dertakings of such two Companies respectively, so that all the undertakings, property, estate, and effects, licences, contracts, and agreements, rights, powers, and privileges, of what nature or kind soever, vested in and belonging to or exercised and enjoyed by the said two Companies jointly or severally, at the time of the said amalgamation may be vested in and belong to and be exercised and enjoyed by such one united and consolidated Company:

And the said intended Act will provide for the dissolution of the British Telegraph Company, and the English and Irish Magnetic Telegraph Company respectively, and the incorporation of the shareholders of such Companies into one united and consolidated Company, either under the present name of one of such Companies, or under such other name as may be given to or adopted by such united and consolidated Company, and the said Act will confer on such united and consolidated Company all the powers and privileges usually granted to incorporated Companies, and all other necessary powers for enabling them to carry on their business.

And the said intended Act will also provide for regulating, fixing, and determining the capital stock and borrowing powers of such united and consolidated Company, and the rights, privileges, preferences and priorities, of the different classes of shareholders in the said two Companies respectively, and of the different classes of such shareholders as amongst each other in the capital stock of such united and consolidated Company, and will also provide for the mortgage and bond or other debts of the said two Companies respectively, and for the security of the holders of such mortgages and bonds, and of other creditors, and also for the fulfilment and performance by or in favour of such united and consolidated Company of all or some of the contracts, agreements, or arrangements entered into by the said two Companies jointly or severally, and either with each other or with any other Company or Companies or otherwise howsoever.

And it is proposed by the intended Act to enable such united and consolidated Company to increase its capital beyond the present aggregate amount of the capital of the said two Companies, and to raise such additional capital by the creation of new shares or stock in such united and consolidated Company, and to authorize the assigning to all or any of such new shares or stock such guaranteed dividend or dividends, and such preferences, priorities, or privileges in the payment of dividends or otherwise, over all or any other classes of shares or stock in the Company as may be agreed upon or as may be provided for by or under the provisions of such intended Act. And it is also proposed to empower such united and consolidated Company from time to time to cancel all or any of the unissued or forfeited shares in the capital stock of the Company, and if they shall think fit to create and issue new shares or stock in lieu thereof, either with or without such guaranteed dividends or other preferences, priorities, or privileges as aforesaid.

And it is also proposed by the intended Act to authorize and empower the said united and consolidated Company to amalgamate with or to purchase or take leases of the undertakings, and all or any of the rights, properties, and interests of other Telegraph Companies, and to enable such other Companies to amalgamate with or to sell or grant leases of their respective undertakings, and all or any of their rights, properties, or interests to such united and consolidated Company, upon such terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed upon, and to enable the said united and consolidated Company and such other Companies respectively to make and enter into such mutual agreements and arrangements as they may think fit for any purpose connected with the objects of business of the said united and consolidated Company, or otherwise to enable such united and consolidated Company, and all or any of such other Companies as aforesaid, to enter into and carry into effect any agreements or arrangements with relation to the working, management, and use of their respective undertakings.

And the said intended Act will also alter, amend, enlarge, and repeal all or some of the provisions of the charter of incorporation of the said British Telegraph Company, bearing date on or about the 1st day of July, 1853, and the deed of settlement of the said Company, bearing date on or about the 27th day of April, 1854, and also the charter of incorporation of the said English and Irish Magnetic Telegraph Company, bearing date on or about the 20th day of May, 1852, and the deed of settlement of the said Company, bearing date on or about the 16th day of August, 1852.

And notice is hereby also given, that printed copies of the Bill for effecting the objects aforesaid, or some of them, will, on or before the 31st day of December next, be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 25th day of November, 1856.

Bell, Steward, and Lloyd, 49, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields, London, Solicitors for the Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for leave to bring in a Bill for better supplying with water the borough of Portsmouth, in the county of Southampton, and to incorporate a Company for that purpose; and in which Bill powers will be taken to effect the objects hereinafter mentioned, or some of them (that is to say):

To empower the intended Company to purchase, and to enable and compel the Company of Proprietors of the Portsmouth and Farlington Waterworks to sell and convey to the intended Company their waterworks and undertakings, lands, buildings, plant, property and effects now vested in or belonging to, or held, used, exercised, and enjoyed by them, and the powers, rights, privileges, and appurtenances belonging to or connected with such waterworks and undertakings, lands, buildings, plant, property and effects; and to make provision for ascertaining, purchasing by compulsion or otherwise, and making compensation for the estates, rights, and interests of any corporations, bodies, or persons interested therein, and to enable the intended Company to maintain, repair, renew, extend and improve, or remove and discontinue the existing waterworks and sources of supply, and the pipes and other works and conveniences connected therewith.

To enable the said Company of Proprietors of the Portsmouth and Farlington Waterworks to take shares, mortgages, or bonds of the intended Company in satisfaction of any money payable upon, or under any such purchase, lease, or contract, and to enable the intended Company for the purposes of any such purchase, lease or contract, to attach certain priorities, preferences, guarantee of dividends, or other special privileges to some of the shares in their undertaking.

To provide (if need be) for the dissolution of the said Company of Proprietors of the Portsmouth and Farlington Waterworks, and for winding up their affairs.

To amend or repeal the powers and provisions or some of the powers and provisions of the Act 14 Geo. 2, chapter 43, to enable Thomas Smith, Esq., Lord of the Manor of Farlington, in the county of Southampton, to supply the town of Portsmouth, and parts adjacent, with good and wholesome water, at his own proper costs and charges; and the local and personal Acts 49 Geo. III., chapter 118, and 7 & 8 Geo. IV., chapter 38, relating to the supply of water to Portsmouth, Portsea, and parts adjacent, to alter the rates and duties by those Acts respectively authorized to be taken, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions therefrom.
