FRIDAY, MARCH 13, 1857.

Westminster, March 9, 1857.

THIS day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them that The Lords authorized by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by Her Majesty, for declaring Her Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

An Act to amend the Act for limiting the time of service in the Royal Marine Forces.

An Act to facilitate the appointment of chief constables for adjoining counties, and to confirm appointments of chief constables in certain cases.

An Act to confirm certain provisional orders of the General Board of Health applying the Public Health Act, 1848, to the districts of Ipswich, Oldbury, Stroud, Llangollen, and Dukinfield; and for altering the constitution of the Local Board for the Main Sewerage District of Wisbech and Walsoken.

An Act to enable the subjects of the Ionian States to hold military and naval commissions under the Crown.

Crown-Office, March 11, 1857.

MEMBER returned to serve in the present PARLIAMENT.

County of Londonderry.

James Johnston Clarke, of Largantoher, in the county of Londonderry, Esq., in the room of Thomas Bateson, Esq., who has accepted the office of Steward of Her Majesty's Manor of Hempholme.

Whitehall, March 13, 1857.

The Queen taking into her royal consideration that, upon the decease of Digby Willoughby, seventh Baron Middleton, of Middleton, in the county of Warwick, without issue, on the fifth day of November last, the title and dignity of Baron Middleton devolved upon his cousin, Henry Willoughby, now Baron Middleton, as eldest son and heir of Henry Willoughby, of Birdsall House and of Settrington House, both in the county of York, Esquire, deceased, sometime representative in Parliament for Newark, in the county of Nottingham, who was eldest son and heir of James Willoughby, Clerk; Prebendary of Southwell, Rector of Guiseley, and Vicar of Askham Richard, both in the said county of York, also deceased, uncle of the said Digby, seventh Baron Middleton, and that according to the ordinary rules of honour the younger brothers and sisters of the said Henry now Baron Middleton, cannot enjoy that place and precedence which would have been due to them in case their late father, Henry Willoughby, had survived his cousin the said Digby, seventh Baron Middleton, and had thereby succeeded to the title and dignity of Baron Middleton, Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to ordain and declare, that Charles James Willoughby, Clerk, Rector of Wollaton-with-Cossal, in the county of Nottingham, Percival George Willoughby, Clerk, Vicar of Carlton le Moorlands with Stapleford, in the county of Lincoln, Emma, wife of Richard Beverley Machell, Clerk, Vicar of Barrow-upon-Humber, in the said county of Lincoln, and Harriet Cassandra Willoughby, spinster, brothers and sisters of the said Henry now Baron Middleton, shall henceforth have, hold, and enjoy the same title, place, pre-eminence, and precedence, as if their late father, the said Henry Willoughby, had survived his cousin, the said Digby, Baron Middleton, and had thereby succeeded to the title and dignity of Baron Middleton:

And Her Majesty has been further pleased to command that the said royal order and declaration be registered in the College of Arms.

NOTICE.

NAVAL MEDALS FOR THE BALTIC.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House, March 13, 1857.

HER Majesty having been graciously pleased to grant a Medal to the Officers and Men serving on board Her Majesty's ships in the Baltic campaigns, from the 28th of March, 1854, to the close of the Naval Operations in that year, and from the commencement to the close of Naval Operations in the year 1855—

Notice is hereby given, that all claimants to such Medal, notwithstanding any previous application, should apply personally or by letter, with the words "Baltic Medal" on the outside, to the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset House.

Every applicant must state his rank or rating, and the name of the ship or ships on board which he served; also in the case of every Petty Officer, Seaman, or Marine, it is indispensable that his application should be accompanied by a certificate of service, except in the case of his being on board one of Her Majesty's ships, and the application be made through his Commanding Officer, in which case the certificate will not be required.

Where there are several claimants on board the same ship, it is desirable that they should make their applications in one letter through their Commanding Officer, by a list alphabetically arranged under the ships in which they were serving at the time, and affording the information as above required.

No other claims should be mixed up with the applications for the Medal in question, and in all cases where the parties have served in more than one ship in the Baltic between the dates before stated, the name of each ship must be stated.

Board of Trade, Whitehall, March 9, 1857.

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received information, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, that a Royal Decree has been issued by the Government of Spain, requiring all Masters of Vessels bound to ports in Spanish dominions, to present to the Spanish Consul at the port of departure a manifest in duplicate, exhibiting the marks, numbers, characters, and contents of packages, in order that they may be certified by the Consul, who will return to the Master one copy of the manifest.

Board of Trade, Whitehall, March 12, 1857.

In the Matter of the Joint Stock Companies' Winding-up Acts, 1848 and 1849, and of the Bituminous Shale Company.

BY direction of Sir John Stuart, Knt., the Vice-Chancellor of the High Court of Chancery to whose Court the matter of the winding up of this Company is attached, notice is hereby given, that the said Vice-Chancellor purposes, on Saturday the 21st day of March, 1857, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at his chambers, at No. 12, Old-square, Lincoln's-inn, in the county of Middlesex, to proceed to make a call on all the contributories of the said Company, and that the said Vice-Chancellor purposes that such call shall be for five pounds per share, and that in payment of the said call credit shall be given to each contributory for all sums of money (if any) which may have been paid or advanced by him or her in excess of fifty-five pounds per share.

All persons interested are entitled to attend at such day, hour, and place, to offer objections to such call.—Dated this 4th day of March, 1857.

In Chancery.

In the Matter of the Joint Stock Companies' Winding-up Acts, 1848 and 1849, and of the Security Mutual Life Assurance Society.

BY the direction of the Vice Chancellor, Sir Richard Torin Kindersley, the Judge to whose Court this matter is attached, notice is hereby given, that the said Judge will proceed, on Friday the 27th day of March instant, at one o'clock in the afternoon, at his Chambers, No. 3, Stone-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, to settle the list of contributories of this Society; and that after such list shall have been settled, no party affected thereby will be allowed to dispute the same without leave of the High Court of Chancery first obtained.—Dated this 10th day of March, 1857.

SALES OF PROVISIONS, &c., AT DEPTFORD AND PLYMOUTH POSTPONED.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling, Somerset-Place, March 10, 1857.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that the Sales of Army, Navy, Victualling, Medical, and Transport Stores advertized to take place in Her Majesty's Victualling Yard at Deptford on Tuesday the 17th March, and at Plymouth on Thursday the 19th March, 1857 respectively, are Postponed until further notice.

CONTRACT FOR WHEAT.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling, Somerset-House, March 9, 1857.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 19th instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores, at Deptford,

Wheat, 2,000 quarters; half to be delivered in ten days, and the remainder in ten days afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the wheat.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

A proportional part of the price per bushel of wheat will be paid for any weight exceeding 60lbs. per bushel.

Samples (not less than 2 quarts) must be produced by the parties tendering.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contract has been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office, or to Commander Bevis conducting the Packet

Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

The conditions of the revised contract, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at the said office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words "Tender for Wheat," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

Collieries in the Forest of Dean.

TO be sold by auction, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in the causes of Musket v. Cliffe and others, and Bailey and others v. Musket and others, with the approbation of Vice-Chancellor Sir John Stuart, the Judge to whose Court the said causes are attached, at the Bear Inn, in the county of Gloucester, by Mr. Charles Burton, the person appointed by the said Judge for that purpose, on Friday, the 17th day of April, 1857, at three o'clock:

Two undivided ninth-parts or shares of the collieries of the late Mr. David Musket, situate in the Forest of Dean, about one and a half miles from Coleford, and about six miles from Lydney, known as Bixslade, Howlerslade, and Old Furnace Collieries, galed to the Coleford High Delf Vein.

Together with two undivided ninth-parts of the plant and rolling stock belonging to the collieries.

Also two undivided ninth-parts of the freehold brickyard of the late Mr. Musket, about two miles from the collieries.

Also two undivided ninth-parts of a freehold cottage, with barn, stable, and four acres of land, at Lane-end, near Coleford, in the occupation of Thomas Bennett.

The three openings to the collieries, now in use, are connected with the Severn and Wye Railway. The Howlerslade and Old Furnace collieries adjoin the turnpike-road from Coleford to Newnham. The Bixslade colliery is about a mile from them.

The three collieries are and have been for a long time in work, and have produced above 85,000 tons of coal in the two years to Michaelmas, 1856. They are worked by a receiver, appointed by the Court of Chancery.

The unexhausted area of coal in the Bixslade and Howlerslade collieries was estimated by an engineer to have been 118 acres at the death of the late Mr. Musket in 1847, and the Old Furnace colliery 193 acres.

These collieries are held by Crown leases for terms of 500 years, at almost nominal rents, and galeages to the Crown of two pence per ton.

Particulars and conditions of sale to be had, in London, at the office of Messrs. J. and W. Meymout, Solicitors, No. 5, Albion-place, Blackfriars-bridge; Messrs.
