PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day the Right Honourable Sir Alexander Edmund Cockburn, Knight, Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas, was, by Her Majesty's command, sworn of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

Her Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Most Noble Henry Pelham, Duke of Newcastle, to be Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the county of Nottingham, his Grace this day took the oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the oaths of allegiance and supremacy.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 2nd day of February, 1857,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, by an Order of Her Majesty in Council "for the government of Her Majesty's subjects, being within the dominions of the Emperor of China, or being within any ship or vessel at a distance of not more than a hundred miles from the coast of China," bearing date the thirteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, Her Majesty was pleased, amongst other things, to order that if any party charged with an offence committed against the treaties, or rules and regulations therein referred to, should escape or remove from the consular district within which such offence was committed, and should be found within another consular district, it should be lawful for the Consul within whose district the party should be found to proceed against him in the same manner as if the offence had been committed within such district: And whereas, in and by the said Order in Council, provision was made for the manner in which British subjects, convicted of crimes and offences committed within the dominions of the Emperor of China, or being required and being unable, or wilfully omitting, to give sufficient security to keep the peace, or to find security for their good behaviour, might be sent out of the dominions of the Emperor of China to the colony of Hong Kong, and also for the manner in which the expenses of so sending such persons to the said colony of Hong Kong should be defrayed: And whereas, it is expedient to make further provision in respect of the matters aforesaid:

I.—Now, therefore, in pursuance of the several Acts of Parliament in the said Order in Council of the thirteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, recited and referred to, and in execution of the powers thereby in Her Majesty in Council vested, Her Majesty is pleased, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and doth hereby order, that the Chief Superintendent or Consul within whose jurisdiction any party charged with having committed any offence against such treaties, or such rules or regulations as aforesaid, and who shall have escaped, or removed from the consular district within which such offence was committed, shall be found, may lawfully, if such Chief Superintendent or Consul shall think fit, cause such party to be taken into custody, and sent back to the consular district from which he shall so have escaped or removed, to be there dealt with according to the provisions of the said Order in Council of the thirteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

II.—And it is further ordered, that all removals whatsoever of prisoners or other parties from or to the said colony of Hong Kong, or from or to any port or place in China, under the authority of the said Order in Council of the thirteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, shall be effected, and the expenses of all such removals shall be defrayed in like manner as by Articles 20, 21, 22, and 23, of the said Order in Council of the thirteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, is provided with respect to the embarking, conveying, delivering, commitment, and expenses of persons deported under the authority of the said Articles respectively, so far as the provisions thereof respectively shall be applicable to the circumstances of each particular case.

III.—And it is further ordered, that this Order shall be read and construed with and as being a part of the said Order in Council of the thirteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

IV.—And it is further ordered that this Order shall take effect from and after the thirtieth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven.

And the Right Honourable the Earl of Clarendon, and the Right Honourable Henry Labouchere, two of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 2nd day of February 1857.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England" it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit ;

And whereas certain Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards and burial-grounds hereinafter mentioned from the time mentioned in such Orders respectively; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed ;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed as follows, viz. :

In the Great Synagogue Jewish burial-ground, in the parish of St. Matthew, BETHNAL-GREEN, from the first of January to the first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven ;

In the churchyard of the parish of FYNESBURY, Hunts, from the first of February to the first of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven ;

In the parish churchyard of GODALMING from the first of February, to the sixteenth of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven ;

In the churchyard of the parish of HITCHIN, Herts, from the first of January to the twenty-fifth of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven ;

In the churchyard, and in Ebenezer Chapel burial-ground, Mill End, near RICKMANS-WORTH, from the first of January to the first of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven ;

In the old churchyard of the parish of SARRATT, Herts, from the first of February to the first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven ;

In the churchyards of St. Giles and St. Mary, and in the burial-grounds of the Baptist and Independent Chapels, STONEY STRATFORD, from the thirty-first of January to the thirty-first of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven.

And whereas, by an Order in Council of the eighteenth of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, burials were directed to be discontinued in the churchyard of the parish of ASHTON-UNDER-LYNE, from and after the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and such time was afterwards extended to the first of October in that year, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials in the said churchyard of Ashton-under-Lyne be discontinued, except in graves never previously buried in, and except in family graves which can be opened to the depth of five feet and a half without exposure of remains, provided no coffin be placed within a foot of any other coffin, unless buried in a vault or walled grave in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal, and separately entombed in an airtight manner.

And whereas, by an Order in Council of the twenty-fourth of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, burials were directed to be discontinued, with certain exceptions therein mentioned, in the GENERAL CEMETERY in the old parish of BIRMINGHAM, from and after the sixth of October then next, and it was also thereby directed that from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, no grave but a family-grave should be re-opened in the said cemetery within a period of fourteen years, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the operation of the said Order, so far as it relates to the said General Cemetery in Birmingham, be postponed until the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven.

And whereas, by an Order in Council of the twenty-ninth of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, burials were directed to be discontinued in the old churchyard of the parish of BROADWATER, Sussex, from and after the eighth of April then next, and it seems fit that so much of the said Order be varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, in lieu thereof, that burials be discontinued in the said old churchyard, except in now existing vaults and brick graves, provided that, when required, they be opened without disturbing soil that has been already buried in, and that each coffin be imbedded in a layer of powdered charcoal, four inches thick, and be separately entombed in brick or stone work cemented in an airtight manner, and except in reserved earthen graves, provided they be opened without disturbing human remains, and that no body be buried without a covering of four feet six-inches of earth.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the twenty-first of May one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, burials were directed to be discontinued as therein mentioned in the two parish churchyards, and in the burial-grounds of Ivend Chapel, the Friends' Chapel, Zion Chapel, the Union Chapel, and of the General Baptist Chapel, in CHATTERIS, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered that the rights of burial in all the family vaults, catacombs, and brick graves, now existing in the said two churchyards (including those catacombs in the old churchyard not yet disposed of) and in the said burial-grounds, be reserved, provided that, when required, such vaults, catacombs, and brick graves, be opened without disturbing soil that has been already buried in, that each coffin be imbedded in a layer of powdered charcoal four inches thick, and be separately entombed in brick or stone work properly cemented.

And whereas by an Order in Council, of the eighth of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, burials were directed to cease entirely from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, in the burial-ground attached to the church of Christchurch, in St. Clements, NORWICH, and it seems fit that the said order be varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, in lieu thereof, that with the exception of family vaults and graves, only one body be buried in each grave, and that, with the same exception, no grave be re-opened, and that from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, burials cease entirely in the said burial-ground attached to the church of Christchurch, in St. Clements, Norwich.

And whereas, by an Order in Council of the twenty-first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, burials were directed to be discontinued on and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, in the old and new churchyards of St. Chad, SHREWSBURY, except as was therein excepted, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered that the use of the eleven walled graves, hereinafter named, be permitted, subject to the conditions contained in the said Order of the twenty-first of August last, viz.:—brick graves in the old churchyard belonging to Mrs. Susannah Parry, Mr. John Harrison, Miss Bowman, and Mr. John Wynne;—brick graves in the new churchyard belonging to William Cowper, Esq., Mr. Robert Carden, Mrs. Harding and Mrs. Robert Rogerson, Mr. Richard Clarke, Mr. Thomas Davies, Mr. John Edwards, and Mrs. Peplow.

And whereas, by an Order in Council of the fourth of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, certain directions were given, in respect of burials in the parish churchyard of OLD SWINFORD, and it seems fit that the operation of the said Order be in part postponed; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered that the operation of so much of the said Order in Council of the fourth of April last as respects the new part of the said churchyard, be postponed until the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven.

And whereas, by an Order in Council of the first of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, interments were directed to be wholly discontinued (except in then existing private vaults) in the churchyard of St. Paul, WARRINGTON, from and after the first of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and such time has since been extended to the twenty-fifth of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, in lieu thereof, that interment be discontinued in the said churchyard of St. Paul, WARRINGTON, from and after the said twenty-fifth of March, except in family vaults and walled graves, in which each coffin shall be imbedded in charcoal and separately entombed in an airtight manner, and, except in family graves, every coffin is to be at least four-and-a-half feet beneath the surface of the soil.

C. C. Greville.

burials should be discontinued therein, with the following modifications;

WOLVERHAMPTON.—Forthwith in the burial-ground of Bradley Chapel, in the township of Bilston, and parish of Wolverhampton, except in graves free from water, never previously opened, and not less than four feet deep,—one body only to be buried in each grave.

PONTEFRAC.—Forthwith underneath the parish church situate in the old parish churchyard, and in the Independent Chapel, Pontefract, and in Knottingley Church; also forthwith, with the exception of now existing vaults and brick graves, in the old parish churchyard; also, with the like exception, in the burial-grounds of the Independent Chapel, Pontefract, of the Independent Chapel, Knottingley, and of the Wesleyan Chapel, Knottingley, within five yards of the walls of the chapels, and of all dwelling-houses; also, that from and after the first of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, with the exception of now existing vaults and brick graves, burials be discontinued in the new parish burial-ground of Pontefract, and in the churchyard of Knottingley, in the same parish: that now existing vaults and brick graves be used on the following conditions; viz.: that, when required, they be opened without disturbing ground that has been already buried in, and that each coffin be imbedded in a layer of powdered charcoal four inches thick, and be separately entombed in brick or stone work properly cemented, and that the only bodies interred be those of parents, husbands, wives, unmarried children, and brothers and sisters of those already buried therein.

LLANGYNWYD, GLAMORGANSHIRE.—Wholly in the church of Llangynwyd, and also in such parts of the churchyard and other burial-grounds in the parish as are not free from water and remains. No body to be buried less than four feet below the surface of the ground.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the twelfth day of March next.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said twelfth day of March.

C. C. Greville.

And whereas notice of such petition, and of the time when Her Majesty was pleased to order that the same be taken into consideration by Her Privy Council, has been duly published as required by the said first-recited Act; and it appears to Her Majesty in Council that there is difficulty and inconvenience in providing, under the above-mentioned Act, passed in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, requisite places of burial for the inhabitants of such townships and hamlets;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that powers be vested in the Town Council of the borough of BRADFORD, in the county of York, for providing requisite places of burial, under the provisions of the said first-recited Act, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis," for the inhabitants of the townships of Bradford, Manningham, Bowling, and Horton (including the hamlets of Great and Little Horton), all in, and constituting, the said borough of Bradford accordingly.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 1.) NORWAY—WEST COAST.

Lights at the Lofoten Islands.

The Royal Norwegian Marine Department at Christiania has given notice, that on and after the 1st day of January, 1857, the following lights will be established at the Lofoten Islands, on the north-west coast of Norway.

This light is a fixed white light of the sixth order. It is placed at a height of 140 English feet above the mean level of the sea, and should be visible from the deck of a ship in clear weather at a distance of 12 miles, from S.W. round southerly and easterly to N.W. It will be lighted from the 1st January until the 14th April.

The lighthouse stands on the south side of the entrance of Sörvaagen, and serves to point out the fairway into that harbour. It is in lat.  $68^{\circ} 3' N.$  long.  $13^{\circ} 41' E.$  East from Greenwich. Vessels approaching Sörvaagen between the light and Kraaken islet (which lies to the N.N.E.) must keep close to Glopen, as there are three blind rocks on the S.E. side of Kraagen. If approaching to the north of Kraagen, they should keep close to that islet. When the light has been brought to bear to the eastward of S. by E. there is anchorage in from 8 to 10 fathoms.

This light is a fixed red light of the sixth order. It is placed at a height of 200 English feet above the mean level of the sea, and should be visible from the deck of a ship in clear weather at a distance of from 8 to 10 miles, from N.W. round southerly to N.E. It will be lighted from the 1st January until the 14th April, and will serve chiefly as a guide for the passage between Henningsvaer and Sörvaagen.

The lighthouse stands in lat.  $68^{\circ} 3' N.$  long.  $13^{\circ} 34\frac{1}{2}' E.$  east from Greenwich.

This light is a white light of the fourth order, varied by a flash every third minute, seen all round the compass. It is placed at a height of 120 English feet above the mean level of the sea, and should be visible from the deck of a ship, in clear weather, at a distance of from 12 to 14 miles. It will be exhibited from the 15th August through the winter until the 1st May.

This light is placed on the Quitvaerden near Henningsvaer, and serves chiefly to point out the fairway across the West-fiord; also for making for the anchorage in Saltvaering Sound. To reach the latter, the light must be brought to bear N.E. by N., and that course kept until about 3 cables' length from the lighthouse; then altered a little more easterly, in order to pass south of the light, and when 2 or 3 cables' length to the eastward of it, the vessel may be brought up in from 5 to 6 fathoms' water. The anchorage is narrow, and cannot be recommended for large vessels.

[All courses and bearings are by compass. Var.  $16^{\circ} W.$  in 1857.]

By command of their Lordships,
John Washington, Hydrographer.
Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
1st January, 1857.

This notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Norway, General, No. 2,303; Fleina to the Lofoten Isles, Sheet 9, No. 2,311; Lofoten Islands to Andö, sheet 10, No. 2,312. Also Norway Pilot, Part 2, pp. 136 to 138; and Norway Lighthouse, List, Nos. 270 a, b, c.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 2.) WEST INDIES.

Piedras Cay Lighthouse, Cuba.

The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty having received a notification from Commodore Kellett, C.B., Senior Naval Officer in the West Indies, that the Piedras Cay Lighthouse, on the north side of the island of Cuba, at the western entrance of the Old Bahama or Nicholas Channel, was blown down in the hurricane of the 25th August last, the same is hereby published, for the information of the Mariner.

Mosquito Coast, King Cays.

Information has also been received that a coral patch, having only 2 feet water on it, has been discovered by H.M.S. Pioneer about 3 miles south of King Cays, on the Coast of Mosquito, at 10 miles off shore. The following magnetic bearings were taken from the centre of the shoal:—Sand Cay, N.W.  $\frac{1}{4}$  W.; North Cay, north; Eastern or Little King Cay, N.E. by N. The lead gives no warning of the shoal, as there is a depth of 9 fathoms at less than a ship's length off. Lat.  $12^{\circ} 41' 45''$  N., long.  $83^{\circ} 22' 22''$  W. of Greenwich, nearly.

Greytown Harbour, Nicaragua.

A recent survey of Greytown Harbour by Messrs. Scott and Thomas, Masters, Royal Navy, has shown that the sandy spit named by the Spaniards Punta Arenas, has advanced a cable's length to the south-westward during the last three years, thereby reducing the width of entrance to little more than two cables' length. A black beacon buoy has been placed off the north-western angle of the breakers, and a red buoy at a cable's length to the westward of the dry sandy point. The leading mark into the harbour at present is the flagstaff on the beach in front of the town, in one with a conspicuous tree to the south-eastward of the town, bearing S.  $63^{\circ} 30'$  E., magnetic.

By command of their Lordships,

John Washington, Hydrographer.Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
2 January, 1857.

These notices affect the following Admiralty Charts:—West Indies, General, sheets 3 and 4, Nos. 392 b and c; West Indies, sheets 1 and 12, Nos. 1217, 1218; and Piedras Cay Plan, No. 410. Also West India Directory, Vol. 1, p. 181; and West India Lighthouse List, No. 25.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 3.) GULF OF MEXICO—MISSISSIPPI.

North-East Pass Light.

The United States Lighthouse Board has given notice, that on and after the 31st day of December, 1856, the light on Frank's Island, at the North-east Pass of the Mississippi River, will be discontinued. The tower, 70 feet high, painted white, will be left standing to serve as a day mark for mariners.

At the same time the two wing lights at the South-west Pass Lighthouse will be extinguished, as not being necessary for distinction, after the discontinuance of the North-east Pass Light.

After the 31st December, and the above-named changes shall have been made, the lights to mark the several Passes of the Mississippi will be as follows, viz.:

South west Pass.

This light, on the west side of and near the entrance to the Pass, is a fixed white light, in a white tower, having an elevation of 70 feet above the mean level of the sea.

No. 21964.

This light, on Gordon Island, near the entrance to the Pass, is a revolving white light, showing a brilliant flash once in every 75 seconds, from a slate-coloured wooden tower on the keeper's house, 60 feet above the mean level of the sea.

This light stands on Middle Ground Island, on the north side of the entrance to Passe à l'Outre. It is a fixed white light, varied by flashes, exhibited from a black tower at an elevation of 77 feet above the mean level of the sea.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 4.) ATLANTIC OCEAN.—MAINE.

The United States Lighthouse Board has given notice, that on the 1st of April, 1857, the following changes will take place in the Moose Peak and Manheigin lights, on the coast of Maine:—

Change of Moose Peak Light.

In order to diminish the possibility of mistaking Moose Peak light for Petit Menan light, which latter lies about 20 miles to the south-westward, the interval between the bright faces in the Moose Peak light will be changed from 2 minutes to  $\frac{1}{2}$  a minute; so that from and after the above-named date the Moose Peak will be, as usual, a revolving light, but the interval between the bright faces will be 30 seconds.

Moose Peak lighthouse stands on Mistake Island, in lat.  $44^{\circ} 28' N.$ , long.  $67^{\circ} 31' 9''$  West from Greenwich, nearly.

Change of Manheigin Light.

On the same 1st day of April, 1857, the time of revolution of the Manheigin light will be altered from two minutes to one minute, and the red face now shown will be thereafter discontinued; so that from and after the above date the interval between the bright faces will be one minute, and the light will be of the natural colour.

Manheigin lighthouse stands on the island, in lat.  $43^{\circ} 44' N.$ , long.  $69^{\circ} 15'$  West from Greenwich, nearly.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 5.) PACIFIC OCEAN—CALIFORNIA.

Fixed White Light near Crescent City.

The United States Lighthouse Board has given notice, that on and after the 10th day of December, 1856, a light would be exhibited from a tower recently erected on the south-western side of the harbour of Crescent City, on the coast of California, in the Pacific Ocean.

The light is a fixed white light, varied by flashes. The illuminating apparatus is a lens of the fourth order. The light is placed at a height of 80 feet above the mean level of the sea, and should be visible from the deck of a ship in clear weather at a distance of 14 miles.

The building consists of a keeper's dwelling of grey stone of one story and a half high, with a low tower of brick, plastered and whitewashed, rising from the centre, and surmounted by a lantern, painted red, and is about 40 feet high from base to vane. It stands on the seaward extremity of the Island Point forming the southern and western sides of the harbour, in lat.  $41^{\circ} 44' 34''$  north, long.  $124^{\circ} 11' 22''$  west from Greenwich; the magnetic variation in November, 1853, being  $17^{\circ} 45'$  east, as determined by the coast survey.

Fixed Red Light near Santa Barbara.

The Lighthouse Board has also given notice, that on and after the 1st day of December, 1856, a light would be exhibited from a tower recently erected on the bluff near Santa Barbara, on the coast of California, in the Pacific Ocean.

The light is a fixed red light. The illuminating apparatus is a lens of the fourth order, and lights up the seaward half of the horizon. The light is placed at a height of 180 feet above the mean level of the sea, but will not be visible from the deck of a ship (owing to its red colour and low order of lens) beyond the distance of 10 miles.

The building consists of a keeper's dwelling, one story and a half high, with a low plastered tower rising through the roof, surmounted by a lantern; the whole being about 40 feet high from base to vane. It stands two miles south-westerly from the landing at Santa Barbara, and 183 yards from the brink of the bluff, in lat.  $34^{\circ} 23' 35''$  north, long.  $119^{\circ} 42' 5''$  west from Greenwich; the magnetic variation in November, 1853, being  $13^{\circ} 30'$  east, as determined by the coast survey.

Cortez Shoal, near San Nicholas.

The Commanding Officer of the United States Coast Survey in the Pacific has notified the position of a dangerous locality on Cortez shoal, where there is a depth of only  $2\frac{1}{2}$  fathoms' water. It lies to the southward and nearly equidistant from the islands of San Clemente and San Nicholas, in lat.  $32^{\circ} 25' 40''$  north, long.  $119^{\circ} 5' 7''$  west from Greenwich.

It appears to be a sharp point of rock approaching thus near the surface, with deep water around it. It is near the eastern extremity of the shoal, which, within the 50 fathoms' curve, extends about 16 miles W.N.W. and E.S.E., and is about 4 miles wide.

established on Stephano Burun, on the north side of the Sea of Marmora, near the entrance of the channel of Constantinople.

The light is a fixed white light, varied every two minutes by flashes, which are preceded and followed by short eclipses. The light is placed at a height of 78 feet above the level of the sea, and should be visible from the deck of a ship, in clear weather, at a distance of 12 miles.

The light is seen through an arc of the horizon of  $195^{\circ}$  from E. by N.  $\frac{1}{4}$  N. round southerly to W.  $\frac{1}{4}$  N., except for the half point from W. by S. to W. by S.  $\frac{1}{4}$  S., where it is interrupted by the tower of a kiosk, which will shortly be removed.

The light-tower is 65 feet high from the ground, and stands on the point of San Stephano, at 723 yards E. by N.  $\frac{1}{4}$  N. of the above-mentioned Sultan's kiosk, in lat.  $40^{\circ} 57' 14''$  N., long.  $28^{\circ} 50' 34''$  West from Greenwich.
