

Regiment.	Rank and Name.	Act of Bravery for which recommended.
19th Regiment	No. 1051 Private John Lyons	For, on the 10th June, 1855, taking up a live shell which fell among the guard of the trenches, and throwing it over the parapet.
23rd Regiment	Brevet Lieutenant-Colonel Edward W. D. Bell	Recommended for his gallantry, more particularly at the Battle of the Alma, where he was the first to seize upon and capture one of the enemy's guns, which was limbered up, and being carried off. He, moreover, succeeded to the command of that gallant Regiment which he brought out of action; all his Senior Officers having been killed or wounded.
23rd Regiment	Lieutenant Luke O'Connor	Was one of the centre Serjeants at the Battle of the Alma, and advanced between the Officers, carrying the colours. When near the redoubt, Lieutenant Anstruther, who was carrying a colour, was mortally wounded, and he was shot in the breast at the same time, and fell; but, recovering himself, snatched up the colour from the ground, and continued to carry it till the end of the action, although urged by Captain Granville to relinquish it, and go to the rear, on account of his wound; was recommended for, and received his commission for his services at the Alma. Also behaved with great gallantry at the assault on the Redan, 8th September, 1855, where he was shot through both thighs.
23rd Regiment	No. 2945 Corporal Robert Shields	For volunteering, on the 8th of September, 1855, to go out to the front from the 5th parallel, after the attack on the Redan, to bring in Lieutenant Dynelcy, who was wounded, and found afterwards to be mortally so.
34th Regiment	No. 3837 Private William Coffey	For having, on the 29th March, 1855, thrown a lighted shell, that fell into the trench over the parapet.
34th Regiment	No. 3482 Private John J. Sims	For having, on the 18th June, 1855, after the Regiment had retired into the trenches from the assault on the Redan, gone out into the open ground, under a heavy fire, in broad daylight, and brought in wounded soldiers outside the trenches.
41st Regiment	Brevet-Major Hugh Rowlands	For rescuing Colonel Haly, of the 47th Regiment, from Russian soldiers, Colonel Haly having been wounded and surrounded by them, and for gallant exertions in holding the ground occupied by his advanced picquet against the enemy, at the commencement of the Battle of Inkerman.
41st Regiment	Serj.-Major Ambrose Madden	For having headed a party of men of the 41st Regiment, and having cut off and taken prisoners one Russian Officer and fourteen privates, three of whom he, personally and alone, captured.
