TUESDAY, MARCH 3, 1857.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, February 19, 1857.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness Prince Albert will, by the desire of Her Majesty, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Thursday the 12th of March next, at two o'clock

It is Her Majesty's pleasure, that presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered equivalent to presentations to The Queen.

Addresses to The Queen may either be forwarded to Her Majesty through the Secretary of State for the Home Department, or may be reserved until Her Majesty shall hold a Levee.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE LEVEE AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who purpose to attend the Levee at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Ante-Room, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

Those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to present them, should be delivered at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock on the Tuesday previous to the Levee, or on any earlier day between the hours of eleven and four, in order that they may be submitted for approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall be made at the Levee but in conformity with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half-past one o'clock.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 2nd day of February, 1857,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy-seven, sections one, two, and three, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter seventy-seven, sections one, two, and three, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for permanently annexing a canonry residentiary in the cathedral church of Llandaff to each of the archdeaconries of Llandaff and Monmouth, in the diocese of Llandaff.

"Whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the thirty-first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and duly published in the London Gazette on the sixth day of February, in the same year, the said archdeaconry of Monmouth was founded in the diocese of Llandaff, and it was by the same order provided, inter alia, that the said archdeaconry, and also the archdeaconry of Llandaff aforesaid should be temporarily endowed by augmentation out of the common fund mentioned in the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, until arrangements should be proposed by us, and ratified by your Majesty in Council, under the provisions of the herein firstly mentioned Act, for permanently annexing canonries residentiary in the said cathedral church of Llandaff to the said archdeaconries:

"And whereas, one of the canonries residentiary in the said cathedral church is held by the present Archdeacon of Llandaff:

"We, therefore, with the consent of the Venerable Thomas Williams, the present Archdeacon of Llandaff, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, humbly recommend and propose, that, immediately upon and from the day upon which any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be duly published in the London
