PROVISIONAL ORDER.

Reigate Turnpike Road.

WHEREAS the Trustees of the Reigate Turnpike Road, acting under the powers of the Local Act of the 55th of George the Third cap. 48, have made application to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, pursuant to the Act of the session holden in the 14th and 15th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, cap. 38, for a Provisional Order, to reduce the rate of interest on the mortgage debt charged or secured on the tolls or revenues of the said road, and to extinguish the whole of the arrears of interest due upon the said debt;

And whereas the said application is dated the nineteenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and is signed by three of the said trustees, who therein certify that the persons entitled to more than two-thirds of the money charged or secured on the tolls of the said road, and remaining unpaid, have signified their consents in writing under their hands to the said application;

And whereas it appears desirable to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department that the aforesaid application should be granted upon the terms herein set forth ;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the power and authority of the said Act of the 14th and 15th of Victoria, cap. 38, given to me as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and in conformity with the said application, I do, by this Provisional Order, under my hand, declare,—subject to the confirmation hereof by Parliament,—that from the twenty-fifth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, the rate of interest shall be reduced from three pounds to two pounds per centum, per annum, upon the bonded or mortgage debt of fourteen thousand one hundred and eighty pounds, charged or secured upon the tolls or revenues of the said road, and that the whole of the arrears of interest due and remaining unpaid upon the said debt at that date shall be extinguished.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand.

(Signed) G. Grey.

Whitehall, March 3, 1857.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed John Alexander Radcliffe, of No. 8, Delahay-street, Westminster, Gentleman, to be a London Commissioner to administer oaths in the High Court of Chancery.

NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House, March 9, 1857.

NOTICE is hereby given, to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now making for the intended distribution of proceeds arising from the Ionian brig San Spiridione, captured on the 11th May, 1854, by Her Majesty's ships Fury and Sidon.

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said proceeds, are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that Officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Agents and all other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments, or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share belonging to any captor, are requested, with as little delay as possible, to transmit the same, accompanied by the usual documents, to the Prize Branch of the Department of the "Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House."

Due notice will be given, by future advertisements in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and, at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

The Master of the Rolls, at Chambers.
In the Matter of the Joint Stock Companies' Winding-up Acts, 1848 and 1849, and of the Mineral Court Mining Company.

By direction of the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls, the Judge of the High Court of Chancery charged with the winding up of this Company, notice is hereby given, that the said Judge will proceed, on Monday the 16th day of March, 1857, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely, at his chambers, Rolls-yard, Chancery-lane, London, to settle the list of contributories of this Company; and that after such list shall have been settled, no party affected thereby will be allowed to dispute the same without leave of the High Court of Chancery first obtained.—Dated this 5th day of March, 1857.

In Chancery.

In the Matter of the Joint Stock Companies' Winding-up Acts, 1848 and 1849, and of the General Indemnity Insurance Company.

THE Vice-Chancellor Sir William Page Wood, the Judge to whose Court the winding up of this matter is attached, will, at his chambers, No. 11, New-square, Lincoln's-inn, London, on Friday the 13th day of March, 1857, at two o'clock in the afternoon, or at such other adjourned time or place as may then or afterwards be fixed, appoint an Official Manager of this Company; and notice is hereby given, that all parties interested are entitled to attend, at such time and place, and to offer proposals or objections to any such appointment.—Dated this 4th day of March, 1857.

In the Matter of the Joint Stock Companies' Winding-up Acts, 1848 and 1849, and of the General Indemnity Insurance Company.

HIS Honour the Vice-Chancellor Sir William Page Wood, upon the several petitions of William Edwards, Richard Woodridge, and William Rendell, preferred in the above-mentioned matter, did, on Saturday the 28th day of February, 1857, order and direct, that the said General Indemnity Insurance Company should be absolutely dissolved as from the date of the said Order, and wound up by the Judge to whose Court the said matter was attached, under the provisions of the said Joint Stock Companies' Winding-up Acts, 1848 and 1849.

J. MICHAEL, Acting Registrar of Bank Returns.

Inland Revenue Office, March 7, 1857.

Bank of England, March 10, 1857.

THE Court of Directors of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England give notice,

That a General Court will be held at the Bank on Thursday the 19th instant, at twelve o'clock precisely, to consider of a dividend.

Also that another General Court will be held at the Bank, on Tuesday the 14th April next, from ten o'clock in the forenoon till four in the afternoon, for the election of a Governor and Deputy Governor for the year ensuing (which will be declared that evening); and the same Court will be continued, by adjournment, and held at the same place, and during the same hours, on Wednesday the 15th April next, for the election of twenty-four Directors (which will also be one of the Quarterly General Courts appointed by the charter); and the election of the twenty-four Directors will be declared as soon as the scrutiny is over.

Printed lists of the Proprietors having votes will be ready to be delivered at the Bank, on Monday the 23rd March.

John Bentley, Secretary.

N.B. By an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of George 3rd, no person will be entitled to vote at the said election who shall not have been six calendar months possessed, in his own right, of the stock for which he shall then give his vote, unless the said stock shall have been acquired or shall have come by bequest, or by marriage, or by succession to an intestate's estate, or by the custom of the city of London, or by any deed of settlement after the death of any person who shall have been entitled for life to the dividends of such stock.

Henry Milvain.

Vice-Chancellor Wood.—Wednesday, the 25th day of February, in the 20th year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, 1857. Between Stopford Thomas Jones and Stopford Jones, plaintiffs; John Brandon, formerly called Jacob Brandon, Daniel Brandon, Abraham Mocatta, Jesse Brandon, Frederick White and Ellen Abigail his wife, Thomas Snaith Wilkinson and Mary Ann his wife, Thomas Octavius Jones and Eliza Susannah his wife, Frances Maria Jones (out of the jurisdiction), Georgina Jones, Robert James Cattley and Sophia Sarah his wife, David Israel Brandon, William Wolfe, Alexander and Benjamin Mocatta, defendants.

FORASMUCH as this Court was this present day informed by Mr. Ellis, of Counsel for the plaintiffs, that the plaintiffs, on the 1st day of February, 1856, filed their printed Bill in this cause against the defendants, with an indorsement thereon requiring the defendants, and every of them, to appear thereto, and it appearing by an affidavit of Thomas William Payne and Alan George Cook, filed the 16th day of February, 1857, and an affidavit of Stopford Thomas Jones, filed the 24th day of February, 1857, that the defendant Daniel Brandon has been within the jurisdiction of this Court within two years next before the filing of the said Bill, and that all due diligence has been used to serve the said defendant personally with a copy of the said Bill, but without effect, and that the said defendant Daniel Brandon cannot be found, so as to be served with process, and that, from inquiries at the last known place of abode of the said defendant, and at other places where it was probable that the said defendant might be found, there is just ground to believe that the said Daniel Brandon has absconded, or is keeping out of the way, to avoid being served with process; it is thereupon ordered that the defendant Daniel Brandon do appear to the plaintiff's Bill on or before the 25th day of March, 1857. And it is ordered that the plaintiff do cause a copy of this Order, together with a notice thereof, to the effect set forth at the foot of the general Order of this Court in that behalf, to be inserted in the London Gazette within fourteen days from the date hereof, and in two newspapers published in the city of London.

NOTICE.—Daniel Brandon, take notice, that if you do not appear pursuant to the above Order, the plaintiffs may order an appearance for you, and the Court may afterwards grant to the plaintiffs such relief as they may appear to be entitled to on their own shewing.

The Princes Meadow Estate, lying between Waterloo and Blackfriars Bridges, on the south side of the River Thames, in the parish of Lambeth, in the county of Surrey.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Stahlschmidt v. Lett, and other causes, with the approbation of the Vice-Chancellor Stuart, in 65 lots, by Messrs. Farebrother, Clark and Lye, the persons appointed by the said Judge, at Garraway's Coffee House, Change-alley, Cornhill, London, on Wednesday and Thursday, the 22nd and 23rd days of April, 1857, at twelve for one o'clock precisely, on each day:

A valuable leasehold estate, comprising improved ground rents with reversions to the rack rentals, and leasehold properties, with possession, now producing nearly £11,000 per annum, the estimated rack rental of the estate being about £30,000 per annum, issuing out of 10 important wharves and waterside premises on the south side of the river, between Waterloo and Blackfriars Bridges, and about 700 private residences, shops, public-houses, manufactories, warehouses, buildings, timber and waggon yards, and premises, situate in Upper Stamford-street, Duke-street, Bond-street, Princes-court, Cornwall-place, Cornwall-road, Commercial-road, Bond-place, Duke's-court, Commercial-buildings, Princes-street, John-street, Thomas-street, Salutation-place, Cottage-place, and premises in the rear of the above-mentioned streets, all in the parish of Lambeth, in the county of Surrey, and late the property of Mr. Thomas Lett, deceased, and held under the Duchy of Cornwall, on several leases for terms of years ending April, 1909, at ground rents.

The properties may be viewed by permission of the tenants, and particulars and conditions of sale, with plan annexed (price 6d.) may be had one month prior to the sale of Messrs. Loftus and Young, Solicitors, No. 10, New-inn; Mr. Orlando Webb, Solicitor, No. 44, Bedford-row; Messrs. Thompson, Debenham and Brown, Solicitors, Salter's Hall, St. Swithin's-lane; Mr. Edward Lett, Solicitor, Quality-court, Chancery-lane; at Garraway's; and of Messrs. Farebrother, Clark and Lye, No. 6, Lancaster-place, Strand.

To Brewers, Publicans, and others.

FOR sale by auction, by Messrs. Foster, on Tuesday, the 24th day of March instant, at twelve o'clock, at the Auction Mart, Bartholomew-lane, London, pursuant to an Order in Chancery, made in the cause of Shand v. Shand:

The beershop and dwelling-house, called the Black Horse, with two small cottages adjoining, in the Uxbridge-road, about three-quarters of a mile from the Ealing station. The premises are copyhold of the manor of Ealing, Middlesex, and subject only to the nominal quit-rent of eight pence; and a fine of eight pence on death or alienation. The descent is Borough English, and the land liable to dower.

Particulars may be had at the above premises, the Black Horse; Messrs. Becke and Metcalfe, Solicitors, No. 15, Bedford-row; Messrs. Whitaker, Whitaker, and Woolbert, Solicitors, No. 12, Lincoln's-inn-fields; of R. A. Parker, Esq., Solicitor, No. 19, Coleman-street, City; and Messrs. Fosters, No. 54, Pall Mall.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Barrow v. Chantry, with the approbation of the Vice-Chancellor Sir Richard Torin Kindersley, the Judge to whose Court the said cause is attached, on Saturday the 4th day of April, 1857, at five o'clock in the afternoon, at the Admiral Rodney Inn, in Southwell, in the county of Nottingham, by Mr. Christopher Marriott, of Southwell aforesaid, Auctioneer, the person appointed to sell the same by auction, in one lot:

A leasehold estate formerly the property of Mr. John Chantry, deceased, situate at Greaves-lane, in the parish of Edingley, in the said county of Nottingham, consisting of a cottage or tenement, orchard and garden, barn, outbuildings, and several closes of arable, meadow, and pasture land, now in the occupation of Mr. John Brassey, containing in the whole 40A. 3R. 20P.

Particulars and conditions of sale may be obtained (gratis) of Messrs. Warry, Robins, and Burges, Solicitors, No. 7, New-inn, London; and in the country, of Messrs. Stenton and Townsend, Solicitors, Southwell; of Messrs. Falkner and Newbald, Solicitors, Newark-upon-Trent; of the said Mr. Christopher Marriott; and at the place of sale.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Coulton versus Horn, with the approbation of the Judge to whose Court the said cause is attached, at the King's Head Inn, Leyburn, Yorkshire, on Friday, the 17th day of April, 1857, at three o'clock in the afternoon, by Mr. Thomas Masterman, of Patrick Brompton, Auctioneer, in one lot:

If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given, by entry thereof in the proper page and columns of the book kept for that purpose at the Office of the Court, between the hours of Eleven in the Forenoon and Three in the Afternoon, two clear days before the day of hearing above mentioned, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of entering such notice and of the said day of hearing; but in the case of a Prisoner, for the removal of whom for hearing in the country an order has been obtained, but not carried into effect by the Creditors, notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

N.B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-street.

2. The petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination until the last day for entering opposition inclusive; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act 1 and 2 Vict. c. 110, sec. 105.

3. Notice to produce at the hearing any books or papers filed with the schedule must be given to the Officer having the custody thereof, within the hours above mentioned, on any day previous to the day of hearing.

4. Opposition at the hearing can only be made by the Creditor in person, or by Counsel appearing for him.
