., caps. 104, 230, 241, and 276; 12th and 13th Vict., cap. 28; 13th and 14th Vic., cap. 31; 14th Vict., cap. 19; 15th Vict., cap. 103; 16th and 17th Vict., caps. 116, 121, 130, and 156; and 18th and 19th Vict., cap. 16, relating to the South-Eastern Railway Company, or any of the railways belonging to, or held or used by that Company; the 16th and 17th Vict., cap. 132; 18th and 19th Vict., caps. 94 and 187, relating to the East Kent Railway Company, or the railways belonging to or used by that Company; the 16th and 17th Charles 2nd., cap. 11; 13th Geo. 2nd., cap. 26; 42nd Geo. 3rd., cap. 94; and 5 Geo. 4th, cap. 148, relating to the navigation of the River Medway, or some part thereof; the 41st Geo. 3rd., cap. 54; 69th Geo. 3rd., cap. 10; 10th Geo. 4, cap. 120; and 43rd Geo. 3, cap. 89, relating to the pier or landing-place at Sheerness, and to rights in the River Medway; the 10th Geo. 4th, cap. 121, relating to the paving and management of the streets and town of Sheerness; and the 41st Geo. 3rd., cap. 54, relating to the paving and management of Blue Town and Mile Town, in the parish of Minster, in the Isle of Sheppy, and of any other Act or Acts of Parliament the provisions of which can in any manner interfere with the execution of the powers to be conferred by the said Bill.

And notice is hereby given, that on or before the thirty-first day of December next, printed copies of the said intended Bill or Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this seventh day of November, 1856.

James Ward, Sheerness,

Solicitor for the Bill.

Langport, Somerton, and Castle Cary Roads.
(Continuation of Term and Amendment or Repeal of Act and New Roads.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to continue and extend the term, and alter, amend, extend, or enlarge some of the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for more effectually repairing and improving certain roads leading to, through, and from the towns of Langport, Somerton, and Castle Cary, in the county of Somerset, and for making and improving other roads in the said county," or to repeal the said Act, and to grant further and more effectual powers in lieu thereof.

And notice is hereby given that it is intended by the said Bill to take power to make, construct, widen, improve, repair, and maintain certain new lines of roads following; that is to say: the present road leading out of the present turnpike road near the Market Place, in the town of Somerton, and continuing therefrom by Ashen Cross to, and terminating at, the present turnpike road, between Long Sutton and Puddimore, at or near Catsgore Farm. And also a certain new line of road leading out of and from the present turnpike road at the bottom of Somerton Hill, near the bridge, over the River Cary, through certain lands, gardens, and premises, and over and across certain roads into and forming a junction with the hereinbefore particularly described line of road near the Fair field at Somerton aforesaid; also to widen, cut, fill, level, vary, and improve Somerton Hill aforesaid; which said roads and the works connected therewith are intended to be made and pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, tithings, or other places following; that is to say: the tithing of Somerton borough and the tithing of Somerton Erle, otherwise Somerton Erleigh, both situate in the parish of Somerton, in the said county of Somerset. And by the said Bill it is intended to take powers to deviate from the lines of the said roads, and to cross, break up, alter, and stop up, either temporarily or permanently, any roads, highways, footpaths, streams, and other works in the aforesaid tithings, and parish, or any of them, and to purchase by compulsion or otherwise, any lands or houses which may be required for the purposes of the said roads, or connected therewith. And to vary or extinguish any rights and privileges connected therewith, or with the highways to be made turnpike, or any roads, highways, footpaths, streams, or other works which may be interfered with by the said roads. And it is also intended by the said Bill to take powers to vary the tolls now taken or authorized to be taken on the said present roads, and to levy the same or other tolls in lieu thereof; and in addition thereto to levy tolls, rates, and duties for or in respect of the use of the said highways when made turnpike, and of the said intended new roads; and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of tolls, rates, and duties, and to make further and additional provisions for the repair, improvement, and maintenance of the said roads, and the regulation of the said trust, and the application or appropriation of the revenue thereof; and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges. And to alter or vary existing provisions relative to the payment of the interest and principal of the debt due and owing on the credit of the tolls collected upon the said roads; and to provide for the altering the present and fixing the future rate of the interest payable in respect of such debt, and the proportion of the tolls to be applied in payment of the interest and principal, and to make other provisions with respect to existing debts, and with respect to the liquidation or extinguishment of any arrears of interest thereon, and of other charges and liabilities on the said roads, and with respect to the ordering, arranging, and confirming the securities of the creditors upon the tolls authorized to be collected upon the said roads, and other matters, as Parliament shall deem proper or necessary. And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections of such intended roads, with a book of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees, or reputed lessees and occupiers of the lands and houses intended to be taken, and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Somerset, at his office at Wells, in the said county; and that on or before the said 30th day of November instant, a copy of the said plans, sections, and books of reference and of the said Gazette notice will be deposited with the parish clerk of the said parish of Somerton, at his place of abode.

And notice is hereby also given that printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited at the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, on or before the 31st day of December next.

Dated this first day of November, 1856.

Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway.

(Railways to Buxton and to Cleethorpes; Alteration and conversion of Peak Forest Railway, and abandonment of parts thereof; Provision with respect to Stockport, Disley, and Whaley Bridge, and parts of London and North-Western Railways; Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next session, for an Act to authorize and empower the Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway Company to make and maintain the following railways, or one of them (with all proper stations, works, and conveniences connected therewith, and approaches thereto), that is to say, a railway to commence in the township of Yeadsley-cum-Whaley, in the parish of Taxal, in the county of Chester, by a junction with the authorized line of the Stockport, Disley, and Whaley Bridge Railway, at or near a point eighteen chains or thereabouts, northwards of the mile-stone on the Manchester and Buxton turnpike road, denoting sixteen miles from Manchester, and to terminate in a certain field in the township of Fairfield, in the parish of Hope, in the county of Derby, on the eastern side of the Manchester and Buxton turnpike road, opposite to a certain church situate at the north end of the town of Buxton; which said intended railway is proposed to pass from, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places following, or some of them, that is to say, No Man's Land, Furness, Yeadsley-cum-Whaley, Yeadsley, Whaley, Hockerly, Hockerley Hall, Taxal, and Bridgemont, or some of them, all in the county of Chester, and Taxal, Bugsworth, Chinley, Brierly Green, Brownside, Glossop, Horwich End, Fernilee, Bradshaw Edge, Chinley, Chinley Green, Four Laue Ends, White Hall, White Hough, Bridgholm Green, New Smithy, Chapel Milton, Brek Wash, Bowden, Bowden Edge, Bagshaw, Binfields, Chapel-en-le-Frith, Combs Edge, Coombe Edge, The Eaves, Blackbrook, Barmoor Clough, Sparrow Pit, Loads Knowle, Sittinglow, Halsteads, Ridge Close, Peak Forest, High Peak, Tideswell, Small Dale, Dove Holes, Dove Holes Dale, Wormhill, Hope, Fairfield, Bakewell, Hartington, and Buxton, or some of them, all in the county of Derby.

A railway to commence in the parish of Great Grimsby, in the parts of Lindsey, in the county of Lincoln, by a junction with the Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway, near to and opposite certain coke ovens, in the occupation of the Marley Hill Coking Company, and to terminate in the township of Cleethorpes, in the parish of Clee, in the said parts of Lindsey, near to the junction of the public road leading from Great Grimsby to Cleethorpes, with a certain public highway leading from Clee to Cleethorpes; which said railway is proposed to pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, extra-parochial or other places of Great Grimsby, Clee, and Cleethorpes, or some of them, all in the parts of Lindsey, in the county of Lincoln.

And it is proposed by the said Act, to empower the Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway Company, to convert and alter all or any part of the existing Peak Forest Railways belonging to them, between Bugsworth and Dove Holes, and Dove Holes Dale aforesaid, and to appropriate the same to the purposes of the proposed railway and works firstly hereinbefore described, and to abandon and discontinue as railways, all such parts of the existing railways between the points aforesaid, as may be rendered unnecessary by reason of such proposed conversion, alteration, and appropriation. And also to purchase lands and buildings, by compulsion or agreement, for the purposes of the railways and works so proposed to be constructed as aforesaid. And also to levy tolls, rates, and charges for and in respect of the said railways and works, and to grant exemptions from the payment of such tolls, rates, and charges. And it is intended by such Act to vary, repeal, or extinguish all existing rights or privileges, in any manner connected with the lands and buildings so proposed to be purchased or taken, or which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction, maintenance or use of the said railways, lands, and works, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And it is intended by such Act to alter, divert, or stop up all turnpike and other roads, railways, tramways, aqueducts, canals, streams, and rivers within or adjoining to the aforesaid parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places, or any of them with which it may be necessary to interfere in the construction and use of the said railways and works.

And it is intended by the said Act to empower the Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway Company to apply to the purposes of the said intended Act, any capital or funds now or hereafter belonging to them, or under the control of their directors, and to raise additional capital by the creation of new shares, with or without preference dividends, or other rights and privileges attached thereto, or by borrowing, or by both such means, or by such other means as Parliament shall authorize or direct.

And notice is hereby given, that maps, plans, and sections of the intended railways and works, and showing the lands intended to be purchased or taken under the powers of the intended Act, together with books of reference to such plans, and also a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited on or before the 30th day of November, in the present year, as follows:—As regards the proposed railway firstly hereinbefore described, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Chester, at his office in Chester, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Derby, at his office in Derby; and as regards the proposed railway secondly hereinbefore described, with the Clerk of the Peace for the parts of Lindsey, in the county of Lincoln, at his office in Spilsby; and that a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference respectively, as relates to each of the parishes in or through which the said railways and works are proposed to be made, and within which such lands are situate, and also a copy of the said Gazette notice, will be deposited on or before the 30th day of November, in the present year, with the parish clerk of each such parish, at his residence; and as regards any extra-parochial place, with the parish clerk of some adjoining parish, at his residence.

And power will also be taken by the said intended Act, to enable the Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway Company, and any company or persons lawfully using their railway, to pass over and use, with their own engines and carriages, all or any part of the Stockport, Disley, and Whaley Bridge Railway, and so much of the railway now belonging to the London and North Western Railway Company, as lies between the junction of the Stockport, Disley, and Whaley Bridge Railway therewith, and the London-road station at Manchester, and also so much of the railway now belonging to the London and North Western Railway Company, as lies between the Heaton Norris Station on that railway, and the Guide Bridge Station of the Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway, together with the stations, watering places, water, works, sidings, platforms, booking, and other offices, warehouses, buildings, conveniences, and accommodations of or belonging to the said Stockport, Disley, and Whaley Bridge Railway Company, and the London and North Western Railway Company respectively, upon such terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed upon by or on behalf of the said Companies respectively, or as may be fixed and determined by or under the provisions of the said intended Act.

And it is also proposed by the intended Act, to require and compel the Stockport, Disley, and Whaley Bridge Railway Company, and the London and North Western Railway Company respectively, to book through and forward all passengers, goods, animals, and other traffic; and to afford all necessary facilities for the passage and transmission of passengers, goods, animals, and other traffic over the Stockport, Disley, and Whaley Bridge Railway, and the before-mentioned portions of the London and North Western Railway, to and from the Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway; and the said intended Act will provide, if need be, for an alteration and limitation of the tolls, rates, and charges now authorized to be levied and demanded by the before-mentioned Companies, or either of them, for the use of their said railways, or portions of railways, stations, works, and conveniences, or any of them.

And it is also proposed by the intended Act, to enable the Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway Company, and the Stockport, Disley, and Whaley Bridge Railway Company, and the London and North Western Railway Company respectively, to enter into and carry into effect such agreements and arrangements, and upon such terms and conditions as they may think fit, in respect of the transmission, regulation, and management of the traffic upon or over the Stockport, Disley, and Whaley Bridge Railway, and the before-mentioned portions of the London and North Western Railway, and the intended railway firstly hereinbefore described; and for determining and regulating the payment and also the division and apportionment between the said Companies respectively, of the tolls, rates, and charges received in respect of such traffic.

And it is intended by such Act to alter, amend, extend and enlarge, and to repeal some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts following, or some of them, relating to the Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway Company (that is to say), local and personal, 12 and 13 Victoria, cap.

81; 13 and 14 Victoria, cap. 94; 15 and 16 Victoria, caps. 83 and 144; 16 and 17 Victoria, caps. 52 and 145; and 18 and 19 Victoria, caps. 91 and 129, and of "The Stockport, Disley, and Whaley Bridge Railway Act, 1854," and "The Stockport, Disley, and Whaley Bridge Railway Act, 1855," and of an Act passed in the session held in the 9th and 10th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to consolidate the London and Birmingham, Grand Junction, and Manchester and Birmingham Railway Companies," and also of an Act passed in the session held in the 10th and 11th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to incorporate the Huddersfield and Manchester Railway and Canal Company, and the Leeds, Dewsbury, and Manchester Railway Company, with the London and North Western Railway Company," and any other Acts relating to the London and North Western Railway Company.

And notice is hereby given, that printed copies of the intended Bill will, on or before the 31st day of December next, be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this seventh day of November, 1856.

Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway.
(Railways to Romilly, to or near New Mills, to Bugsworth, to Crist Quarry, and to Hayfield, and Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next session, for an Act to authorize and empower the Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway Company to make and maintain the following railways, or some or one of them (with all proper stations, works, and conveniences connected therewith, and approaches thereto), that is to say, a railway to commence in the township of Dukinfield, in the parish of Stockport, in the county of Chester, by a junction with the main line of the Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway, at about half a mile to the westward of the Newton and Hyde station on the said main line of railway, and to terminate in the township of Romilly, in the parish of Stockport, in the county of Chester, opposite to, and four chains or thereabouts eastward of, a certain cotton mill called Oak Wood Mill, which said intended railway will pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, extra-parochial or other places of Stockport, Mottram-in-Longdendale, Dukinfield, Newton, Hyde, Werneth, Bredbury, Woodley Compstall, Romilly, Chadkirk, Ludworth, Chisworth, and Ludworth-cum-Chisworth, or some of them, all in the county of Chester:

A railway to commence in the said township of Romilly, and parish of Stockport, opposite to and four chains or thereabouts eastward of the before-mentioned mill called Oak Wood Mill, and forming a junction with the last-mentioned intended railway, and to terminate near to New Mills, in the township of Beard Ollersett Thornsett and Whittle, in the parish of Glossop, in the county of Derby, at or near the turnpike road from Disley to Hayfield called the Thornsett Turupike-road, at a point six chains or thereabouts eastward from the bridge or viaduct by which the said turnpike road crosses the river Goyt, which said intended railway will pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, extra-parochial, or other places of Stockport, Compstall, Romilly, Chadkirk, Ludworth, Chisworth, Ludworth-cum-Chisworth, Marple, Disley Stanley, Disley and Stanley, or some of them, all in the county of Chester, and Glossop, Mellor, Beard, Ollersett, Thornsett, Whittle, and New Mills, or some of them, all in the county of Derby:

A railway to commence in the said township of Beard Ollersett Thornsett and Whittle, and parish of Glossop, at or near the before-mentioned turnpike road from Disley to Hayfield, called the Thornsett Turnpike-road, at a point six chains or thereabouts eastward from the bridge or viaduct by which the said turnpike road crosses the river Goyt, there to form a junction with the intended railway secondly hereinbefore described, and to terminate in the township of Bugsworth, in the said parish of Glossop, at a point fifteen chains or thereabouts north of certain mills, called Bugsworth Cotton Mills, there to form a junction with a projected railway from Yeadsley-cum-Whaley to Buxton, which said intended railway will pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places of Stockport, Disley Stanley, Disley, Stanley, Taxal, and Yeadsley-cum-Whaley, or some of them, all in the county of Chester, and Beard, Ollersett, Thornsett, Whittle, Glossop, Bugsworth, Chinley, and Brownside, or some of them, all in the county of Derby:

A railway to commence at the before-mentioned point, fifteen chains or thereabouts north of the said mills, called Bugsworth Cotton Mills, there to form a junction with the intended railway thirdly hereinbefore described, and to terminate in the township of Bradshaw Edge, and parish of Chapel-en-le-Frith, in the county of Derby, at or near a point ten chains or thereabouts east of the Engine-house of the Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway Company, at a certain quarry, known as Crist Quarry, which said intended railway will pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places of Glossop, Bugsworth, Chinley, Brownside, Chapel-en-le-Frith, and Bradshaw Edge, or some of them, all in the county of Derby:

A railway diverging from the said intended railway, secondly hereinbefore described, in the township of Beard Ollersett Thornsett and Whittle, in the said parish of Glossop, near to New Mills, and to terminate in the township of Hayfield, in the parish of Glossop, near to and on the south side of the church in the village or chapelry of Hayfield, in the county of Derby, which said intended railway will pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, extra-parochial or other places of Glossop, New Mills, Beard, Ollersett, Thornsett, Whittle, and Hayfield, all in the county of Derby; and Stockport, Disley Stanley, Disley and Stanley, or some of them, all in the county of Chester.

And it is proposed by the said Act to empower the Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway Company to purchase lands and buildings, by compulsion or agreement, for the purposes of the railways and works so proposed to be constructed as aforesaid, and also to levy tolls, rates, and charges for, and in respect of, the said railways and works, and to grant exemptions from the payment of such tolls, rates, and charges.

And it is intended by such Act to vary, repeal, or extinguish, all existing rights or privileges, in any manner connected with the lands and buildings so proposed to be purchased or taken, or which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction, maintenance, or use of the said railways, lands, and works, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And it is intended by such Act to alter, divert, or stop up all turnpike and other roads, railways, tramways, aqueducts, canals, streams, and rivers within or adjoining to the aforesaid parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places, or any of them, with which it may be necessary to interfere in the construction and use of the said railways and works.

And it is intended by the said Act to empower the Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway Company to apply to the purposes of the said intended Act any capital or funds now or hereafter belonging to them or under the control of their directors, and to raise additional capital by the creation of new shares, with or without preference dividends or other rights or privileges attached thereto, or by borrowing, or by both such means, or by such other means as Parliament shall authorize or direct.

And notice is hereby given, that maps, plans, and sections of the intended railways and works, and showing the lands intended to be purchased or taken under the powers of the intended Act, together with books of reference to such plans, and also a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited, on or before the 30th day of November, in the present year, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Chester, at his office in Chester, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Derby, at his office in Derby; and that a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference, as relates to each of the parishes in or through which the said railways and works are proposed to be made, and within which such lands are situate, and also a copy of the said Gazette notice, will be deposited, on or before the 30th day of November, in the present year, with the parish clerk of each such parish, at his residence; and as regards any extra-parochial place, with the parish clerk of some adjoining parish, at his residence.

And it is intended by such Act to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge, and to repeal some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts following, or some of them, relating to the Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway Company, that is to say, local and personal 12 and 13 Vic., cap. 81; 13 and 14 Vic., cap. 94; 15 and 16 Vic., caps. 83 and 144; 16 and 17 Vic., caps. 52 and 145; and 18 and 19 Vic., caps. 91 and 129.

And notice is hereby given, that printed copies of the intended Bill will, on or before the 31st day of December next, be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this seventh day of November, 1856.

Chepstow Gas.

Incorporation of existing Chepstow Gas and Coke Consumers' Company (Limited); Extension of Works; Supply of Gas to Chepstow and neighbouring Places; Alteration of Limits of Supply; Power to break up Streets, Highways, Thoroughfares, and other Places; Increase of Capital; Borrowing of moneys; Annulment of Deed of Settlement.

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to incorporate into a Company the shareholders or some of the shareholders, in the existing "Chepstow Gas and Coke Consumers' Company (Limited)," established under a deed of settlement and the Joint Stock Companies Registration Act, together with such other persons and corporations as may become shareholders in the undertaking; to vest in the intended Company all lands, buildings, works, pipes, gasometers, plant, moneys, and other property, rights, powers, and privileges whatsoever of the said existing Company; and to subject the intended Company to the debts, duties, and liabilities of the said existing Company, or some of them; to alter or annul the deed of settlement of the said existing Company and their present constitution; to increase the capital of the said Company; and to alter the number and amount of the shares therein; to raise further money by new shares and borrowing; to attach to all or any of the new shares certain guaranteed dividends, or preferences or priorities, in payment of interest or dividend, and other special privileges; to alter the number of the directors, and the scale of voting of shareholders; to vary or extinguish other rights and privileges of the existing shareholders, and (if need be) to dissolve the said existing Company.

And it is intended by the said Bill to empower the intended Company to effect the objects following, or some of them (that is to say):—

To maintain, alter, and improve the present manufactory and works of the said existing Company, situate in the town and parish of Chepstow, in the county of Monmouth, between the Church and the Back: and also to extend and enlarge such manufactory and works, in and over, and to erect and construct new manufactories, works, and buildings for making gas, and for storing gas, and for other purposes in connection therewith, upon all or any part of the lands and premises now belonging to the said existing Company, and in the possession of them and their tenants, situate in the town and parish of Chepstow aforesaid, between the Church and the Back, and bounded on the north-eastward by premises now or late belonging to Esther Davis and Joseph Davies respectively, and respectively occupied by the said Esther Davis and by William Hodges; on the south-eastward side by a field now or late belonging to the Duke of Beaufort, and now or late in the possession of the South Wales Railway Company, or their under-tenant; on the south-westward by a messuage and garden, now or late belonging to James Davis, and occupied by John Cavell; a yard, stable, and garden, now or late belonging to Oliver Chapman, and occupied by Messieurs Chapman and Sons, and by the Baptist Chapel; and on the north-westward by Kendal Square, by certain dwelling-houses belonging to Thomas Light, and occupied by Honor Brew and others, two dwelling-houses belonging to Mary Howell, and respectively occupied by Richard Fryer and Edwin Elliott; a dwelling-house belonging to Mrs. Jenkins, and occupied by John Thomas; and by Lower Church-street:

To manufacture gas, and sell and dispose of gas, and the coke and other residuum and products arising from such manufacture; to supply gas for public and private purposes within the town and parish of Chepstow, and the several parishes or places called Mathern, Mounton, Shirenewton, and St. Arvans, in the county of Monmouth, and within the parish of Tidenham, in the county of Gloucester; to lay down, alter, renew, and remove mains, pipes, and other works for such supply; and to continue, alter, renew, or remove the mains, pipes, and other works of the said existing Company, along, across, through, or under, and for all, or any, of the purposes aforesaid, to break up, alter, and divert any roads, highways, footpaths, bridges, streets, squares, open grounds, railways, tramways, sewers, drains, watercourses, thoroughfares, and public places in the town, parishes, and other places beforementioned:

To levy rates, rents, and charges for such supply, and for the sale and hire of gas meters and fittings; and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges:

To let, sell, and dispose of such portions of the lands and hereditaments of the Company as shall not be appropriated or required for the purposes of the undertaking.

And it is also intended to incorporate, wholly or partially, in the said Bill, "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," and "The Gas Works Clauses Act, 1847," or some or one of those Acts; and to confer upon the intended Company all other powers usual or requisite in such cases.

And notice is hereby also given, that on or before the 31st day of December next, printed copies of the said Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this sixth day of November, 1856.

Cardigan Markets and Improvement

Powers to Corporation of Borough to establish Markets and Slaughterhouses; to supply Water; to pave, light, water, cleanse, regulate, and improve the Borough; to purchase Corn and other Market Tolls; and other purposes.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to enable the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses of the borough of Cardigan, in the several counties of Cardigan and Pembroke, (hereinafter called the Corporation,) to carry into effect, and execute, all or some of the objects and purposes following, that is to say:—

To erect and provide in and for the said borough a market-place and market-house, and rooms to be used or let for the transaction of public and other business in the said borough, with suitable buildings, offices, sheds, stalls, standings, works, and conveniences connected therewith, or attached thereto, and to authorize the holding of a market or markets, in such market-place and market-house, on such days and at such times as the Corporation shall from time to time determine, for the sale of butcher's meat, poultry, game, fish, butter, cheese, fruit, vegetables, corn, flour, meal, and other provisions, articles, matters, and things, and of all other marketable commodities, and to define the limits of such markets or market-place, and for preventing, after the establishment or erection of such markets and market-place, sales in the public streets, and other buildings and places, not being private shops, of any provisions, articles, or marketable commodities for the sale of which such market or market-place has been provided, and for preventing the use, as a public market, or markets, of any place or places, or of any buildings within the said borough, not being private shops, and for preventing the hawking of any marketable commodities within the said borough:

To appropriate one or more room or rooms in the building so to be erected for the use of the Free Grammar School, under the control of the Corporation, and also of the Divinity Library attached thereto, with proper offices for the use of such school and library:

To appropriate and use a certain piece of ground belonging to the Corporation, situate on the west side of High-street, otherwise Pendre, in the town of Cardigan, called the Froeschool Bank, and the buildings on or adjoining the same, fronting on the said street, and also belonging to the Corporation, for the site of such market-place, market-house, buildings, and conveniences:

To purchase, compulsorily or otherwise, all interests (if any) in the lands, so to be appropriated for the site of such market-place, market-house, and buildings, the boundaries of which said piece of land and buildings so to be purchased compulsorily, and the termini of the proposed works thereon are shown on the plan of such lands, to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned:

To erect and maintain a public slaughterhouse, or public slaughterhouses, and to prohibit the slaughtering of animals within the said borough, except in the slaughterhouse or slaughterhouses so to be erected, or in any private slaughterhouse or slaughterhouses which may be licensed by the Corporation for the purpose, and to enable the Corporation to license private slaughterhouses, and to regulate all slaughterhouses as well public as private within the said borough :

To appropriate and use a certain piece of ground, and the buildings thereon, belonging to the Corporation, situate out of the said town, but within the said borough, near to and opposite to the brook or stream called the river Muldan, or Muldan brook, formerly known by the name of the Cardigan Poorhouse, and now in the several occupations of William Jeremial, Elizabeth Martin, David Jeremial, John Jeremial, George Davies, Evan Jeremial, Ann Williams, Margaret Evans, Thomas Lewis, and Hannah Lewis, for the site of such public slaughterhouse or public slaughterhouses, and all conveniences connected therewith, and to purchase, compulsorily, or by agreement, the same piece of ground and buildings, in case the existing agreement for the purchase thereof by the Corporation shall not be duly completed :

To purchase by agreement, and not by compulsion, a convenient sight for, and to establish and maintain, within the said borough, a market-place for holding markets or fairs, and to establish and hold therein markets or fairs on such days as the Corporation may from time to time appoint, for the sale of horses, cattle, sheep, pigs, and other animals, matters, and things, and after the completion of such cattle-market, or place for fairs, or after such other period as may be prescribed by the said Bill, to prohibit the sale of horses, cattle, sheep, pigs or other animals, matters, or things, in the streets, roads, or lanes within the said borough, or such other limits as may be defined by the Bill :

To purchase, compulsory, or otherwise, all corn-tolls market-tolls, and other tolls, rates, rents, dues, stallages, and charges, now legally leviable or demandable within the said borough, and to confirm any agreements entered into by the Corporation for the purchase of all or any of such tolls, rates, rents, dues, stallages, and charges, and to levy and receive tolls, rates, rents, dues, stallages, and charges in respect of the markets, fairs, market-place, market-house, rooms, buildings, weighing-machines, slaughterhouses, and conveniences, to be so-established by the Corporation, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment thereof, and to confer, vary, and extinguish other rights, privileges, and exemptions, and also to manage and regulate such markets, fairs, market-places, market-house, rooms, buildings, weighing-machines, slaughterhouses, and conveniences, respectively :

To enable the Corporation to maintain and improve the existing waterworks within the said borough, over which they now exercise control, and from such waterworks to supply with water the inhabitants of the parish of Saint Mary, in Cardigan, in the county of Cardigan, and of the hamlets or places of Bridge End and Abbey, in the parish of Saint Dogmells in the county of Pembroke, and all other persons, and all buildings and places within the said borough :

To lay down and maintain pipes, culverts, and other works, in, under, over, or across, any private lands, and to break up, alter, or stop up, either temporarily or permanently, any turnpike and other roads, highways, public and private streets, public places, bridges, railways, sewers, drains, rivers, brooks, streams, watercourses, quays, wharfs, and other places, public or private, within the borough :

To levy rates, rents, and other payments, for the water supplied by the Corporation, to alter the existing and proposed water-rates, rents, and other charges, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of such existing and proposed rates, rents, and other charges, and other rights and privileges :

To pave, light, water, cleanse, drain, and otherwise improve and regulate the said borough; to license, and by bye-laws, or otherwise, to regulate all hackney carriages, horses, mules, or donkeys, plying for hire within the said borough; and the charges to be made for the same, and the places at which they may stand or ply for hire, also all boats, whether for the purposes of fishing or pleasure, using the beaches or shore of the river within the said borough, also all bathing-machines, and the placing thereof, and the charges to be made for the same, and also to regulate the general management of vessels navigating the said river, within the limits aforesaid, and also to prevent vessels from discharging their ballast in any part of the said river within the limits of the said borough, and to impose penalties for the breach of such regulations:

To regulate and improve the formation and construction of all public and private streets, roads, lanes, and other places, within the said borough; to construct sewers and drains, and make outfalls and communications into the river Tivy, or the Muldan brook, or into any sewer running thereto, or otherwise provide for the effectual drainage of the said borough. To regulate the removal and prevention of nuisances therein, and to make other provisions for improving the sanitary condition thereof, to make bye-laws for such purposes, and for carrying out any other purposes authorized by the Bill :

To vest in the Corporation all the powers of surveyors of highways within the borough, and to exempt the district within the borough from the present highway rates assessable or leviable therein, or in any part thereof, and to provide for the maintenance of the highways within the borough, and also of all sewers therein, out of rates to be levied under the said Bill :

To levy rates on all owners and occupiers, or owners or occupiers of property, within the said borough, for all or any of the purposes of the said Bill, and to confer exemptions from the payment of such rates :

To purchase and hold lands and to apply either temporarily or permanently any money or property belonging to the Corporation or applicable to the said borough fund, for carrying into effect all or any of the objects of the said Bill, and to raise money for such purposes by way of sale or mortgage of such property, or by mortgage of the borough fund and borough rates, or of any property, tolls, rates, rents, duties, or other revenue to be acquired or arise under the said Bill, or by all or any of such means, or to apply any of such tolls, rates, rents, duties, or revenue, for such purposes, or any of them :

And it is intended by the said Bill to incorporate therewith, and to extend to the purposes thereof, "The Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847;" "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845;" "The Markets and Fairs Clauses Act, 1847;" "The Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847;" "The Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847;" "The Towns Police Clauses Act, 1847;" "The Public Health Act, 1848;" "The Public Health Supplemental Act, 1849;" and "The Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847;" or some of the said Acts, or so much thereof as may be deemed necessary or expedient, and all other necessary powers and provisions.

And it is intended by the said Bill, so far as may be necessary for effecting the objects and purposes thereof, or otherwise, to repeal, alter, or amend and confirm the Charter incorporating and establishing the said borough, and also any Act or

Acts in force within the borough, which it will be necessary to repeal, alter, or amend for the purposes of the said Bill, and to confer other and additional powers in lieu thereof :

And notice is hereby also given that duplicate plans, describing the lands and houses proposed to be taken compulsorily for the purposes of the said Bill, and also describing the termini of the works to be constructed thereon, together with a book of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the lands, houses, and other property which will be taken for the purposes of the said Bill; and also a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will, on or before the 29th day of November, instant, be deposited for public inspection, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Cardigan, at his office in Aberystwith, in the said county of Cardigan, and that on or before the said 29th day of November a copy of the said plan and book of reference, and also a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection with the parish clerk of the parish of Saint Mary, in Cardigan, at his place of abode in the said parish of Saint Mary, in Cardigan.

And notice is hereby given, that printed copies of the said Bill will be deposited on or before the 31st day of December next in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this first day of November, 1856.

Lewis Evans, Town Clerk of Cardigan.

Blackburn Railway.

(New Railways to the Settle Station of the North Western Railway, and to Manchester; and Junction with the Blackburn Railway in Little Bolton; Amendment or Consolidation of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session for an Act to authorise the Blackburn Railway Company to make and maintain the railways and branch railway hereinafter mentioned, or some or one of them, or some part or parts thereof, together with all proper stations, works, approaches and conveniences connected therewith respectively, that is to say:

A railway commencing by a junction with the Blackburn Railway, at or near the station of the said railway in the township of Chatburn, in the parish of Whalley, in the county of Lancaster, and terminating at or near the station of the North Western Railway, called the Settle Station, in the township and parish of Giggleswick, in the West Riding of the county of York, there to form a junction with the said North Western Railway, which said intended line of railway will pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships and extra-parochial or other places following, or some of them, that is to say: Whalley and Chatburn, both in the county of Lancaster, and Gisburne, Sawley-with Tossie, Bolton-by-Bowland, Paythorne, Halton West, Wigglesworth, Long Preston, Rathmel and Giggleswick, all in the West Riding of the county of York.

A railway commencing by a junction with the Blackburn Railway, at or near the northerly end of the Croal Viaduct, in the township of Tongewith-Haulgh, in the parish of Bolton in the Moors, in the county of Lancaster, and terminating at or near the junction of York-street, Ducie-street, and New Bridge-street, in the city of Manchester, in the same county, which said last mentioned intended line of railway will pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places following, or some of them, that is to say: Bolton in the Moors, Tongewith-Haulgh, Tonge Lower End, Haulgh, Little Bolton, Breightmet, Darcy Lever, Middleton, Ainsworth, Radcliffe, Radcliffe Bridge, Prestwich-cum-Oldham, Pilkington, Stand, Whitefield, Prestwich, Higher Broughton, Broughton, Cheetham Hill, Cheetham, Cheetwood, Salford and Manchester, all in the said county of Lancaster.

A railway from and out of the said last mentioned intended railway at or near Kestor Fold, in the township of Tongewith-Haulgh, to form another junction with the said Blackburn Railway at or near the southerly end of the Tonge Viaduct, in the township of Little Bolton, all in the parish of Bolton in the Moors, in the said county of Lancaster.

And it is intended by the said Act to empower the Blackburn Railway Company to purchase lands and houses, by compulsion or otherwise, for the purposes of the proposed railways and works, or any or either of them; and it is also proposed to take power to stop up, alter, or divert, whether temporarily or permanently, all such turnpike and other roads, rivers, brooks, canals, bridges, railways, or tramroads within the parishes, townships, extra-parochial and other places aforesaid, or some of them, as may be necessary for the purposes of the intended Act; and also to levy tolls, rates, and charges, upon or in respect of the said railways and works, or any of them, and to alter existing tolls, rates, and charges, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of tolls, rates, and charges, and other rights and privileges; and to provide for the apportionment amongst the different classes of shareholders in the Company, or some of them, of the tolls, rates, and charges arising upon the said intended railways, and for fixing and determining, and, if need be, altering, the rights and privileges of such shareholders.

And it is also proposed by the said Act to authorise the Blackburn Railway Company to apply to all or any of the purposes aforesaid any capital or funds now or hereafter belonging to them, or under the control of their Directors, and to raise additional capital by the creation of new shares, with or without a guaranteed or preference dividend, or other rights or privileges attached thereto, and by borrowing on mortgage or bond, or by any of such means.

And notice is hereby further given, that on or before the thirtieth day of November in the present year, maps, plans, and sections of the intended railways and works, together with books of reference to such plans, and also a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Lancaster, at his office in Preston, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the West Riding of the county of York, at his office in Wakefield; and that on or before the said thirtieth day of November a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to each of the parishes in or through which the intended railways and works are proposed to be made, and also a copy of the said Gazette notice, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, at his residence, and, as regards the extra-parochial place of Sawley-with-Tosside, with the Clerk of the adjoining parish of Gisburne, at his residence.

And it is also proposed by the said Act to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge all or some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts of Parliament following, or some of them, relating to the Blackburn Railway Company; that is to say: "The Blackburn, Darwen, and Bolton Railway Act, 1845," "The Blackburn, Darwen, and Bolton Railway Act, 1846," "The Blackburn, Clitheroe, and North Western Junction Railway Act, 1846," "The Blackburn, Darwen, and Bolton Railway Acts Amendment Act, 1847," and "The Blackburn Railway Act, 1851," or otherwise to repeal all or some of the powers and provisions of the before-mentioned Acts, and consolidate the same, and the powers and provisions of the intended Act, into one Act, and, if need be for the purposes of such consolidation, to dissolve the Blackburn Railway Company and re-incorporate the same.

And notice is hereby lastly given, that printed copies of the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, on or before the thirty-first day of December next.

Dated this fifth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six.

Whitecross and Beverley Turnpike-road.

(Repeal, Alteration, and Amendment of Act; Grant of Further Term; Alteration and Increase of Tolls; and other Purposes).

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the 7th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the 4th, cap. 126, intituled "An Act for more effectually repairing the road from Whitecross, in the parish of Leven, in Holderness, in the East Riding of the county of York, to the town of Beverley, in the said county," or wholly to repeal the said Act, and to grant a further term in the said road, and further, better, and more effectual powers in lieu of the existing powers, and other powers in addition thereto.

And that powers will be applied for, in the said Bill, to continue, increase, vary, or alter the tolls now taken or authorised to be taken upon the said road, or any part thereof, or to levy the existing tolls, or other tolls in lieu thereof, and in addition thereto to repeal some of the exemptions from toll, contained in the general turnpike Acts, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other exemptions from payment of the existing or proposed tolls, rates, or duties, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights, privileges, or exemptions.

To enable the trustees to raise further monies, and to make further and additional provisions for the repair, improvement, and maintenance of the said road, and the collection and recovery of the tolls to be received thereon, and the regulation of the said trust, and to alter the application and appropriation of the tolls or revenue of the said road.

And that there will be inserted in the said Bill clauses and provisions with reference to the repair and maintenance of the existing toll houses and toll bars, or the erection and maintenance of other toll houses and toll bars or toll house and toll bar.

And notice is hereby given, that printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited, on or before the 31st day of December next, in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 1st day of November, 1856.

CONTRACT FOR BRITISH IRON.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, November 5, 1856.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Tuesday the 18th instant, at two o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Her Majesty's several Dock Yards with

BRITISH IRON.

A schedule of the iron, a form of the tender, and the conditions of the contract may be obtained at the said Office.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed, unless the party attends or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for British Iron," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £3,000 for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACT FOR DANTZIC OAK, THICK-STUFF AND PLANK.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, November 7, 1856.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday the 2nd December next, at two o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Her Majesty's several Dock Yards with 3,600 loads of Dantzic Oak, Thickstuff and Plank.

To be delivered in the years 1857 and 1858, according to a distribution, which with a form of the tender and the conditions of the contract may be seen at the said office.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Dantzic Oak, Thickstuff and Plank," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £5,000, for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACT FOR MARINE CLOTHING AND NECESSARIES.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling, Somerset-Place, November 8, 1856.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 27th instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, under a contract for twelve months' certain, and further until the expiration of three months' warning all such and woollen and linen articles of necessaries as may from time to time be demanded for the Royal Marines, and for the Artillery Companies of the Royal Marines.

The Clothing to be supplied either made up or in materials for making up.

A form of tender, and the conditions of the revised contract may be obtained at the said Office.

Patterns of the articles may be seen at the Marine Office, No. 15, Duke-street, Westminster, between the hours of eleven and three.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said Office.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Marine Clothing &c.," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place.

CONTRACTS FOR TEA, TOBACCO, SPLIT PEAS, SOAP, AND WINE.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling, Somerset-House, November 10, 1856.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 20th November instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores, at Deptford, Gosport and Plymouth, the undermentioned articles; viz.:

Tea, 50,000 lbs., Gosport; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tobacco, 15 tons, Deptford; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier, if preferred by the party tendering.

Split Peas, 400 quarters, Gosport; 150 quarters, Gosport; 50 quarters, Plymouth; half of each to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Soap, 50 tons, Deptford; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

White Wine (Marsala), 1,000 gallons, Deptford; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of any of the articles, and their lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The tea, tobacco, and wine to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where they are respectively lying.

Samples of the wine, in pints from each cask, must be produced by the parties tendering, and not samples only for each import mark.

Samples of the tea (not less than 1 lb.), from the bonded warehouse, of the split peas (not less than 2 quarts for each port), and for the soap (not less than a bar), must be produced by the parties tendering.

Each tender for tobacco must specify the several trade marks and numbers, and the countries or places of its growth or produce, and a fresh drawn dock sample of each cask or package for each port must be produced by the parties tendering, and any cask or package that is found not to be of the same mark, number, or quality as the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the officers.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said Office, at the Victualling Yards at Gosport and Plymouth, or to Commander Bevis, conducting the packet service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

The conditions of the revised contract, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at the said Office, at the Victualling Yards at Gosport and Plymouth, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an Agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.
