PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day the Right Honourable Valentine Augustus Browne (commonly called Viscount Castlerosse), was, by Her Majesty's command, sworn of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

Her Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Charles Anderson, Earl of Yarborough, to be Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the county of Lincoln, his Lordship this day took the oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the oaths of allegiance and supremacy.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of February, 1857,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appear to Her Majesty in Council, upon the petition of the Town Council of any borough, stating that an Order in Council has been made for closing all or any of the burial-grounds of one or more parishes, being wholly or partly within such borough, that there is difficulty or inconvenience in providing, under the powers of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," requisite places of burial for the inhabitants of such parish or parishes, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that powers shall be vested in the Council of such borough for providing such places of burial, under the provisions of this Act ;

provided always, that notice of such petition, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in such borough, one month at least before such petition is so considered :

And whereas the Town Council of the borough of NEW WINDSOR, have presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, stating that an Order in Council has been issued for closing all the burial-grounds within the said borough, and that there is difficulty and inconvenience in providing, under the powers of the second above-mentioned Act, passed in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, requisite places of burial for the inhabitants of the portions of the parishes of New Windsor and Clewer, forming the said borough of New Windsor, and praying that powers may be vested in the said Town Council for providing requisite places of burial for the inhabitants of the said portions of the said parishes, under the above first-recited Act ;

And whereas notice of such petition, and of the time when Her Majesty was pleased to order that the same be taken into consideration by Her Privy Council, has been duly published as required by the above said first-recited Act ; and it appears to Her Majesty in Council that there is difficulty and inconvenience in providing under the above secondly recited Act, requisite places of burial for the inhabitants of the said portions of such parishes ;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that powers be vested in the Town Council of the borough of NEW WINDSOR, for providing requisite places of burial for the inhabitants of those portions of the parishes of New Windsor and Clewer, which are within and form the said borough of New Windsor, under the provisions of the said first-recited Act, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis."
