"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter seventy-seven, sections one, two, and three, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for permanently annexing a canonry residentiary in the cathedral church of Llandaff to each of the archdeaconries of Llandaff and Monmouth, in the diocese of Llandaff.

"Whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the thirty-first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and duly published in the London Gazette on the sixth day of February, in the same year, the said archdeaconry of Monmouth was founded in the diocese of Llandaff, and it was by the same order provided, inter alia, that the said archdeaconry, and also the archdeaconry of Llandaff aforesaid should be temporarily endowed by augmentation out of the common fund mentioned in the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, until arrangements should be proposed by us, and ratified by your Majesty in Council, under the provisions of the herein firstly mentioned Act, for permanently annexing canonries residentiary in the said cathedral church of Llandaff to the said archdeaconries:

"And whereas, one of the canonries residentiary in the said cathedral church is held by the present Archdeacon of Llandaff:

"We, therefore, with the consent of the Venerable Thomas Williams, the present Archdeacon of Llandaff, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, humbly recommend and propose, that, immediately upon and from the day upon which any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be duly published in the London

Gazette, the canonry residentiary in the cathedral church of Llandaff, now held by the said Thomas Williams, shall become and be permanently annexed and united to the said archdeaconry of Llandaff, and be held by the archdeacon of the said archdeaconry; and we further recommend and propose that the canonry residentiary in the same cathedral church which shall next become vacant, shall in like manner, and immediately upon and from the vacancy thereof, become and be permanently annexed and united to the said archdeaconry of Monmouth, and be held by the archdeacon of the said last-named archdeaconry, and that the then and every future Archdeacon of Monmouth, and also every future Archdeacon of Llandaff shall, as such archdeacons, be entitled to installation to such canonries respectively, and shall be invested with, and so long as they shall respectively remain archdeacons of the said archdeaconries, but no longer, shall hold and enjoy all the rights, privileges, and emoluments of canons of the same church:

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said mentioned Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council, now therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Llandaff.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 2nd day of February, 1857,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for 'the spiritual care of populous parishes,'" duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fifteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of 'populous parishes,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale of certain property formerly belonging to the see of Gloucester and Bristol, and now vested in us.

"Whereas it is by the said Act (amongst other things) enacted, that notwithstanding the charge by that Act created (being a charge created in favour of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne), all the same and the like powers and rights of ownership as are possessed and enjoyed respecting and over any lands, tithes, rentcharges, tenements, or other hereditaments whatsoever, by any absolute owner thereof, shall be enjoyed by us with respect to and over all or any lands, tithes, rentcharges, tenements, or other hereditaments vested in us under certain Acts therein mentioned (being the Acts under which the property herein-after described is vested in us), and may, subject to the provisions of the same Acts, and of the now reciting Act, be exercised by us, by proper instruments in writing duly executed according to law, with a certain proviso respecting the application of every sum of money received as the consideration or purchase money for the sale, transfer, or conveyance by us of any of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments, or of any estate or interest therein; and with a further proviso that none of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments be sold, transferred, or conveyed, except by the authority of a scheme, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council ratifying the same:

"And whereas, under the provisions of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and duly published in the London Gazette on the ninth day of the following month of December, all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, formerly belonging to the said see of Gloucester and Bristol (excepting certain portions thereof in such Order particularly described), became vested in us, subject to any legally subsisting leases or grants thereof.

"And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in certain portions of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments; and after due consideration it appears to us to be expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable:

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, or endowments heretofore belonging to the said see of Gloucester and Bristol and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London

Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrars of the two several Registries of the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, at Bristol and Gloucester.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the Fourth Report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-second day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the Fourth Report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for substituting a money payment to the canon of the fourth canonry in the cathedral church of Durham, for the property belonging to him as such canon.

"Whereas by and under the provisions of the said Acts, the whole of the separate estates and endowments belonging to the said fourth canonry will (excepting any right of ecclesiastical patronage), upon the first avoidance of the said canonry, become absolutely vested in us, for the purposes of the said Acts, and the chief of such purposes is that of making better provision for the cure of souls in parishes where such assistance is most required:

"And whereas it was by the same Acts enacted, that by the authority therein provided, and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions thereof, any arrangement might from time to time be made, with the consent in writing under the hand of any canon of any cathedral church, for the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, belonging to such canon, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, in lieu thereof, or for substituting, in any case, any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments:

"And whereas it has been agreed between us and the Venerable Charles Thorp, Doctor in Divinity, Archdeacon of Durham, the present holder of the said fourth canonry, that, with a view to sooner carrying into effect the purpose of the said recited Acts hereinbefore particularly mentioned, the following arrangement should be recommended by us to your Majesty in Council:

"We, therefore, with the consent of the said Charles Thorp, testified by his having signed this scheme, humbly recommend and propose that, without any conveyance or assurance in the law, other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and after the day of such gazetting, all the lands and hereditaments which are particularized in the underwritten Schedule, and which form part of the lands and hereditaments now belonging to, or forming part of, the endowment of the said fourth canonry, shall, together with all the estate, right, title, and interest therein of the said Charles Thorp, as such Canon as aforesaid, be and be held to be, for the consideration hereinafter mentioned, transferred and conveyed by and from the said Charles Thorp as from the twenty-ninth day of September last, to us, and shall then and thereupon become and be absolutely vested in us, for the purposes of the said Acts, subject only to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof, or of any part or parts thereof; and that, in consideration of and for such transfer and conveyance, there shall be paid by us to the said Charles Thorp, in each and every year, so long as he shall continue to live, and until the end of the caputular year in which he shall die, the annual sum of three hundred and seventy-five pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, on the twenty-ninth day of September and the twenty-fifth day of March; and that the first of such half-yearly payments shall be made on the twenty-fifth day of March next; provided that no renewal of any lease, nor any new lease of the said lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, or of any part thereof, shall, since the twenty-fourth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred, and fifty-six, have been or shall be granted or made by the said Charles Thorp.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

"The Schedule to which the foregoing Scheme has reference."

"All those the lands, hereditaments, and premises belonging to and forming part of the endowment of the said fourth canonry in the cathedral church of Durham, which are situate in the parish of Witton Gilbert, in the county of Durham, except a certain close of land there, comprising two acres and two roods, now in the occupation of the Reverend Cuthbert John Carr, at an annual rent of five pounds.

"And also all those the lands, hereditaments, and premises, belonging to and forming part of the endowment of the said fourth canonry, which are situate in the township and parish of Aycliffe, in the said county of Durham."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Durham.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale of certain property formerly belonging to the prebend of Bedford Major, in the cathedral church of Lincoln, and now vested in us.

"Whereas it is by the said Act (amongst other things), enacted, that notwithstanding the charge by that Act created (being a charge created in favour of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne), all the same and the like powers and rights of ownership as are possessed and enjoyed respecting and over any lands, tithes, rentcharges, tenements, or other hereditaments whatsoever, by any absolute owner thereof, shall be enjoyed by us with respect to and over all or any lands, tithes, rentcharges, tenements, or other hereditaments vested in us under certain Acts therein mentioned (being the Acts under which the property hereinafter described is vested in us), and may, subject to the provisions of the same Acts, and of the now reciting Act, be exercised by us, by proper instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, with a certain proviso respecting the application of every sum of money received as the consideration or purchase-money for the sale, transfer, or conveyance by us of any of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments, or of any estate or interest therein; and with a further proviso that none of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments be sold, transferred, or conveyed, except by the authority of a scheme, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council ratifying the same:

"And whereas all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments formerly belonging to the said prebend of Bedford Major (except any right of ecclesiastical patronage), became vested in us on the vacancy of the said prebend, which occurred on or about the twenty-fifth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, by the decease of the Reverend John Humfrey, the then prebendary, subject to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof:

"And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in certain portions of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments; and after due consideration it appears to us to be expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable:

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lincoln.
